

Y Master Qin 301

Chapter 301: Can't They Hope For Something Better?

[I knew it. I remember that the previous female lead was Lu Xiuse.]

[Yes, there was no official cast in the official Weibo, but Lu Xiuse often posted selfies saying that she was in the group.]

[Actually, it would have been better to reshoot, but there might not have been enough time.]

[If it's a face change, it's okay if the technique is good enough that we can't tell that it's a face change, but this is a test of Xu Miaotong's acting skills. After all, she came for the reshoot at the last minute. There were no other actors to cooperate with her, so she could only act on her own.]

[I heard that after Lu Xiuse's accident, Chen Zilong was looking for a suitable actor to change her face for the shoot, but it wasn't that easy to find. She was in the same status as Lu Xiuse before Lu Xiuse got exposed. He wasn't willing to only change her face, so he could only look for Xu Miaotong.]

[Let's see the final product tomorrow. If Xu Miaotong acts well, this will be a very good opportunity for her.]

Jiang Xun had participated in "Accelerated Flight," so she had a pretty good impression of Miaotong.

It was a bit of a pity. If Miaotong had been cast in the beginning, the atmosphere of the production team would have been much better.

Originally, the Weibo post was still discussing whether Miaotong could perform well. Who knew that artis would come after hearing the news and start to lead the pace again.

[Xu Miaotong is just a face substitute no matter what. No matter how good her acting is, it will still be limited. Why don't we take a look at Jiang Xun's acting skills?]

[I'm really worried that Jiang Xun's acting skills won't be good enough, and ruin the entire drama.]

[That can't be right? When I watched 'Storm in The Heavenly Capital' earlier, she acted pretty well.]

[There were only a few scenes in total. If she couldn't even act out those scenes, why act at all? The director probably picked out the best parts of Jiang Xun's acting.]

[Previously, she had so much marketing. When 'Storm in The Heavenly Capital' was broadcast, her clips were all over Shanpin. The so-called acting skills were all brainwashing by crazy marketing.]

[There's no other way. She's Shanpin's little princess. Shanpin pushed all the resources to her. She acted as a minor supporting role to gain popularity, and Shanpin crazily pushed all the traffic to her.]

[I heard that the other signed influencers on Shanpin already have a lot of opinions on this matter. You can offer more resources to your top influencer, but it's too much to give all of it to Jiang Xun without a bottom line.]

[Jiang Xun was only promoted by Shanpin.]

Jiang Jiang Shredding: [Ahhhh, I'm so pissed off by these antis! Did they forget that when Jiang Jiang first registered for Shanpin, she had completely relied on herself to create a trending topic? It was also because her trending topic and the popularity of her livestream was higher than most of the well-known influencers, that Shanpin signed her! She was the one who had first become famous before Shanpin signed it, not Shanpin simply giving her strong support!]

Dan Dan: [Calm Down. There's no need to lower yourself to the level of the antis. Just remember the IDs and everything will be fine.]

SpicyJJ: [But what if they insist on not apologizing?]

Split Underpants: [Isn't there always a blacklist of people who don't apologize on the top of the fan club's Weibo? Add those IDs in. Those people are all Jiang Xun's antis. In the future, as long as they accuse Jiang Xun, we will point to their IDs on the blacklist. The netizens can see it at a glance.]

EatingJiang: [Good Idea!]

The next night at eight o'clock, Jiang Xun and Mufeng sat in the living room punctually and turned on the television to watch "Hell on Earth."

Jixuan specially posted on his Wechat moments and Weibo.

It was a photo of him watching "Hell on Earth" in his dorm room.

Jixuan had also started his new freshman life. Under the supervision and guidance of the school bully trio and Yu Bingbing, it was as if Jixuan had four personal tutors. It was difficult for him not to get good grades.

1

Hence, he successfully entered Beijing University and became Jiang Xun and Bingbing's junior.

The pace of "Hell on Earth" was very fast.

The first episode quickly explained Cheng Yao's birth and childhood experiences, as well as the relationship between mother and daughter.

The second episode was the plot of Cheng Yao killing her half-sister in front of her biological mother.

[Damn! It's too scary. I'm already immersed in it. For a moment, I can't even distinguish between the character and Jiang Xun in person. I'm so afraid that when I see Jiang Xun in the future, I'll think of Cheng Yao!]

[Oh my God, I'm going to be traumatized by Cheng Yao, who is played by Jiang Xun. After she killed her sister, she smiled so sweetly at her mother as if she was asking for praise. I'm scared to death!]

[@ChenZilong @TVseriesHellOnEarth. You guys didn't say that this series is not suitable for watching at night!]

[@TVseriesHellOnEarth will there be an update tomorrow. Can you tell us in advance?]

[The scene of Jiang Xun lowering her head to kill someone was too shocking. When she raised her head after killing someone, the coldness in her eyes had not faded away. I even trembled when I saw it.]

[Right, right, right. The key is that after it faded away, it suddenly became so warm again. She recalled the things that happened between her and her younger sister when they were young. How perverted!]

[She even threw the doll onto her younger sister's corpse.]

[Who said that Jiang Xun's acting isn't good?]

[If her acting isn't good, and I'm already going to have nightmares, if her acting is good, this drama will have to be banned!]

[I feel that this drama is already on the verge of being banned. If you can watch it, then hurry up and watch it. I'm just afraid that it will be taken off the shelves immediately after the broadcast.]

Zilong: "..."

These netizens, can't they hope for something better?

1

Taking advantage of the popularity, the official weibo of "Hell on Earth" released the highlights of the two episodes that were broadcast tonight.

[Official blog, you don't have the heart. You've already scared me when I watched the main episodes. You still want to cut out more clips to scare me.]

EatingJiang: [I knew it. Is there anyone else who is saying that Jiang Jiang's acting isn't good?]

Dan Dan: [Those who said that Jiang Jiang's acting isn't good, apologize. Otherwise, you'll be blacklisted.]

The fan club started to organize fans to send the word "Apologize" according to the list.

Leo: [Aren't you guys annoying! Didn't I only said her acting isn't good? Can't I even say it? What will you do if I don't apologize?]

Nothing could be done. In the blink of an eye, "Leo" was on the top list of the fan club.

Leo: "..."

Some of the netizens: "..."

[Jiang Xun's acting is indeed good, but whether or not it can be maintained, we'll see at the end.]

[From the looks of it, Jiang Xun's acting skills are worthy for her to be cast in this drama.]

[Merit points +3699]

[Favorability +5762]

The effects of the first broadcast were very good, especially Cheng Yao's storyline. The discussions were extremely high.

However, someone still said, [Wait, isn't Jiang Xun playing the third lead? But according to the portion of the broadcast now, she has too many scenes. The female lead hasn't appeared yet, and the first two episodes are all about her. Are you sure she's playing the third lead?]

[Hehe, they're just adding her scenes, basic shit!]

[Although she's not the female lead, she has more scenes than the female lead. Isn't this a common practice of adding a character's scenes?]

[It's true that Jiang Xun's acting skills are good, but she's highly praised by the company. With all the resources she has, she can even increase her scenes to exceed the female lead's. She really has a lot of resources!]

Chapter 302: As Long As You Admit That You're Wrong, It's Fine

[No matter how good your acting is, it's disgusting to be add your own scenes!]

[I'm throwing up, I didn't expect Chen Zilong to allow actors to add scenes now. Is he bowing to capital?]

Jiang Xun now had her own work group.

Xin'an said in the group, [I'm so angry. These people can't find any problems with Jiang Jiang's acting, so they're starting to talk about Jiang Jiang adding scenes! I think it's this bunch of antis who have more scenes!]

