

Chapter: 11

Seeing Chase Lu's gaze, the middle-aged couple's expressions suddenly changed.

It wasn't the problem that Chase Lu couldn't fight his face.

What they are worried about now is what exactly Chase Lu is and how he will retaliate against them.

If Chase Lu is really a big figure in the Josh Group, it would be too simple to target them.

Even as long as he showed this idea a little bit, countless people who wanted to curry to Chase Lu immediately left them with nothing.

"I seem to remember that you two just said that if I can buy all the clothes here, one of you kneel down to apologize, the other to kneel down and lick your shoes." Chase Lu said with a smile.

The husband and wife trembled, and they would do whatever they were afraid of.

"Mr. Lu, yes, I'm sorry. We just had no eyes. Please let us go." The middle-aged man hurriedly apologized to Chase Lu and knelt down to apologize. It was really shameful.

"Mr. Lu, we know that we were wrong. We shouldn't grab clothes from your daughter. Please forgive us this time because of the bad influence on the child." The rich woman said with a pale face.

If she really knelt down and licked Chase Lu's shoes today, she wouldn't know how much it would affect her daughter's outlook on life.

Of course, if Chase Lu only had the money to buy the clothes in the entire store, the couple would certainly not be able to cash the bet. At most, they would be satirized by Chase Lu, and then go to another store to buy new clothes for their daughter.

Knowing that Chase Lu is likely to be a big figure in the Josh Group, they certainly did not dare to renege on it.

The Josh Group is the largest consortium in Jol City. The CEO of the Josh Group, John Lu, is highly valued on the Forbes Rich List.

Of course they dare not provoke such a big man.

Jeannie and others felt a little contemptuous when they saw that the middle-aged couple were so afraid of being like this.

Even if Chase Lu knew the boss of the commercial building, wouldn't it be possible that Chase Lu was so afraid of it?

But Jeannie was very curious when he arrived at this time. How could Chase Lu know a rich man like Bill Sin?

"You dare to grab something with our little princess? Who gave you the courage?" Bill Sin probably understood, and suddenly looked at them with an angry expression. www.Little princess!

Is this humble youth the prince of the Josh Group?

The two of them thought so, their faces changed again.

"President Xing, I'm sorry, we are all blamed for being blind, we don't know Mr. Lu's identity, we deserve to die!" The middle-aged man was crying with a face of fear.

He also started a small company with a small amount of money, but in front of a wealthy man like Bill Sin, he was nothing but a small shrimp.

And behind the criminal soldiers stood the Junyue Group.

"Go ahead, I hope I can teach you a lesson this time, don't look down on people with dog eyes next time." Chase Lu looked at the other's daughter, who was about the same size as his own. At this time, he was looking at his parents with ignorance.

Her mother's words touched Chase Lu a little. For such a cute little girl, Chase Lu really didn't want to slap her parents in the face and leave any bad influence on her young mind.

"Thank you Mr. Lu, thank you Mr. Xing!" Seeing that Chase Lu no longer cares, the two of them breathed a sigh of relief and hurriedly left with their daughter.

Seeing the couple leave, Jeannie's eyes towards Chase Lu suddenly changed.

She could feel that the couple was obviously afraid of Chase Lu.

She really couldn't understand how her trash brother-in-law could make the two become rich in fear.

Is it because he knows the boss of this commercial building?

He was only a small security guard before, so how could he know the boss of this commercial building?

Soon, the girls' outfits were packed, 20 sets of them.

The shopping guide who had offended Chase Lu hurriedly stepped forward to apologize to Chase Lu: "Sir, I'm sorry, I apologize to you for my bad attitude just now, I, I look down on people."

Chase Lu snorted coldly, looked at the shopping guide named Chang Yan, and said, "It's all on your head. Let me take it to my place in the afternoon."

"Thank you, Mr. Lu. Please leave the address. We will I'll arrange it for you as soon as possible." Chang Yan said excitedly.

With this single performance, she can also earn tens of thousands of commissions, of course she is excited.

After Chase Lu left the address, he took Cassie to the children's casino on the first floor to play.

Jeannie was full of doubts, and after bidding farewell to Hayes Hu and others, she caught up with Chase Lu and Cassie.

"Brother-in-law, how do you know Mr. Xing?" Jeannie's attitude changed a lot, and for the first time she smiled at Chase Lu.

"I don't know him, but he knows me." Chase Lu looked back at his sister-in-law and said calmly.

Jeannie rolled her eyes frantically when she heard that, and said to her heart that you wanted to tell me that the Xing always chased after you to flatter you?

Although she was a little bit self-righteous in her heart that despised Chase Lu, she would not say it at this time because she had other purposes.

"By the way, brother-in-law, I want to buy a piece of clothing, but it costs more than 20,000 yuan, which is too expensive. Can you borrow your supreme card for me to use it?" Jeannie just heard clearly, Bill Sin The Supreme Card given to Chase Lu can be used to buy anything in this mall for free.

"Take it." Chase Lu took out the Supreme Card to Jeannie. The shopping mall will check out everything with the Supreme Card at the end of the month, let alone 20,000, even Lin Yi Jia took it for 200,000 yuan and he didn't care. Who made the other party his sister-in-law.

"Thank you brother-in-law." Jeannie hurriedly took the Supreme Card, and then kissed Cassie on the cheek excitedly.

"Little Cassie, my aunt has also bought new clothes."

Seeing Jeannie's excitement, Chase Lu shook his head and left with Cassie.

After Jeannie bought the French imported brand clothing that she had fancy but couldn't afford before, she did not return the Supreme Card to Chase Lu, but took the card to her mother's company to find her mother.

"Mom, do you think my dress is pretty?" When Shell came out, Jeannie showed off her new dress with pride.

Shell looked up and down Jeannie's clothes, and asked in surprise: "This is Chanel imported from France. There are tens of thousands of pieces. Where did you get so much money?"

"It's free." Facing her mother Lin Yi said.

"It's free? Do you tease my old lady?" Shell was speechless.

"Because I have this." Jeannie magically took out the Supreme Card.

"What is this?" Shell looked at Supreme Card and asked curiously.

"The Supreme Card of Xintianze Commercial Building, with this card, you can buy anything for free throughout Xintianze." Jeannie explained.

Shell frowned, not believing her daughter's words.

Xintianze is one of the largest commercial buildings in Jol City. Although her daughter is already a senior, she is still only a student. Why does she have such a card?

"Actually, this is Chase Lu's. I don't know what kind of shit luck he had. I even knew President Xing of Xintianze Commercial Building. President Xing gave him this card today, and I took it for him." Jeannie explained again.

"Hmph, since that's the case, then you don't need to return this card to him. He is a waste, how can he be worthy of possessing such a supreme card?" Shell nodded, and immediately wanted to take this supreme card as his own.

"I think so too. Mom, let's go and do some more things." Jeannie said excitedly.

Shell nodded, and walked to the Xintianze Commercial Building with his daughter.

Chapter: 12

"It's dinner."

Chase Lu said to Jayne with the food.

He took Cassie out to play for a day today and ate outside with Cassie, but he came back in time to make dinner for Jayne.

"If I don't eat, I'm full when I see you." Jayne said very upset.

Chase Lu raised his eyebrows. During this period, he often quarreled with Jayne, and now he doesn't bother to quarrel with her anymore.

"Do you want me to feed you?" Chase Lu joked to ease Jayne's emotions.

"You should be able to feed women, Chase Lu, can you be like a man and be more productive?" Jayne looked at Chase Lu contemptuously.

"What's the matter?" Chase Lu frowned, feeling that Jayne should have encountered something unhappy, or she would generally not get angry for no reason.

"It's not because you offended Milne Fan. He asked me to talk to a client these days. If I can't get the order, he will deduct my monthly bonus." Jayne said angrily.

"Then the customer made things difficult for you?" Chase Lu asked.

"It's more than making things difficult. He also wants me to go to the hotel to open a room with him. He doesn't take a piss and takes pictures of himself. It looks like a pig. Do you think you can do whatever you want with a few money?" Thinking of the disgusting client, Jayne felt a chill.

"Who is he? I can help solve this business." Chase Lu said.

"You help me solve it?" Jayne looked at Chase Lu coldly, and said contemptuously, "You don't see what you can do, you think it's ok to beat him? Chase Lu, just go find a job by yourself It's the best help for me, and you'd better dispel your thoughts. If you let me lose this customer because of you, I can't spare you."

"Do you want to open a room with him?" Chase Lu sneered Tao.

