

My Ex-Wife and Kids Came In Like A Wrecking Ball Chapter 967

“Madam is resting, wait a moment, I’ll inform her.”

In the living room, the housekeeper asked her to wait on the sofa and went upstairs to call Melody.

Wendy frowned slightly, and quickly said, “No need, I’ll go up by myself.”

Melody has always been fond of her, and the housekeeper knew it. Upon hearing this, he agreed after a moment of hesitation.

Wendy nodded at him, adjusted her expression, and went upstairs with a smile.

At the second-floor master bedroom. Melody had just woken up from a nap when she heard a knock at the door, and without thinking much, let the person in.

“Auntie. Did I disturb your rest?” Wendy smiled adorably.

When Melody saw it was her, she also smiled. “You came right on time; I just woke up.”

Wendy kicked into action and immediately walked up to her and linked arms with the elder lady. “I brought you a lot of gifts, I’ll take you down to have a look.”

“You silly child, just come here and see me. Why did you even need to bring gifts?” Melody rebuked Wendy for the extra effort.

Wendy pursed her lips and smiled. “It’s been a long time since I saw you!”

The two went downstairs while chatting.

The gifts that Wendy brought had been received by the housekeeper.

Melody did not plan to open it either, but just glanced at it and retracted her gaze.

When the two took their seats on the sofa, the butler brought them tea promptly.

Wendy picked up the teacup and took a sip, and her eyes twinkled as she suddenly thought of something.

‘I originally wanted to take you outside to relax. The scenery in the suburbs is beautiful recently. Many of my friends have gone out for a walk in the suburbs.’

Melody was intrigued by the idea and was about to say something, but Wendy spoke again.

‘However, I heard from them that, although the environment is good, as the weather turns hot, there are a lot of bacteria in the wild. Many people have been infected, and they have vomited and had diarrhea after returning.’

Melody gave up the idea of going out again. “Health is more important. We could still go out after this period.”

Wendy nodded in agreement.

After a while, as if she remembered something again, Wendy frowned a little unhappily.

Melody saw that she seemed to have something on her mind, and asked her inexplicably, "What are you thinking about?"

Wendy pretended to be surprised, "I just remembered, Estie also went to the suburbs with Miss Jacobs two days ago, so I don't know..... "

With that said, Wendy's voice stopped abruptly, and she carefully glanced at Melody's face.

Melody's face sank abruptly after she heard that her granddaughter was with Rosalie again.

Wendy's eyes flashed with satisfaction.

"How did you know they went out together?" Melody asked suddenly.

Wendy was well prepared for this question, "Since Estie disappeared last time, I was worried about her safety, so I sent someone to protect Estie when she went out."

When Melody heard that she was protecting her granddaughter, she put away her doubts and focused her attention on Rosalie.

'That Jacobs woman surnamed, I'd already warned her several times, but she still dared to get close to Estie!'

Wendy continued to add fuel to the fire. "Miss Jacobs must also want to take Estie out to have fun, but she didn't think about it carefully, what I'm worried about is..."

Wendy dramatically paused and did not say any more.

Melody frowned and asked, "What are you worried about?"

"That day, Estie also seemed to be infected with bacteria. I don't know how she is now."

Wendy's face was full of concern.