Boliang: [That's right. What do you mean bow to capital? Jiang Jiang doesn't need capital at all!]

Jiang Xun had Mufeng behind her. This was indeed big capital, but Mufeng had never interfered with these things!

At this moment, Zilong personally posted on Weibo, "This drama is very lucky. The team is full of very good actors. Due to the problem of the original female lead, this drama could not be broadcast without changing the actress. We contacted many actresses to fill in the role. Unfortunately, due to the sudden situation and time constraints, everyone had a conflict of time due to work. Fortunately, Jiang Xun introduced Xu Miaotong. We quickly contacted her. Xu Miaotong also adjusted her work schedule and specially squeezed out time for the filming.

"Although we used the relevant technology and found a very powerful team, the relevant technology was also divided into levels. For the sake of the quality of the drama, we no longer cared about the amount of money spent, as long as we did our best. We edited it in the most natural way, so that the audience will not feel uncomfortable watching it. But there were still some angles that could not be presented naturally. We could only endure the pain and delete some of the angles without affecting the plot. The original plot of 26 episodes was reduced to 22 episodes. Naturally, there will be more scenes that do not involve the female lead. But fortunately, the show could be broadcast on time, and the impact on the show was minimized as much as possible.

"I'd like to thank Xu Miaotong. Xu Miaotong was able to come and help even though she knew that the female lead's scenes might be reduced because of this, thus solving our urgent situation. Thanks to Zhang Xiangyou, as the male lead. He had many scenes with the female lead, so his scenes were somewhat affected. However, Zhang Xiangyou fully understood and expressed that he didn't mind at all. The important thing was that it didn't affect the audience's viewing experience. Thanks to Jiang Xun, it was Jiang Xun who introduced Xu Miaotong to the production team.

"Moreover, after the male and female lead scenes had to be cut a little, Jiang Xun's scenes became more and more in comparison. I also made some adjustments in the editing order. Although Jiang Xun wasn't the female lead, she had to take on the role of the female lead because of this. However, she used her acting skills to prop up this drama very well. Thank you to all the actors, teachers, and staff who participated in this drama."

Zilong called out the names one by one at the back.

EatingJiang: [Did the antis see that? It's not that Jiang Jiang added scenes to the drama. It's because they had no choice but to cut out some scenes, causing Jiang Jiang's scenes to become more in comparison.]

Split Underpants: [Antis, apologize to Jiang Jiang!]

Jiang Xun naturally wouldn't just watch her fans charge into the fray for her.

If there was something, she would always do it herself.

JiangXunJiang: [I said that my acting is very good. Those who said that my acting isn't good, those who said that I used resources to add my scenes, all of you apologize to me. Those who apologize are removed from the list. Those who don't apologize, I'll make you apologize tomorrow. I'll send it every day until you reach the point of apologizing.]

Jiang Xun also attached an ID list at the end.

On the densely packed ID list, for some reason, the netizens seemed to be able to see six invisible words: [Don't even think about running away!]

The netizens: "..."

[Hahahaha, Jiang Jiang is still the same Jiang Jiang!]

[Even if her popularity is higher and there are more antis, she still rushed to the front line of anti-triad and those who defamed her have to apologize!]

[This sister is really brave. She doesn't care at all how famous she is. She will always come down personally.]

[Passersby, I hope that everyone can learn from her. If there's anything, just come down and tear it up. Don't use your fans as guns and hide behind your fans. Don't take the benefits when you can and just push it on your fans if something happens. It's really low.]

[What have you experienced? Tell me your story. [dog head]]

Some antis said hatefully, [Jiang Xun, are you a scoundrel? Is there anyone who cares about you? Can't others criticize you?]

Jiang Xun replied, [Yes, you can. As long as you admit that you're wrong, that's fine.]

[Hahahahaha! This sister is so tough!]

[I'm laughing to death. Jiang Xun: I didn't say that I won't let you say bad things. As long as you admit that you're wrong, that's fine.]

[Jiang Xun: You guys can scold all you want. Anyway, you have to apologize if you scold the wrong person.]

[There's nothing wrong with what Jiang Xun said. She doesn't hide behind her fans, and her fans aren't online trolls. She's just recording the artis' IDs and asking them to apologize. There's nothing wrong with that!]

[I hope that everyone can learn from the ways of the Jiangfams. If you encounter artis, you don't have to rush to counter them. You don't have to scold the artis and ruin your relationship with the passers-by. You also don't have to send private messages to the other party to insult them. You don't have to expose yourself online. Be a civilized person and record their ID to make the other party apologize.]

Reply 239: [I'm afraid I can't do that. Jiangfams are sensible because they are doing their best to give strength to the main. They don't need to fight back. They only need to record the artis' IDs to Jiang Xun, and Jiang Xun would do the rest herself. Can you ask other fanbases if they have such a thing? There's no other fanbase like the Jiangfams on the entire platform.]

For a moment, all the fans fell silent.

They were willing to protect their brothers and sisters and always be on the front line of anti-triad.

Even when their brothers and sisters did something wrong but did not apologize, they would also try their best to defend their brothers and sisters. But in the process, did they not hesitate at all?

Yes, but after hesitating, they still had to rush.

When they went to scold the artis, they would also be angry, affecting their mood and their lives.

Sometimes, when they met the artis who spoke excessively, they would be greeted by the other party's greetings to their family members.

They were also very sad.

Such a voice appeared in each fanbase.

A certain Hua fanbase:

[Let me say this weakly. Actually, I'm quite envious of the Jiangfams. They don't need to charge into battle. They just need to record the artis' IDs and give them to Jiang Xun.]

[There are too many artis. Jiang Xun can't record so many IDs on her own, but the fans are different. There are many fans. Everyone spent less time collecting IDs than scolding artis. They don't need to scold artis. That's great.]

A certain Sheng fanbase:

[We just fought with artis yesterday, and we have to fight again today. Actually, it's quite tiring.]

[Don't look at other fanbases. Every fanbase's situation is different. It's their business that Jiang Xun can stand up and personally go on stage, but our brother can't personally go on stage.]

At this time, someone asked, [Why can Jiang Xun personally go on stage, but Brother can't...]

The group fell into silence for a moment, and no one spoke for a long time.

Finally, the administrator came out and said, [After all, their positions are different. Brother won't do such a low-level thing.]

1

After that, everyone was silent.

Chapter 303: There Should Be Quite A Number Of People Scolding Me, Right?

How could he be low if he came out personally to fight against gangsters?

Didn't you see that the netizens were praising Jiang Xun for being very tough and forthright?

Weren't they also envious of the Jiangfams?

However, everyone tacitly agreed not to continue this topic.

On Weibo, after Zilong personally posted an explanation on Weibo, Miaotong, Xiangyou, Qiyao, and the others all forwarded his Weibo.

Each of their posts meant that they agreed with Zilong's words and humbled themselves.

Jiang Xun also forwarded it.

The actor who played Jiang Xun's mother posted, [I have a deep impression of this scene because at that time, I was completely brought into the scene by Jiang Xun. It can be said that it was an experience that I have never had before, and the depth of being immersed in the scene far exceeds all my experiences. Under Jiang Xun's performance at that time, I felt like Cheng Yao's mother. Her performance gave me too much of a shock. After filming, I was still in a daze for a long time.]

Yuan Liren: [My part hasn't been broadcast yet, so I can't say much about it. I can only say that after filming the scene with Jiang Xun, I went back and had nightmares for two nights. After filming the scene with Jiang Xun, I still couldn't snap out of it. I was so scared by Jiang Xun that I went numb. After filming, I ran away. I ran away with the mood of the character I was playing. It really scared me to death. It was only when the crew surrounded me and comforted me that I gradually realized that I was filming. I wouldn't be in any danger and would slowly recover.]