"You!" Jayne pointed to Chase Lu angrily, and said coldly, "Chase Lu, if you all doubt me, we can get a divorce!" Jayne waved his hand angrily and went back to Cassie's room angrily .

Chase Lu shrugged, took the food away, and sat in the lobby watching TV.

The next day, after Chase Lu sent Cassie to kindergarten, he went to Duncan Electronics.

Since the acquisition of Duncan Electronics, he has not been to the company to take care of his daughter. He happened to have a look today and at the same time check who Jayne's customers are.

As soon as he entered the company's door, Chase Lu found several security guards pointing at him. Hearing what the security guards said, an anger sprang up in his heart.

"Didn't you hear that he has been fired? Why did you come again?"

"Expelled? You think too much."

"Ah, I remember Captain Yu said before that not only should he be fired, but he must even be paid. I can't get it."

"Yes, it was originally the authority granted by Director Fan. At the time, I thought this guy's life in the company was over, but who knew that at a critical time, Mr. Xia saved him and asked Director Fan to tell him I apologize, do you know why?"

"Why?"

"I heard that his wife Jayne and Xia always have a leg."

Chase Lu glanced at several security guards coldly, and the few whispering security guards shrugged and all left. opened.

It's just that when he left, the eyes that looked at Chase Lu were full of joking.

Chase Lu came to Joel Shawn's office with a bit of anger, and Joel Shawn hurriedly got up to greet him.

But seeing Chase Lu's unkind look on his face made his smile a bit stiff.

"Shao Lu, you are here." Joel Shawn said slyly.

Chase Lu walked to Joel Shawn's position and sat down on the chair. He took out a cigarette and asked in a mild manner, "Do you know that Jayne in the sales department is my wife?"

Joel Shawn ordered Nodded and said, "I only found out these days. Lu Shao, do you mean to promote your wife's position?"

Chase Lu leaned on the backrest and said lightly: "You can handle the promotion of her position, but don't make it too obvious. I am going to talk about another thing today."

Joel Shawn nodded, knowing After Jayne was Chase Lu's wife, he was thinking about this question, and he was also planning to find an opportunity to ask Chase Lu's meaning.

"Now the company is rumoring that you have an affair with my wife, do you know?" Chase Lu stared at Joel Shawn.

"Ah? Lu Shao, I only recently learned about Madam Young. I have never contacted Madam Young at all. I didn't even say a word to her. Shao Lu, please check it out!" Trembling, this is nothing but Ziwu Xu.

Over the years, he has raised a junior, but they are all women outside the company. He feels that someone wants to fuck him. www.

"I know this matter has nothing to do with you, but if you don't handle this matter to me, just get out of it." Chase Lu said in a deep voice.

"Don't worry, Shao Lu, I'll check it out. As long as I hear anyone talking, I will expel him." Joel Shawn sighed in relief and hurriedly promised.

"It's a fart to expel, and expelling can resolve the matter? Use your brain and think about how to return you innocence." Chase Lu pointed his head and said.

Joel Shawn was taken aback, and immediately understood that if the rumors were expelled, the incident could be suppressed within the company, but who can guarantee that the expelled employees will not spread it outside?

He already had a general idea in his mind, and even used legal means when necessary.

"Go down and slowly figure out how to solve this matter. Now show me the information of the customer Jayne is talking to." Chase Lu said after putting out the cigarette.

Joel Shawn nodded, and then notified the secretary to go to the sales manager.

Soon the secretary walked in with the customer information.

"Shao Lu, this is the information you want." The secretary respectfully placed a piece of information in front of Chase Lu, looking at Chase Lu's eyes faintly.

Who would have thought that it was originally just a small security guard of the company, but after a change, he became the company's largest shareholder.

Especially seeing the original boss Joel Shawn standing respectfully next to Chase Lu, the secretary felt an inexplicable awe of Chase Lu in his heart.

After Chase Lu checked the other party's information, he took out the phone and called John Lu.

For the idea of daring to beat his wife, John Lu had to give him a serious warning.

"Also, let the notification go on. This Friday, there will be a management meeting, and I will be there at that time." Chase Lu said after hanging up the phone.

"Okay, I'm going to inform now." Joel Shawn's secretary nodded, and went out to inform the managers.

After Chase Lu and Joel Shawn discussed the company's development direction with each other, they were about to leave.

When he passed Milne Fan's office, he saw Jayne and Milne Fan come out of the office together.

"What are you doing here? Follow me?" Suddenly seeing Chase Lu, Jayne couldn't help frowning, and a touch of anger suddenly rose in her heart, especially when she thought of Chase Lu suspecting her last night, she suddenly felt that Chase Lu was following her. .

Chapter: 13

When Milne Fan saw Chase Lu, a haze flashed in his eyes. The last time Joel Shawn forced him to apologize to Chase Lu, he has not forgotten.

"Of course I'm here to work. As for following you, you think too much about it." Chase Lu completely ignored Milne Fan's hazy eyes, and looked at Jayne speechlessly.

"Didn't you have resigned?" Jayne didn't believe Chase Lu at all, and had already determined that Chase Lu didn't believe her and followed her.

"Last time I only asked for leave." Chase Lu said lightly, too lazy to explain, because he knew that no matter how much he explained, Jayne would not believe him.

Just as Jayne was about to say something, the phone rang. The customer urged her to meet and talk. After she answered the phone, she hummed and said, "You'd better not follow me!"

She said and left first.

Chase Lu shrugged, he didn't have the leisure to follow Jayne.

"Boy, now that the company has been acquired, Mr. Xia is no longer the largest shareholder. After I gain the trust of the new shareholders, let's see how I clean up you." Seeing Chase Lu leaving, Milne Fan said strangely.

He already knew the news that the company was acquired by a mysterious person a few days ago. With his work ability, he believes that the new shareholders will be optimistic about him and even trust him.

As long as he becomes part of the new shareholder's side, he will no longer be afraid of Joel Shawn. At that time, he has to accept Chase Lu. Isn't it a matter of grasping?

Chase Lu looked back at Milne Fan when he heard the words, with a strange smile on his face.

"What are you laughing at?" Milne Fan said solemnly, what he couldn't understand the most was Chase Lu's pretentious look.

"I laugh at you as stupid." Chase Lu raised his eyebrows.

He is the new shareholder in Milne Fan's mouth. Milne Fan actually wants to flatter him to deal with him. This is not stupid.

"Huh, boy, don't be too premature. New shareholders will appear at the management meeting on Friday. Your good days will not be over for a few days. Also, do you know what the client your wife is going to meet now is? People? Tell you the truth. The client is a famous pervert in Jol City. If your wife doesn't open a house with him, he will never give this project to your wife. Just wait to be capped." Milne Fan teased Said.

"Then you are going to be disappointed. Let me tell you the truth. Not only did he dare not beat my wife, he had to ask my wife to sign the contract. If you don't believe me, just wait and see." Chase Lu smiled lightly, and then Just left the company.

John Lu came forward and couldn't manage a real estate company's manager, so he didn't need to be in Lujia.

Jayne, Jayne, don't you always believe that I am a rich second generation?

Now I will tell you with practical actions that I am not only the real rich second generation, but also the rich second generation that the entire Jol City business district must look up to.

Help you, but a phone call.

If one day you finally knew that I was behind helping you, what expression would you have?

Chase Lu thought it was a bit funny. Isn't he a bit perverted? That's his wife. Although she has been scorned by her recently, is it okay to hit his wife in the face like this?

He shook his head, stopped thinking, and left the company.

"I ask Jayne to sign the contract? Are you daydreaming?" Milne Fan sneered at Chase Lu's back. He knew how difficult the client was. He asked the other party to go to the major health care a few times, but he still hadn't won it. If you don't get some benefit from Jayne, how can you sign a contract with Jayne?

Milne Fan sneered and went to see the client.

At the Hilton High-end Western Restaurant, Liu Haishan has already drunk a lot of wine at this time, and his hands and feet have begun to be a little dishonest.

"Miss Lin, you just eat food and don't drink, do you look down on me?" Liu Haishan stretched out his hand to put his hand on Jayne's thigh. After being cleverly avoided by Jayne, his face suddenly became straightened.

"Manager Liu has misunderstood. I'm not feeling well these days and can't drink." Jayne hurriedly laughed, but she was contemptuous in her heart.

Although she had only met Liu Haishan for the second time, she had already figured out what kind of virtue Liu Haishan was. She wanted to do something with her, but there was no way.

