Chapter 241: I Will Get A Divorce

However, they could only agree to it.

However, they didn't know if Chengye didn't allow them to say what Jiang Xun did because he didn't want it to affect Chengye Group, or if he also wanted to protect Jiang Xun.

When Jiang Xun came out of the Jiang residence, she saw Mufeng waiting at the door.

The two of them didn't say anything and got into the car.

Jiang Xun knew why Mufeng was waiting there.

When they got into the car, Mufeng pulled Jiang Xun's hand. "Which hand did you use?"

"Both, but it was mainly the right hand." Jiang Xun spread out her right hand, revealing her fair and tender palm. There was no trace of a beating at all. Her fingers were slender and white like scallions.

Due to the whiteness, her knuckles were still pinkish.

"You didn't hurt yourself?" Mufeng pinched her hand and examined it carefully.

"Of course not." Jiang Xun looked proud. "I'm very strong, so even the rock against my chest couldn't hurt me. I only hit Jiang Yuexi. I slapped her face so hard that it turned into a pig's head, but I'm still fine."

Mufeng was speechless.

With what she said, he couldn't carry on.

Jiang Xun finally realized that something was wrong and asked tentatively, "Then... it hurts?"

Mufeng was silent.

Forget it, forget it. If it doesn't hurt, then it doesn't hurt!

It's even better if it doesn't hurt!

Mufeng let go of her hand unhappily. "Let's go home."

The next day, when the stock market opened, Chengye Group's stock price plummeted.

Before it was time for the lunch break, Chengye Group's stock had already fallen by the daily limit.

Chengye had no choice but to face the directors once again.

"You said that you would handle it well, but in the end, it ended up like this?"

“We gave you a chance before, but because of your family matter, the company ended up like this!” One of the directors was so angry that his fingertips pointed at the table and made a banging sound. “You have to take full responsibility!”

“You have to give us an explanation for this matter!”

Faced with the criticism from the audience, Chengye thought of Jiang Xun’s suggestion last night.

Divorce...

Chengye gritted his teeth, took a deep breath, and said, “I will get a divorce.”

The entire meeting room was silent for a few seconds, and all the directors looked at Chengye in confusion.

You want to get a divorce in order to keep your position?

“The reason why the netizens criticize me is because of my current marriage,” Chengye said in a deep voice. “This is indeed a stain on my personal life. I will divorce and issue a statement admitting my previous mistakes. The losses of Chengye Group will be slowly recovered.”

1

Chengye was going to do so much. The directors were speechless for a moment. They even had a feeling that it would be too much to push him out of office.

Therefore, the directors raised their hands to vote. In the end, they decided to give Chengye another chance.

They wanted to see if his divorce would be helpful to Chengye Group.

Chengye couldn’t take back what he had said. In fact, Jiang Xun’s suggestion last night was deeply rooted in his heart. He had been thinking about this matter.

He chose to trust Jiang Xun once.

Therefore, Chengye asked Aunt Zhang to confirm that Nianzhen was home. Chengye immediately rushed back to the Jiang family from the company.

“Chengye?” Nianzhen looked at the person who was supposed to be at the company but came in at this time. “Why are you back at this time?”

Then, she smiled and said gently, “Did you forget to take something? You should have called me and I would send it to the company. By the way, how is it at the company today?”

“Nianzhen, we have to get a divorce,” Chengye said in a low voice.

1

Nianzhen’s smile had not even faded when she suddenly heard this sentence. She thought she had heard wrong. “What did you say?”

“I said, we have to get a divorce.”

Nianzhen held her forehead, and the world was spinning.

Just as she was about to fall, Aunt Zhang rushed forward to support her.

Nianzhen steadied herself, opened her red eyes, and said sternly, "You really believe that little bitch Jiang Xun's words and want to divorce me!"

"Watch your words." Chengye's face darkened. "Even if you don't like Jiang Xun, you don't have to scold her like that."

"Hehehehe! Now you know how to protect her. Do you think she cares about your protection?" Nianzhen was agitated by what Chengye said, and she dared to say anything. "She hates you to death now. She doesn't know that you're protecting her now, and she won't be grateful even if she knew. Why do you have to do that!"

"I don't need her to know," Chengye said with a sullen face. "I regret it and feel sorry for her. So I don't need her to know that I'm protecting her, and she doesn't need to be grateful to me."

Nianzhen sneered. Did Chengye find out that he still had fatherly love?

How long could his fatherly love last?

"Are you divorcing me for Chengye Group or because Jiang Xun asked you to divorce me?"

Chapter 242: The Divorce Is Necessary

"Is there a difference?" Chengye sighed. "Jiang Xun's proposal was also to cut Chengye Group's losses and protect my position."

"I don't agree!" Nianzhen pushed away Aunt Zhang, who was supporting her. "I don't agree to the divorce!"

"I'm going to call Jixuan. I'm going to tell Yuexi." Nianzhen panicked and went to look for her phone.

Jixuan and Yuexi were both in school.

"Jixuan is in class. Why do you want to disturb him?" Chengye grabbed Nianzhen's arm. "Can you calm down?"

"You're going to divorce me. Why should I calm down?" Nianzhen said loudly. "You want to divorce me just because of one sentence from Jiang Xun! Why didn't I see you value Jiang Xun so much in the past?"

"Actually, it's just a divorce, nothing else will change. How you live now will be how you live after the divorce," Chengye said calmly to Nianzhen, "I'll give you enough money every month to keep your current lifestyle."

"Then can I still live here?" Nianzhen asked.