[Are you serious? Is it really that exaggerated?]

[Both of you are old seniors.]

Although their pay couldn't be compared to the famous young actors, their abilities far surpassed theirs.

[Since both of you said so, it should be true, right?]

[But Teacher Yuan even had nightmares for two nights? [covering face]]

[I was in the crew. I can testify. [covering face] not only the two teachers, even the previous female lead was frightened by Jiang Xun when they were shooting a scene. You can imagine how good Jiang Xun's acting is.]

[I'm also starting to be curious about how scary Jiang Xun's acting is.]

[If the rest of the scenes are as good as tonight's, I'll have to save up until the morning to watch the webcast.]

On Jiang Xun's side, she received another 6,159 merit points and 11,235 favorability points.

In this way, her current merit points totaled 16,627 merit points and 30,044 favorability points.

Jiang Xun sighed. In the past, it was not easy to accumulate merit points. Now, favorability points were even harder to accumulate than merit points.

It was really too difficult.

However, there was still good news.

With her current merit points, she could now open the skill category in the system store.

The last time she plucked the system's wool, she briefly looked at the skill category products.

This one glance made her extremely envious. Until now, she could not forget it. She was just waiting to unlock it.

Jiang Xun didn't hesitate and immediately chose to open the skill category.

[Do you wish to spend 10,000 merit points to open the skill category?]

Jiang Xun chose [Yes].

On the skill category page of the system store, there used to be only one lock on the originally gray page.

Now, the lock on the page was opened and then it disappeared.

The page also became colorful.

The originally blank page was now full of all kinds of skills.

Jiang Xun first clicked on "performance skill book."

Surprisingly, the system did not pop up a notification asking her to spend merit points to buy it.

Jiang Xun was muttering in her heart. How could such a good thing happen in a system like this? There must be a hole waiting for her at the back. The skill book opened in her mind.

The skill book catalog appeared in front of her.

Other than the black font used for the eye acting, the font for the rest of the catalog was all gray, followed by a small gray lock.

Jiang Xun: "..."

Come on, so this was where the merit points were needed.

She had already mastered most of the eye acting, and the rest required a lot of practice.

Jiang Xun knew that she actually had a lot of shortcomings in all aspects of her acting.

Previously, her role was small and she had few scenes. Her talent was enough to deal with it.

But in the future, as her role became more and more important and she had more and more scenes, it was not just her talent that could deal with it.

She needed to learn all aspects of acting.

Looking at these catalogs, she wanted to learn all of them.

But according to the system's nature, if she needed to unlock them individually, then each of them could not be cheap.

Jiang Xun randomly clicked on "big expression performance."

[Do you wish to spend 5000 merit points to unlock this skill?]

Jiang Xun chose [No] and clicked on other categories.

Each of them required 5000 merit points.

There was no difference in the price according to the different skills in the categories.

Therefore, Jiang Xun began to study the categories in detail.

After studying for a long time, she decided to choose "lines."

The two roles she had played before didn't have many lines.

Bi Yuewu didn't have many scenes to begin with. When she was an assassin, she didn't have any lines. During the day, she didn't have many scenes to show others as Jiang Mingyue, so she didn't have many lines.

Although Cheng Yao had many scenes, because of Cheng Yao's character, she didn't say much.

Jiang Xun could still handle Cheng Yao's lines.

However, Xuyan had a lot of scenes, so Jiang Xun didn't want to be a burden on the production team.

Therefore, she decided to practice the skills for lines first.

[Do you wish to spend 5000 merit points to unlock this skill?]

This time, Jiang Xun chose [Yes] .

The lines skill immediately entered Jiang Xun's mind.

Just like the previous performance, the lines skill this time only gave her a way to practice and provided various demonstrations.

The rest was up to Jiang Xun to practice on her own.

Therefore, before entering the group, Jiang Xun made good use of the time to practice her lines skill.

Every day, she did not forget to update the IDs who didn't apologize.

When the antis saw that she actually posted it every day, they had no choice but to give up.

Therefore, Jiang Xun could receive a lot of merit points every day.

Originally, unlocking the skill category and lines skill cost a total of 15,000 merit points.

But in these few days, she had earned 14,690 merit points.

Now, she had a total of 16,317 merit points.

Jiang Xun then unlocked big expression performance, micro expression performance, and micro-action performance.

As the episodes of "Hell on Earth" continued broadcasting, Jiang Xun's acting skills remained very stable.

During this period, [Jiang Xun's Acting Skills], [Anti-Social Personality], and several other terms related to Jiang Xun were all trending.

Looking at the lively discussions of the netizens, Jiang Xun didn't receive any favorability points at all.

Jiang Xun was confused. "They praised my acting skills, but what's the point if they are not giving me favorability points?"

System: "Because host, you're acting as a killer with anti-social personality. It's precisely because your acting skills are too good that you give the audience a strong sense of immersion. "Although the audience knows that you're not to blame, it's still because of the character that they can't give you favorability points."

Jiang Xun: "..."

Alright, she just wouldn't be getting any favourability points.

Jiang Xun: "Since the audience hates this character so much, there should be a lot of people scolding me, right?"

Jiang Xun went to Weibo to see if there were people scolding her because of Cheng Yao's character.

Chapter 304: Host, It Couldn't Have Happened Without You

[The Cheng Yao played by Jiang Xun is too immersive, so scary.]

[Cheng Yao is that perverted murderer! Male lead, can you quickly arrest her!]

[Sob sob sob, Cheng Yao is too bad, how can she kill her friend who has always been good to her!]

[That's the only person in the world who treats her well!]

[So the suffering Cheng Yao suffered when she was young is not worthy of sympathy at all!]

[When will Cheng Yao not be on screen? She's too hateful!]

Jiang Xun was finally satisfied. "At least I'm getting something out of it. There are still quite a number of viewers who are scolding Cheng Yao."

System: "Host, please note that the viewers are scolding Cheng Yao and not you. So even if they scold Cheng Yao, there's no need to apologize, because the viewers aren't wrongly scolding her. Moreover, because of your previous actions of making people apologize, the netizens have become much more rational during this period of time. They only scold Cheng Yao and not you, so they separate the actor from the character."

Jiang Xun: "..."

Jiang Xun didn't give up and went to search for keywords again.

[Although Cheng Yao is very bad, Jiang Xun's acting is very good.]

[When everyone scolds Cheng Yao, remember to separate the character from the actor. Don't scold Jiang Xun too.]

[I know, I know. Scolding Cheng Yao means that Jiang Xun acted well.]

[And you can't scold Jiang Xun for no reason. If you scold wrongly scold her, you have to apologize. I can't afford to lose face.]

[Sister Xun has taught us to watch the drama rationally. We can't implicate the actors.]

Jiang Xun: "..."

System: "Host, it couldn't have happened without you. You single-handedly made the netizens rational. Because of you, the actors who played the role of villains in the recent dramas have not been scolded anymore."

Jiang Xun: "..."

The system said, "Many netizens even went to apologize to the actors because they scolded the actors who played villains previously."

Jiang Xun paused and said, "Why are they so self-aware now? Why did I have to rush them to apologize to me?"

Jiang Xun was furious.

She couldn't take this injustice!

It seemed that she wouldn't be able to act as villains in the future.

Even if she acted, she wouldn't be scolded.

She still had to find a new angle to pull the wool over the artis' eyes.

This year's antis were really not easy to lead!