And she dared to meet Liu Haishan today, and she also prepared a killer trick. She could delay the payment of one day or one day and still have half a month to pay the salary. If it is delayed until the pay, she is not afraid that Milne Fan will deduct her bonus.

"Miss Lin, in that case, then I think we have nothing to talk about."

Liu Haishan threatened: "You have to know that although Jol City only produces electronic cat eyes from Duncan Electronics, the quality is not comparable to other provinces. Yes, to tell you, Chuandu Dali Electronics is also discussing this business with us. The prices of both of you are similar, and the products of other Dali Electronics are better than yours. There is no benefit. Why should I buy you? The product?"

He said this is Chiguoguo's purpose.

Although he has read countless women, when did he see Jayne, who are all first-class beauties, from the first sight of Jayne, he has been itchy and unbearable, and today he insists on getting Jayne. .

Jayne frowned and hesitated looking at the wine glass on the wine table.

She didn't expect Liu Haishan to be so difficult.

Seeing Jayne's hesitation, Liu Haishan narrowed his eyes slightly, and glanced at Jayne. Everywhere was full of the charm of a mature woman, like a ripe peach, fresh and tender.

Itchy.

"Ms. Lin, I know this business is very important to you. You can sign the contract if you want me. You just have to go to the upper room and have a good chat with me today, and I will sign afterwards." Liu Haishan said while the iron was hot.

As he said, he stretched out his hand to Jayne's white and elastic thighs again.

In his opinion, the time is almost ripe, and he believes that Jayne will definitely not refuse this time.

Snapped!

Jayne reacted and slapped Liu Haishan's face with a slap.

"You're a damn girl who hasn't seen a woman. Who are you as an old lady? Give this business to whoever you like, and I don't want it!"

Although Jayne needs this business very much, she is also a principled woman.

Especially now that my daughter has fully recovered from her illness, she will not sell her soul for money.

If she were such a woman, she would not marry the pauper Chase Lu despite the opposition of her family.

"Smelly bitch, do you dare to hit me?" Liu Haishan slapped him and stood up to fight back.

But at this moment, the phone he placed on the desk suddenly rang. Seeing that it was the call from the company boss, he immediately suppressed his anger and answered the sound.

"President Wang." Liu Haishan calmed down and spoke first.

"Are you talking to a woman named Jayne about the electronic peephole project in Sanmu Community?" Mr. Wang's unhappy voice came over the phone.

"Yes." Liu Haishan nodded, with some doubts in his heart. The boss personally asked about this matter, and he felt that the matter seemed a bit difficult.

"Are you deliberately making things difficult for others?" Wang Zong asked again.

"Huh?" Liu Haishan's heart jumped. Does that stinky bitch still know Mr. Wang?

"Do you fucking know who is behind the other party? Just now, John Lu, the chairman of the Josh Group, called me personally and asked me to give him an explanation. Liu Haishan, I warn you, if you don't give me this matter right away Take care of it, you don't have to fuck in Jol City!" Mr. Wang roared furiously, and hung up the phone with a snap.

Liu Haishan's heart trembled, and when he recovered, Jayne had already opened the private room door and went out.

"Miss Lin, please stay!"

Without saying a word, Liu Haishan hurriedly chased it out.

Chapter: 14

Liu Haishan is really anxious.

He could hear that Wang was always really angry. If this matter doesn't work out, he completely believes in Mr. Wang's words, and he can't get along in Jol City.

With President Wang's power, dealing with a small role like him is really only a matter of minutes.

It's just that he didn't think about it clearly. Why did Jayne have a relationship like John Lu's, go to a small company to be a volunteer?

But although he was full of doubts, he did not dare to doubt Mr. Wang's words.

"Miss Lin, please wait!" Liu Haishan quickly chased out of the private room and caught up with Jayne.

"What do you want to do?" Jayne looked at Liu Haishan defensively. When she left the private room, she was not afraid that Liu Haishan would dare to treat her. It's time to move.

"Miss Lin, I'm really sorry. I just made a mess. I don't know your identity. Please forgive me once. I will sign a contract with you immediately." Liu Haishan nodded and smiled bitterly. A grandson makes no difference.

"Huh?" Jayne didn't react at all, wondering what trick Liu Haishan wanted to play.

"Well, the price is based on the original price you quoted. If you don't believe it, we will find a deck in the lobby and sign the contract first." Seeing Jayne didn't believe him, Liu Haishan was anxious, but Mr. Wang dropped Death order, immediately deal with this matter, he dare not delay.

"Mr. Liu, are you serious?" Jayne was a little stunned, looking at Liu Haishan in confusion, wouldn't the slap just slap him stupid.

"Miss Lin, do you think I'm joking? To tell you the truth, the call just now was made by our manager Wang and said that we must give you this business. Miss Lin, why didn't you say that you know a big man? If you said it earlier, these things would be fine." Liu Haishan smiled bitterly.

"I know a big man? You President Wang? I don't know him." Jayne was also confused. If she really knew a big man, she wouldn't be so bad.

"It's not Mr. Wang, even Mr. Wang must be a big man who must give others face." Liu Haishan said, pointing his thumb to the ceiling, meaning that the other party was the richest man in Jol City, but it was a pity that Jayne didn't understand what he meant.

But it doesn't matter if Jayne doesn't understand, the key is that Jayne finally nodded and was willing to sign a contract with him.

After signing the contract, Jayne hasn't recovered yet.

This is a big business, which Milne Fan has not won after more than a month.

After signing this business, not only did Milne Fan have no reason to deduct her more than 10,000 bonus, she could also get a commission of 60,000 to 70,000.

It's just that she really can't figure out who helped her behind.

It must be impossible for Milne Fan. How can he help himself if he can't handle the business himself? If he had this ability, he would have eaten up the business himself.

Who can it be?

Jayne thought hard for a long time, but she couldn't think of who was helping herself behind her back. From the beginning to the end, she never thought that Chase Lu helped her.

"Forget it, when you have a chance to know who the other party is, let's thank them again."

Jayne couldn't guess who it was, and returned to the company excitedly.

After Jayne signed the contract and left, Liu Haishan finally let out a long sigh of relief. Can't wait to call Mr. Wang to report the situation.

After being taught another lesson by Mr. Wang, Mr. Wang hung up.

Liu Haishan thought for a while, then dialed Milne Fan's number.

"Milne Fan, did you fucking deliberately calculate me?" Thinking of what happened before, Liu Haishan's anger fell on Milne Fan.

Before, Milne Fan had an anger with him and said that he would let a salesman he was satisfied with to talk to him. The beauty is here, and she is still a stunning woman he rarely sees.

But it was a woman who didn't even dare to mess with their boss. This is not to calculate what he is.

"Ah? Why did Manager Liu say this?" Milne Fan was a little confused and didn't know what Liu Haishan was talking about.

"Milne Fan, we know people who don't talk secretly, what is the origin of Jayne? Why does the richest man Lu want to speak for her?" Liu Haishan asked in a deep voice.

"No background, just an ordinary salesperson. As for the richest man Lu, she probably hasn't even seen the richest man Lu." Milne Fan said puzzledly.

"Milne Fan, I'm fucking fucking with you. At this time, you are still pretending to be a fool. If she has nothing to do with the richest man Lu, the richest man Lu will personally call us President Wang? Milne Fan, I warn you, you As a result, I was almost fired by Mr. Wang. Don't even think about getting the business from our company in the future!" Liu Haishan said angrily and hung up the phone. www.

Milne Fan on the other side is still confused.

Jayne and the richest man Lu know each other?

The richest man Lu called Mr. Wang in person to say this?

He couldn't believe it was true.

No matter what he thought, he couldn't think of a reasonable explanation.

Because he felt that he knew Jayne too much.

Suddenly thinking of what Chase Lu said before, Milne Fan's face became a little embarrassed.

Could it be that Chase Lu used some means to help?

What a shit, Chase Lu's richest man must have been posing as Chase Lu.

Liu Haishan, Liu Haishan, you're such a fucking idiot. You don't know if you were tricked by others. I really doubt how you got into the position of Greentown Real Estate Project Manager.

Milne Fan shook his head, a touch of contempt in his eyes.

The news that Jayne took over the business of Greentown Real Estate spread in the company.

Especially the sales department, many people can't believe it.

That's a big business that sales director Milne Fan hasn't won after more than a month.

The achievement of this business alone is 60,000 to 70,000, no matter who wins, it will be enough for a few months.

"Yijun, you are really amazing. Director Fan has not won the business for nearly two months, but you won it in two days. It seems that being beautiful is an advantage." If a male salesperson has something to do with it. Refers to the boast.

