Chapter 291: It Seemed To Have Revealed Something Extraordinary

Jiang Xun: "I think your algorithm is pretty lame."

System: "..."

Jiang Xun: "But it's free, so it's understandable."

System: "..."

It felt insulted.

Jiang Xun looked at her merit points. It was now 16,769 merit points.

She still had more than 3,000 merit points to go to unlock the skill category in the system store.

And even if she unlocked it, she still needed merit points to redeem skills.

Her chances of winning this time were not high. She had to increase her chances of winning.

She was also very interested in Xuyan's character.

If she did not care, it would be fine. But since she was interested, she had to fight for it.

Jiang Xun turned her attention to the system again.

Before Jiang Xun could say anything, the system had a bad premonition.

Jiang Xun asked, "Do you have to do something to prove that you're not that lame?"

1

The system paused and said, "No, I don't want to prove it."

Jiang Xun said, "Aren't you afraid that your lame method will be spread out and embarrass you in the system world?"

The system said, "It's not like you can spread it."

Jiang Xun could only contact it, but not the other systems.

Jiang Xun said, "That might not be the case. Don't you know something about the other systems? There must be some backdoor between you and the rest that you can peek at, right?"

The system was speechless.

Damn it!

She had actually guessed it!

As expected, it could not do something for free. It would never work for the host for free again!

Not only did it not get any benefits from helping for free, it was even threatened by her!

Jiang Xun said, "It's not that you can't work for me for free, but since you've agreed to do it for free, then do your best for free. Don't try to take advantage of the situation! What's the difference between your free work and those free trials on the Internet?"

The system: "..."

Jiang Xun: "Aren't you embarrassing the system industry? Do you still want to win the best system award?"

The system: "..."

Jiang Xun: "That's why I'm giving you a chance to redeem yourself."

The system was tired. "Host, what exactly do you want?"

Be more direct!

Jiang Xun chuckled in her mind and said, "In the skill category of the system store, let me choose a skill to experience it!"

The system was speechless.

So this was the reason why she had said so much.

Jiang Xun: "Like those skills in the system store, I have to give them a try before I know if they will work. After all, the merit points required are not low!"

The system: "..."

Did the host start to pull its wool because she had not been able to pull her anti's wool recently?

Jiang Xun: "You guys sell things so expensive, so you can't not even give me a try, right? Normally, I don't say anything when you cheat me, but you have to compensate me a little. I don't ask for much. I just want to choose a skill from it. It's not like I have to try all the skills once. If you let me try one of the skills, I'll be able to know how the other skills are based on the quality of the skill I'm trying to use. If it's really good, it'll definitely attract me to try my best to earn merit points to buy the skills."

Jiang Xun gave the system a final push. "You know how fast I earn merit points, so I'll definitely let you be selected as the best system. If you have any other performance evaluations or best sales awards, I'll be able to get them for you. But if I'm so awesome, as my system, shouldn't you be a little more awesome as well?"

The system: "..."

The system: "Alright, there's no need to say anymore. I'll go apply for you."

Jiang Xun: "Go!"

The system: "Host, you can consider uploading your own will into our system after you die. With your eloquence and wisdom, you'll definitely become the best system in the system world."

Actually, the system wanted to say that Jiang Xun was shameless and treacherous.

However, the system also needed to know how to be flexible.

Jiang Xun said, "Hmm? I thought you systems were programmed, but it's actually the will of a real person after they die?"

The system: "..."

Oh no, it seemed to have revealed something extraordinary.

However, thinking about how it wouldn't affect anything even if it said it out loud, the system said, "The ones who programmed are all low-level systems. Those like us who follow the host are all high-level systems, and the high-level systems all come from uploading consciousness."

Otherwise, why would they answer Jiang Xun so fluently and without any sense of mechanics?

Jiang Xun was surprised. "Then do you still retain your memories from when you were alive?"

The system was silent for a moment, "Yes, we do. Those who can upload their consciousness into the system are all strictly selected. Therefore, we systems were good people when we were alive. The host can rest assured about this. This could also be considered as providing another possibility for people. After death, the consciousness will remain forever."

The system said, "Especially those who had made great contributions when they were still alive. They are geniuses who possess profound scientific knowledge. Many of them regret that their consciousness does not exist after death, so they cannot continue their research and discover more scientific mysteries. Therefore, we can provide them with a method to leave their consciousness behind. Many such geniuses are willing to leave their consciousness behind and upload it into the system."

Jiang Xun felt that what the system mentioned was more like a huge organization, like a five-dimensional or even higher-dimensional life form.

But this also seemed to explain the ability of the system to save her.

The consciousness of the genius scientists had been left behind generation after generation, and they had been carrying out scientific research and exploration.

This organization possessed a very high level of technology.

It was beyond the level of many worlds. It was even possible that they were at the highest level.

Jiang Xun said, "If such super-intelligent consciousness were left behind, there must be a way to restrain them, right? Otherwise, it would be very dangerous for a system to hide in a human's consciousness."

It was equivalent to saying that her life was in the hands of the system.

Jiang Xun had actually noticed this a long time ago, but the system had never done anything to hurt her.

Even if it had nothing to say every time, it would just shut itself up for a while.

Therefore, Jiang Xun thought that other than the system itself being a good system, there must also be something restraining them.

In the past, Jiang Xun thought that her life was picked up by luck and it didn't matter even if the system was really a ticking time bomb.

She had already managed to live longer than before.

But now that Mufeng was here, Jiang Xun could no longer treat it with such an indifferent attitude.

She needed to understand what the system was like.

The system said, "Host, you can rest assured on this point. We have a very strict set of management and control procedures. If a system harbored evil intentions towards the host, the system would automatically trigger the self-destruct procedure, and the system would be unable to intervene. The system consciousness would be erased, and a new consciousness would be uploaded to replace the original system consciousness."

Jiang Xun nodded. In that case, she had nothing to be afraid of.

She did not think that the system would lie to her in this regard.

Chapter 292: With Sister Youlan Around, She Doesn't Have Much Hope

From her past experiences, the system did indeed have very strict management.

Although the system had its own consciousness, it could not abuse its own functions.

Jiang Xun: "Why are you still here and not applying for a skill test for me?!"

System: "..."

This host turned hostile faster than flipping through a book.

The system returned after about 10 minutes.

The system said, "Host, with my perseverance and hard work, I've finally applied for you. The system store can open the skill category for you once for free. You can choose a skill from the category to look up. As for how much of it you can try, it will depend on the skill you look up."

Jiang Xun rubbed her fists and urged, "What are you waiting for? Hurry up and open the skill category!"

The system was already used to Jiang Xun's dog-like personality. It even felt that she and Mufeng were just the same and were attracted to each other.

These two dogs coincidentally formed a pair.

Otherwise, someone else wouldn't be able to control them at all.

System: "It's already opened now. You can enter the system store to check at any time."

Jiang Xun entered the system store without hesitation and clicked on the skill category.

Just as she had expected, there were performing skills in the skill category.

She had guessed that the system would provide different skill points to the host according to the host's characteristics.

The skills provided were focused on matching the host's own abilities.

However, it was rare for the skill category to be released for free. Jiang Xun was not in a hurry to choose performing skills. Instead, she first looked through the names of all the skill books in the skill category.

She roughly understood what skills were in her skill category.

After looking through them, Jiang Xun chose acting skills.

Each skill was displayed in the category list as a book.

After Jiang Xun chose acting skills, the list of acting skills appeared in her mind.

Eye acting.

Big expression acting.

Micro expression acting.

Large action acting.

Small action acting.

Happiness, anger, sorrow, and joy acting, etc.

Based on Jiang Xun's current acting skills, she felt that the most difficult part for her was eye acting.

Up until now, the two roles she had acted in had actually used more of her cold and heartless eyes.

It was also her good luck that she didn't need to challenge the more complicated aspect of being eye acting.

Knowing that she had such a weakness, Jiang Xun naturally had to make up for it.

However, the eye acting was not only for newbies like Jiang Xun, but also for all actors. It was an extremely difficult part.

Jiang Xun opened "eye acting," but she did not expect that it was not a method to be transmitted directly into her brain and automatically learned. Instead, it was a serious lesson.

The better thing was that the teaching was transmitted directly into Jiang Xun's brain, so Jiang Xun did not have to try her best to remember it.

