

My Ex-Wife and Kids Came In Like A Wrecking Ball Chapter 876

Arrived at the Institute.

Before Rosalie got out of the car, Rosalie saw Yves who was already waiting at the entrance of the institute.

Seeing this, Rosalie's eyes flashed with surprise.

Today was a weekend, so the institute should be on break today.

Yves was no exception.

As far as she knew, there was nothing worth working overtime in the institute. Although she had to move these medicinal materials and equipment, she did not notify Yves to come over.

'How could he be here?'

"Young Master Xander."

Yves greeted them respectfully when they got off the bus, but he greeted Xander first before looking at Rosalie. "Dr. Jacobs."

Rosalie felt an inexplicable feeling in her heart. It was a bit different, but she thought maybe she was overthinking this, she pursed her lips and smiled at Yves. "Hello, Dr. Graham."

Yves nodded to her.

"There's nothing wrong with the institute today, are you...?" Rosalie could not help but ask.

Yves glanced at the two of them, and his tone was a little disappointed. "If there is nothing wrong, why did Dr. Jacobs and Young Master Xander come here?"

Rosalie could not help but be stunned for a few seconds.

'I don't know if it was my illusion, but Yves's tone sounded as if I had abandoned him...'

For a while, Rosalie felt some inexplicable guilt.

"Sorry, I should have informed you, but I thought, I should be able to handle this on my own, so I don't want to trouble you."

Yves then smiled indifferently. "Just kidding, I just had some free time today and came to take a look, I didn't expect you to come."

After speaking, Yves calmly glanced at the man beside Rosalie.

Facing his gaze, Xander frowned slightly.

“Since we are here, is there anything I can help with?” Yves spoke directly.

Rosalie glanced at Xander, then turned around to Yves. “If it’s convenient, help US move the medicinal materials. With you here, I will be more at ease.”

Among all the staff members of the institute, she had worked together with Yves the longest.

Therefore, Yves was also the person she trusts most.

Yves agreed with a smile.

Soon, the three of them, along with Xander’s assistant, began to get busy.

“Is this the medicinal material of the Heronial Corporation?” Yves was concerned when carrying it.

When it comes to Heronial Corporation, Rosalie inevitably thought of Byron, and the changes in her expression was also visible to the naked eye.

On the side, Xander nodded noncommittally. “Fortunately, Ms.

Jacobs was very thoughtful in details. I took a look and should have brought up all the medicinal materials and equipment that we can use.”

Hearing this, Rosalie, absently pursed her lower lip. “That’s what I should do.”

Xander smiled tacitly.

Seeing how well the two of them got along, Yves’s eyes darkened, and a burst of jealousy surged uncontrollably in his heart.

“I don’t know how the Heronial Corporation will develop in the future.”

Yves suppressed the jealousy in his heart and continued to ask as if nothing had happened. “I remember that the Heronial Corporation was almost acquired by the Lawrence Corporation before, and now their only way out should be through the Lawrence Corporation, right? It’s just the current situation now, I don’t know if the Lawrence Corporation will be willing to buy Heronial Corporation.” 1

Rosalie felt another wave shake her heart.

‘If the Heronial Corporation is really acquired by the Lawrence Corporation, then it’s true, Byron is behind the Heronial Corporation’s scandalous situation...’ 2

The thought of this possibility made Rosalie feel a guilty conscience for no reason.