"Yes, so beautiful women in this industry are inherently stronger than men." Another male salesperson also said strangely.

"What do you mean? I signed this business according to my own ability. If you have the ability, you should sign it too?" Of course, Jayne could hear the meaning of the two people's words, and immediately became angry.

"That's right, as long as we can sign the contract, even if we accompany others to bed, it is our woman's ability. If you want business, you can also accompany you to sleep." Another female salesperson also sneered.

Although she said this to two male salesmen, everyone could hear that she was mocking Jayne.

Jayne vomited blood out of anger, and became angry on the spot.

At this moment, General Secretary Xia came to the sales department with a stack of documents, and gave one copy to Milne Fan and another copy to Jayne.

"Ms. Lin, congratulations. After the company's research and decision, your business ability is far superior to others. Now you are appointed as the head of the sales department. By the way, President Xia also said that he hopes you will continue to work hard to bring more business orders to the company"

The secretary said with a smile.

"Huh?" Jayne was shocked, and hurriedly looked at the appointment book in her hand, and then she was completely stunned.

The others were also stunned.

Chapter: 15

When Jayne was appointed as the head of the sales department, Milne Fan was the first person to feel incredible.

Although he once suspected that Jayne and Joel Shawn had an affair, he never thought that Joel Shawn would dare to promote Jayne's position so blatantly.

Because Jayne in the sales department is far from enough to promote the supervisor, whether it is business ability or seniority, even if she is lucky and signed the big deal of Greentown Real Estate, it will not meet the requirements for promotion.

"Joel Shawn has already suspected that I will betray him. Do you want to arrange a cron to guard me before the new shareholder takes office?" Milne Fan looked at Jayne, who was still confused, his eyes narrowed slightly.

"No, I can't let Jayne, a bitch, stand up prestige. I have to create some trouble for her so that the salesmen below can see the truth about her lack of business ability." Milne Fan narrowed his eyes and already figured out how to deal with it. Jayne is now. www.

"Everyone, meeting in the meeting room." Milne Fan raised his voice and said, before walking to the meeting room.

Obviously everyone hadn't recovered yet, and few people understood Milne Fan's words, and they all looked at Milne Fan blankly.

Especially the two men and one woman Jayne just said satirically. They are much stronger than Jayne in terms of business ability and company qualifications. However, Jayne's sudden promotion to the position of supervisor made them very unwilling and looked at Jayne's eyes. All with a trace of resentment.

"I said everyone was in the meeting, didn't you hear it?" Milne Fan was a little annoyed when no one was moving, and said with a louder voice.

Now everyone understood, and they followed to the meeting room.

Jayne was still a little caught off guard.

She never thought about promoting her position.

Since she came to the company, she just wants to hold the guarantee, and at the same time, she can talk about the amount of business orders every month and improve her achievements.

But she was suddenly promoted as the supervisor. She knew it was mainly because she had won the Greentown real estate project that even Milne Fan hadn't won.

Seeing Milne Fan was about to hold a meeting, she forcibly suppressed the excitement in her heart and followed to the meeting room.

I was still thinking about who helped her behind and let her win the Greentown real estate project.

"Congratulations to Jayne for being promoted to supervisor. No one in the sales department has been promoted to the position of supervisor for more than a year. Yijun's ability to get out of many salesmen shows that her strength is still very strong. Congratulations to Jayne." , Milne Fan looked at Jayne with a smile and applauded.

Everyone was applauding, but their faces were unconvinced.

Especially the three old salesmen Wang Wu, Cui Hao and Igne Liu. When Jayne took down the business of Greentown Real Estate before, they satirized Jayne in the first place. At this time, their eyes flashed with extremely jealous cold light.

"Thank you, I'm just lucky, and I hope you can help me in the future." Jayne stood up flattered and replied to everyone.

It's just that her politeness is low-key, which is even more pretentious in the eyes of some people.

"Now that we are talking about business, the Maanshan Mountain View Longhu Villa District project has come out. This is a large project of tens of millions. As long as we talk about it, the company's reputation can be raised to a higher level. The person in charge of this project is definitely the company's greatest contributor. Milne Fan looked at the salesmen below the stage and said calmly.

Jinglong Lake Villa Project?

Everyone was a little surprised.

This project has actually been out for a few days, and as salesmen, they certainly have understood it.

Jinglong Lake Villa Area is a high-end villa area developed by Junyue Group. The minimum price of a villa is more than 50 million yuan, and the top area is more than 100 million yuan. All anti-theft equipment is said to be imported.

Although their Dongjia electronic products are leading the way in Jol City, they can't enter the eyes of the Josh Group at all. This is impossible to talk about.

Of course, even if domestic products are used in those areas where the price is relatively low, Josh Group certainly believes more in electronic equipment from other provinces.

So as soon as Milne Fan spoke, everyone remained silent.

Because everyone knows that there is no possibility of getting this project, and they can only waste their own time.

"Director Lin, would you like to follow this project?" Seeing that everyone remained silent, Milne Fan showed a smile at the corner of his mouth and looked at Jayne.

"Director, I..." Of course, Jayne also knows that the possibility of this project's success is very, very small, almost impossible.

She has just been promoted to a supervisor, and of course she does not want to waste a lot of time on a project that has no chance at all.

"The so-called capable people work harder. Besides, you have just been promoted to supervisor, so you can set an example for everyone, right?" Milne Fanwei smiled.

"Yes, Director Lin, didn't everyone think that the Greentown project was impossible before, but you won it as soon as you start. As long as you start this project, you will definitely succeed."

"That is, Director Lin, the company believes you. To promote you to a supervisor, you have to believe in yourself."

Seeing everyone persuading Jayne, Milne Fan's eyes showed a triumphant smile, which was exactly what he wanted to see.

He coughed and said with a serious face: "Yijun, although you have been promoted to supervisor, there are not many people who convince you. This is an opportunity for you to perform and also an opportunity for more people to trust you. I want to make others doubt your ability as a supervisor, right."

Milne Fan's face was serious, but he was sneer in his heart:

Little bitch, you and your husband are the same waste, what do you fight with me?

This project is just to start a flavour, so I will pit you first, and wait for Lao Tzu to climb the tree of the new shareholder, and even your husband will take care of it.

"Okay, I'll write a project plan first." Jayne sighed in her heart. She knew that she was promoted to supervisor. This was Milne Fan deliberately gave her off the horse, so that while she was spending energy on this project, she also became The joke of the entire sales department.

She knew that once the project ended, she would definitely be ridiculed and questioned by everyone.

Because this is simply not a project that Duncan Electronics can eat.

Seeing Jayne taking over this impossible project, everyone had a playful smile in their eyes, and they were all waiting to see Jayne's joke.

Suddenly being promoted to supervisor, Jayne should have been a happy day, but she was not happy at all.

Throughout the afternoon, she seemed to be carefully planning the project plan, but in fact she had a lot of things in her mind.

She felt that Milne Fan had targeted her so much because Chase Lu had offended Milne Fan last time, and that Milne Fan was still worried.

Thinking about this, she was inexplicably angry at Chase Lu.

"Director Lin, you are now a member of the company's management, and you are already eligible to participate in the first management meeting held by new shareholders. Don't be late." Milne Fan kindly reminded Jayne before get off work.

"Well, it's ten o'clock tomorrow morning, right." Jayne suppressed the excitement and nodded.

Although Milne Fan used the project of Jinglong Lake Villa District to cheat her, she also looked forward to who the new shareholder would be.

"Yes." Milne Fan nodded, before turning to leave the office, a sneer appeared in his eyes.

Little bitch, let you see my abilities tomorrow. When I climb the thigh of the new shareholder, Joel Shawn dare not despise me.

Milne Fan has absolute confidence in this.

Because a large part of the company's customers are in his hands, unless new shareholders do not want to make money, they will reuse him.

Chapter: 16

The Friday that Duncan Electronics owners are looking forward to finally arrives. The new shareholders who acquired the company today will meet with all the company's managers and hold meetings for everyone, which makes all employees a little excited and curious.

In these days of waiting, the employees of Duncan Electronics have already called the spirit of the new shareholders.

Some say that the new shareholder is a big local tyrant.

Some say that they are the top merchants in Jol City.

What's more, it is said that the new shareholder is the rich second generation of the capital of the capital, in order to train themselves, specially came to Jol City to buy their company.

Of course, female employees are most likely to say this, especially female employees who are prone to idiots.

What kind of person is the new shareholder?

In the entire company, apart from Joel Shawn and his secretary, nobody really knew about it.

