My Ex-Wife and Kids Came In Like A Wrecking Ball Chapter 997

Chapter 997 Taken Away By Uncle Xander

One sleepless night.

The next morning, Rosalie got up early and thought about going to the research institute early.

According to the time they agreed, Xander will deliver the medicinal materials this morning.

'I must not keep Xander waiting.'

Even though Rosalie was sleepy, she simply freshened up and went downstairs.

Downstairs, the two little boys were already sitting at the dining table.

Their eyes were full of concern as they watched their Mommy come downstairs.

Rosalie took a seat beside the little ones, and as usual, kissed them on the face.

When she looked up, she found that the little ones seemed to have faint dark circles under their eyes.

Seeing this, Rosalie frowned. "You boys didn't sleep well last night?"

The little guys nodded with a guilty conscience.

Nox said sheepishly. "I had a nightmare, and brother didn't sleep well because I woke him from tossing and turning around."

Rosalie's mind was still in a mess. She did not think much about this obvious nonsense excuse, just frowned. "Next time, if you have a nightmare, come over to Mommy."

The boy nodded obediently again.

Rosalie did not say more and lowered her eyes to have breakfast.

She must eat quickly and go to the institute early.

Just as she put down her cutlery, the doorbell rang.

Rosalie was stunned for a moment, then got up and opened the door.

Rosalie could not help frowning at the person at the door. "Young Master Xander, why are you here?"

At this time, Xander should be preparing to transport the medicinal materials at the Lancer Corporation…

Xander smiled. "I didn't bother you, did you?"

Rosalie shook her head, still a little puzzled.

Xander said: "It's still early, I let my assistant handle the batch of medicinal materials, and I'm here to pick you up."

After speaking, he raised his eyes and glanced at the room, "At the same time, I'm here to visit the two little boys. Last time, you said they weren't feeling well, and I never came to visit, so I felt quite bad about that."

The next second, the two little ones ran out of the dining room, as if they heard the man.

'Mommy, is it Uncle Byron and little sister?" Their voices were full of anticipation.

Rosalie looked at the person in front of her, and then looked back at the little ones who were already beside her. She did not know how to answer.

She remembered that the little guys somewhat rejected Xander.

The little boys thought that it was Daddy and little sister coming, and when they saw the man at the door, the expressions on their faces were inevitably disappointed.

"Hello boys, long time no see." Evidently, Xander saw the disappointment on their faces, but he did not care.

The little boys came back to their senses and greeted him politely. "Hello, Uncle Xander."

In the end, Nox couldn't help it. "Is Uncle Xander taking Mommy to work?" Almost every time Uncle Xander appears, Mommy will go to work with him. Xander nodded coolly. "Nox is so smart, sorry, uncle has to borrow your mommy again."

Rosalie just happened to have already packed up.

Seeing that the little guys had guessed Xander's intention, she patted the little boys' heads and said softly, "Mommy is going to work now, Nanny Lisa will take you to school later."

After that, she nodded to Xander, indicating that they could leave.

The little guys were very reluctant.

Mommy and Daddy have not reconciled yet, and now Uncle Xander came to see Mommy again.

They were so afraid that Mommy would be taken away by Uncle Xander, and in the end, she did not want Daddy anymore…

Thinking of this, the little guys looked at Rosalie with accusations in their eyes.

Rosalie was helplessly by their gaze.

At the other end, Xander had already gotten in the car.

Rosalie simply crouched down and assured the little ones. "It's just work, don't worry, if Mommy finds you a daddy, I will seek your agreement first." Only then, the little ones reluctantly agreed.