Jiang Xun once again took out her own Weibo account that had accumulated dust.

Jiang Xun Anti: [Does Jiang Xun only know how to act in this type of role? The first character that she played was Bi Yuewu, who is an assassin. The second character, Cheng Yao, is even more of a homicidal maniac. However, both of them are villains who killed people. Moreover, both of them are cold and heartless. They only need a few lines before killing people with a cold face. She still has the nerve to market her acting skills?]

The antis had already stopped. They had just apologized, but they couldn't find any new points to criticize.

When they saw Jiang Xun Anti's point of view, they were suddenly enlightened.

This angle was good!

It turned out that they could still use this angle to criticize her. They had never thought of it before!

This was because Jiang Xun, using her alternate account, had brought up a very unique opinion when she had criticized Jiang Xun a few times before.

She was very famous in the circle of antis.

Now, she had more than 50,000 Weibo fans.

Therefore, the moment she posted, many antis saw it.

Immediately, some antis followed up. [That's right! Her characters are basically the same, and she still has the face to market her acting skills?]

[That's right. I've been seeing her on the trending searches every day, and I'm sick of it. It would be weird if the trending searches didn't include her.]

[When she became an influencer, all the money she earned from filming must have been used to buy the spots for trending searches.]

Jiang Xun Anti: [This means that she doesn't have any acting skills to speak of. She can only act in this kind of fixed role. Just you wait and see. If it's really like what the marketing account has revealed, her acting skills will be exposed sooner or later when she takes part in Director Guo's period drama.]

All the antis said, [I'm looking forward to it!]

Jiang Xun exited her alternate account in satisfaction and switched back to her main account.

It gave the antis a new angle to criticize her from, and it ignited their new hope.

Jiang Xun hid her achievements and fame deeply.

The system was speechless.

It had forgotten that the host still had this trick.

It was still the host who was the best at creating a disturbance.

Before “Hell on Earth” started filming, there was no announcement of the cast list. It was only announced before the broadcast.

However, after “Path of Life” confirmed the actors, it opened its official Weibo and announced the cast list.

The official Weibo of the TV series “Path of Life”: [The period drama “Path of Life” talks about the ups and downs in life. Director @GuoHaolun, Screenwriter @YuWenhe, main leads: @Zhangjian, @JiangXunJiang, specially invited main lead: @SuYoulan, special cast: @HuoMiyao, @LiZhengqin, @ShaoYuxi.]

A long list of actors was followed.

It included a series of names such as special actors, guest stars, and so on.

A parenthesis was added at the end of the list, saying that the rankings were not determined in order.

Although Haolun’s play did not rank the names, the official Weibo still paid careful attention to it when it was officially announced.

It was to prevent these artistes’ fans from being unhappy again and coming after the official Weibo.

When Haolun and Youlan’s manager interacted, Youlan’s manager also emphasized that Youlan could play Lin Xulai, but it had to be a title of a specially invited main lead. Youlan could not be demoted in the drama.

Otherwise, it would be hard when talking about Youlan taking new roles in the future.

This was not a big deal, so Haolun agreed.

[I didn’t expect the news to be true. Jiang Xun is actually acting in “Path of Life.”]

[The director, the gold-medal screenwriter, and a period drama. With these three points combined, many actors could not act in it. Why should Jiang Xun, an influencer, be able to act in it?]

[Su Youlan really did not compete for Jiang Xun’s role!]

Although there was a title of being a specially invited main lead, the netizens could see it clearly.

Wasn’t “specially invited main lead” just a good sounding title since it wasn’t the main lead?

[Jiang Xun acted as an emotionless killer the previous two times. She acted the same type of role, so she shouldn’t brag about her acting skills.]

[There shouldn’t be any killer for Jiang Xun to act as in the period drama, right? Moreover, it’s the main character, so it’s even more impossible for her to be a killer. What is the great director thinking, letting Jiang Xun act?]

[Don’t let Jiang Xun spoil the good script.]

However, even though the antis were scolding her fiercely, they couldn’t change the fact that Jiang Xun was acting in this drama.

The Jiangfams continued to silently record these IDs and then went through the private message procedure.

The artis: "..."

You guys want to record this too?

It would take a year and a half for the drama to be broadcast after it was finished filming. When that time came, would you guys still want to come and settle old scores?

What kind of fucking people were they!

As expected, Jiang Xun was abnormal, and so were the Jiangfams.

It was true that the fans followed the cooking process!

There was something wrong with the Jiangfams!

"Path of Life" had started filming, and this time, it was not in the capital.

In order to film the scenery of the 1980s, the crew chose a relatively underdeveloped county town in the northwest.

Whether it was the red banners painted on the factory buildings or the construction of the buildings in the county town, they all had the feeling of the 1980s.

In addition, there were some scenes from special angles, and the set was specially constructed by the film crew. It was enough to pass it off as real.

Chapter 305: She Performed Very Well

The hotel in the county was not big, and the crew basically filled it up when they checked in. Therefore, the hotel was booked by the crew, so they were not worried that other guests would see them when they came in, making it inconvenient.

Jiang Xun and Xin'an first took a plane to the city airport next to the county, while Boliang drove over earlier.

He drove to the city airport to pick up Jiang Xun and Xin'an and went to the hotel reserved by the crew.

If there was no car, she could only take a long-distance bus to the hotel.

Jiang Xun brought a 28-inch suitcase and a 24-inch suitcase.

Xin'an also brought a 26-inch suitcase and a backpack.

Boliang took out their suitcases from the trunk. Xin'an was about to take Jiang Xun's suitcase, but was stopped by her. "You can take yours. You can't carry that much yourself."

She was much stronger than Xin'an. Besides, it was her suitcase to begin with. There was nothing wrong with her taking it. It wasn't like she couldn't handle it.

Jiang Xun dragged one suitcase in each hand into the hotel.

Fortunately, although it was a county town, the hotel's facilities were not bad. There were automatic doors at the entrance.

Boliang drove to the parking lot.

Haolun, Screenwriter Yu, and Zhang Jian were discussing something on the sofa in the hotel lobby.

Since the hotel was fully booked by the film crew, there was no need to worry about other guests coming in and out of the hotel.

The people in the hotel were all from the film crew.

"Jiang Xun!" Zhang Jian shouted when he saw Jiang Xun and Xin'an dragging their suitcases into the hotel.

This time, Zhang Jian played the role of the second son of the Lin family, Lin Xude.

Jiang Xun and Zhang Jian had been filming "Rural Distant" for so long, so they were already familiar with each other.

When she saw him, she smiled and walked over. Halfway through, she reached Zhang Jian, who had already gotten up and rushed over.

Zhang Jian helped her drag her luggage and they went to look for Haolun and Screenwriter Yu.

Screenwriter Yu was surprised. "Jiang Xun, you only brought so little luggage? Do you have some coming from express delivery?"

Those female celebrities who were filming, all had big and small suitcases. It was as if they were moving to another house.

Other than the suitcases they brought, there were also a lot of luggage packed in cardboard boxes that had to be transported to the hotel by logistics alone.

Therefore, he was very surprised to see Jiang Xun only having two suitcases.

In fact, the only suitcase that Jiang Xun really packed her daily necessities in was the 24-inch small suitcase.

The costumes for the filming were all custom-made from the 1980s, so Jiang Xun didn't have many opportunities to wear her own clothes on a daily basis.

Then there were the toiletries and the like. The 24-inch suitcase was enough to contain them.

The remaining 28-inch suitcase was filled with compressed biscuits, canned food, and some emergency equipment.

"There's nothing else. This is all I have." Jiang Xun was surprised. "This is enough. Or is there anything else I need?"