Chengye paused. "Of course not. There will be a large number of reporters coming to take pictures, and it will last for a long time. They will take pictures of our divorce, but if you are still living here, isn't that a joke? Everyone will think that we had a fake divorce."

"Fake divorce?" Nianzhen's eyes lit up with hope. She grabbed Chengye's arm, and her fingertips unconsciously turned white.

Chengye was hurt by her grip and frowned. Just as he wanted her to let go, he heard Nianzhen say, "Are you going to fake divorce me?"

Chengye thought that it would be better to pacify her for now. He covered her hand that was holding his arm and patted it lightly. "Of course. But we still have to get a divorce certificate."

Seeing Nianzhen's expression change again, Chengye quickly explained, "The netizens nowadays are no worse than the paparazzi. If we don't get a divorce certificate and they find out, things will only get worse."

"Let's get a divorce certificate first. There are so many houses that our family owns. Where would you like to live? Choose one and live there. I'll give you the same amount of money as I give you every month now. It won't change."

Nianzhen sneered in her heart. How could it not change?

She used to be Mrs. Jiang, the wife of a wealthy family. She was not afraid to go out and socialize with the wives of wealthy families.

However, after the divorce, she was nothing. Would any of those snobbish wives of wealthy families even care about her?

They would even laugh at her behind her back, laughing at her children!

Sensing Nianzhen's change, Chengye shook her hand away, rubbed his arm, and said with a sullen face, "The divorce is necessary. Let's go and settle this matter today."

"It's not that easy to get a divorce from you!" Nianzhen saw that Chengye was determined to get a divorce, so she stopped saying anything about not wanting to get the divorce.

Chengye insisted on getting a divorce, and she couldn't control him.

During their marriage, he didn't cheat on her, and it wasn't the fault of the marriage.

2

Going through the legal process to get a bigger share of the family assets wasn't a big win for her.

In a flash, Nianzhen thought through a lot.

She forced herself to calm down. She took a deep breath and said, "Divorce is fine, but the division of assets should be made clear."

Chengye sneered. He had underestimated Nianzhen to be able to recover from the panic of the divorce so quickly and talk about the division of assets.

“When we got married, we signed a prenuptial agreement. I will follow the content of the prenuptial agreement. The agreement clearly states everything that should be given to you. I won’t give you anything less,” Chengye said coldly.

If Nianzhen didn’t mention it, he would still feel guilty, so it was fine to give her more.

But now, Nianzhen didn’t want to take any more money!

“I also want some real estate!” Nianzhen said. “When we first got married, how could your property be compared to what it is now? There is a villa in the capital and a big flat, as well as two shops. I don’t want more. I just want these.”

“There are already quite a lot of things for you in the agreement,” Chengye said in a low voice.

In addition to cash and monthly maintenance, the agreement already included three properties, four shops, and a franchise store for a chain of milk tea brands.

Nianzhen didn’t need to manage these things at all. She had people to help manage them. She only needed to collect money, which was enough for her financial freedom.

“I told you, your current assets cannot be compared to what they were back then,” Nianzhen said. “I gave birth to your children. Now that I am old, you want to kick me out without caring about our husband and wife relationship at all. You have to give me these. Otherwise, I will not divorce you. I will even publicize the fact that you will abandon your first wife for the sake of your career.”

Chapter 243: You Have Already Been Abandoned By The Gu Family

“Don’t get me wrong.” Chengye looked at her mockingly. “My first wife is Jiang Xun’s mother, not you.”

1

“What do you mean!” Nianzhen glared at Chengye with red eyes. “Jiang Chengye! I’ve been married to you for so many years, and I’ve given birth to your children. Now, you won’t even acknowledge me as your first wife? Since you remember your first wife so well, why did you cheat on her? Wouldn’t everything be fine if you stayed by her side? Jiang Xun wouldn’t go to the countryside, and the Chengye Group wouldn’t be in danger now.”

1

“Actually, all of this is your responsibility. Now you’re blaming me?”

1

Chengye felt as if Nianzhen had stabbed him in the heart, and he was completely enraged by Nianzhen, “Even if you don’t want a divorce, we have to get it! I won’t agree to any of your requests. Let’s follow the prenuptial agreement. If you don’t get a divorce obediently, don’t blame me for being rude. Jiang Xun can threaten me. Do you think you are capable of doing the same?”

Chengye’s gaze was ruthless. “You can try!”

Nianzhen felt guilty but did not dare to do so in the end.

However, she did not contact Jixuan. Instead, she called Yuexi back from school.

When Yuexi heard that the two of them were getting a divorce, she felt as if she had been struck by lightning. Just like when Nianzhen first heard the news, she staggered and lost her balance.

Without waiting for Yuexi to persuade her, Chengye said, "Think carefully. If you want to persuade me not to get the divorce, I will take back all your support in the entertainment industry."

Yuexi trembled. She didn't expect Chengye to be so ruthless. How could she dare to speak up for Nianzhen?

Nianzhen saw that Yuexi had actually retreated, and her heart turned cold. She pinched Yuexi's arm again.

Yuexi quickly said, "Dad, I'm not trying to persuade you. It's... it's just that if you divorce mom, what will happen to brother Xiaoze and me? The Gu family may not be so satisfied with me."

Chengye looked at Yuexi for a while and then said, "Do you think the Gu family is satisfied with you now?"

1

Yuexi was stunned. What did he mean?

Chengye said, "How long has it been since Gu Xiaoze has contacted you?"

Yuexi didn't think that she had little time to date Xiaoze since she had to go to school and was busy filming.

