

My Ex-Wife and Kids Came In Like A Wrecking Ball Chapter 839

Just when Rosalie was shocked by the news, she unconsciously clicked the refresh button.

Out of the corners of her eyes, there was a change on the screen. Rosalie subconsciously glanced down.

When she saw the time when the news was published, Rosalie was even more astonished. Byron flashed across her mind.

'The news came out just right after Heronial Corporation and Lancer Corporation successfully signed an agreement.

'Before the cooperation between Heronial Corporation and Lancer Corporation, Heronial's reputation has always been very good...

'Moreover, when Luther came to pick up Estie this evening, he also said that Byron was busy with work at night, but I don't know what he's busy with.

'Coincidentally, Heronial Corporation's news broke out this evening...'

She thought that the person behind the negative news surrounding Heronial Corporation could only be this man.

'Moreover, the timing of Heronial Corporation's scandal broke out after they signed the contract with Lancer Corporation.

'Before that, Heronial Corporation's partner was Lawrence Corporation!'

'With Lawrence Corporation's methods in Coast city, the partner who breaks the contract with them will not be let off easily.

'And...'

Rosalie suddenly thought of what the man said that night when he said he was going to attend the signing ceremony.

'He said he wouldn't let Heronial Corporation's signing with Lancer Corporation go smoothly.

'Judging from his attitude, it's clear that he won't let Heronial Corporation off just like that!

'Unexpectedly, he didn't manage to stop me in the end, so Heronial Corporation and Lancer Corporation signed the contract smoothly.

'Is this Byron's revenge on Heronial Corporation? Or is the competition between Lawrence Corporation and Lancer Corporation still going on?'

Rosalie ran a million questions through her head.

'I even thought that Byron did this because of me.

'After all, it's impossible for the man not to take offense about what happened this morning.

'If all this is really because of me and Heronial Corporation's reputation is damaged and the Lancer family is affected. I really don't know what to do to make up for Xander's loss...'

Then, Rosalie realized her train of thought and laughed at herself mockingly again.

'Didn't I see it clearly when I signed with Heronial Corporation before? The reason why this man is like this is only that I got too close to Xander and was implicated as well.'

Thinking of this, Rosalie pulled her lower lip bitterly. 'According to this, it should have been Xander who has troubled me, not the other way around.

'In this way, I don't have to blame myself so much...'

At the same time, in Lawrence Manor.

After Estie was taken home by Luther, she still remembered the little brothers' reminders.

She wanted to test Daddy's attitude to see if Daddy was still angry with Auntie.

'Speaking of which, this all started because of me. If Daddy is angry, I'll be responsible for coaxing Daddy and urging him to hurry up and get together with Auntie!'

However, until 10 o'clock in the evening, Daddy was nowhere to be seen.

The little girl was already a little sleepy, and after waiting for so long, she couldn't help but feel aggrieved. Her eyes were red.

"Little Lady, let's go up and rest." Mrs. Zora saw that the girl had been sitting in the living room for so long, she stepped forward with concern.

The little one pursed her mouth and shook her head sadly. "Daddy... II

She wanted to wait for Daddy to come back.

Hearing this, Mrs. Zora's face was distressed. "If Master doesn't come back by this time, he won't be able to come back until early in the morning. Let's go to bed first, when Master is home, he'll come to see you. If you have anything to tell him, you can still tell him tomorrow."

Estie shook her head stubbornly, her little hands gripping the sofa. Seeing this, Mrs. Zora just sighed and silently stood beside the little girl and watched over her.