With one hour left before the start of the management meeting, Milne Fan had already dressed himself up, and his whole person looked very energetic, just like a twenty-seven-year-old young man.

In order to prevent Jayne from having a chance to replace herself.

In order to be able to comfort Chase Lu in front of Joel Shawn.

He must give the new shareholders a good impression today.

He wants to get the approval of the new shareholders as soon as possible, and firmly cling to the thigh of the new shareholders.

"Director Lin, the time is almost up, the new shareholders should be here too, let's go." Milne Fan glanced at Jayne who was not far away, with a touch of joke in his eyes.

"Okay." Jayne nodded, put away the project plan for the Jinglong Lake villa area just finished, and walked to the company meeting room with Milne Fan.

For the new shareholder, she was also full of curiosity. She also hoped to get in touch with the new shareholder and proposed to him this meaningless project task given to her by Milne Fan.

As soon as they walked out of the office, they saw Chase Lu lazily coming out of the elevator.

Jayne saw Chase Lu appear again at the company, and already believed that he was still working as a security guard for the company.

But now she has been promoted to the supervisor, and the management meeting is about to be held again, and she doesn't bother to take care of Chase Lu, glanced at Chase Lu lightly, and walked past him.

Milne Fan stayed on purpose.

He can still remember the last time he was knocked to the ground by Chase Lu in the hospital. The last time he was forced to apologize to Chase Lu by Joel Shawn in public is still fresh in his memory. After today, he has a great opportunity. Revenge for this shame.

"Something?" Chase Lu raised his eyebrows and asked when he saw Milne Fan stand in front of him.

"Boy, what garlic do you put in front of me?" Milne Fan said gloomily.

Chase Lu shrugged. He knew what Milne Fan wanted to do to block him, but he hadn't used a small character like Milne Fan as an opponent, and of course he was not interested in taking care of him.

"Do you know what day it is today?" Milne Fan looked at Chase Lu with a sneer.

"What day?" Chase Lu asked curiously.

"The day when the new shareholder took office, the new shareholder took office means that Joel Shawn is no longer the executor of the company. Without Joel Shawn's protection, I really want to know who will be your umbrella in the future." Milne Fandao.

"Oh, what then?" Chase Lu looked at Milne Fan jokingly, but he didn't expect his brain to be so novel.

"Then of course it's time for Lao Tzu to retaliate against you. Do you think that any rubbish thing can make Lao Tzu apologize in public? Especially for rubbish things like you, who accepted my apology in the first place, will bear my next revenge." Milne Fan said gloomily.

Chase Lu glanced at Milne Fan like an idiot, then stretched out his hand to push Milne Fan away, and walked past him lazily.

"Boy, even if Joel Shawn can protect you, as long as I climb the new shareholder tree, I can easily play you to death!" Milne Fan really couldn't stand Chase Lu's defiant appearance, and said angrily.

Chase Lu was startled when he heard Milne Fan's words, then turned to look at Milne Fan.

Then he smiled.

He felt that this should be the funniest joke he had ever heard.

Milne Fan actually wants to climb up his new shareholder to deal with him, this, let him say something.

"Oh, then I wish you can hug the thighs of the new shareholders." Chase Lu smiled and could only say so.

"Chase Lu, since you have come to the company, why don't you report to the Security Department?" At this moment, the head of the Security Department Hale Yuhai came for a meeting and suddenly saw Chase Lu, he started to drink in a deep voice.

Chase Lu's position is still a security guard. Although he acquired 70% of the company's shares, he did not transfer his position. His name is still in the security department.

The main reason is that he has never taken care of it at all.

"Why, want to fire me again?" Chase Lu raised his eyebrows.

"Boy, don't be mad. At the management meeting, I must raise this matter in front of the new shareholders." Hale Yu snorted and threatened.

"Okay, I'll give you a chance." Chase Lu said in a serious manner.

"Huh, let's wait and see." Hale Yu's face was gloomy, obviously not understanding the meaning of Chase Lu's words, and then walked to the conference room with Milne Fan angrily.

"Director Fan, you said for a while that Chase Lu ignored the company's rules before the new shareholders. Will Xia always ask us to settle accounts after the fall? It's a bit like putting him in front of the new shareholders." Hale Yu was a little worried. Said.

Even if Joel Shawn retreated to the second line, he was also one of the company's shareholders. It was too easy to get him.

"No, and in order to distinguish between him and Chase Lu, he will firmly support you." Milne Fan said, shaking his head.

Milne Fan's words made Hale Yu relieved. He suddenly thought of something and said: "By the way, President Xia seemed to be investigating who was telling him about Lin Yiyun yesterday. In case he finds out that the news is sent from us. Yes, he will definitely fire us."

Milne Fan frowned when he heard this. They were just guessing before, and there was no evidence. If Joel Shawn accused them of spreading rumors and slander, they would really have no move.

"This matter is a bit tricky, so let's try to collect evidence that the two of them have one leg. I will try my best to climb into the new shareholders. At that time, even if Joel Shawn finds out on us, it will be based on the number of my clients in the company. , The new shareholders will certainly not give up on me, as long as I remain in this position, I can keep you." Milne Fan said confidently.

Hale Yu nodded, but he was also a little confused. Who knew that his joke at the beginning turned into this situation.

The two walked into the conference room, and the managers of all departments were almost there.

There are still more than 20 minutes to leave the meeting. While everyone is waiting for the new shareholders to appear, they are also wondering who the new shareholders are.

Milne Fan and Hale Yu sat down in their respective positions, faintly looking forward to them.

"Director Fan, do you know who the new shareholder is?" asked a female administrator next to Milne Fan.

"The new shareholder must be someone from a certain big company, or the son of a big consortium." Milne Fan rushed to say before he answered.

"I didn't ask you, you are not qualified to know more inside information." The female manager said mercilessly.

The male manager smiled and didn't care, looking at Milne Fan expectantly.

Although Milne Fan's position in the company is equivalent to a department manager, he has a lot of customer resources. Joel Shawn has always valued him, and he and Joel Shawn are also close.

So these managers think he might know the inside story.

"New shareholders, you will know in a while." Milne Fanmo said profoundly.

The female manager rolled her eyes, but the male manager felt disdainful.

He felt that Milne Fan definitely didn't know the situation.

Or the new shareholders are coming in ten minutes or so, there is nothing to hide.

"I heard that the new shareholders accounted for 70% of the shares. It seems that Xia always has to give up the chairmanship today." The female manager said.

"Aren't you nonsense? How can he hold a management meeting if he doesn't want to be chairman." The male manager smiled.

"Chen Jun, you are going to have trouble with me, right?" The female manager stared at the male manager, very upset.

"Oh, your own words are full of loopholes, how can you blame me for running into you." The male manager named Chen Jun laughed.

"You should be quiet. When the new shareholder comes to see what it looks like? When the new shareholder takes office on the first day, let him see how loose our management team looks. What will he think?" Milne Fan wrinkled Said.

He also has to do a good job in front of the new shareholders, seeing his colleagues playing so much, even he can't stand it anymore.

Neither of them had the position of Milne Fangao. Milne Fan spoke. Although they felt a little unhappy, they still calmed down.

Then everyone quietly waited for the arrival of new shareholders.

"Here, here comes." Suddenly a manager sitting by the door said.

After hearing this, everyone looked at the door of the conference room.

I saw Joel Shawn walking in with a young man.

Chapter: 17

Seeing Joel Shawn walking into the meeting room with the new shareholders, all managers held their breath.

There was a wry smile in his heart.

This new shareholder is too good at playing.

Black hat, wide-brimmed sunglasses, and a black mask.

Isn't this a celebrity meeting?

However, although this new shareholder is a little bit fancy, everyone can see that this is a very young new shareholder.

Many people have basically determined that the new shareholder is definitely the son of a big consortium.

Otherwise, it is impossible to acquire the strength of their company so young.

In fact, Chase Lu's dressing up was decided temporarily after hearing Milne Fan's words before.

Although he didn't regard Milne Fan as his opponent, Milne Fan actually wanted to climb his tree to deal with him, so he gave Milne Fan this opportunity.

He wanted to see what Milne Fan would look like when he knew the truth.

That must be wonderful.

Chase Lu glanced over the management, and when he passed Jayne, he quickly skipped it.

Although he was wearing sunglasses, he didn't know why, but he faintly felt that Jayne looked at him with some doubts.

Can Jayne not be confused?

She has been in love with Chase Lu for three years and married for four years. What has been familiar to her can no longer be familiar.