She thought it was because they were too busy, but she only realized it after Chengye said it. She was very free recently, but Xiaoze didn't even send her a Wechat message.

She did not notice it either.

"He is already distancing himself from you. Don't you know?" Seeing that Yuexi had not even understood such a simple thing, Chengye shook his head and sneered, "If it was Jiang Xun, she would have discovered it long ago."

Yuexi's face flushed red.

How could Chengye compare Jiang Xun to her!

"The Gu family was already dissatisfied with you long ago when you and Gu Xiaoze were involved in variety shows. This time, because you exposed Jiang Xun and implicated Chengye Group, they thought you were not smart. They were also afraid that you would harm their own family, so they didn't allow Gu Xiaoze to interact with you anymore," Chengye said.

"How did you know?" Yuexi immediately asked, "It's not like they would tell you about this."

"How did I know? The Gu family arranged a blind date for Gu Xiaoze. Everyone in the industry knows about it. How could I not know?" Chengye sneered. "I'm now the laughing stock of the industry. Those people are watching Chengye Group's good show. Someone even came to ask me in person. Aren't you with Gu Xiaoze? Why did Gu Xiaoze go on a blind date? Did you guys break up already? With all this, what else can I not find out?"

"Whether we divorce or not, you have already been abandoned by the Gu family," Chengye said coldly.

Yuexi couldn't care less about Nianzhen anymore. She immediately ran out to look for Xiaoze.

*

Two days later, when Jixuan came to look for Jiang Xun, he conveniently told her the news. "Mom and dad are getting a divorce."

"What?" Jiang Xun was dumbfounded. She had only suggested it, but she didn't expect Chengye to really believe it.

However, she wasn't trying to trick Chengye.

Apart from giving Nianzhen a blow, this method could indeed save Chengye Group.

She didn't lie to Chengye.

"I've been busy with all this for the past two days. My mom just moved out yesterday." Jixuan's face couldn't help but look a little depressed. "When they got married, they signed a prenuptial agreement and made a clear division of their assets. After the divorce, my mom could get some cash, alimony, and a few properties. So for her, apart from losing face and no longer being a wealthy woman, there wasn't much change in material things."

Chapter 244: He Knew That Zilong Valued The Role

Jixuan looked at Jiang Xun and wiped his face. "Actually... I don't think the divorce a big deal. It's not like I won't support my mother anyway."

He could also lessen the guilt he felt in front of Jiang Xun.

Jiang Xun nodded. It didn't matter.

It was only right and proper for a son to support his mother.

Two days later, everything should have been settled. Chengye personally posted a divorce statement on Weibo.

[Hehe, now that Chengye Group's stock price has dropped, you want to get a divorce? Scumbag!]

[A mistress with a scumbag, just right for each other!]

[Feng Nianzhen, this is the man you went to great lengths to steal from someone else's family!]

[Good and evil will always be rewarded accordingly.]

[Stealing will never end well.]

[We will keep an eye on him. It's best if the scumbag doesn't remarry his mistress. Otherwise, we will boycott Chengye Group to the end.]

The netizens were a little tired of boycotting Chengye Group. Now that they saw the results, they decided to let him go and talk about it again in the future.

Chengye Group's stock price slowly rose, finally allowing Chengye to catch his breath.

In the blink of an eye, it was time for Jiang Xun to join Chen Zilong's filming crew for "Hell on Earth."

Zhang Xiangyou happened to be the male lead of this drama, a righteous young policeman.

Cheng Yao, played by Jiang Xun, was a high school classmate of the male lead. The male lead had a deep impression of Cheng Yao. When he was in high school, he thought that she was an introvert. Later, he learned that her original family was not happy. He felt more sympathy for her and wanted to help her. There was no boy-girl love between them.

In a chance encounter with Cheng Yao, the male lead was completely unguarded against her.

It also caused the people close to the male lead to be killed off one by one by her.

Xiangyou was reading the script in the dressing room. Although he had already memorized the lines, he still read them out of habit in order to engrave the lines into his bones.

Lu Xiuse walked in with a displeased look. Seeing that Xiangyou was already there, she smiled and greeted him, "Teacher Zhang, when did you arrive?"

"I arrived a while ago," Xiangyou replied politely.

"Have you finished your makeup?" Xiuse saw that Xiangyou was wearing makeup.

Xiangyou nodded, "I'm just about done."

"Teacher Lu." The second female lead, Zhang Qiyao, couldn't be bothered with her makeup and quickly stood up to greet Xiuse.

"You're here so early too?" Xiuse nodded with a condescending manner.

"I wanted to finish doing my makeup earlier, so I that I wouldn't take up any of the teachers' time," Qiyao quickly said.

"Hehe." Xiuse thought to herself, Qiyao wasn't trying to imply herself, right? "It's my fault for coming a little late and taking up the other teachers' time."

Qiyao sneered in her heart. She had just graduated not too long ago. She was supposed to be sensible and keep a low profile, but when it came to Xiuse, it was as if she was implying her.

Xiuse was really narrow-minded.

However, Qiyao did not care at all, and she said directly, "Sister Lu, don't think too much. I'm not saying that you're late. I'm just a rookie actress, so it's only right for me to come earlier. For someone like you and Brother Zhang, coming early is a sign of humility. Even if you're famous, no one will blame you even if you're late. Please don't blame yourself over this."

Xiuse was speechless.

Where did this Qiyao come from?!

Qiyao smiled at Xiuse again and sat back down indifferently.

She originally wanted to build a good relationship with the crew so that everyone could have a good time while filming.

So she had been polite and low-key just now. But since Xiuse didn't want this goodwill, she wouldn't give it to her.