She had been on set before, and because she didn't have many scenes, she had finished filming very quickly, so she only brought one suitcase.

Without long-term experience on the set, Jiang Xun thought that she had missed something.

"Hahahaha, not at all. All of this depends on the individual," Screenwriter Yu explained. "Like us old men, we didn't bring much luggage."

"It's quite tiring to take a long car ride after getting off the plane here. Have a good rest today. From tomorrow onwards, our filming will be very intense," Haolun said to Jiang Xun.

Jiang Xun said bye and brought Xin'an to check in.

The next day, the filming officially started. Jiang Xun had bought the skills from the system store and had been studying hard before she came.

Therefore, her acting had improved a lot compared to during the audition.

It really gave Haolun a huge surprise.

Jiang Xun's performance during the audition was already very satisfactory to him. He did not expect Jiang Xun's performance to be so much better than during the audition.

Haolun originally thought that Jiang Xun's performance during the audition was enough for her to become the ceiling for anyone under the age of 28. However, after seeing Jiang Xun's official performance today, Haolun felt that he was being too conservative.

Jiang Xun could even compare to Gao Qiongyu, who was currently the top beauty in the television industry and got to choose the good scripts first.

Previously, Haolun felt that Jiang Xun was still lacking in her lines. He couldn't say that she wasn't good, since nowadays, there were all kinds of good and bad actors in the film and television industry, and many professional actors couldn't even say their lines well.

Jiang Xun could say her lines much better than others, but there was still a big gap between her and the real actors.

Haolun had planned to help Jiang Xun improve her acting skills while filming, but he didn't know that she had already discovered the problem.

Jiang Xun had been practicing during the period before the start of filming.

Haolun knew that Jiang Xun must have been practicing very hard, or else she would not have improved so much.

Jiang Xun relied on herself to get good resources, and she was willing to work hard. She had been improving, so she was not complacent.

Haolun was even more satisfied with Jiang Xun.

Jiang Xun's filming went very smoothly. She and Youlan were not filming together.

Youlan had to film the overseas scenes in the early stages, so she was filming in a villa community in Jin City and a small town outlet town which was built in a very European style.

However, there were not many overseas scenes. Youlan finished filming very quickly and rushed to the northwest county town to meet up with the main crew.

Li Zhengqin, who played her husband, was also with Youlan.

When Youlan came to the set, the first people she met were Zhang Jian and Shao Yuxi.

Because Xiuse had ruined her reputation, all her jobs were gone. She was in the same company as Xiuse. Yuxi, who had been suppressed by Xiuse, finally stood out.

A lot of resources that originally belonged to Xiuse were now given to Yuxi.

This time, Yuxi played the girlfriend of Lin Xude, the second son of the Lin family.

“Sister Youlan.” Seeing Youlan walk over, Yuxi called out first, “How was your shoot? Did it go well?”

“It went pretty well.” Youlan let Xiaoxiao put the folding chair next to Yuxi. She waited for Xiaoxiao to hold up the parasol before she sat down. Then, she took the thermos cup from Xiaoxiao’s hand. “Did it go well on your side?”

It wasn’t clear if Yuxi really did not understand what Youlan wanted to ask, or if she was just pretending to be dumb. “It’s going very well.”

Youlan thought to herself that the entire internet now knew that she had fought with Jiang Xun for the role of Xuyan, but she couldn’t beat Jiang Xun.

As someone who had fought with Xiuse for many years in the company, and quickly rose to the top when Xiuse fell, how could Yuxi not understand what she meant?

In this industry, those who were really stupid had long been eliminated.

Those who stayed behind and rose to the top were all shrewd people.

Youlan smiled and drank a mouthful of water. She said, “What about Jiang Xun? How was her performance?”

When it came to acting, it was different from the audition.

There was only a short segment of the audition, but when it came to acting, there was one scene after another.

“She performed very well.” Yuxi told the truth. Youlan couldn’t do anything to her. She didn’t need to say what Youlan liked to hear in order to please her.

Chapter 306: Why Would I Listen To Her Scheming Words?

Even if she managed to make Youlan happy, Youlan would not give her any resources.

Other than in a TV series like “Path of Life,” Yuxi was also a proper female lead in normal TV series and would not accept female supporting roles.

Youlan came down to the mortal world to act in a TV series. Other than falling on her feet in this series, she relied on the title of “specially invited main lead” to save her prestige.

In other series, she had to be the female lead.

The two of them could be said to have a competitive relationship in terms of resources.

In the television circle, Youlan’s image type was not as unique as in the movie circle.

There were too many actors who clashed with Youlan.

It was difficult to enter the movie circle, and most of the actors were still rolling around in the television circle, waiting to get promoted.

There were all kinds of actors, and they were cheaper than Youlan.

Yuxi would definitely not agree to act as a supporting role for Youlan.

If she there was a role for main lead, Youlan would not introduce it to Yuxi even if she had the resources.

Therefore, Yuxi had no need to make Youlan happy. She smiled and said, “Jiang Xun is basically one-shot her scenes. Occasionally, there will be a few scenes where Director Guo and Jiang Xun’s understanding of the role is not quite the same. They will shoot a few more scenes and then make a choice. However, it is not because Jiang Xun’s acting is not good. Basically, any NGs were done by the other actors in the scene. Even when I acted with Jiang Xun, I also had quite a few NGs. On the other hand, Jiang Xun really didn’t do it once.”

“You don’t know. The entertainment for the crew is to place bets every day. Let’s see how many times Director Guo can praise Jiang Xun today.” Yuxi looked at Youlan’s smiling face, which was getting more and more unbearable, and laughed even more happily.

“Director Guo is such a strict person when it comes to actors. Every time Jiang Xun finishes acting, he has nothing to say and claps his hands.” Yuxi imitated Director Guo’s expression and movements, and she lowered her voice and hands. “Good, you acted really well. That’s why we have nothing to do every day. Let’s bet on how many times Director Guo praises Jiang Xun today. For the winner, let’s split the money and treat them to lunch the next day.”

Youlan was speechless.

Youlan didn’t hear anything bad about Jiang Xun from Yuxi, so she didn’t like sitting here anymore.

Just as she was about to find an excuse to leave, she saw a crew member running over.

“Teacher Su, Teacher Shao, I just saw the news. There’s a sandstorm moving this way,” the crew member said hurriedly. “We won’t be able to shoot today’s scene. We have to wait for the sandstorm to pass. Let’s hurry back to the hotel.”

Not far away, the staff members of the production team were also hurriedly packing up the equipment and moving them into the cars.

Some of the sets that could be protected had been protected, and they were also urgently reinforced.

The actors rushed back to the hotel first.

Jiang Xun also grabbed Xin'an's hand and ran quickly.

Although the exact time that the sandstorm would arrive was unknown, one had to be mentally ill to be taking their time and not running.

However, after running a few steps, she saw Youlan being escorted by her assistant to look for a car.

Jiang Xun rolled her eyes.

The scene was not chaotic. The staff were still dividing the work in an orderly manner. The people carrying the equipment and the people protecting the set were also dividing the work.

The actors were evacuating in an orderly manner. The distance between them was very wide. No one could touch each other, much less push and step on each other.

So why was Xiaoxiao protecting Youlan?

"Jiang Xun!" Youlan stopped and called out when she saw Jiang Xun.

Unexpectedly, Jiang Xun ignored her. She grabbed Xin'an and got into the car. As she sat down and fastened her seatbelt, she said to Boliang, "Brother Fei, let's go."

Boliang immediately drove away.

Youlan and Xiaoxiao watched helplessly as Jiang Xun ignored them and got into the car to run for their lives.