Although he couldn't see Chase Lu's face clearly, his body shape was exactly the same.

Will it be him?

This thought suddenly popped up in his mind, and Jayne was shocked.

How could it be Chase Lu.

She shook her head and quickly suppressed the absurd and funny thoughts in her heart.

"Do you know why I want this outfit?" Chase Lu and Joel Shawn spoke first after sitting down.

Of course, he deliberately suppressed his voice, so his voice sounded a little hoarse, even Jayne couldn't hear it.

Everyone shook their heads curiously.

Chase Lu smiled slightly and continued: "Because my name is Lu Tu, and I am a bit dirty."

Everyone laughed kindly, saying that the new shareholders are quite humorous.

"The reason why I am holding this meeting for everyone today is because the company's business doesn't seem to be very good during this period. I specially came to cheer everyone up.

I didn't know how Xia always planned before, but now I am a major shareholder of the company. Of course, I have my own plan.

I will not disclose the specifics, but I can let everyone know that my short-term goal is to make Duncan Electronics break out of Jol City and become one of the best-known electronics companies in the country.

Long-term goals . . . Of course, we have to go abroad.

So in the future, our company will have great changes, and we will open a number of branches one after another, which means that more managers have opportunities for promotion. I will To give each of you a platform to show your talents, the premise is that you have the confidence to return me a future." After Chase Lu finished speaking, everyone applauded excitedly.

Chase Lu said that he would give them a platform to give Chase Lu a future, so why not take this opportunity to give him a future.

The new shareholders are really bold. I don't know where he is sacred.

Even Joel Shawn was a little excited.

Although Chase Lu had told him about these things, he was still a little excited when he fantasized about this blueprint for the future again.

If the blueprint planned by Chase Lu is truly realized, then his earnings can be countless times more than the earnings he earned by running the company himself.

Of course, as the scale of the corresponding company becomes larger, his status will also increase.

"I have said so much, maybe everyone thinks it is empty talk, so now I will give you some practical things. From next month, the basic salary of each administrator will be increased by one thousand, and ordinary employees will be increased by five hundred. , The year-end bonus has increased by 30% compared to the past.

For the sales department, the commission for salespersons increased by 1%, the supervisor increased by 2%, and the director increased by 3%. Of course, to get this commission, every salesperson and even your business department Each month's business volume of the two administrators must reach a base, which will be sorted out by Mr. Xia in the next few days.

In short, your business volume is also a performance appraisal. If you have an excellent performance appraisal, score points. When the company has a chance to be reused, I hope that Director Fan and Director Lin will not let me and Mr. Xia down.”

Chase Lu said and looked at Jayne and Milne Fan. Both of them nodded excitedly. There was a firm belief in both faces.

Other managers were also excited about it.

Chase Lu was right. He said so much before. It sounds very exciting, but it feels like drawing a big pie. What employees call most is the current salary.

As a result, many managers sent out the news in their department groups.

As soon as I saw that the new shareholders would process capital as soon as they took office, the employees in various departments were also excited.

There were cheers and applause everywhere. After all, raising wages would be something that everyone likes.

Although the increase is not very high, the average employee is only 500.

But their monthly salary is relatively low. For many people, 500 yuan is a month's rent.

This is equivalent to the company paying them rent.

Coupled with the year-end bonus, it is actually equivalent to a salary increase of 700 per month.

And regardless of whether the new shareholders drew a big pie for everyone, they let everyone see the prospects for development in the company.

An employee who doesn't want to be a manager is not a good employee. Who doesn't want to be a manager in a company with a bright future and get a higher salary?

"Well, I'll just say this, then you can ask what you want to ask." Chase Lu said and looked at everyone.

Seeing that no one else had spoken, Jayne stood up and said: "Mr. Lu, I have no doubts about the future prospects of our company, but at this stage, I don't think our company has the strength to win the Jinglong Lake Villa District.

Regarding the project, Director Fan must ask me to follow the project. I have doubts in my heart, so I want to ask Mr. Lu what he means." Seeing Jayne actually sue himself in front of the new shareholders, Milne Fan's face suddenly became quite ugly. They Everyone knows that this is an impossible task. Would the new shareholders not know?

Bitch, wait and see for me!

Milne Fan let out a cold snort and was about to get up to explain.

At this moment, Chase Lu smiled and said, "Jinglong Lake Villa District, um, it is indeed difficult to win that project with our company's reputation. Whether it is difficult does not mean that there is no chance, does it? Director Lin, it doesn't matter whether some things are successful or not. What's important is whether you're willing to try.

Josh Group did not directly name our company's products. Maybe they found that our company's price is higher than other companies. It's much more affordable, so I signed a contract with our company? So, my suggestion is not to let go of any business that has not been finalized. Even if this order fails, at least it's a familiar face. Maybe the next The chance of success alone is even greater."

Hearing Chase Lu's words, Milne Fan smiled at Jayne.

The new shareholder affirmed him directly.

With this in mind, Milne Fan is more confident in climbing the tree of new shareholders. www.

"Thank you, Mr. Lu, for your advice. I will seriously talk about this project." The new shareholders have said so, what else can Jayne say.

But she also thinks what the new shareholder said is reasonable. What if the mysterious person who helped her before comes forward to help her again?

Of course, this is just Jayne's self-comfort.

She still doesn't believe that this business has any hope of success.

After get off work in the afternoon, Jayne called Chase Lu.

"What time do you get off work?" Jayne asked.

"I came back long ago, what's the matter?" Chase Lu asked.

"It's my dad's birthday tonight, go buy some presents," Jayne said.

"Well, I just received Cassie, and I will buy it later." Chase Lu said.

"Forget it, you don't know what my dad likes, wait for me to go with you." Jayne said and hung up the phone, she settled down from her desk, and left the company.

Chapter: 18

Jayne was angry at the company, and she was in a bad mood, but when she saw Chase Lu appear in front of her with her daughter talking and laughing, the weakest part of her heart was still touched.

There is a touch of warmth in my heart.

Of course, what touched her was the innocence of her daughter, and the depression that she wanted to explode disappeared.

"Mom, these are the clothes my father bought for me yesterday. Are they pretty?" Cassie stood in front of Jayne, looking like a child.

Yesterday Chase Lu took her to play for a day, and she was very tired from playing, so he went to bed after returning.

"Pretty, our little princess wears everything beautifully." Jayne held her daughter in her arms and smiled softly.

"Dad bought a lot of pieces for me. Dad said I will change a suit every day from now on." Cassie said.

Jayne nodded, suddenly seeing the brand of her daughter's clothes, she couldn't help looking at Chase Lu.

"I will buy clothes for Cassie in the future and stop buying these imitations. The famous brand looks very high-end, but the discerning person knows that it is fake at first glance. This will make people laugh at Cassie for admiring vanity." Jayne also knows her daughter. The brand of suits, French children's clothing brand, is very famous in the mainland.

But she knew that Chase Lu could not afford the genuine product, so she thought it was a fake imitation.

"Imitation?" Chase Lu smiled, not wanting to explain too much, because he knew that no matter how she explained, Jayne would not believe it.

"Okay, I see." Chase Lu raised his eyebrows.

"What do you want to buy for my dad?" Jayne asked again.

"Didn't he like to drink wine? Give him a pair of luminous glasses. I didn't give him a gift last year." Chase Lu said.

"Luminous cup? You are also enough." Lin Yiyun wanted to get angry on the spot.

Not to mention that Chase Lu had no money to buy it, even if he had money, he might not be able to buy it.

She was angry that Chase Lu had changed this time.

Not being pragmatic at all, and always telling lies.

"What I said is true. I also know that there is a place in Jol City where there is a pair of real luminous cups for sale." Chase Lu said.

"Stop it, I know you have a wide network of contacts, so you can know everything." His daughter was there, and Jayne didn't want to argue with Chase Lu, so I didn't want to say anything ironic.

"My dad likes antiques. Just go to the antique shop and buy some antiques to send him." Jayne said, holding Cassie to the roadside to stop the car.

Although antiques are generally not cheap, she has just been promoted today and talked about the big business of Greentown Real Estate. She is still willing to spend one or two thousand yuan in gifts.

Chase Lu smiled, and he knew that Jayne still didn't believe in the fact that he was rich.

No matter if you don't believe it, just tell her last time that she is the second generation of the rich, she was furious, and now she still sleeps in separate rooms.

If you mention this to her again today, Chase Lu suspects that Jayne might be annoyed to divorce.

"I won the Greentown project yesterday, and the commission is more than 60,000." In the car, in order to ease the atmosphere, Jayne took the initiative to share her joy with Chase Lu.