Xiuse snorted coldly and sat down to let the makeup artist do her makeup.

Qiyao was just a small actress. How could she not toy with her?

However, in less than a minute, Xiuse could not hold it in anymore. She said to Xiangyou, "Teacher Zhang, what is the name of the third female lead in our drama?"

When Xiangyou heard the words third female lead, he was stunned for a few seconds before he realized that she was talking about Jiang Xun.

Jiang Xun had been frequently trending on the internet due to family matters. There should be very few people who did not know about her.

He did not know if Xiuse did it on purpose or if she really did not surf the internet much.

"You mean Jiang Xun?" Xiangyou replied.

When he found out that Jiang Xun was going to play the role of Cheng Yao, Xiangyou was really shocked.

He knew that Jiang Xun had already acted in Director Deng Xu's drama, but it was only a small role and she did not have many scenes.

He had scrolled through the clips on Shanpin and Weibo.

He didn't expect Jiang Xun to act as the third female lead in her second play.

He had worked hard to get the role of the male lead. After several encounters with Zilong, he knew that Zilong valued the role of the third female lead.

Chapter 245: How Could He Not Speak Up For Himself?

Although the third female lead role was not the main character, it was the core of the entire drama.

For this reason, Zilong was very careful in choosing the actors. However, he did not expect that Jiang Xun would play the role in the end.

It seemed that Jiang Xun indeed had the ability.

Xiangyou did not expect Jiang Xun to be so talented. He even envied her talent.

She did not have much acting experience before, but she could act so well.

“Oh, right, that’s her name.” Xiuse pretended to be reminded and then remembered, “She seems to be... a second-generation rich kid?”

Then, Xiuse sneered. “I was wondering why Director Chen would deliberately delay the start of the movie for her, so it was that we could all wait for her.”

“It seems that you really don’t surf the internet much, Teacher Lu.” Xiangyou smiled slightly. “Jiang Xun is the eldest daughter of the Jiang family of the Chengye Group. However, her relationship with the Jiang family is rather complicated and not very good. She never grew up in the Jiang family since she was young, and now she is struggling on her own. She must have won the role by relying on her own ability. It has nothing to do with her family.”

Xiuse choked and raised her eyebrows. “Oh, Teacher Zhang, you seem to know Jiang Xun pretty well?”

As a young man who was currently popular, Xiangyou had too many girlfriends and fans.

How could he let Xiuse get a hold of the topic?

Xiangyou looked away from the script and smiled at Xiuse. “I really can’t say that I know her. It’s just that I’ve always been a 5G surfer, so I’ve learned a little from the Internet.”

“It’s hard to tell if the news on the internet is real or fake,” Xiuse said stubbornly. “Those marketing accounts and gossip accounts send out fake gossip every day. It’s too laughable for us, but the netizens actually believe it. Someone actually said that I raised a brat. Don’t you think it’s laughable? That’s why, you could read the news on the internet, but just leave it at that.”

“I see, Teacher Lu, so you surf the internet. I thought you didn’t surf the internet at all.” Xiangyou had always thought that Jiang Xun was a good person. Although he wouldn’t offend others for her sake, Xiuse was even disgusted with him, and it was obvious that she saw that he did not have judgment and believed everything that was said on the internet.

Xiuse had already dragged his words onto his head. How could he not speak up for himself?

Xiuse’s smile froze. “It’s true that I don’t surf the internet too much. When I occasionally take a look, I only see gossip about myself.”

“It’s true that Teacher Lu is popular, so you only see gossip about yourself occasionally,” Xiangyou said with a smile.

Qiyao listened from the side, and she cried out in her heart. Xiangyou was also a good person with a strange attitude.

“However, there were influencers and reporters who directly carried out live interviews with Jiang Xun,” Xiangyou said with a smile. “They went to the small hotel where Jiang Xun stayed after she left home to confirm her past. They also went to her high school and uncle’s house to find out about it. Moreover, these content were livestreamed the entire time. There was no possibility of fraud. Now, everyone can say with certainty that all of Jiang Xun’s achievements have nothing to do with the Jiang family. It’s all on her own. So this time, Director Chen was willing to delay the start of the shoot in order to accommodate her time. It must be because her acting skills have been recognized by Director Chen.”

Xiangyou said, "Although Cheng Yao is a third female lead role, she is the soul of the entire drama. Director Chen values this role very much."

Xiangyou had an immature thought. He even felt that Zilong valued this role more than the male and female lead roles.

Perhaps in Zilong's mind, the male and female lead roles could be changed at will, but Cheng Yao's role could not.

When Xiuse heard this, she could only change her words, "Hehe, I just feel that it's strange. For her alone, the production team had to adjust their schedule. Forget about the production team's staff. Their job is to follow the production team anyway, and they will work when the production team is needed. But we are different. We have many other jobs. We arrange our schedules according to the time stipulated in the contract."

"For Jiang Xun's sake, all of our schedules have been messed up. Originally, I set aside the scheduled filming time. After filming, I would be shooting for advertisements and magazines, as well as all kinds of business activities. Everything had already been arranged. But because of Jiang Xun, my schedule was changed just like that. This made me have to rearrange the work that I had previously agreed on. I could change the schedule for some, but I could only turn down the work that didn't fit my schedule."

Xiuse looked at Xiangyou, who was looking down at the script. Seeing that she did not get any response from him, she turned to look at Qiyao, who had been ignored by her. "Don't you think so? You've turned down quite a lot of work, haven't you?"

Chapter 246: Why Did They Have To Act So High And Mighty In Front Of Her!

