

My Ex-Wife and Kids Came In Like A Wrecking Ball Chapter 808

At his best friend's words, Byron's brows furrowed tighter and tighter. He did not respond immediately.

Andrius did not wait for his answer and hurriedly urged his buddy. "Our project will be on the right track soon, and Heronial Corporation is a very important part. If we can't acquire Heronial Corporation, we can only settle for the next best thing."

His implication to Byron was even if Quirke Enterprise did not mind it, had Lawrence Corporation ever settled for anything that was second best?

With Lawrence Corporation's reputation in Coast city, they always got what they wanted, and other companies always rushed to cooperate with the Lawrence family.

This time, Heronial Corporation had the audacity to not only make repeated bargains with Lawrence Corporation but also called off the agreement at the last moment.

If it were another company, they would have already taught them a lesson.

Byron had not made a move at all this time. It looked like he was about to swallow this unfair loss.

Thinking of this, Andrius' eyes showed a glint of slickness. "Byron, what are you thinking about? Don't you wanna put them in their place? What's making you ponder and worry for so long? I heard..."

Before he could finish speaking, Byron interrupted. "Xander is the chosen heir of the Lancer family. He isn't a fool. Even you know that Heronial Corporation is the best choice. Why would he give up Heronial Corporation because of temporary interests?"

Andrius's voice stopped abruptly.

When he heard his buddy's words, he felt that something was wrong.

'What does he mean by 'even I know?

'Could it be that my own buddy actually feels that I'm inferior to Xander?'

Realizing this, Andrius was quite resentful. "So what if he knows? In fact, the largest pharmaceutical company in Coast City is Quirke Enterprise. If we hadn't participated in this project, the medicine supply matter would have been dealt with by Quirke Enterprise."

'If Xander was smart, he would've come to Quirke Enterprise to seek cooperation.'

Byron understood what his buddy meant and knew that Andrius was throwing a fit. He mercilessly exposed him. "It's because Xander is smart, so he didn't look for Quirke Enterprise. With the size of Lancer Corporation and Quirke Enterprise's net worth, if the Lancers come forth to the Quirkes to seek cooperation, Quirke Enterprise will devour the lion's share of the deal and they won't get a good bargain. However, if they offer Heronial Corporation an opportunity, they'll be eager to cooperate with Lancers and would have made great concessions in terms of interests."

Andrius calmed down slowly after he heard that. He thought of all the stupid things he just said and sighed in annoyance.

"Indeed, it's also for this reason that I prefer Heronial Corporation. Besides, Heronial Corporation has a big advantage over Quirke Enterprise."

Byron gave him a puzzled look.

Andrius explained unhurriedly, "Heronial Corporation not only dabbles in traditional medicine but also has a mastery in a lot of scientific research techniques in modern medicine. Our Quirke Enterprise is more devoted to traditional medicine. It seems that Lancer Corporation was also attracted to this and sought after Heronial Corporation."

'Since Heronial Corporation didn't even hesitate to violate the contract with Lawrence Corporation, I wonder what benefits the Lancer Corporation offered them?'

Byron also did his own investigation about the company, but he did not know that was the reason why Andrius chose Heronial Corporation.

From his best friend's words, he now realized the importance of acquiring Heronial Corporation and could not help but frown. "The deal between Heronial Corporation and Lancer Corporation is a foregone conclusion. Let's discuss the acquisition slowly."

Right now, it would be hard to find a good immediate solution for this matter.

Moreover, the biggest headache for him now was not this matter.