These contents were deeply imprinted in Jiang Xun's brain, and she could take them out and learn them whenever she wanted to.

Thus, during the period before the audition, Jiang Xun used all her free time to practice her eye movements.

While practicing, Jiang Xun sighed, "I didn't expect the system to have such a good view of the world, and it refuses to provide any method of getting something for nothing."

The system: "..."

He didn't expect this unstingy host to see such an outstanding side of the system.

This was a side that many hosts didn't see.

Many hosts realized that they had to rely on themselves to learn skills after obtaining them, and they all shouted that they had been deceived by the system.

Only Jiang Xun felt that the system had a good outlook on life and wouldn't allow the host to gain something without doing anything.

The system felt that the host could still be accepted and was not completely unscrupulous.

*

On the day of the audition, Jiang Xun brought Xin'an along and took her commercial car to the audition venue.

The driver parked the car in front of the audition building and Xin'an followed Jiang Xun out of the car.

Jiang Xun was afraid of being late, so she came early. Before Jiang Xun arrived, the staff had already arranged for Jiang Xun to wait in the lounge.

Perhaps it was because Haolun and Zilong were good friends, or perhaps it was because of Mufeng, but they arranged for Jiang Xun to be in a separate waiting room. She didn't mingle with the other actors who were auditioning.

"Jiang Jiang, do you want to drink something? I'll buy it for you," Xin'an asked.

"No need. I don't want drink too much water. Otherwise, if I need to go to the toilet later, my work will be delayed," Jiang Xun said.

At this moment, Haolun's assistant brought some tea over. "Teacher Jiang, please have some tea first. If you need anything else, just let me know."

"Thank you," Jiang Xun thanked her.

Youlan was accompanied by her assistant. Coincidentally, she was also led to the entrance of the lounge by a staff member.

Before entering, Youlan saw Jiang Xun sitting inside. Haolun's assistant was very polite to Jiang Xun.

It was Youlan's first time meeting Jiang Xun, but she recognized her at a glance. However, she still acted as if she didn't know her. She asked the staff next to her, "Which teacher is the one inside?"

Youlan smiled and said, "I haven't been in the TV drama circle for a long time, so I don't know much about the teachers in the TV drama circle."

The staff thought to herself, "Look at the tone of this movie star. She is pretending to be high and mighty."

In the noble film industry, people who had never been in the television industry did not know much about the television industry.

“That’s Jiang Xun, Teacher Jiang,” the staff member said.

“Jiang Xun?” Youlan muttered, “The name sounds familiar.”

The staff member did not say anything else. She did not need to talk to Youlan about Jiang Xun’s gossip.

Seeing that the staff member did not respond, Youlan said, “I remember now. So she’s Jiang Xun. She actually came to audition. What role is she auditioning for?”

“The same as you. She’s here to audition for Lin Xuyan,” the staff member said. After all, there was nothing that could not be said.

“She’s auditioning for Lin Xuyan?” Youlan’s assistant laughed. Her voice was full of contempt. “With Sister Youlan around, she doesn’t have much hope.”

“Xiaoxiao!” Youlan pretended to stop her. “Don’t say that.”

Xiaoxiao pouted. “I’m just saying it here. I won’t spread it. Besides, Sister Youlan, your acting skills have been meticulously honed in the film industry. As long as you want to play the role of Lin Xuyan, I can’t think of anyone who can compete with you. Even if it’s not based on popularity, and purely based on acting skills, no one can compete with you.”

In the film industry, those who could compete with Youlan in terms of acting skills were not suitable for the role of Xuyan in terms of age.

Those who were suitable for the role were few and far between in the film industry.

Therefore, the position of Youlan was really in the right place at the right time. It just so happened that no one was more suitable than her.

It was often said that she was the chosen one in the entertainment industry.

When everyone said this, their tone was filled with envy. Youlan had a high starting point as a child star. When she became an adult, her beauty had not deteriorated. She was the only one in the film industry with film resources. Moreover, in the film industry, very few people could match her style.

Chapter 293: How Is Senior Doing?

She was not as well-known, good at acting, or as well-connected as Youlan.

Youlan’s career had been smooth, and no one had been able to compete with her since she debuted.

No one knew why Youlan suddenly decided to appear in a TV series.

Her resources in the film industry were not the same as those small-budget romantic dramas.

They were either big productions or films that were going to win awards.

She did not need to be like a traffic star to make the transition through this drama.

As for the pay, Haolun's drama had never paid much.

It was because there was never a shortage of people who lowered their pay to compete for roles.

Therefore, the pay for playing Xuyan was not necessarily higher than her movie pay.

Even Haolun was surprised to know that Youlan had come to audition for the role of Xuyan.

He didn't know why Youlan had come.

If she wanted to develop in the television industry, all she had to do was say the word, and a large number of investors would be willing to give her scripts to choose from. They would even be willing to specially create a big female lead drama with her as the center, and the pay would be ridiculously high.

"Enough, stop running your mouth," Youlan said to Xiaoxiao in a low voice, seemingly displeased. "If people hear this, it's not appropriate."

The staff members of the production team pretended not to hear her and did not say anything.

It did not matter to her who came to act. She did not have to go along with anyone's words.

Although Youlan was clearly hinting that the staff member should also follow this assistant called Xiaoxiao to support her, the staff member's expression did not change.

As usual, the staff member said politely with a smile, "Teacher Su, please come in."

"Wait." Xiaoxiao stopped the staff member again. "Jiang Xun is also waiting in this lounge with our Sister Youlan? Our Sister Youlan has no intention of being overbearing and not sharing the lounge with others. I'm just curious. Jiang Xun is a newcomer and doesn't have a representative work. Why isn't she waiting in the big lounge with the others? Does she have some kind of backing?"

Although Jiang Xun had acted in two dramas, she was not the main character.

Not being the main character wasn't the main point. When Xiaoxiao said that Jiang Xun did not have any representative works, strictly speaking, no one could say that what she said was wrong.

How could the staff know that this was all arranged by Haolun's assistant? She could only say, "I'm not too sure either. Then, how about I react and prepare a separate lounge for Teacher Su? But it might take a little longer..."

"There's no need." Youlan pretended to be displeased as she glared at Xiaoxiao. "You're the only one with a lot on your plate."

Xiaoxiao pouted. "I'm just curious why Jiang Xun can be in the same lounge as you, Sister Youlan!"

"I'm sorry, this assistant of mine is usually spoiled by me. She's very straightforward," Youlan said to the staff member with a smile.

The staff member smiled.

She had never participated in a film crew before, so she didn't have many opportunities to get in touch with Youlan.

Today, when she got in touch with Youlan, she found that she was very different from the rumors.

She was quite... two-faced.

Girls could be said to be quite sensitive to two-faced girls.

The staff member thought that as long as it was a man standing in her position today, he would have to praise Youlan's good character.

In the past, she had always heard that some celebrities did not treat their assistants well and did not treat them as human beings. Today, when she heard Youlan say that she spoiled her assistant, she would definitely think that Youlan had a good temper and treated the people around her well!

However, she would not notice that Youlan said this. Wasn't she clearly showing off that she was a good person and treated her assistant well? Wasn't she different from those celebrities?

The staff member secretly pursed her lips. She was saying that her assistant was straightforward, but she did not say that what her assistant said was wrong.

Hur!

The staff member's impression of Youlan plummeted. "Then do you want to use this lounge?"

Youlan also did not expect this staff member to be so stubborn. After saying so much just now, this staff member still did not seem to care about her, as if she did not hear anything.

"I'll use this one. There's no need to trouble yourself," Youlan said with a smile.

Thus, Youlan brought her assistant into the lounge.

Haolun's assistant greeted her, "Teacher Su."

Jiang Xun knew that in this circle, everyone would call her teacher, so she didn't hesitate to take the initiative to greet her. "Teacher Su."

"Hello, you are..." Youlan asked as if she didn't recognize Jiang Xun.

The staff member who brought Youlan over secretly pursed her lips. As expected.

she clearly knew who Jiang Xun was just now, and now she was putting on an act.

"I'm Jiang Xun," Jiang Xun said nonchalantly.

"Jiang Xun?" Youlan took out her phone. "I'm sorry, I'll look you up now."