"I turned down a few." After putting on her makeup, Qiyao stood up and said, "But Sister Lu, if you really couldn't arrange it in your schedule, just politely reject the director and not shoot this drama. I wanted to do it anyway, so no matter what, I coordinated my own time."

Qiyao almost said that since she was already here, she couldn't bear to turn down her role in this drama. Since she couldn't bear it, why say so much nonsense!

Otherwise, if you feel that your schedule is more important, just reject this show.

Zilong was not afraid of being unable to find new actors.

Xiuse's face immediately sank.

What's with this Qiyao!

Why is she so arrogant!

As an A-list starlet, she could at least be considered to be standing in the first tier among the artistes.

Other than the limited range, the other artistes were very polite to her.

She had never seen someone so fierce like Qiyao!

Qiyao curled her lips and went out to her own RV to rest. She would only come out when they were about to start filming.

Xiuse could not hold it in any longer. "When Will Jiang Xun come? I'm really curious."

Xiangyou stood up with the script in his hands. "Teacher Lu, I'll go back and memorize the lines first."

After saying that, he left.

Xiuse: "..."

Why did they have to act so high and mighty in front of her!

Jiang Xun was in another dressing room at the moment.

The dressing room she was in was bigger, more crowded, and messier.

That small dressing room was usually used by the male and female leads, but because it was too crowded here, Xiangyou had Qiyao go over and use it too.

After Xiuse finished her makeup, she returned to the RV angrily and complained to her manager, "The rookies nowadays really don't know what's good for them!"

"What's wrong?" Her manager, Liu Yunan, was drinking coffee and asked.

Xiuse's assistant immediately handed her a thermos cup with longan and red date tea in it.

Xiuse told him about Qiyao, "What's her deal? I've never heard of her before. What kind of background does she have? She's so arrogant."

"I really haven't heard of her." Yunan thought for a moment. "I remember all the people with backgrounds in the industry. I really don't know about her."

"It's fine as long as she doesn't have a background." Xiuse sneered. "She still dares to be so arrogant to me. She really doesn't know what to say. There are too many things I can do to her."

"Zhang Qiyao isn't important, but what about Jiang Xun?"

"I heard that her performance made Director Chen very satisfied." Yunan had also asked around.

Although Zilong valued Cheng Yao the most, she wasn't the main character after all, so Xiuse had never considered it.

Yunan only paid attention to see who Zilong chose for the role that he valued so much.

Zilong was troubled by the fact that those who had good acting skills would not consider the role, and those who did want the role could not satisfy Zilong with their acting skills.

However, she didn't expect that Zilong would choose Jiang Xun.

He even delayed the start of the movie for Jiang Xun.

It caused chaos in their schedule.

"Ha, I want to see her." Xiuse was disdainful.

Cheng Yao was the female lead's best friend, so Xiuse had a lot of scenes with Jiang Xun.

"The start of the shoot was delayed for three months because of her good acting skills?" Xiuse sneered, "How good are her acting skills? I don't believe it's that good."

"I have never seen a director who could accommodate their schedule for such acting skills." Xiuse rolled her eyes. "Is Jiang Xun's acting skills all that good? I don't believe it."

1

Xiuse leaned forward and asked Yunan in a low voice, "Do you think Jiang Xun and Director Chen..."

"Ouch!" Yunan quickly covered her mouth. "Little aunt, your mouth is a little tricky. There are too many people here with too many mouths. If Director Chen hears about it, you will suffer."

Xiuse pouted. Although she felt bored, she did not dare to continue. She only whispered, "Even if it's not... it's possible that she has someone else as her financial backer."

"She is the eldest daughter of the president of Chengye Group. If her father doesn't care about her, how can he tolerate her like this?" Yunan started to gossip.

"What's the use of that kind of reputation? Her father doesn't give her money." Xiuse pouted. "She has long been separated from her father. Her father won't give her any resources, support, or money. How is it possible for her to walk all the way here by herself? She was by herself, and she was torn apart by life before she even stepped into the entertainment industry."

Chapter 247: She Was Still Elegant And Beautiful With The Light Makeup

"Just wait and see. It's fine if she doesn't become famous." Yunan understood these things too well.

"But with her current momentum, she's well-known on the internet and she doesn't lack opportunities for filming. After filming Deng Xu's scenes, she immediately joined this group. From her brilliant acting as a supporting character, she directly ascended. If she continued to develop, her fame wouldn't be low. Once she became famous, there would be people who would dig up her past. Whether it's netizens, reporters, or paparazzi, what on earth did she rely on to have such a smooth journey? Sooner or later, she would be exposed."

"Teacher Lu, we're ready to start filming." At this moment, the crew came to the entrance of the RV and said.

Xiuse stuffed the script and the thermos cup into her assistant's hands and got out of the car first.

Xiuse's first scene was with Jiang Xun.

Cheng Yao, played by Jiang Xun, pretended to be attacked by a "murderer." Although she escaped by a fluke, she was seriously injured and was sent to the hospital.

This scene was where Xiuse and Xiangyou went to the hospital to visit Jiang Xun.

Xiuse and Xiangyou were both policemen. Both of them wore plain clothes and came to the hospital to visit Jiang Xun.

Xiuse only got out of the RV when the filming started. When Jiang Xun arrived, Xiuse was in the RV.

Now that filming had officially started, it was the first time she had seen Jiang Xun.

The makeup artist gave Jiang Xun a sickly face. Unlike Xiuse, although her makeup was not supposed to show a very beautiful face, she was still elegant and beautiful with the light makeup.

Jiang Xun's face was painted pale.