"Congratulations." Chase Lu smiled slightly.

"Yes? Why didn't I feel that you congratulated me from the bottom of my heart? Chase Lu, honestly, do you doubt that I agreed to Liu Haishan's terms?" Jayne squinted at Chase Lu, it doesn't matter what others think. , If her husband doubts herself in this way, it is unacceptable to her.

"How could it be that you are my wife? Of course I would not doubt you. I was guessing that if you won a project that Milne Fan didn't win, Xia should have promoted you." Chase Lu explained with a smile. , He helped Jayne handle this matter. He knew the result a long time ago, so he was not as excited as Jayne thought.

"How did you know? Just after the news that I won the Greentown project was passed back to the company, President Xia really promoted me to the head of the sales department." Chase Lu's words immediately diverted Jayne's attention and talked about promotion. For one thing, she seemed quite excited.

"That's really to congratulate you, let me know, you will continue to be promoted in the future." Chase Lu learned to be smart this time, behaving very happy.

In fact, Jayne's promotion was mentioned by Joel Shawn yesterday, and he knew that Joel Shawn would definitely take this opportunity to promote Jayne.

"Do you think you started the company? If you want to give me any promotion, please feel free to promote it?" Jayne gave Chase Lu a roll of eyes. Although Milne Fan had been pitted by Milne Fan, she was still in a good mood. .

Chase Lu almost blurted out: Duncan Electronics is now my own.

But after thinking about it, I held back, just smiled.

"I don't even dare to think about another promotion, and it's impossible to have this kind of opportunity again." Thinking of being suppressed by Milne Fan when he was promoted yesterday, Jayne suddenly showed some serious thoughts.

"What's wrong?" Chase Lu asked when he noticed something.

"It's not because of you." Jayne said depressed.

"Because of me?" Chase Lu was puzzled.

"If you didn't offend Milne Fan, would he target me? Yesterday I was just promoted, and he was publicly suppressed." Thinking of this, I would spend a lot of time following up on the Jinglong Lake Villa Project, Jayne More depressed.

"How did he suppress you?" Chase Lu asked pretending not to understand. He knew that Jayne's suppression was because Milne Fan asked her to talk to the project in Jinglonghu Community.

At the management meeting in the morning, the reason why he wanted to encourage Jayne to follow up the project, of course, was to take this opportunity to let Jayne get everyone's recognition in the company.

"Do you know that the Jinglong Lake Villa area is being renovated?" Jayne asked. www.Lu Chen nodded. It was a high-end villa area developed by Junyue Group. Of course he knew it.

"Milne Fan asked me to follow up on this project yesterday, and even the new shareholders encouraged me to follow up. This is simply an impossible business. Milne Fan wants to take this opportunity to get me into this pit with no time to follow up. Other items also made me ashamed in front of the salesperson." Jayne said angrily.

"This is a good thing, I can do it for you." Chase Lu said without holding back.

Jinglong Lake Villa is divided into several grades. Chase Lu learned from John Lu that they plan to use domestic products for the lowest grade of decoration materials. He also planned to use Dongjia electronic products before, so he just gave this project to Jayne is ready.

After Jayne won this project, whether it is the company's reputation or business ability, she will be recognized by everyone, and she is immediately promoted to sales director to replace Milne Fan.

"You help me fix it?"

Jayne sneered and shook her head. If she hadn't had her daughter by her side and asked her to restrain her emotions, she would definitely laugh at Chase Lu mercilessly.

However, although she didn't say the ridicule, her gaze at Chase Lu was full of deep disappointment.

Seeing that Jayne still didn't believe in herself as always, Chase Lu said that she was also helpless.

He shrugged, not talking about this topic.

There was nothing to say all the way, and soon arrived at the antique shop.

Chapter: 19

After walking around in the antique shop, Jayne was shocked by the high price.

Chase Lu followed Jayne without speaking. Although most of the antiques here cost more than 100,000 yuan, he could buy them, but Jayne didn't believe him, and he didn't bother to buy expensive ones.

But just when Jayne was about to go out, Chase Lu was attracted by a dusty wine glass.

He picked up the cup curiously. First of all, the earthy gray appearance was very inconspicuous, and secondly, the price of two thousand could not attract the attention of people who knew antiques.

"Little brother is really good-looking. This cup is a cultural relic of the Song Dynasty. It is said to be a wine cup from the Southern Song Dynasty Prime Minister Jingzeng. Don't look at it as it is a little old on the outside, but this is where its true collection value lies." The cup that I didn't buy, immediately went forward and flickered.

When he went to buy goods three years ago, he was also fooled by the other party. At that time, the purchase price was still ten thousand. He took it back and marked the sky-high price of fifty thousand, but no one has paid attention to it.

Since then, the price has been lowered until the current level of two thousand, no one has paid attention to it.

Now that Chase Lu seemed to be interested in this cup, he immediately became energetic.

It is also good to recover the cost of two thousand.

"Oh, is it?" Chase Lu smiled faintly, holding the cup and flicking in his ear, listening to the ethereal slight echo, a surprise flashed in his eyes quickly, but he did not show it.

"You don't want to buy this earthen cup for my dad?" Looking back, when Chase Lu was holding a earthy mug and talking to the boss, Jayne was speechless.

"I have this idea, mainly because the price is cheap." Chase Lu smiled slightly.

Jayne is even more speechless. A cheaper gift is okay, but you should at least look good.

this kind of diarrhea thing, you can get it, my dad is not kind enough to accept it.

"Boss, can the price be lower?" Chase Lu asked, looking at the boss.

The boss shook his head and smiled and said, "Little brother, this is already the lowest price. My import price was 1800 at the beginning, and I would earn you two hundred, not including the freight. Business is not easy these years." The boss is bleeding. , He bought it for ten thousand yuan, but he dare not tell the truth.

Because of that, wouldn't you tell Chase Lu that the cup was fake?

"Yes, you really can't make a lot of money for this kind of diarrhea, then two thousand, help me pack it." Chase Lu nodded, as if he understood the boss.

"Are you crazy? Two thousand dollars to buy this kind of diarrhea, do you have a lot of money? And my dad won't want it at all." Jayne said with a stare.

"Don't worry, your dad will definitely like it." Chase Lu smiled confidently and paid the money directly, angrily Jayne wanted to vomit blood.

After receiving the money, the boss was going to pack it for Chase Lu. This thing was finally sold. Although it lost 8,000, it was better than not being able to collect a penny in his own shop.

"Little brother, can you show me the cup in your hand?"

At this moment , a very energetic middle-aged walked in and saw the earth cup in Chase Lu's hand at a glance.

"Professor Yu is here." Seeing the middle-aged man, the boss immediately put aside the idea of packing Chase Lu and stepped forward to say hello.

"Professor Yu."

"Professor Yu."

The guests who were watching the antiques in the store also came to greet them. A group of people immediately surrounded Chase Lu and the middle-aged man.

But everyone saw only middle-aged people, and no one looked at Chase Lu at all.

This middle-aged man is called Todd, a well-known figure in the Jol City antique industry. His job is a professor in the Department of Archaeology of Jol City University. He usually collects a lot of valuable antiques. Jol City TV Station has invited him as a guest of appreciation for many times. He is also a professional appraiser at Jol City Auction.

No one in the antique industry does not know him, and everyone respects him very much.

Todd nodded to everyone, then looked at the cup in Chase Lu's hand again.

"Little brother, can you show me this cup?" Todd asked again.

Chase Lu nodded and handed the cup to Todd.

Although he doesn't mix with the antiques world, he also heard that Zhengtao is too, and wants to see if this big man in the antiques world really has some vision.

"Little brother, how much did you buy for this cup?" Todd looked at the cup for a while, and a touch of excitement flashed in his eyes, but he was hiding well, and few people noticed that his expression changed.

"Two thousand." Chase Lu said.

"This cup looks like an ancient cultural relic, but the exterior color is more like modern craftsmanship. The chance of being an ancient cultural relic is almost less than 10%. But I always like to take a gamble, maybe it just happened today. It's the real one." Todd looked at the cup and commented.

"I had the same psychology as Professor Yu at the beginning. I bought it back for 10,000 yuan, but unfortunately I made a wrong bet." The boss interrupted with some regret.

Anyway, Chase Lu had already paid the money, and he was not afraid that Chase Lu would doubt if it was a fake. Even if the mud cup was really a pile of shit, Chase Lu did not dare to ask him to refund the money.