Youlan put on an act and searched for information about Jiang Xun online. She said in surprise, "You're a newcomer and not a professional performer, but you've already worked with Director Deng Xu and Director Chen Zilong. You're really amazing."

Jiang Xun nodded. "Director Deng and Director Chen also said the same thing about me. They even said that my acting skills are very good."

In reality, both of them had said that her acting skills were the ceiling of the industry.

However, Jiang Xun did not say this out loud. She was afraid that she would draw hatred towards Deng Xu and Zilong, so she did not say it out loud.

Therefore, she could only say in a low-key manner that they praised her acting skills.

As for how good they said she was, she didn't say it out loud.

Everything was to protect Deng Xu and Zilong!

Everyone was silent.

Jiang Xun still felt that she had kept a low enough profile, but Youlan was speechless for a moment because of Jiang Xun.

She was just saying. How could Jiang Xun really believe it?

Moreover, when ordinary people encountered such a situation, they would be self-deprecating and say that they hadn't done enough and that she was more outstanding.

Why was it completely different when it came to Jiang Xun?

It was fine to boast, but why didn't she compliment her?

Jiang Xun did not know what Youlan was thinking. Otherwise, she would have told Youlan seriously, "I'm no ordinary person."

Haolun's assistant and the staff member curled their lips. It was not easy for them to hold back their laughter.

Youlan had probably never met someone like Jiang Xun who was really straightforward and would not play mind games with her!

Youlan forced out a smile and laughed twice. Then, she lowered her head and continued to read Jiang Xun's online profile.

"Fengjiang ship?" Youlan mumbled softly. She had practiced countless times on her face, so her flawless smile paused slightly. She looked up at Jiang Xun and asked, "How is Senior doing? I haven't seen him for some time."

Senior?

Jiang Xun raised her eyebrows.

What Senior?

"What Senior?" Jiang Xun asked Youlan. "Are you referring to Qin Mufeng?"

"Yes." Youlan nodded. "We went to the same school from elementary school to high school. It's just that I went to the National Opera in college, so I haven't seen him since I got busy."

Jiang Xun raised her eyebrows. Just as he was about to speak, she saw Youlan shake her head. She smiled and said, "I was stupid. You guys are just a pairing that netizens like, not a real couple. Even if I asked, how would you know about his situation?"

Jiang Xun replied, "Oh."

Jiang Xun sat down and took out her phone. She opened Mufeng's Wechat and asked through voice mail, "Do you know Su Youlan?"

Chapter 294: The Dog Man On The Phone Was Anxious

Youlan sat opposite Jiang Xun and looked over with some surprise and curiosity.

Who was Jiang Xun asking?

She couldn't be asking Mufeng, right?

When she thought of this, Youlan laughed at herself.

How could she have such a ridiculous idea.

Jiang Xun must have been with Mufeng to fan the flame of the shippers, then in time, she would admit that she was single, and that she was lucky. Although her fans would still be on drugs, Mufeng had no reason to find trouble with her.

After all, Jiang Xun had admitted that she was single.

But that was all. Jiang Xun was using Mufeng to boost her popularity.

How could she really ask Mufeng about this?

Not to mention how ridiculous it was for Jiang Xun to have Mufeng's Wechat. It was work time now. Even if she sent it to Mufeng's Wechat, would Mufeng care about her?

Mufeng: [??? Who is that?]

Because the sentence was short, Mufeng sent a text message.

Jiang Xun felt that it was too long, so she simply sent another voice message over. "She said that she is your junior. From elementary school to high school, she was in the same school as you. Later, because she was busy, she didn't see you again. She said it as if she was very familiar with you."

This time, Mufeng also sent a voice message because there was too much to type otherwise "I've studied at Jixia Academy from elementary school to high school. Jixia Academy is a combination of elementary, junior, and high school departments. If that's the case, I have too many juniors. They know me, but I don't know them."

Youlan sat stiffly across from Jiang Xun in shock.

This was indeed Mufeng's voice!

How could she forget Mufeng's voice?!

Jiang Xun actually had Mufeng's Wechat. When she sent Mufeng a message during work hours, Mufeng actually replied in seconds!

Moreover, their relationship...

Youlan frowned.

Judging from the tone of Jiang Xun and Mufeng's conversation, they were really very casual.

Was their relationship really that good?

Jiang Xun replied, [Got it.]

Jiang Xun didn't expect that Mufeng would be so anxious when she only replied with two words.

A few seconds after Jiang Xun sent the message, Mufeng called.

Jiang Xun: "..."

Jiang Xun picked up the call. "What's wrong?"

"What do you mean you got it? Don't overthink it. I really don't know her." Mufeng was so angry that he wanted to curse.

1

Fuck!

Where the hell did Youlan come from? She suddenly said that she was very familiar with him.

"I didn't think too much about it. That's why I replied that I got it," Jiang Xun said sincerely. "Got it. It means that I got it."

Mufeng: "..."

"I didn't do anything worthy of her concern. I didn't do anything that caused her misunderstanding!" Mufeng explained crazily, "When I was in school, I was only with Wei Zhiqian and the rest. I didn't have any contact with the opposite sex."

"I really got it." Jiang Xun laughed. "I just wanted to confirm it with you. Now that I've confirmed it, I got it."

Mufeng pondered for a moment. Jiang Xun seemed to really believe him and didn't get angry.

He was annoyed again and asked Jiang Xun, "Aren't you jealous?"

Jiang Xun was speechless.

Is this dog man ever going to stop?!

"Don't I know what your attitude towards the opposite sex is?" She had experienced it herself back then! "This means that you did a good job and made me feel at ease."

Mufeng: "..."

There was nothing wrong with saying that.

“Besides, if I wasn’t jealous in the beginning, why would I ask you?” Jiang Xun curled her lips and admitted reluctantly. She was a little jealous at first.

This time, Mufeng was completely happy. He even said, “Where is that Su Something? Go find her and put me on the speaker. I’ll tell her!”

Jiang Xun paused and glanced at Youlan who was sitting opposite her. Obviously, the dog man on the phone was anxious. However, Jiang Xun thought that Youlan deserved it.

1

Therefore, Jiang Xun said without hesitation, “She is sitting opposite me.”

“Put it on speaker,” Mufeng said immediately.

Jiang Xun turned on speaker and Youlan heard Mufeng’s voice. “Miss Su, I’m Qin Mufeng.”

Youlan was so nervous that she froze for a moment. “Senior, I...”

“Do you have my contact information? My phone number, Wechat, any one of them is fine,” Mufeng said again.

Youlan’s heart skipped a beat. Was Mufeng going to give her his contact information?

“No,” Youlan said hurriedly.

“Since you don’t have my contact information, it means that we aren’t close,” Mufeng said coldly, “Don’t act as if you are close to me and make people misunderstand. It’s not just this time. I don’t want to hear rumors that we are close through any channels in the future.”

“I only thought of asking because we were schoolmates.” Youlan was slapped in the face by Mufeng and her face turned pale. She could only find an excuse to save her dignity.

“Jixia Academy has a lot of students, and you have a lot of seniors as well. Go and recognize someone else, don’t come and recognize me.” Mufeng’s performance was affected by the phone.

1

If they were face to face, Mufeng would immediately roll his eyes at her.

“I’m done speaking.” Mufeng’s words were much gentler. It was obvious that he was talking to Jiang Xun.

Jiang Xun turned off the speaker and put the phone back to her ear. Mufeng asked, “Isn’t it time for your audition yet?”

“Not yet. I came more than 20 minutes earlier,” Jiang Xun said. “It’s fine for me to wait here for a while. It’s better than being late.”

Mufeng also had work to do. The two ended the call.

Youlan had lost so much face. Her face was burning with pain, but she couldn't help but look at Jiang Xun.

What was going on between Jiang Xun and Mufeng?

At this moment, Haolun's assistant came over again.

"Teacher Su." Haolun's assistant stood at the door. "It's your turn to audition."

Youlan nodded and got up to go to the audition next door.

"Teacher Su." Seeing Youlan come in, Haolun greeted her with a smile. "I didn't expect you to audition for the role of Lin Xuyan."

"Director Guo, you're too polite. I'm still young. How can I be a teacher?" Youlan maintained her usual modest and polite persona. "You can just call me Little Su."

Screenwriter Yu looked at Youlan from the side and shook his head. Youlan had an air of elegance. She was very eye-catching.