In fact, the makeup artist was really in a difficult position when she was putting makeup on Jiang Xun.

Because her skin color was already very white, even if she used the whitest foundation, it would still be slightly yellowish compared to her skin color.

After wearing makeup for a long time, the oxidation of the foundation would be more obvious.

The makeup artist could only apply a thick layer of foundation on Jiang Xun's neck and then apply a thick layer of powder to completely block the healthy color of Jiang Xun's skin.

Jiang Xun's originally rosy lips were also painted to the same color as her face by the makeup artist's lip concealer.

She also cast a shadow on the bottom of her cheekbones, making her face appear even more haggard.

But even so, Xiuse was still stunned when she saw Jiang Xun for the first time.

She had already been painted like this. Although she had a sickly appearance, it was more of a delicate beauty amidst the frailness, making people feel even more pity for her.

Even though Jiang Xun had a sickly face from the makeup, she still outclassed Xiuse.

Jiang Xun wore a striped hospital gown and sat on the sickbed with her knees bent. Her arms were wrapped around her knees. When she saw them, she revealed a weak smile.

"How are you feeling today?" Xiangyou walked to the bedside and asked.

"I'm fine. I just didn't dare to close my eyes. Once I closed my eyes, I dreamt that a black shadow was coming to kill me." Jiang Xun trembled as she hugged herself.

Xiuse hugged Jiang Xun and said, "Can you remember what that person looked like?"

Jiang Xun's body stiffened. Xiuse urged, "Cheng Yao, this is really important to us. The sooner we catch him, the fewer people will be killed. And you don't have to worry about him. You don't have to worry that he will come looking for you."

Xiuse's last sentence made Jiang Xun suddenly scream crazily.

"No! No!"

"Ah!"

Jiang Xun shouted while flapping her hands.

Xiuse tried to calm Jiang Xun down and tried to grab her arm.

“Go away! Go away!”

Xiangyou pulled Xiuse up. “Let her calm down first and don’t give her too much pressure. After experiencing this, she already has a breakdown. If you can’t get anything out of her, don’t provoke her anymore.”

“But...” Xiuse was anxious. “She might be the only person who has seen that homicidal maniac and came out alive.”

“That’s precisely why we have to protect her!” Xiangyou said in a deep voice. “She’s the only failure of that homicidal maniac. He will definitely come back again. No one could recover so quickly after going through what happened to Cheng Yao. I’m afraid she still needs to see a psychiatrist. What we can do now is to guard her and wait for that person to come.”

Xiuse looked at Jiang Xun unwillingly. Jiang Xun pulled at her hair with all her might, and she couldn’t help but hide her face. “You can’t see me, you can’t see me...”

“Alright then.” Xiuse could only agree unwillingly.

Xiuse turned around to look at Jiang Xun who was hysterical and said, “Cheng Yao, we’ll leave first. Have a good rest.”

After saying that, the two of them left the ward.

“Cut!”

“Not bad!” Zilong nodded. “Start filming Jiang Xun, from when Teacher Zhang and Teacher Lu walk out of the door.”

Xiangyou and Xiuse moved to the position at the door again.

The camera captured the two of them walking out from the door one after the other and closing the door.

“Cut!”

“Now to film Jiang Xun.” Zilong didn’t tell Jiang Xun much, and instead let Jiang Xun follow her own understanding.

Chapter 248: It Was Inspired By Horror Movies

According to the script, Jiang Xun had to smile while facing the door at this time, along with reacting the way Cheng Yao would according to Jiang Xun’s interpretation of her character.

Jiang Xun didn’t smile. She just stared at the door expressionlessly without blinking.

After the door closed for a few seconds, she didn’t even blink.

Zilong couldn’t help but lean his body to stare at the screen and said to the cameraman, “Okay! Continue to shoot. Give me a close-up of Jiang Xun!”

Then, Jiang Xun hummed an unknown ditty.

This ditty was a popular nursery rhyme during the apocalypse.

At that time, because the children were born in the dark, the zombies outside were still a legend to the children.

Therefore, the nursery rhyme was more or less accompanied by some music from the post-apocalyptic world.

In addition, Jiang Xun, as a perverted killer, hummed in a slightly happy and gloomy tone, which made the hairs on the backs of everyone present stand on end.

It was broad daylight, and it was already June, so it was getting hot. There were so many people in the room, but they couldn't help but have goosebumps.

Many people rubbed their arms when the goosebumps appeared.

The cameraman couldn't rub his own arms. He could only grab the camera and shiver.

Zilong took a long time to react. He quickly shouted, "Cut!"

Jiang Xunxin was thinking, "You finally shouted." She had been humming it three or four times.

After all, the number of times a song could be sung was very limited.

"Very good!" Zilong realized that at this moment, his vocabulary was actually so lacking. "That was great!"

He couldn't help but stand up and clap hard. "Your acting style is more suited to the character than the script is!"

"I got goosebumps just watching you," Zilong said excitedly.

I've picked up a treasure!

No, it should be Deng Xu who passed this treasure to me!

After filming today, he had to thank Deng Xu again!

After Jiang Xun finished filming, Xiangyou immediately rushed over with his eyes lit up. He looked at Jiang Xun excitedly. "Jiang Xun, your acting skills are too good!"

"When I saw your performance just now, I had goosebumps all over my body!" Xiangyou organized his words in shock. "I've also seen your performance in 'Storm in The Heavenly Capital,' but the feeling of watching a completed drama is too different from watching it live!"

"In the past, I didn't understand what it meant to be a talented actor. After all, all the actors I've come into contact with had many years of acting experience. I've only come to know what it means to be talented after seeing you!"