"Gambling is definitely risky, especially gambling on antiques." Todd smiled and looked at Chase Lu, "Little brother, I will give you twenty thousand, how about selling it to me? I want to try my luck today. Will it give me a surprise." If you buy two thousand things for 20,000, is this clay cup really an ancient cultural relic?

Everyone was immediately interested by Todd's words, and they all looked at the cups in Todd's hands.

But after they watched for a long time, they didn't see the strangeness of this cup, and they couldn't help but become a little confused.

As for the gambling luck that Professor Yu said, they didn't believe it at all.

Todd was originally Jol City Jianbao's first person, and anyone who knew him would not believe his words.

If he hadn't really seen the way, he would definitely not spend 20,000 to buy a clay cup with a true value of less than a few dozen to bet whether it is an ancient cultural relic.

"Twenty thousand yuan?" The shop owner was startled, and suddenly felt a little painful. He was directly losing ten thousand yuan.

"Sorry, this cup is a birthday present for my dad, I don't want to sell it." Chase Lu raised his eyes and shook his head.

Although Todd was hiding well, Chase Lu still noticed the light flashing quickly in his eyes.

He knew that Todd had also seen the true value of this earthen cup.

"One hundred thousand." Seeing Chase Lu about to leave, Todd said hurriedly.

One hundred thousand?

Everyone was shocked again, and they basically affirmed their thoughts in their hearts.

This diarrhea cup is genuine.

The boss almost vomited blood.

He also understood that this earthen cup is really an ancient cultural relic.

Jayne opened her mouth wide and couldn't believe it. Chase Lu could make 90,000 yuan for a clay cup that Chase Lu bought for two thousand yuan. He couldn't imagine the madness of the antique world.

But just when she was about to persuade Chase Lu to sell the cup to Todd, the shop owner grabbed her to speak.

"Little brother, I'm sorry, I can't sell you this cup." As he said , he was about to reach out to grab the dirt cup in Chase Lu's hand.

Chapter: 20

"I have paid all the money, you said you can't sell it to me? Play with me?" Chase Lu's face sank, and his hand slightly gave way, avoiding the store owner's scramble.

Everyone also looked at the shop owner and felt that the shop owner's approach was a bit excessive. If you find that the things you sell are cheaper, they will not sell them. This is not reasonable.

However, they also understand the shop owner's approach. After all, after selling something worth 2,000 yuan, Professor Yu directly set the price to 100,000. If they were the shop owner, they would definitely feel extremely unbalanced.

"You haven't left our store yet, I have the final say when you pay." The store owner's expression also sank, and he was about to threaten Chase Lu.

"We paid all the money, and you said you wouldn't sell it? Are you still unreasonable?" Jayne said unconvinced.

If it opened, of course she hoped that the store owner would not sell it to Chase Lu, but it was different now.

Professor Yu, a tycoon in the antiques industry, has to sell this earthen cup for 100,000 yuan. This earthen cup is an ancient cultural relic at first glance, and of course it cannot be returned to the shop owner.

"Okay, then I will come to reason with you now. You have stolen my ancient cultural relics, can I still let you take them out?" The shop owner looked at Jayne with a joking expression.

Chase Lu took a look at the situation in the store and found that there was no camera installed. He immediately understood that the store owner was going to take them.

"Chase Lu, let's go, I don't believe he can still rob in broad daylight." Jayne snorted coldly, pulling Chase Lu and leaving.

"Go? Do you think I can leave without returning my cup?" The shop owner sneered and slapped his chin.

At the same time, several big guys in the corner walked around slowly.

These big guys are all five big and three rough, and they are not good at first sight.

They didn't speak, they just surrounded the three of Chase Lu.

Jayne was immediately frightened by the aura of several big men, and she hugged Cassie close to Chase Lu.

"Little brother, if you sell me the cup now, I can still speak for you." Todd obviously didn't look at the big guys in his eyes, and smiled at Chase Lu.

The shop owner's face changed slightly. He dared to deal with Chase Lu in this way, because he was just an ordinary person.

But Todd is different.

This is a big man in the antiques world, with a huge network of people behind him. Although he has some influence, he does not dare to provoke Zhengtao.

"Little brother, a professor at all to help you speak, you'd better sell the cup to the professor now."

"Yes ah, or else you steal something ancient relics of a people is to sit real, but to be sued."

Others He also began to persuade Chase Lu to come, as if he was thinking of Chase Lu.

"It was obviously bought by us with money. Which of your eyes saw us stealing it, we paid him all the money!" Jayne said with an angry look.

What kind of people are these? Everyone is a consumer. The store deliberately reversed black and white. Why did you follow along to make peace?

If this happens to you, don't you mind?

"Young people, the so-called treasures are home to those with virtue. Even if you bought this cup, you still have to have that strength. Without that strength, you can only cause trouble for yourself." An old man shook his head and said.

"What do you mean, even if we bought it? This is clearly what we bought, and it's not ours after all the money is paid? Now it is a legal society, I really don't believe that the police will follow you to reverse things!" Jayne said, getting angry. Rushing out the phone and preparing to call the police.

"You want to call the police, right? Then, let's see if the police come to believe you or believe me." Seeing Jayne's behavior, the shop owner suddenly sneered.

He really hoped that Jayne would call the police. In that case, at least Todd would not put pressure on Chase Lu and let Chase Lu sell him the cup.

Jayne was stunned for a moment, she was not stupid, the attitude of the shop owner, it was obvious that he had someone in the game, and he was sure that he was married.

"Little brother, I can give you another 50,000, you might as well consider it." Todd said again.

When Jayne heard that Todd added another 50,000 yuan, she was even more sure that the cup in Chase Lu's hand was a treasure.

But she also saw the current situation clearly and pulled Chase Lu's sleeves and said, "Or sell it to Professor Yu."

Chase Lu smiled lightly and said, "This is a gift for our dad. I won't sell it for money."

Jayne sighed, not knowing what to say.

The shop owner was relieved, if Chase Lu really sold it to Todd, he really couldn't help it.

Now that Chase Lu doesn't sell it, then he can snatch it from Chase Lu first.

"Hand over the cup, otherwise I will send you to the police station. Then it will not be as simple as stealing." The shop owner said in time.

As soon as he spoke, several big Hans immediately started to grab it.

Chase Lu took a step forward and protected Jayne and Cassie behind him. He hadn't paid attention to these big guys.

When everyone saw that the shop owner wanted to grab it, they just shook their heads and watched the show. They never thought about the situation in which no one would help them speak if this happened to them.

"Boy, I'll give you one last chance, can you hand in the cup?" the shop owner asked in a deep voice.

Chase Lu's eyes flashed and suddenly said, "It's okay to hand over the cup, but you have to let my wife leave first."

He was not afraid of these big guys, but he didn't want to do anything with others in front of his daughter.

"Okay, I'll let them leave now." The shop owner sneered and waved his hands to several people. He was not afraid of Chase Lu following along.

"You sell the wine glass to Professor Yu, can't you just walk together?" Jayne said in a puzzled way, she felt that Chase Lu might go to extremes.

"Let you go, you just leave, why so much nonsense? You go to Grandpa Cassie's house and wait for me first." Chase Lu said without question.

Jayne was a little worried, she was basically sure that Chase Lu was going to do something with the other party.

But she knew that Chase Lu was very strong in fighting, and she was not afraid of Chase Lu being injured or anything. After thinking about it, she knew that Chase Lu had separated herself from her daughter because she didn't want to fight with others in front of her daughter for fear of affecting her daughter. .

And in her heart, she also hoped that Chase Lu would teach this upside-down shop owner a good lesson, so she said, "Then you be careful."

she said that, she hugged Cassie and left first.

"Boy, you can hand over the cup now." After Jayne took Cassie out, the shop owner couldn't wait to say.

Chase Lu narrowed his eyes and said, "What if I don't pay?"

"No?" The shop owner laughed, "You don't want to find out who Zhang Sanyuan is, tell you the truth, you hand over the cup obediently. I will refund you two thousand dollars, otherwise I will not only interrupt your hand, but also let you eat prison."

"Interrupt my hand? Well, since you want to die, then I will fulfill you.
"Chase Lu jokingly smiled, then took out the phone and made a call. "

Seeing Chase Lu called for someone, the shop owner Zhang Sanyuan smiled.

Todd and others also shook their heads.

Although Zhang Sanyuan's influence is not very big, he takes everything black and white. Except for big men like Todd, let alone ordinary people, even the average small and rich dare not easily offend him.

Chase Lu is so unsure of what is good or bad, he must be finished by himself today.