However, she was completely at odds with Xuyan's character.

Xuyan had never been an empty valley orchid. She was a wild flower that struggled to survive in the four seasons on the cliff.

She looked unremarkable, but her vitality was exceptionally tenacious.

Youlan's journey had been too smooth. Ever since she debuted as a child star, she had had a smooth journey. She had never suffered any setbacks.

From her face, one could not even see any signs that she had been hit by life.

The roles she had acted in in the past had never been similar to Xuyan.

Even if Youlan's acting skills were very good, she lacked Xuyan's strength. Screenwriter Yu already felt that Youlan was not suitable.

Chapter 295: A Ruthlessness That Came From Struggling To Survive

She was not like Jiang Xun.

Jiang Xun had a ruthlessness that came from struggling to survive.

Screenwriter Yu had seen Jiang Xun's experience on the Internet, but it was a little strange.

Those experiences were indeed very difficult and cruel for a seven-year-old child.

However, the ruthlessness on Jiang Xun's body was a ruthlessness that came from standing on the brink of death countless times and struggling to survive countless times.

The suffering she had experienced seemed to be much more than what was shown on the Internet.

Haolun smiled and said, "Then I won't stand on ceremony with you. I'll call you Little Su."

“You’ve already read the script, right?” Haolun asked.

Although he hadn’t confirmed the actors, since they intended to come for an audition, Haolun would definitely give part of the script to the actors.

Otherwise, how could the actors perform if they could not even understand the role?

“I’ve read through it.” Youlan nodded.

“Okay, then go ahead and try this part.” Haolun did not look at the script. He had already memorized the script by heart. “One part is Lin Xuyan’s college entrance exam results, and the other part is Lin Xuyan wondering why she could not get the college admission notice after waiting for a long time. She went to ask her parents and found out that her mother had taken the volunteer form from her teacher for the reason that her family could not afford to send her to college.”

In the 1980s, the college entrance exam system at that time was to estimate her score after the exam and then fill in the application form according to her estimated score.

The score would only come out after the application was completed. Only then would she know if she could get in.

“Okay.” Youlan chose a corner of the room and squatted down on her knees. She was washing her clothes when she heard the voice of the postman delivering a letter. She ran out in a hurry.

“Is there a letter for Lin Xuyan?” Youlan stared at the letter in the postman’s hand nervously.

The postman looked at it and said, “Yes.”

Youlan took it and took it nervously. She opened it and took out the college entrance examination report card.

“498 points!” Youlan took the report card and ran home excitedly. “Dad, Mom, second brother, my result is 498 points! I... I can go to Huaqiao University! I can go to Huaqiao University!”

Youlan was so excited that she cried.

“Okay, the second segment. Lin Xuyan waited for a long time for the acceptance letter and found out the truth,” Haolun said.

Youlan finished her performance.

Haolun clapped his hands in satisfaction. “I still have to call you Teacher Su. You have rich acting experience. As expected of someone who has honed her acting skills in the film industry.”

It had to be said that Youlan’s acting skills in the television industry could indeed beat everyone.

Youlan covered her pride and smiled modestly. “Director Guo, I wonder if I have a chance to play the role of Lin Xuyan?”

There was still the last audition which was Jiang Xun’s, so Haolun could not come to a conclusion. “I can only make a judgment after I watch the entire performance. Teacher Su, wait for our news.”

Youlan nodded and said goodbye before leaving.

Haolun's assistant went to call Jiang Xun.

Taking advantage of the gap in between, Screenwriter Yu said to Haolun, "Director Guo, I think Su Youlan's acting skills are indeed fine, but the marks of the sculpting are too strong. She knows too well how to act and when to act, and what kind of emotions to show. It's a very formulaic performance."

"Moreover, she doesn't have the fierce fighting spirit that Lin Xuyan has when she's struggling in the marketplace," Screenwriter Yu said. "It's obvious that she has never done any work. She doesn't even wash her clothes by hand. Her image is that of a student in an ivory tower. She can act as a young lady from a rich family. However, she lacks the ferocity to act as a small character in the marketplace."

Haolun smiled and said, "Isn't it that you like Jiang Xun more?"

"Director Guo, you know me. Good means good. Lacking means lacking. I'm absolutely not biased." Screenwriter Yu raised both of his hands to prove his innocence. "I still feel that Su Youlan is a little lacking. It's not that her acting isn't good. She acted very well, but that's the main point. She's acting. She doesn't think of herself as Lin Xuyan. She's just using Su Youlan's method to portray Lin Xuyan."

"I understand what you mean." Haolun nodded. "In fact, I have the same feeling."

"Maybe she has too much acting experience, so her acting is too strong. Her acting is very good, so people can tell at a glance that she is acting," Haolun said. "In other words, she has too much artistry."

That was why Haolun had said those words to Youlan just now.

It couldn't be said that her acting was bad. On the contrary, her acting was very good.

However, her acting experience was rich and polished. This kind of description could mean that her acting was good, or it could mean something else.

"If her acting skills were placed in the television industry, she could indeed beat everyone." Haolun sighed. "If in a while Jiang Xun's performance isn't good enough, then we can only choose Su Youlan."

This was because although Youlan didn't meet their expectations, there was indeed no one who could act better than Youlan.

"Jiang Xun hasn't acted yet. How do you know that her acting won't be good enough?" Screenwriter Yu felt that Haolun's words were inappropriate. "Let's wait and see. I have a lot of confidence in Jiang Xun."

One of them wanted to act as Xuyan, and the other was Xuyan's origin.

He knows that Jiang Xun was better even if she didn't act.

Jiang Xun saw Youlan return to the lounge with a confident look on her face, as if victory was within her grasp.

It seemed that Youlan was very satisfied with her performance.

"Teacher Jiang." Haolun's assistant came over to call her. "It's your turn."

Jiang Xun stood up. Youlan encouraged Jiang Xun with a confident look on her face. "Do your best. No matter what the outcome is, at least you've tried your best."

“Thank you.” Jiang Xun said perfunctorily and left the lounge.

How could she not see through Youlan’s little trick?

It was nothing more than a blow to her confidence, making her feel that the role must already belong to Youlan, affecting her state of mind.

She had never been affected by zombies. She had struggled on the brink of death countless times, and had even experienced death.

Her state of mind was strong, so how could she be affected by Youlan’s little psychological attack?

“Sister Youlan, aren’t we leaving?” After Jiang Xun left with Xin’an, Xiaoxiao asked, “Are we waiting for the results here?”

Youlan crossed her arms and crossed her legs. She said coldly, “I want to know the results of Jiang Xun’s audition. I’d like to see how she performs.”

Xiaoxiao sneered disdainfully, “How can Jiang Xun win against you? If you didn’t come, she might still have some hope. But now that you’re here, as long as they’re not fools, everyone knows who to choose.”

Youlan smiled in agreement and confidence. “I just want to see Jiang Xun’s dejected expression when she comes out.”

*

Jiang Xun followed Haolun’s assistant into the audition room. Xin’an was waiting outside the door.

“Director, Teacher Yu,” Jiang Xun called out as soon as she entered.

They had just seen Youlan, and now they were looking at Jiang Xun.

Jiang Xun’s temperament, which was unwilling to admit defeat and struggled to survive in a difficult situation, was even more obvious compared to Youlan’s.

Chapter 296: Why Was He Always So Forward About The Truth

This was the Lin Xuyan he wanted!

Haolun asked Jiang Xun to perform the same scene as Youlan. “It’s okay if you can’t remember the lines. Just give me a rough performance based on your interpretation of the script.”

Although the script was given to the actors, it was not decided whether they would act in it or not.

Therefore, even if she could not remember the lines, Haolun could understand.

Like Youlan also didn’t remember the lines.

He mainly depended on the actors’ understanding of the role and whether they could grasp Xuyan’s character.

Jiang Xun nodded. She didn't say that she had memorized all the lines. Anyway, Haolun and Screenwriter Yu would know when she started performing.

Jiang Xun performed the first paragraph where she received the report card.

She chose the same corner as Youlan.

Haolun was a little surprised. That spot was indeed the most convenient place to move.

However, Youlan was experienced after all. It was not surprising that she found that spot at a glance.

Jiang Xun had only played two roles in total, and they were both supporting roles. However, she could accurately find the best position.

