

My Ex-Wife and Kids Came In Like A Wrecking Ball Chapter 829

“Wendy!”

Andrea was late, she quickly approached Wendy and sat opposite her.

After eavesdropping on Byron and Andrius’ conversation, Andrea returned to her room and contacted Wendy to meet her immediately. Unexpectedly, her brother returned and disrupted her plan, so she was late.

Wendy snapped out of her thoughts when she heard Andrea’s voice. She glanced at Andrea with dissatisfaction. “Why are you so late? Why did you ask me to come out and meet you?”

After questioning Andrea, Wendy took out a white handbag from behind her. “Here’s the handbag I promised you.”

Andrea’s eyes lit up in joy when she saw the handbag Wendy handed her. she smiled and took it. “Thankyou, Wendy!”

Wendy smiled and said, “Well, tell me. Why did you ask me to meet you here?”

Meanwhile, Andrea looked at Wendy’s phone curiously. “I saw you staring at your phone when I came over. Can you show me what you were looking at?”

Wendy lifted her eyebrow and pondered for a while. Then, she pushed the phone to Andrea. “Here you go.”

Andrea looked at the phone screen curiously and saw the intimate photos of Rosalie and Xander, she looked surprised. “Rosalie? Is she and Xander...”

The news about Rosalie went viral the last time. However, Andrea did not care enough to know the truth behind Rosalie and Xander’s relationship.

As far as she was concerned, it was enough if the news could destroy Rosalie’s life.

However, she did not expect there would be a turn in the situation.

When Andrea looked at the photos of Xander and Rosalie now, she wondered if Rosalie and Xander were dating.

According to the situation, Rosalie was supposed to be walking by Old Master Lancer’s side, not Xander’s.

However, she walked side by side with Xander, and Old Master Lancer did not express dissatisfaction.

Others might misunderstand that Old Master Lancer approved the relationship between Xander and Rosalie.

Wendy took back her phone in satisfaction when she saw the surprised look on Andrea's face. "It's just like you saw. I sent someone to follow Rosalie since Rosalie cooperated with the Lancer family. Unexpectedly, I got something out of it."

Andres was startled. "Since you have the photos of her having an intimate interaction with Xander, why don't you send them to Byron? Show him the true colors of this b*tch!"

Wendy sneered and said, "Calm down. I'm still thinking about how to show him the photos. After all, this will be a big surprise for him."

Andrea frowned and recalled why she had asked Wendy to meet her. "It's better to show him these as soon as possible. Byron came to look for my brother again, and I heard their conversation. They seemed to be talking about Rosalie!"

Wendy's mood sank, and she asked, "What did they talk about?"

Andrea frowned and recalled the details as she said with concern, "Byron wants to purchase Heronial Corporation. It seems that Rosalie is the technical consultant there. If they purchase the company, Byron will get to spend more time with that b*tch."

Then, Andrea glanced at Wendy's phone on the table and suggested, "Why don't you send Byron the photos now anonymously? Make him change his mind about the purchase."

Wendy's expression turned cold. "I'll send them to him, but I can't send them to him directly."