Youlan: "..."

Xiaoxiao: "..."

"Sister Youlan, let's not bother about her. Let's go back to the hotel first," Xiaoxiao hurriedly said. "We don't know when the sandstorm will come. I heard that it's especially serious this time."

Youlan nodded with a livid face and got into the car.

Xin'an asked Jiang Xun, "Jiang Jiang, why did you ignore Su Youlan just now?"

Jiang Xun rolled her eyes. "Why would I listen to her scheming words? It's so annoying. The sandstorm is coming soon. If we don't hurry back to the hotel while the visibility is high, it'll be dangerous if we delay until the sandstorm arrives. We won't even be able to see the road ahead."

The actors and the crew all returned to the hotel.

In the afternoon, the sandstorm rolled in.

Outside the window, the sky was filled with yellow sand. The wind whistled as it hit the windows.

Looking out of the window, it was all yellow. There was no visibility at all.

Originally, there was a row of houses across from the hotel. Although the houses were not high, they were lined up very closely.

There were all kinds of restaurants and small supermarkets.

However, at this moment, the outline of the houses on the opposite side could not be seen at all.

Furthermore, there were no signs of pedestrians on the street.

Everyone stayed indoors and did not come out.

At this moment, the doorbell rang.

Jiang Xun went to open the door. Xin'an was standing outside the door.

"Jiang Jiang, are you afraid?" Xin'an asked when she entered.

"I'm not afraid. We're very safe indoors."

"But we can't see anything outside. It's full of strong winds and the sound of sand hitting the windows." Xin'an trembled. "Can I stay here? I don't want to go back to my room alone."

"Okay, you can stay here. If you're scared at night, you can sleep here," Jiang Xun said with a smile.

"No, no, I'll disturb you," Xin'an quickly said. "I've never experienced such a big sandstorm. I remember that there was one in the capital more than ten years ago. However, when it reached the capital, the sandstorm had weakened a lot. I've never encountered such a serious sandstorm. Later on, through governance, the capital didn't encounter such a sandstorm anymore."

Jiang Xun nodded. She had never encountered such a sandstorm in the post-apocalyptic world.

During the post-apocalyptic era, humans hid underground.

There were zombies outside, so the living environment was very dangerous.

However, there were fewer disasters for humans on the ground. On the contrary, there was no smog or other environmental pollution.

The bad smell in the air was only because of the rotting zombies.

"I'll get used to it today. It won't be a problem at night," Xin'an said.

She took out her phone to see if there was any new notification from the production team.

"Jiang Jiang, the production team has sent a notification," Xin'an said. "They said that due to the sandstorm, traffic control and road closures, grain and food ingredients cannot be transported in. In order to ensure the supply of food, the hotel has suspended the ordering service and changed to a set meal system. There will be a fixed menu for each meal."

"Okay." Jiang Xunxian was bored. She also checked out what everyone was chatting about in the large and small groups of the film crew.

In the large group of the film crew, someone posted a chat history of the local residents in the county town.

It was said that the local supermarket had been emptied by the residents before the sandstorm arrived.

Chapter 307: Jiang Jiang Always Does Surprise Attacks

“But the hotel has its own supply channel. Now that the goods can’t be brought in, we can only use the ingredients sparingly,” Jiang Xun said.

The passenger flow in the county town was not big, so the hotel did not have as many ingredients as the big hotels in the city.

This time, the film crew also booked the hotel. According to the number of people in the film crew, the hotel brought in more ingredients.

This time, the surrounding counties and cities were affected by the sandstorm.

All of a sudden, the county town became an isolated island.

“We don’t know when the sandstorm will pass,” Xin’an said worriedly. “Will the hotel run out of ingredients before the sandstorm passes?”

“It’s okay. I’m prepared,” Jiang Xun said as she dragged out her 28-inch suitcase.

She opened the suitcase and it was neatly and fully packed with compressed biscuits, canned goods, and so on.

“Although the taste is average, they’re durable and can last for a long time,” Jiang Xun said seriously.

Xin’an: “...”

She really didn’t expect Jiang Xun to bring a suitcase full of these.

Other female celebrities brought big boxes and small boxes, which were all small items that could improve their happiness and satisfy their daily quality of life.

Her female celebrity, on the other hand, brought items that were necessary for survival in a disaster.

“This... I’m relieved...” Xin’an said dryly.

Of course, the sandstorm couldn’t last so long that all the ingredients in the hotel were used up, leaving no food for the people.

However, the hotel now implemented a set meal system, and the amount of each meal was fixed.

With these in the suitcase, Jiang Xun at least didn’t have to worry that she wouldn’t be full.

If the food provided by the hotel wasn’t enough to eat, she could even start cooking with canned food and compressed biscuits.

“Jiang Jiang, the fans know that there’s a sandstorm here, and they’re all worried about you,” Xin’an told Jiang Xun when she saw Jiang Xun’s fans asking about her online.

“Well, I have nothing to do anyway,” Jiang Xun took out her phone and phone stand.

She brought the phone stand because she wanted to livestream when she had time.

Jiang Xun didn't stop livestreaming just because she had started to become an actor.

"We can't shoot today. I don't know what will happen tomorrow." Jiang Xun fixed the phone on the stand and adjusted the angle. "I'll do a livestream now."

After Jiang Xun adjusted the angle, she said on Weibo, [I'm fine. I'm at the hotel. Due to the weather, I can't shoot today. I'm going to do a livestream. If you're free, you can come and watch.]

[Wow! It's another guerrilla livestream!]

[Jiang Jiang always does surprise attacks, but I like it!]

The fans clicked on the livestream, and at the same time, they secretly said in their own group chat, [I suddenly feel that we're so happy. Other people's livestreams are very rare. If you want to see them, you can only do it through the various programs and activities that they participate in. But it's different for us. Even though Jiang Jiang has successfully transformed into an actress, she still insists on livestreaming for us so that we can directly interact with her.]

[We must cherish it!]

The fans quickly entered the livestreaming room.

[Jiang Jiang, how are things on your side?]

[I see that they have implemented traffic control on your side. Do you have enough supplies?]

[Yes, I also scrolled to the ones sent by the local residents. The supermarkets have all been emptied out.]

Jiang Xun simply took her phone down from the stand and patted the food in her luggage for the fans.

"Don't worry, everyone. I've brought a lot of food," Jiang Xun said. "The hotel has made plans to ensure that our meals will be provided. I have a big appetite, so even if I don't have a full meal, these are enough for me to eat."

[Jiang Jiang, do you have to bring these every time you enter a group?]

Jiang Xun nodded. "When I enter a group or participate in variety shows, I will bring these. This is because you never know when an accident will happen. You must always be prepared. When an accident happens, you'll always be the most well-prepared person and have the greatest chance of surviving."

"Never underestimate an accident. Just like this time, we encountered such a strong sandstorm." Jiang Xun pointed the camera at the window for her fans to see. "There's no visibility outside at all. Could I have predicted it before I came to film? No."

Jiang Xun looked at the camera and said seriously, "There are other accidents that could happen besides a sandstorm, so don't think it's troublesome. You must be prepared."

The fans: "..."

[That makes sense. I've already ordered compressed biscuits.]

[What's next to the compressed biscuits? Canned food?]

"Yes." Jiang Xun nodded, "The taste of this canned food is average, but it's durable, very oily, and feels very filling. "When food is in short supply, this canned food, which is usually not tasty, will become delicious. "Moreover, the soup inside can help you eat dry food without choking. When survival becomes difficult, it's a very happy thing to be able to drink some soup that can go down your throat."