Initially, despite Zilong's strong recommendation, Haolun still didn't have much expectations for Jiang Xun's performance.

But now, he couldn't help but look forward to it.

The audition was a no-material performance.

Jiang Xun carried an invisible large basin and walked to a corner to squat.

Unlike Youlan, who had her legs together, Jiang Xun didn't keep any image of herself as she spread her legs and squatted.

Youlan's action of washing clothes was to clench her fists and rub them against each other.

Jiang Xun, on the other hand, held an invisible washboard on the basin and rubbed the clothes on the washboard.

Haolun was pleasantly surprised by such details.

Screenwriter Yu's eyes lit up, and he lifted the glasses on his nose bridge with his index finger.

He was afraid that he would affect Jiang Xun's performance, so he held back his voice.

He didn't even dare to use his hand to gesture with Haolun, but he couldn't help but reach out to grab Haolun's arm, and he couldn't help but use all his strength in excitement.

Haolun was speechless.

Can you let go?

It hurts!

While Jiang Xun was washing the clothes, she raised her hand and rubbed the back of her forehead against her hair, making it even messier. She looked more and more like someone who was working hard.

At that moment, Jiang Xun stood up and ran to the door. "Uncle, is there a letter for me? Lin Xuyan?"

Jiang Xun was silent for a moment. It the nonexistent postman's turn to say his lines. She took the letter, opened the envelope, and took out the report card.

When she unfolded the report card, Jiang Xun's hands were shaking, and her breathing was also shaking.

When she unfolded the report card, she paused for a second before looking up again. Her eyes were astonishingly bright when they left the report card.

She walked toward Haolun and Screenwriter Yu and excitedly handed the report card over. "Second brother! Dad!"

Jiang Xun hesitated for a moment before calling out, "Mom."

"My... my results are out. 498 points! I passed Huaqiao University score threshold. I can go to Huaqiao University!" Jiang Xun said excitedly, then, she looked at her mother's position in the air with some uncertainty. "I can go to Huaqiao University..."

Jiang Xun's eyes revealed uncertainty about whether she could go to Huaqiao University. She also looked forward to being able to go to Huaqiao University, and relieved to be able to leave this suffocating home.

Haolun and Screenwriter Yu were both stunned.

They had seen quite a number of actors, and there were many who had good acting skills.

However, they had never seen anyone who could express three different emotions in their gaze like Jiang Xun.

Her eyes seemed to be able to speak.

How did she do it!

After Jiang Xun finished performing the first segment, she did not immediately perform the second segment.

Instead, she stopped to look at Haolun and Screenwriter Yu's reactions.

However, the two of them were completely stunned. They didn't even realize that Jiang Xun had finished her performance.

Jiang Xun waited for a while. Seeing that the two of them were still in a daze, she could only say, "Director, Teacher Yu."

After calling out twice, Haolun and Screenwriter Yu finally came back to their senses.

Haolun shook his head slightly, and his eyes lit up in surprise. "Jiang Xun, your eye acting is very good!"

He had already thought about it. When the time came, he would definitely give Jiang Xun an extra big payment, so that she could fully display her eye acting!

By now, Haolun had long forgotten about Youlan's stereotypical acting skills.

Compared to Jiang Xun, Youlan's acting skills even made him suspect what exactly had Youlan honed for her acting skills in the film industry for so many years.

Jiang Xun thought, how could it not be good?

She had used her intelligence to trick the system into giving her the skills to try out, and she had been practicing eye acting every day.

If it wasn't good enough, it would be a waste of her intelligence and hard work.

The system: "..."

The system: "Host, I can hear your thoughts."

Wasn't the word 'trick' a little hurtful to the system?!

Jiang Xun: "Don't mind the details!"

Screenwriter Yu was even more direct. There was no one else here anyway. Screenwriter Yu said to Haolun calmly, "Director Guo, you saw Jiang Xun's performance. Looking at Su Youlan's again, is what Su Youlan showed called acting skill?"

"Cough!" Haolun coughed dryly.

Why was Screenwriter Yu always so forward about the truth?

"Jiang Xun captured every single detail!" Screenwriter Yu said excitedly, "From the moment she washed the clothes, she had already entered the role. Moreover, every action of hers could only be displayed by someone who had actually done the work. Su Youlan had never done this since she was young, so how would she know how to act? Even if she was taught, it would still be different from what the actual thing."

"From spreading her legs and using a washboard to wash the clothes, to using the back of her hand to wipe her forehead, her performance was amazing." Screenwriter Yu did not forget that Jiang Xun had done this kind of work for several years!

"Also, when she received the report card and called her parents and second brother, although mother was placed last in the script, there was no indication of what kind of emotions she should display or what kind of pause she should have in the middle."

"But what Jiang Xun understood was Lin Xuyan's own state of mind!" Screenwriter Yu was so excited that he could not stop. "She placed mother last, which meant that she actually had a deep grudge against her mother in her heart, but she had no choice but to call her as well. After all, that was her mother! Moreover, she hesitated because she knew too well how little her mother's feelings were for her. Her mother might not be happy for her if she gets into Huaqiao University."

Screenwriter Yu looked at Jiang Xun excitedly with a hint of fanaticism in her eyes. "Jiang Xun, you've memorized all the lines!"

Jiang Xun nodded. "I like this role. Since I'm here to audition for it, I definitely have to understand the role thoroughly with my own interpretation. Even though my understanding might not be right, I can still remember the character's lines by studying and reading them every day."

"Director, take a look!" Screenwriter Yu became even more excited. "Jiang Xun is right! There's not much content in the script that we're distributing. If one really put their heart into this role and study it every day, how could they not remember so few lines? Jiang Xun remembered them! But Su Youlan didn't remember them! It shows that Su Youlan didn't put her heart into this character at all. She was just modeling for her performance. She might have only read the script on the way here."

Chapter 297: Can You Leave A Bit Of Your Image Behind!

Haolun: "..."

What you said fucking makes sense. What else can I say?

"I don't care anymore. In any case, I'm going to settle on Jiang Xun!" Screenwriter Yu moved his body and put his hands on his hips. He looked extremely like a naughty child who was angry and asking for candy.

Jiang Xun: "..."

Haolun: "..."

In front of a little girl, could Screenwriter Yu leave a little bit of his image behind!

"Hey, Hey, hey. You don't need to say anything for me to choose Jiang Xun," Haolun said. "If you could tell that Jiang Xun acted better, wouldn't I be able to tell too?"

When Screenwriter Yu heard this, he was delighted and immediately smiled.

Haolun: "..."

If Zilong was here, he would definitely tell Haolun that every production team had an innocent child.

"Jiang Xun, Lin Xuyan's role is yours!" Haolun officially informed Jiang Xun.

"Then, should I still perform the second part?" Jiang Xun asked.

"Since you have already been decided, I won't..."

Before Haolun could finish, Screenwriter Yu rushed to say, "Perform! Let Jiang Xun perform! I still want to see how she performs the second part!"

Haolun: "..."

"Alright, then you can perform the second part. Lin Xuyan filled in the form and her mother got it back from her teacher," Haolun could only say.

"Okay."

Jiang Xun adjusted her emotions and began performing the second part.

Xuyan waited and waited for the acceptance letter that didn't come, so Jiang Xun found the number of the university and called the university's admissions office.

Screenwriter Yu acted as the teacher in the admissions office and acted as Jiang Xun's partner. "Our acceptance letters were sent out half a month ago. The examinees who were accepted should have received theirs a long time ago."

When Jiang Xun heard the reply on the phone, she was shocked. Then, she felt strange and did not believe it. "You sent out the acceptance letter half a month ago? But I never received it."

Screenwriter Yu said, "What's your name? Let me check it for you."

Jiang Xun hurriedly said, "Lin Xuyan, Lin, Xu, Yan."

Screenwriter Yu said, "I'm sorry, your name isn't on the list."

When she heard the reply on the phone, Jiang Xun's hand that was holding the phone froze.

Of course, her hand was empty. There was no phone in her hand.

However, Jiang Xun still exerted strength with her fingers, causing the muscles on the back of her hand to protrude out. It looked as if she was really holding a transparent phone in her hand.

"You said my name's not there?" Jiang Xun trembled slightly, and her voice was trembling as well. "How can that be? I scored 498 points and passed the Huaqiao University's score threshold!"