Xiuse rolled her eyes as she watched Xiangyou exaggerate.

Jiang Xun's acting skills were just so-so.

If it were her, she would be able to act as well.

It was just that she would not play such a negative role.

“Jiang Xun, why did you think of humming?” Xiangyou asked.

“That’s right.” Zilong also walked over. “What were you thinking about? Originally, the script only said that you would smile at the backs of the two of them as they left. There was no part about humming.”

“But even though I let you do as you please without any restrictions, I really didn’t expect you to hum instead.” Zilong was as excited as Xiangyou. From his smiling expression, one could see how satisfied he was.

“It was inspired by horror movies,” Jiang Xun explained. “I thought that horror movies often use some music to stimulate the nerves of the audience to create a tense and terrifying atmosphere, so I gave it a try.”

“What’s this song of yours?” Xiangyou was curious.

Of course, Jiang Xun couldn’t say that it was a song from the post-apocalyptic world. Otherwise, there was really no way to explain it. She could only say, “I just randomly hummed it.”

“Can you still hum it? I’ll get someone to edit it properly. Maybe it can even be an OST or at least a BGM,” Zilong said.

“Okay, I’ll record it and send it to you.” Jiang Xun nodded.

“Perfect!”

After Jiang Xun finished shooting this scene, she went to rest temporarily. Then, she recorded the complete hum of the nursery rhyme and sent it to Zilong.

After Jiang Xun finished shooting this scene, she was going to follow Qiyao and the others to the mountain in the suburbs to continue shooting another scene.

Jiang Xun changed her clothes and makeup. Then, she got on the bus of the production team and set off together.

As the filming time window was tight, in order to avoid any accidents on the way, all the actors followed the crew’s bus.

Qiyao also had her own RV, but she could only take the crew’s bus.

Qiyao walked to the back of the bus and saw that Jiang Xun had already sat down. She raised her chin proudly, snorted, and sat on the same row as Jiang Xun on the other side of the aisle.

Chapter 249: How Could You Not Know Me!

Jiang Xun: “...”

Whose family released this brat?

After Qiyao sat down, she couldn't help but ask Jiang Xun after a while, "Is it really because of you that Director Chen postponed the start of the filming?"

This was the truth, so Jiang Xun nodded and admitted, "Yes."

"On what basis?" Qiyao directly questioned without thinking. "Who are you?"

Jiang Xun: "..."

Who let a spoiled brat out?

She didn't have any EQ at all and asked directly.

Even if Jiang Xun was that straightforward, she wouldn't ask it like that.

Qiyao was spoiled by her family and had never been beaten up by society. It was even possible that society couldn't even beat it into her head even if they wanted to.

"I don't have any great background. My acting is at a level where Director Chen is willing to cooperate with me," Jiang Xun said seriously.

Qiyao: "..."

Don't think that I can't tell that you are feeling superior just because you put on a serious expression!

What kind of acting skills do you have to have Director Chen forcefully delay the start of filming by three months for you?

Previously, when Jiang Xun was filming the first scene, Qiyao was filming in Group B, so she was unable to see Jiang Xun's performance live.

"You're very confident." Qiyao nodded as if she admired Jiang Xun's confidence.

Jiang Xun: "..."

Just who was the one who released the devilish brat!

"How long have you been in the industry?" Jiang Xun asked.

"More than a year." Although Qiyao didn't understand why Jiang Xun suddenly asked her this question, she thought that since she had already asked her a few questions, it wasn't a big deal for Jiang Xun to ask her instead.

"Then how many shows have you filmed?" Jiang Xun asked again.

Qiyao widened her eyes unhappily. "Don't you know me?"

"I really don't." Jiang Xun nodded honestly. "It's my first time seeing you today."

"You must have done it on purpose!" Qiyao widened her eyes in anger. "How could you not know me!"

"I started acting in 'Little Warm Time' When I debuted. Haven't you seen it? It was very popular at that time!" Qiyao was not convinced when she heard that Jiang Xun actually did not know her. "Many people edited my scenes in Shanpin."

Jiang Xun guessed that she hadn't arrived in this world at that time yet, so she shook her head honestly. "I really haven't seen it."

1

"I've acted in three idol dramas before, and all of them were female leads," Qiyao said unconvinced. "It's also because this is Director Chen's drama, a rare opportunity, that I came to act as the second female lead."

1

Did Jiang Xun know that with her seniority, it was an amazing thing for her to be able to act as Zilong's second female lead after debuting for more than a year!

There were many actresses who were more experienced and famous than her, but none of them could get the role.

"I see." Jiang Xun nodded and stopped talking.

Qiyao: "..."

After waiting for a long time, Qiyao saw that Jiang Xun had already turned her head to look at the scenery outside the window. It was obvious that she had no intention of talking anymore. Qiyao asked angrily, "Hey! Why aren't you talking anymore!"

Jiang Xun turned her head and said to Qiyao, "I have nothing to say."

Although Qiyao's temper was a little bad, she did not provoke her, so Jiang Xun did not feel angry.

Qiyao asked, so she answered.

"Director Chen's drama is very popular. Even for your role, there is a lot of competition. Many people want to act in it. If you act well, you can prove your acting skills," Qiyao said. "As far as I know, you've only acted in one drama before, right? And it was a very small role. Why did Director Chen agree to let you audition?"

Although Zilong's movies had high ratings, there was something wrong with his personality. He just didn't like giving newcomers opportunities.

He always liked to find experienced actors in the industry.

Newcomers didn't even have the opportunity to audition.