[Jiang Jiang, what have you experienced in the past?]

[Was it when you were at your uncle's house that they didn't let you eat your fill?]

[But I feel that Jiang Jiang has experienced a life that's even more difficult than not having enough to eat. What's going on?]

[Let's not talk about it for now. I've already taken screenshots of the compressed biscuits and canned food and searched for them. I've already successfully ordered them.]

[Listening to Jiang Jiang, it's not a loss. I saw Jiang Jiang say that she always prepared these, so I went to buy them too. I thought that since they had a long shelf life anyway, even if I didn't eat them for a while, I could just treat them as snacks in the future. Who knew that our city would suddenly have a rainstorm? It was raining for five days straight, and it had turned into a flood. The water on the ground could drown an adult, and we couldn't even get out. Because it was a sudden situation, the grains and vegetables at home were only enough for a week. Fortunately, there were compressed biscuits at home. When there was really nothing to eat, those were really life-saving. As the saying goes, 'having food in your hands doesn't make you anxious.']

[Handshake, my Guancheng friend. Me too! At that time, I also bought a lot of compressed biscuits to store at home. When I received the goods, my mother scolded me, saying that I had a problem buying these. In the end, when the storm hit, my neighbor ran out of food, and had to rely on the compressed biscuits that I gave him. I still have to tell everyone here that if you can cook on your own, then cook on your own and stock up on more dishes. My neighbor doesn't cook and orders takeout for his meals. In the end, he couldn't order takeout due to the disaster, so he could only go hungry.]

[Damn, hearing what you guys said, we should indeed stock up on emergency food that can last long in storage.]

[What else should we stock up on besides food?]

[I saw an emergency bag in Jiang Jiang's suitcase. What's in it? I'll buy one as well.]

Jiang Xun asked Xin'an to help her take a picture with her phone. Jiang Xun opened the emergency bag.

"This is an outdoor flashlight with batteries. When the battery is dead and there is no new battery, it can be charged by hand or by solar energy."

Chapter 308: Always Endorsing These Strange Things

“There are also saline and alcohol for medical purposes. If you don’t have the corresponding medicine for your injury, these two can be used as emergency supplies.”

Jiang Xun took out the items from the emergency kit one by one.

[I’m memorizing the list. I’ll buy them according to Jiang Xun.]

“Golf clubs, baseball bats, fishing rods, or sharpened wooden sticks can also be used as temporary self-defense weapons,” Jiang Xun added. “If you encounter zombies during the apocalypse, the longer the weapon, the more effective it will be. You must make sure that the weapon is long enough for you to not be touched by zombies. When you kill zombies, you must shoot them in the head directly. That is the most effective way.”

[Wait a minute, how did the topic suddenly change to the zombies during the apocalypse?]

[The change of topic was so natural that it caught me off guard.]

[If we only talk about weapons, the livestream room will be blocked! Take the zombies as an example. We’re talking about a fictional thing, so everything will be fine!]

[Jiang Jiang is smart! [thumb]]

Jiang Xun: “...”

No, she was serious.

The sandstorm had been trending. Youlan also wanted to use this opportunity to increase her popularity.

First, she took a picture of the sandstorm outside the window and posted it on Weibo: [[Pray] I’m fine in the hotel, don’t worry. I hope everyone is safe.]

Youlan’s studio immediately bought a spot for trending topic.

Trending topic 10: [Su Youlan prays for everyone’s safety.]

[Youlan must take care of herself.]

The fans expressed their concern for her.

Youlan’s fans also started to increase the popularity of this trending topic, along with some other trending topics.

There was also a Reuters photo of Youlan.

Trending topic 12: [Su Youlan plays Lin Xulai.]

Trending topic 15: [Strong women all follow this standard.]

Trending topic 20: [Su Youlan’s first TV series.]

Youlan vowed to suppress Jiang Xun in terms of popularity.

So what if Jiang Xun played Xuyan?

But in terms of popularity and fame, Jiang Xun was far inferior to her!

However, Youlan was not happy for long.

Suddenly, a trending search appeared, [Jiang Xun teaches you how to deal with sudden disasters] , which was ranked 45th.

Trending 47: [Jiang Xun's emergency supplies.]

Then, she watched the two trending searches closely next to each other, and the rankings continued to climb.

30th, 31st.

15th, 16th.

One by one, they surpassed the trending searches that Youlan had spent money to buy.

Finally, they surpassed the trending search that Youlan had bought. It was the fifth trending search, [Su Youlan prays for everyone's safety].

Jiang Xun's two trending searches became the second and third trending searches.

When Youlan saw this, she was so angry that she smashed her phone on the bed.

"What's wrong with Jiang Xun's trending search!" Youlan said angrily. "Is she that rich to buy trending searches?"

"It... doesn't seem like she bought them..." Xiaoxiao looked at the data under the trending search. "All the data is very high. It was really pushed up by popularity..."

Under Youlan's glare, Xiaoxiao gradually quieted down and didn't dare to say anything more.

Xiaoxiao looked at a few more posts and said in shock, "No wonder Jiang Xun's two trending searches are so high. These two posts have been forwarded and liked by officials!"

"What?" Youlan was shocked.

"The authorities said that Jiang Xun's list is a textbook emergency list..." Xiaoxiao said. "In the comments, the netizens are preparing according to the list that Jiang Xun has made."

The authorities also posted a separate Weibo post saying that most people in the country lacked the ability to respond to sudden disasters, and that there were few people at home who always had emergency supplies, encouraging everyone to take it seriously.

The government said that netizens should view Jiang Xun's livestream as an online lesson.

The popularity was naturally ridiculously high.

At the same time, sharp-eyed netizens took screenshots of the brands of the items Jiang Xun had prepared in her suitcase.

From compressed biscuits and canned goods to various brands of emergency supplies, those who could take screenshots went to search and purchase the items.

The products that no one was originally interested in were sold out, and the products were taken off the shelves in large numbers.

After the official stores were sold out, there were still a large number of netizens who had not managed to buy them, so they could only go to some local stores to buy them.

The brand name of the compressed biscuits and canned goods was very simple, and it was called Hao Ya.

After learning that the goods had been promoted by Jiang Xun, the general manager of the brand, Chen Daijiu, immediately contacted Yicheng, wanting to look for Jiang Xun to be their spokesperson.

Yicheng: "..."

Why was Jiang Xun always endorsing these strange things?

"We are honored that your company is looking for Jiang Xun to endorse. It's just that the effect of the follow-up delivery may not be as good," Yicheng first explained to the other party. "After all, your brand's compressed biscuits and canned goods are mainly designed for a long shelf life. This characteristic is destined to reduce consumption. Although the sales volume has soared today, it won't be sustainable in the future."

"You've misunderstood." Daijiu said with a smile. "We don't just want Jiang Xun to endorse this category. We want her to endorse all our products."

"In addition to compressed biscuits and canned goods, our company also has energy bars, protein powder, and other products that focus on energy replenishment for hiking and sports." Daijiu said with a smile, "Jiang Xun's image is very good. She has always been committed to promoting emergency supplies reserves. She loves sports and is very compatible with our brand's image, so we want to invite her to endorse."

Daijiu directly offered a price that Yicheng was particularly satisfied with.

Yicheng thought that although this brand usually looked unremarkable, it was unexpectedly much richer than Tupao and Yi Lan.

Yicheng relayed this matter to Jiang Xun, and Jiang Xun's eyes lit up. "In that case, will the brand keep replenishing me with compressed biscuits and canned food? I also need energy bars, protein powder, and the like."

Originally, Jiang Xun had bought all of them herself, but now that the netizens had bought up the entire store, she had no place to buy them.