"I checked the system, but your name is really not on it," Screenwriter Yu said. "You got such a high score, so you must be able to get into Huaqiao University. Maybe there was a problem with your application. It's okay, classmate. If there really was a problem and your results are so good, it's the same even if you take the exam next year. Huaqiao University will always welcome you."

"Okay, teacher, I got it." Jiang Xun trembled and hung up the phone in a daze.

She ran to the school to find the form teacher and asked about her volunteer form.

"Your mother asked for your volunteer form back. She said that your family doesn't have the money to pay for you to study at Huaqiao University and wants to change your volunteer form." The form teacher said, "I don't agree. No matter what, it's not easy to get into Huaqiao University. You can think of other ways to pay for your tuition fees. Your grades may not be able to get you a scholarship, but there will always be a way. The state can't let you not go to college. But your mother said that this is your own family matter, and we have no control over it. After making a scene in the office, she directly snatched the volunteer form and tore it up. That was the deadline, and she came just when we were about to hand in the volunteer form. There was no time to do anything to remedy it. It was already a holiday, and the students were not in school. I thought you knew about this..."

Jiang Xun retreated in a daze, and her face was pale.

Her mother had torn up her volunteer form.

This was the only chance she had to escape from her family.

But her mother had also ruined such an opportunity.

She knew that her mother didn't even want her to go to university, so how could she let her repeat her studies for another year?

Jiang Xun cried as she went home to question her mother.

She didn't scream at the top of her lungs. As she cried, she asked weakly, "Why did you tear up my volunteer form..."

According to the script, her mother's behavior at this time was unusually cold.

Jiang Xun suddenly exploded and shouted at the top of her lungs, "Why did you tear up my volunteer form!"

"Enough!" Haolun stopped her with a shocked expression.

Jiang Xun suddenly stopped at the boiling point of her emotions. She took a few deep breaths before she managed to adjust her emotions.

"That's great!" Haolun stood up excitedly and praised her without holding back. "Jiang Xun, your expression of emotions is too perfect. Every step you take has a sense of propriety."

"Especially the part where you questioned your mother. The first line was said very softly. There was a sense of powerlessness and extreme disappointment." Haolun's face was flushed with excitement. "When the line was repeated again, she yelled out all the grievances and repressions she had suffered for so many years."

Jiang Xun nodded. "In the script, mother Lin was very cold when she faced Lin Xuyan's first question. I thought that if I were Lin Xuyan, I would definitely explode when I faced mother's indifference, my cold heart, and the grievances I had suffered for so many years."

"Lin Xuyan is a strong character who refuses to admit defeat. How could she not explode?" Jiang Xun said, "Although she had long been disappointed in her mother and no longer expected to receive her mother's love, she also never thought that her mother would be so cruel to her that she would personally ruin her future. She suspected that not only did her mother not love her, but she even hated her. She did not understand why her mother would treat her like this. So she felt wronged and aggrieved. She vented her anger and roared out a question that she knew would not have an answer."

Screenwriter Yu was stunned and looked at Jiang Xun quietly.

"You really know Lin Xuyan very well," Screenwriter Yu muttered.

He had always said that Jiang Xun was the prototype of Xuyan and that Jiang Xun was suitable to play Xuyan.

However, he had never thought that Jiang Xun would be able to completely understand the role of Xuyan.

After all, they weren't really the same person.

"Although we're not exactly the same, as you said, we're the same kind of people." Jiang Xun smiled. "Since we're the same kind of people, I'll always be able to better understand her."

"It's like..." Jiang Xun thought for a moment and said, "I have a resonance with Lin Xuyan."

"You don't treat her as a character on paper?" When Screenwriter Yu heard Jiang Xun's words, it was as if Xuyan really existed.

This made Yu scriptwriter very surprised, and beyond the surprise, there was an indescribable feeling that moved him.

Chapter 298: You Haven't Left Yet?

"You wrote her well and gave her blood and bones." Jiang Xun threw a rainbow fart at Screenwriter Yu without leaving a trace. "Since I'm going to play Lin Xuyan, I naturally have to treat her as a real person in order to act well. Otherwise, how will the audience believe me?"

Screenwriter Yu was so excited that his entire face was flushed red. His entire body was even trembling faintly. His eyes revealed that he had finally found a soulmate.

Which screenwriter did not want to receive such recognition?

The characters in his works were vivid and lively, as if they were real.

"Director Guo, for the role of Lin Xuyan, other than Jiang Xun, I will not agree to give it to anyone else!" Screenwriter Yu said loudly in excitement.

Haolun was completely speechless. "I said earlier that I would give it to Jiang Xun!"

If he did not know Screenwriter Yu's personality, he would have suspected that Screenwriter Yu was trying to sow discord between him and Jiang Xun!

Screenwriter Yu snorted and said to Jiang Xun, "Jiang Xun, don't worry. With me keeping an eye on him, no one will be able to snatch your role in the future."

Haolun cursed, "That's enough from you! Even if you don't keep an eye on me, no one will be able to snatch it away. Am I the kind of person who would allow an actor who doesn't have the ability to take the role? As for someone who is better than Jiang Xun in acting?"

"Let's put it this way. I don't know about the other roles. Just based on Lin Xuyan's role alone, no one is more suitable than Jiang Xun," Haolun dared to assert.

There must be someone who was better than Jiang Xun in acting, but their age wouldn't be suitable for the role of Xuyan.

Those who were suitable for her age were far worse than Jiang Xun in acting.

Even Youlan, a movie star with a unique style, was not as good as Jiang Xun, even though she was recognized as the top actor in the industry for her age.

He did not discriminate against women's age, but Jiang Xun's age and temperament were indeed more suitable for the role of Xuyan than Youlan's were.

Even Youlan could not compete with Jiang Xun. Who else of the same age could?

Anyway, Haolun could not think of anything.

Haolun said to Jiang Xun, "Don't worry, Lin Xuyan's role is yours."

“Thank you, Director. Thank you, Teacher Yu.” Jiang Xun also felt relieved.

She went out first, but Haolun and Screenwriter Yu were not in a hurry to go out.

The two of them still had something to discuss. “I want to discuss with Su Youlan and ask her to act as Lin Xulai.”

Lin Xulai was the eldest sister of the Lin family.

“Let’s see if she’s interested,” Haolun said. “Although she’s not as good as Jiang Xun this time, she’s good enough to act as Lin Xulai, and her age is also suitable. “More importantly, the actors who came to audition for Lin Xulai are indeed not as good as Su Youlan. “It’s rare for a movie star to want to take part in the audition, and I don’t want to let her go so easily.”

“Su Youlan’s temperament is suitable for Lin Xulai. Lin Xulai is an exquisite egoist. After going abroad, she has cultivated the temperament of an elite. She tries her best to hide her past and shows that she has always been this elegant since she was young,” Haolun said.

1

“That’s right!” Screenwriter Yu slapped his thigh. “Now that you put it that way, it is indeed suitable.”

Jiang Xun left the audition room. Xin’an was waiting outside the door.

“Jiang Jiang, how was it?” Xin’an grabbed Jiang Xun and asked excitedly and nervously.

“Why are you waiting here instead of at the lounge?” Jiang Xun took out her phone and looked at the time. “I performed for quite a long time.”

Xin’an whispered, “Su Youlan and her assistant are in the lounge. I wanted to go back and wait, but the moment I went in, the two of them tried to get information out of me. Since they couldn’t get anything out of me, they started to praise themselves. I didn’t like what they said, so I came out.”

Jiang Xun raised her eyebrows. “They haven’t left yet?”

Was Youlan that free?

After all, she was an A-list movie actress with a lot of business partnerships in her hands. Her schedule should be very full.

Youlan was in no hurry to leave after the audition. She was either waiting for Haolun to ask about the final result, or she was waiting for her to see her audition result.

Or rather, she was waiting for both.

Jiang Xun was about to tell Xin’an about the audition result when she heard Youlan’s voice. “Jiang Xun.”

Jiang Xun raised her eyebrows. She wasn’t going to call her Teacher Jiang this time?

“Teacher Su,” Jiang Xun called out politely as usual.

“Have you finished your audition?” Youlan walked over and asked.

What was nonsense was she on about? Would she come out if it wasn’t over?

“How was your performance? Did it go well?” Youlan asked again. “But it doesn’t matter how you performed. Every audition is an accumulation of experience.”

