

My Ex-Wife and Kids Came In Like A Wrecking Ball Chapter 764

In the bedroom, Estie felt depressed for a while when she thought about Mean Auntie's expression when she first entered the house.

She really did not want to stay with Mean Auntie, but Daddy did not tell her exactly when he would drive her away.

Depressed for a long time, the little girl could not help but call Rosalie.

Fortunately, her call was quickly picked up on the other end.

"Estie, what's the matter?" As soon as Rosalie saw that it was Estie's call, her heart tightened for fear that the little girl had been bullied by Wendy again.

Hearing Rosalie's voice, the little girl felt more and more aggrieved. Her voice was muffled, "Auntie, will you come and pick me up?"

Rosalie frowned, her eyes full of worry. "What's the matter? Auntie Wendy was mean to you?"

Estie shook her head. "Daddy is here, so she won't dare."

Rosalie was relieved and concerned. "Then why do you want me to come pick you up now, darling?" 1

The child only got home with Byron not long ago. When she suddenly called again, Rosalie thought something bad had happened to the little girl.

However, it seemed that was not the case.

The little girl pouted. "Estie doesn't like Mean Auntie, but Mean Auntie keeps talking to Estie."

She wanted to avoid Mean Auntie.

Hearing this, Rosalie felt helpless for a while.

'I promised to help the little one talk to Byron, but his attitude just now... I don't know if he listened to a word I said...

in the end, I still didn't help the little girl...'

if I knew this was the case, I should've just bit the bullet and insisted the little girl to stay just now.

'Now, I would have no reason to go to pick the girl up.'

Rosalie regretted it for a while, then said softly to the little girl, "Estie, I can't pick you up. If you really don't like Auntie Wendy, just stay in your room and try not to be alone with her, okay?"

She was afraid that Wendy would bully the little girl if she was alone with her.

Unfortunately, from past experience, the little girl had been bullied before. Hearing this, she obediently agreed. "Alright, I will."

Rosalie breathed a sigh of relief and continued to comfort the little girl. "Daddy won't let Auntie Wendy stay with you for too long, so don't worry Estie."

When she mentioned this, Estie thought of the answer her daddy gave her just now and pouted in distrust.

Rosalie did not wait for Estie's reply because she knew that the little girl did not quite believe it. She had no choice but to find a way to divert the little girl's attention.

"I heard from the little brothers that your kindergarten taught you to make paper roses recently. Can you make a rose for me?" she asked softly.

When she heard that Auntie wanted a gift from her, the little girl agreed without hesitation. "Okay!"

'Not just one flower, I want to make a whole bunch for Auntie!'

Rosalie smiled softly, but there was still some worry on her face.

Just when she did not know what else to say, Lucian and Nox suddenly came downstairs and stared at her. "Mommy, are you talking to Little Estie on the phone?"

Rosalie nodded.

The two little boys immediately jumped up to get her cell phone. "We want to talk to Little Estie too!"

They wanted to ask if she managed to find out about anything.

Rosalie did not think much and said a few words to Estie, then handed the phone to the two little boys. She did not forget to instruct the boys, "Talk to her more."

The little boys agreed obediently, took the phone, and ran to a corner.
