

My Ex-Wife and Kids Came In Like A Wrecking Ball Chapter 788

Although her daddy did not answer her question directly, Estie was satisfied with his answer and nodded obediently.

Meanwhile, the two boys were also pestering Rosalie.

“Did Mister Byron annoy you, mommy?” Nox followed everywhere Rosalie went.

Rosalie finally answered helplessly after being followed for some time, “No.”

The little ones did not stop asking, “why did you ignore Mister Byron at dinner just now?”

They noticed the two adults had not spoken to each other during the meal.

The boys had been trying to create a topic, but they refused to cooperate.

The little ones noticed their mother was the one who refused to speak to Byron and seemed to ignore the word “Mister Byron”, which they kept mentioning throughout the meal. She seldom looked opposite her.

Hearing the little ones’ questions, Rosalie felt guilty.

She ignored Byron because she would recall what happened the night before if she looked at him. It made her feel embarrassed.

“Mommy didn’t sleep well last night. I’m a little tired, so...” After a while, Rosalie made an excuse.

Then, she turned around and went upstairs. “Mommy will go and take a rest first. You guys have fun playing.”

The little ones looked at their mommy’s back suspiciously.

They could see that their mother was lying. However, they knew their mommy had not rested well last night. So, the little ones chose not to bother their mommy.

When Rosalie was back in her room, she felt peaceful, she sighed because she had escaped the little ones’ pestering.

She had no idea why the little ones were so concerned about Byron and her relationship recently.

Rosalie would have doubted her kids had found out Byron was their father if it were not because they did not show any sign of knowing the truth. 1

As her mind wandered, her phone on the table rang.

Rosalie snapped out of her deep thought and glanced at the caller ID.

It was a call from Xander. So, Rosalie felt he must have called because of the project.

Rosalie answered the call right away.

"I hope I'm not bothering you," As soon as Rosalie answered, Xander's voice came from the other end of the call.

Rosalie reluctantly put away the thoughts in her mind and smiled. " No, I just came back to my room. Is there a problem with the project?"

Xander was unhappy to hear that. He lifted his eyebrows meaningfully and sounded displeased when he said, "Can't I call you because of something other than the project?"

The emotion in the man's tone was so obvious that Rosalie did not know how to answer him.

Xander spoke again from the other end of the call. His voice was calm again, as though the emotion he revealed just now was only Rosalie's imagination.

"However, your guess is right. Our project needs to cooperate with pharmaceutical companies. I have been inspecting the pharmaceutical companies in Coast city, and I think Heronial Corporation is not bad. After putting some effort into negotiating, I signed a contract with them, and they will guarantee our subsequent drug use."

Rosalie suppressed the strange feeling in her when Xander mentioned the project. She smiled and said, "That's great! Heronial Corporation is a big pharmaceutical company. We won't have to worry about the supply of the drug anymore. Thank you, Young Master Xander. You have solved the problem which has been troubling us."

It had been challenging for Rosalie to find supplies for the research institute because Wendy and Melody had been making things difficult for her.

So, Rosalie was sincerely happy when Xander told her he had solved the issue.