“With more experience, there will naturally be more chances for success in the future,” Youlan said to Jiang Xun in the tone of a senior who had been through this before. “After all, no one can guarantee that they will be selected every time they audition. “There are also actors who fail to audition for the role they like, so they can only settle for the next best role in the same movie. “But this kind of situation can already be considered good luck. At least they will be able to get a role.”

“If that’s really the case, then you should seize the opportunity well,” Youlan advised Jiang Xun. “After all, many actors can’t even get a role. It’s already good enough to have a role. You can’t rush things in this industry. Things have to be done slowly.”

Youlan spoke as if she had already confirmed that Jiang Xun had failed the audition.

Xin’an couldn’t control her expression and could only hide behind Jiang Xun and quietly roll her eyes.

Youlan and Xiaoxiao had never thought that they would lose to someone else.

After all, Youlan was a movie star. Her acting skills were recognized at such a young age, and she had a lot of appointments. Youlan taking the initiative to audition was already giving Haolun a lot of face, so how could she not get the role?

“Although you say that, Sister Youlan, you’ve never failed an audition before,” Xiaoxiao chimed in to support Youlan. “When you first debuted, you always succeeded in auditioning. Later on, you didn’t even need to audition. Countless scripts were handed to you to choose from. This seems to be your first audition since you became famous.”

“However, with your acting skills here, who wouldn’t choose you? Auditioning is just a formality for you. Sister Youlan, you being able to personally participate in the audition is a sign of respect for Director Guo and the production team. It doesn’t mean that you really need to rely on the audition to fight for this role.”

“Xiaoxiao,” Youlan called out in a moderate tone. It was obvious that she didn’t really stop Xiaoxiao from saying these words. “Don’t speak nonsense. Director Guo will misunderstand if he hears it.”

Xiaoxiao stuck out her tongue and did not speak.

Xin’an muttered behind Jiang Xun. She was already so old, yet she still pretended to be cute.

Xin’an was not sure whether Jiang Xun had passed or not, so she did not dare to speak at this time.

“Little Su, you haven’t left yet?” At this time, Haolun and Screenwriter Yu walked out. Haolun’s assistant was following behind them.

Seeing that Youlan was still there, Haolun exclaimed in surprise.

Youlan quickly put away the act she had with Jiang Xun and said to Haolun, "I wanted to stay and ask about the audition results. Director Guo, do you have a candidate now? Or will you be going back to think about it again?"

Chapter 299: Irony

"Hahaha, there's no need to think about it again." Haolun waved his hand and said. "Screenwriter Yu and I have unanimously decided to let Jiang Xun play Lin Xuyan."

Youlan froze, even suspecting that she had heard wrongly.

Her mind went blank for a moment, and she could not maintain her smile. The corner of her mouth twitched as she asked Haolun, "Who did you say Lin Xuyan's role was given to? I... I didn't hear clearly just now."

Haolun was very clear about Youlan's reaction, but he didn't mind and smiled. "Jiang Xun. Both Screenwriter Yu and I feel that Jiang Xun's performance fully interpreted the role of Lin Xuyan."

Screenwriter Yu felt that Haolun's words were really too tactful, so he said directly, "Jiang Xun has thoroughly figured out the role of Lin Xuyan. Although it was just an audition, she memorized all of Lin Xuyan's lines. Moreover, she acted out every layer of Lin Xuyan's psychology. I can even say that the Jiang Xun who entered the role is Lin Xuyan herself."

Youlan was speechless.

Thinking of what she had said to Jiang Xun just now, Youlan was in a bad mood.

"Director Guo, then what was wrong with my acting?" Youlan refused to believe that she would lose to a newbie who had only played two roles.

If Jiang Xun was talented, that was fine.

But Jiang Xun, who had only played two supporting roles, was better than her with such little acting experience.

She didn't believe it!

If that was the case, how talented would Jiang Xun be?

Haolun gave her face and didn't say anything about her stereotypical acting. Instead, he said, "It's not that your acting isn't good, it's just that Jiang Xun's acting is more suitable for the role. On the contrary, I think you're more suitable for Lin Xulai's role. So, I want you to play Lin Xulai. Are you interested?"

Xin'an, who was behind Jiang Xun, almost laughed out loud.

What irony!

She had just said that Jiang Xun couldn't get the role of Xuyan, but in the end, Jiang Xun was chosen.

She had also said that even though Jiang Xun couldn't get that role, if she was lucky, there would be other roles for her.

But now, Xuyan had failed the audition, and the one who had been given another role was Youlan herself.

Youlan's expression was ugly as she asked, "But I didn't audition for Lin Xulai. Why would you think that I'm suitable for Lin Xulai?"

"Because from your performance, I saw that you're more suitable for the role of Lin Xulai." Haolun was too lazy to explain so much to her. "Of course, this is only my suggestion. If you feel that you're not suitable for the role of Lin Xulai, that's fine too."

Lin Xulai's role was not as difficult as Xuyan's.

In fact, other than Youlan, he had a few other choices.

These few choices were a little difficult for him to choose.

Only Youlan had surpassed these few choices.

Youlan looked at Jiang Xun and took a deep breath. "I'll act."

Haolun was not surprised.

The movie market was not doing too well right now. Many movie stars came to the mortal world to shoot television dramas.

Those people had a higher status than Youlan.

The good scripts were kept for them. It had nothing to do with Youlan.

Even when Youlan was acting in films, she had never acted in a drama.

If she was willing to shoot some idol dramas or something, the scripts would definitely be hers.

However, Youlan clearly wanted to be a little higher up. She didn't want to come down to the mortal world.

And the most popular project recently was his drama.

That was why Youlan set her eyes on Xuyan.

Although "Path of Life" didn't have a strict main character, it was a series with Xuyan as the center.

But this drama was a plot that radiated outwards with Xuyan as the center.

In addition, Xuyan's character was set, and the character's complexity was high enough.

Acting well as Xuyan, it would be very good for attracting fans, and it was equivalent to pre-booking the nominees for various major television drama awards.

Haolun said with a smile, "I look forward to working with you guys."

Youlan had lost so much face, and she was not in the mood to say anything to Jiang Xun. After exchanging a few pleasantries with Haolun, she left in a hurry with Xiaoxiao.

Jiang Xun also got into the car with Xin'an and headed back.

In the car, Xin'an finally dared to laugh out loud. "When I saw the expression on Su Youlan and her assistant's faces when they found out that Lin Xuyan's role was given to you, I was laughing to death. How did they manage to predict that irony?"

"That's why I say that it's okay to be confident, but don't flaunt it. Who knows when you'll be slapped in the face?" Jiang Xun said, "Look at me. I'm so confident, but I never show off."

Xin'an: "..."

The driver: "..."

The system: "..."

Everyone present, human or not, were silent after hearing Jiang Xun's words.

That night, a gossip marketing account broke the news on the internet.

EntertainmentEightSkin: [A certain director's period drama actor has been decided. There have been a lot of artistes in this drama. Previously, there were even rumors of an ex-female top-notch actor who slipped up not too long ago. I heard that the audition for the drama ended this afternoon. a certain movie star went to participate in the audition. However, she didn't get the role and instead got another role. The role that the movie star auditioned for was given to a newbie who came from an influencer background.]

As soon as this piece of information came out, the comments immediately started to unravel the mystery.

[Many artistes are in the period drama of a certain director? It must be Guo Haolun's 'Path of Life.' The previous top female artiste is Lu Xiuse. When she was rumored to be having an affair with Qin Mufeng, there were rumors that the investors of 'Path of Life' had specifically asked Lu Xiuse to act in it. However, Qin Mufeng later clarified and personally slapped Lu Xiuse in the face. The matter of Lu Xiuse acting in 'Path of Life' was once again put to rest. "Previously, when the CEO's wife personally tore her apart, Lu Xiuse completely flipped over and disappeared from public view for a while.]

[If it's this show, the movie star should be Su Youlan. Previously, Su Youlan's fanbase had said that Su Youlan was currently choosing a television script and that she was going to participate in some auditions. In any case, they said that she respected the director very much. Although with Su Youlan's strength, going to the auditions is just a formality, she still went to participate in the audition. In any case, her fans had said a lot of things. In the end, with such strength, she actually didn't manage to get the role that she was aiming for? [dog head]]

[A newbie who came from an influencer background. The first person I thought of was Jiang Xun. There are very few actors who came from an influencer background. Most of them were still struggling to gain popularity. Only Jiang Xun acted as a supporting role for her first time. For her second role, she acted as an important role. I'm not surprised that she's directly acting as the main character for her third role. Other than her, I can't think of any other influencer who has such good resources.]