Not to mention Jiang Xun, who was an influencer. If she didn't have anyone to support her, how could Zilong give her a chance?

"Have you seen my previous drama, 'Storm in The Heavenly Capital?'" Jiang Xun asked.

"I haven't seen the entire series, but I've seen some clips on Shanpin." She was so busy, so how could she have time to seriously watch the show?

1

"I have the most clips on Shanpin. You must have seen it." Jiang Xun decided to use magic to defeat magic.

In terms of self-confidence, she had never lost before.

System: "..."

Thank you for reading on myboxnovel.com

The host was no longer human.

Why would Qiyao provoke such a monster for no reason?

Jiang Xun: "..."

Jiang Xun: "Don't think that I didn't hear you scold me!"

System: "..."

Chapter 250: As Long As It's Cheng Yao's Scenes, He Has To Shoot Them Personally

Qiyao was quite honest. She really did admit to scrolling through it. "I did scroll through it a few times."

"Then you must have seen how good my acting is," Jiang Xun said confidently.

Qiyao was speechless.

Everyone from the film crew who were also in the bus were also speechless.

Who were these new people who joined the film crew this time.

Qiyao's straightforwardness had already shocked them. She didn't give any face to anyone.

Just today alone, she had criticized Xiuse a lot.

She wasn't as polite as other artistes when facing a senior with a higher status than them.

In the end, Jiang Xun was even more confident than Qiyao!

She could make Qiyao speechless!

"Anyway, Director Chen saw my acting skills and felt that my acting was particularly good. He felt that no one was more suitable than me for the role of Cheng Yao. No one could act better than me, so he would rather change the filming schedule to wait for me to enter the crew."

Qiyao: "..."

"Do you dare to say that again in front of Director Chen?" Qiyao asked Jiang Xun.

“Isn’t Director Chen sitting in the second row? He can hear everything I say.” Jiang Xun pointed in the direction of the front row.

Qiyao: “!!!”

Qiyao was shocked!

When she came up, she didn’t see Zilong sitting in the front row.

He might have come up later, and she had been talking to Jiang Xun, so she didn’t notice.

Zilong: “...”

Zilong wondered why there were these two idiots in his crew.

1

The two of them didn’t deliberately lower their voices, so everyone in the bus could hear them clearly.

He was too embarrassed to continue listening.

Zilong was covering his face, indicating that he didn’t want to talk to Jiang Xun and Qiyao.

However, he heard Jiang Xun say, “Look, Director Chen didn’t refute.”

Zilong: “...”

Qiyao paused, and said, “Alright, since we have a scene in a while, I can test you out myself.”

Zilong was quiet.

I simply didn’t say anything. Jiang Xun said that I didn’t refute, so did you really believe her?

1

However, he did... mean it by default.

Then, everyone in the bus heard Jiang Xun and Qiyao brag about their achievements in the industry.

Qiyao said, “I was a female lead as soon as I entered the industry.”

Jiang Xun said, “I became the first sister of Shanpin after a month in the industry.”

Qiyao said, “I was still the female lead in my second show.”

Jiang Xun said, “I was the first sister of Shanpin after two months.”

Qiyao said, “I was also female lead in my third show.”

Jiang Xun said, “I became famous after one battle in my first show, and for my second show I will be acting in Director Chen’s drama.”

Qiyao was speechless

Alright, she had lost on this point.

She had only gotten the chance to act in Zilong's movie after acting as three female leads.

Moreover, it was all because of her connections.

Everyone in the bus was speechless.

If the two of them continued to compete like this, wouldn't they feel embarrassed?

However, Qiyao was still very surprised that Zilong actually put aside filming the male and female lead roles to film the scenes of their B team.

Could it really be because of Jiang Xun?

Qiyao tilted her head and looked at Jiang Xun with a strange, hesitant, and doubtful look.

The same doubts appeared in Xiuse's mind.

Xiuse and Xiangyou were preparing to film the next scene, but they found that Zilong was not there. Only the assistant director was there to film for them.

"Where's Director Chen?" Xiuse asked.

"Director Chen went to shoot with Team B," the assistant director explained.

"Director Chen isn't shooting the male and female lead's scenes, but the supporting roles?" Xiuse's expression changed.

"Yes," the assistant director said truthfully. "Director Chen values Cheng Yao very much, so as long as it's Cheng Yao's scenes, he has to shoot them personally."

Xiuse was speechless.

In other words, they were all basking in Jiang Xun's glory?

Only when they had scenes with Jiang Xun could they get Zilong to personally shoot their scenes.

If they didn't, they could only have the assistant director shoot the scenes?

Seeing Xiuse's ugly expression, the assistant director knew what she was thinking.

The assistant director was furious, but he still pretended not to care. "With your acting skills, it doesn't matter if Director Chen is here or not. It's precisely because he trusts the two of you that he's not here."

But both of them could hear that the assistant director was just comforting them.

The truth was that Zilong valued Jiang Xun's role more.

Xiangyou didn't mind.

The assistant director was Zilong's student, and Xiangyou reckoned that the assistant director would be directing his own movie soon. He didn't want to offend the director.

Only Xiuse couldn't take it lying down.

*

Jiang Xun's filming location was on the mountain.

Because Cheng Yao, who was played by Jiang Xun, was being followed by the second female lead while burying the body, Jiang Xun chased after the second female lead when she found out.

The second female lead rolled down the mountain during her escape and disappeared without a trace.

When the police found her, the second female lead was already in a coma and didn't wake up for a long time.

When they arrived, they also saw a village built along the foot of the mountain.