As a result, as the netizens speculated, the matter slowly developed into another gossip account.

GossipExpert: [A certain director's period drama actors have been decided. Originally, one of the roles should be a movie star, but it was snatched away by a certain influencer using capital behind them. Although the movie star's status is much higher than that of an influencer, it couldn't be helped that their background was not as strong as that of an influencer. Although the director was famous for being fair, and that he did not accept artists bringing money to get into the group, the capital behind an influencer is really too strong, and the director had no choice. He tried his best to fight for the movie star, but it was useless.]

Chapter 300: The Antis Are Here Again To Contribute

1

The netizens took a look. Was there a need to guess?

They could basically confirm that the movie star was Youlan.

The influencer referred to Jiang Xun.

Youlan's fans, in addition to a large number of netizens who had a natural resistance to influencers acting, as well as Youlan's passerby fans, all started cursing.

1

Youlan had been focused on acting all these years. She rarely even appeared in variety shows, so there was no problem of her slipping up in front of the reality TV cameras.

She had always maintained a character that was as light as a chrysanthemum, and she had quite a good relationship with people on the streets.

Therefore, when Youlan's fans and netizens saw the marketing account reveal that Jiang Xun had snatched Youlan's role, they all began to curse Jiang Xun.

There were even a large number of people who went to Jiang Xun's Weibo to curse. [Is it fun to snatch someone's role?]

[Even if you snatch the role, you have to have acting skills to be able to handle it.]

[Don't spoil the whole pot of porridge just because of a piece of rat shit like you!]

[I really don't understand why Shanpin is so supportive of Jiang Xun. There are quite a number of influencers under their banner, but only Jiang Xun has all of the resources. @Shanpin, aren't you going to come out and explain?]

[What rubbish? You don't have acting skills, but you have the ability to snatch a character.]

[Do you think you can become famous just because you snatched a character? Your acting skills will still be beaten by Su Youlan. If your acting skills aren't good, it's useless to act as any character.]

[The heavens will punish you!]

[Just wait for the shame of being forcefully praised!]

When Xin'an saw this, she sent Jiang Xun a Wechat message.

Jiang Xun: [Let them scold me. It's better if they scold me even more fiercely.]

She was worried that the speed at which she earned merit points had decreased. It was really like someone handing her a pillow when she was dozing off.

Without needing Jiang Xun to say anything, Jiang Xun's fan club mobilized their fans and divided the work among themselves. They registered the IDs of the netizens who had scolded Jiang Xun.

2

They sent private messages to those IDs. The content of the private messages was the ID of the other party.

Many netizens who had never scolded Jiang Xun before had joined the battle group for the first time. They did not understand the operation of Jiang Xun and the Jiangfams.

After all, Jiang Xun's popularity was gradually increasing.

She had a certain degree of popularity in the past, but it was still far from what it was now.

There would always be new netizens who had just learned about Jiang Xun, and there would always be people who did not know about Jiang Xun for the time being.

These new netizens who just joined the battle group each received a private message from Jiang Xun's fans. The content was actually their own ID, and they were all dumbfounded.

They asked Jiang Xun's fans what they wanted to do, but no one replied.

Jiang Xun's fans at this moment had turned into ruthless ID recording machines.

They were busy recording the IDs of the antis. Who had the time to reply to your questions?

The official blog of Path of Life had not yet opened.

Jiang Xun did not know what Haolun's plan was.

Therefore, even though the marketing account correctly revealed the casting, Jiang Xun did not come out to admit it.

Jiang Xun only said, [Those who say that my acting is not good, I will remember you. It's okay to scold me for my bad acting now. When you see my excellent acting later, remember to apologize to me.]

Netizens: "..."

[Hahahahaha, I'm dying of laughter. Is there something wrong with Jiang Xun's brain? She even praised herself for her good acting? Her acting is so ordinary, yet she's so confident.]

[You've only broadcasted one 'Storm in The Heavenly Capital.' In that drama, you only acted as a minor supporting role. You only had a few scenes in total. Do you really think that your acting skills are awesome after being praised by others?]

[You must have had countless times of NG for those scenes. Why are you pretending to be good at acting?]

[I think an upcoming drama is 'Hell on Earth,' right? What small role did you play this time? Don't flatter yourself.]

Previously, Qiyao had posted a video of Jiang Xun beating up the villagers who attacked the production team.

Qiyao's fans all knew which team Qiyao was in.

Hence, they also knew that Jiang Xun was also on the production team of "Hell on Earth."

[Lu Xiuse had messed up. It's still unknown whether "Hell on Earth" can be broadcast now. It's so funny, don't borrow money and act on your own.]

In Jiang Xun's fan club.

Split Underpants: [Brothers, work is here again. Remember the new batch of fans who are scolding Jiang Xun!]

Just as Split Underpants led the brothers to record the IDs, the official blog of "Hell on Earth" released an official announcement for the broadcast.

TV series Hell on Earth: [The devil walks in hell, the devil appears in the human world. Who is the real devil? Please wait and see. "Hell on Earth" will be jointly broadcast tomorrow night on the animation TV station and Feng Videos. It will broadcast two episodes a day from Monday to Friday at 20:00 pm. @ZhangXiangyou, @XuMiaotong will be the lead actors. Starring @JiangXunJiang, @ZhangQiyao]

There was also a list of actors at the back.

[??? Isn't Lu Xiuse the lead actor? How did it become Xu Miaotong?]

[Jiang Xunjiang is actually the third lead?]

[Didn't they say it was a small role? Why is she the third lead?]

[It's even higher than Zhang Qiyao. @Qiqiao, what do you guys think?]

There was no response from any of Qiyao's fans to these comments that were clearly trying to sow discord between Qiyao's fans and Jiang Xun's fans.

A Qiqiao commented in the group, [Sister Yao has a good relationship with Jiang Xun. She praises Jiang Xun every day. Let's follow Sister Yao's attitude and not listen to those artis trying to sow discord.]

[That's right! Sister Yao didn't say anything. There's no need for others to say anything.]

Unexpectedly, Qiyao actually spoke up.

Qiyao posted, [I'm very good with @JiangXunJiang. Don't worry about it. Jiang Xun's acting is very good. On the contrary, I have a lot to learn from Jiang Xun. As for the roles, we don't care. Acting well is the foundation.]

[We support Sister Yao. Let's follow Sister Yao.]

[Antis, don't be so picky, we won't entertain you.]

[Sister Yao is great and act well. We Qiqiao aren't toxic. Everything is for the sake of better progress.]

[Sister Yao and Qiqiao are so cute. Thank you, Sister Yao and Qiqiao. Whether it's Sister Yao and Jiang Jiang, or Qiqiao and Jiangfams, we are all good friends.]

SpicyJJ: [Immortal friendship. Thank you, Sister Yao.]

[Sister Yao and Jiang Jiang must always be good friends.]

Jiang Xun forwarded Qiyao's Weibo. [If you don't mind, I'm very happy to be in this drama. One of the most important things is that I became good friends with Qiyao.]

Qiyao saw Jiang Xun's post and excitedly forwarded it again. She even posted a few hearts. [Really? Jiang Jiang, the biggest gain in this drama of yours was to become good friends with me?]

1

Jiang Xun: "..."

That wasn't what she said. How did Qiyao interpret it?

But forget it, as long as she was happy.

[Wow, Sister Yao really likes Jiang Jiang, hahahaha. She's so excited.]

[She even reposted with hearts. I can feel Sister Yao's excitement even through the screen.]

[Actually, I can also get high from the Xunyao ship.]

EntertainmentEightSkin: [It turns out that the female lead of 'Hell on Earth' was indeed Lu Xiuse, but after Lu Xiuse was overturned, she had already become a banned artist. With her in the drama, the drama couldn't be broadcast. "Hell on Earth" is a good show. In order to be able to broadcast it normally, Xu Miaotong was brought in for an AI face change. The production team stayed up late and worked overtime. Only then did the show pass the normal examination and be broadcast on time.]