Yicheng: "..."

At the very least, she's already transformed into a female celebrity.

Furthermore, her income is quite high. Why does she still think about getting food delivered by the brand?

“This brand’s food is really quite delicious,” Jiang Xun muttered, “I’ve tried a few brands before, and this brand’s taste is the best. It’s very rare to be able to achieve this level of texture on top of being able to store well. “Now that the netizens have bought out all the stores, I have nowhere to buy them. “I’ve eaten quite a lot this time, so there’s not much left at home.”

Yicheng pinched the corner of his eyes. “Alright, I’ll talk to the brand.”

“So you’ve agreed to sign the contract?” Yicheng asked with a smile.

“Yeah, I’m consuming their products myself. There’s no problem with the brand,” Jiang Xun said.

Yicheng hadn’t noticed it before, but after hearing what Jiang Xun said this time, he suddenly realized.

The brands Jiang Xun endorsed were all the ones she had personally tried out.

She was the one who wore Yi Lan to the red carpet before she was signed by the brand.

She was also the one who had been running with her shoes before introducing her to her fans to Tupao.

Chapter 309: Someone Wants To Be Shipped With Jiang Xun

Yi Lan and Tuoba’s new models, which hadn’t been released yet, would be given to Jiang Xun to try first.

If Jiang Xun tried them out and they weren’t so good she wouldn’t recommend her fans to buy them, and she wouldn’t wear them in public.

In the past, Yicheng only thought that since it was a gift from the brand, and Jiang Xun didn’t want to waste it, she’d just wear them.

But now that he thought about it, he realized that every item that Jiang Xun’s fans bought because of Jiang Xun was only shown on camera because Jiang Xun felt that they were not bad.

If she felt that it was not good, she would never let her fans see it and let them blindly follow the trend and buy.

Jiang Xun agreed to be the spokesperson, and Yicheng would negotiate for the rest.

Jiang Xun had just hung up when Mufeng’s call came in.

When Jiang Xun picked up the call, she heard Mufeng heave a sigh of relief. “It’s finally connected.”

“There’s a new endorsement offer just now. Brother Wang called to ask me,” Jiang Xun explained.

Mufeng had received news of a sandstorm here. He had seen the news and learned that it was very serious, so he wanted to contact Jiang Xun.

In the end, he found that Jiang Xun was doing a livestream in the hotel room.

Mufeng was not in a hurry and did not interrupt her during the livestream.

He put his phone aside and kept watching Jiang Xun’s livestream. He turned the volume down to the minimum and worked while watching.

Once the livestream ended, he immediately contacted Jiang Xun.

Who knew that Jiang Xun was actually on the phone.

Mufeng was still thinking about it. He did not know who was faster than him.

Now that he knew, it was actually Yicheng.

Mufeng watched Jiang Xun's livestream and knew that she was fine, so he was no longer worried.

Jiang Xun received messages from Jixuan, the school bully trio, Bingbing, and her roommates one after another.

She reported her safety one by one.

The sandstorm lasted for a total of three days.

It only subsided at night, but the next morning, the air was still filled with some earth color.

After leaving the hotel for a few minutes, their palms were covered with a thin layer of dust.

It was not obvious to the naked eye, but they could feel the smooth feeling of the dust on their palms.

Youlan sat in the car and checked her skin in the mirror. "It's so annoying. Why did the crew pick this place to film? I feel like my face is covered in dust. I can't wash it clean."

Jiang Xun had been wearing a mask the whole time.

During the apocalypse, the air smelled bad. The air was filled with the rotten smell of zombies.

The rotten smell was harmful to the body.

Therefore, they all wore special masks when they went out on missions.

As a result, since Jiang Xun couldn't buy the special masks from the apocalypse, she kept a lot of masks. Every time, she would bring some with her in case she needed them.

Jiang Xun knew the importance of protecting her mouth, nose, and lungs.

This time, it was just right to use them. She even gave some to Xin'an, Boliang, Yuxi, Haolun, Screenwriter Yu, and Zhang Jian.

Youlan used a scarf to cover her mouth and nose as she got out of the car. She saw Jiang Xun wearing a mask.

Jiang Xun's face was small, and the mask was large enough to cover most of her face.

She saw that Jiang Xun was well protected by the mask, and she looked very safe and comfortable. There was no danger of her inhaling dust.

Not only was Jiang Xun wearing it, even Xin'an was wearing it comfortably.

Youlan and Xiaoxiao were extremely envious as they watched.

Youlan then complained to Xiaoxiao with a cold face, "Why didn't you prepare masks?"

Xiaoxiao thought to herself that she didn't know that they would encounter such a thing, but she didn't dare to really say that to Youlan. She could only apologize, "I wasn't well-prepared. I'll go to the pharmacy to buy them now."

"Jiang Jiang!" At this moment, Yuxi also walked over with a mask on. "Thank you for the mask. It really saved my life!"

Not only could it protect her mouth and nose from breathing in the dust, but it also blocked the dirt from touching her face.

"It's nothing. I still have extras. If you need some, you can come get them from me," said Jiang Xun.

"You've already given me quite a lot." Yuxi shook her head. "I've asked my assistant to go to the pharmacy to buy some."

It wasn't just Yuxi. Haolun and the others who had gotten Jiang Xun's face masks had also asked their assistants to go to the pharmacy to buy some more.

After all, Jiang Xun didn't have an infinite supply of face masks either.

Haolun even asked his assistant to buy them in boxes for all the staff members of the production team.

They had to solve the urgent problem first before ordering more online and wait for the goods.

Youlan: "..."

So everyone had it, but she didn't have it.

Xiaoxiao hurried to the pharmacy to buy it, but she was still one step too late.

There were two pharmacies in the county town, but they had all been wiped out by Haolun's assistant. Now, they didn't have any stock at all.

Xiaoxiao came back with a face full of bad luck and hesitantly told Youlan about this matter.

Youlan: "..."

"Don't tell me the entire production team has masks, but I don't have any?" Youlan said with a dark face.

"Why don't I ask Director Guo's assistant for some?" Xiaoxiao said, "Director Guo bought a lot of them. I'll ask for some first. I also just placed an order online."

"Then go quickly!" Youlan was in a bad mood.

It didn't go well for her early this morning. What bad luck!

Xiaoxiao quickly went to ask for some.

Director Guo had asked his assistant to buy them for everyone in the crew.

After hearing that Youlan had not bought it, Director Guo's assistant gave Xiaoxiao two packs of masks with ten pieces each.

The weather continued like this for two days.

The next night, it rained heavily the whole night.

The rain dampened the air, and the dust in the air was finally reduced by a lot.

Huo Miyao, who played Xuyan's boyfriend, entered the set.

His agent brought him to meet the director and the other actors and greeted them politely.

Miyao's eyes lit up when he saw Jiang Xun.

He had never seen Jiang Xun in person before.

He would occasionally see a few videos of Jiang Xun on the Internet, but he did not have a deep impression of her.

Moreover, he had always felt that Jiang Xun's influencer background could not be separated from the beauty filter.

She would definitely not look as good in person as she did in the videos.

He had seen too many influencers like her. They were all very ordinary in real life, and every time he saw them, he would be very disappointed.

When he returned to the RV and got ready, there were no outsiders in the car. Guan Caoye said again, "Miyao, what are your thoughts about what I told you earlier about you and Jiang Xun being a couple?"

"I really picked Jiang Xun out of a lot of candidates," Caoye advised. "Don't argue with her. Jiang Xun is a hot topic, and she's very popular. She can stir up a topic from time to time, and every topic will be trending on the top searches."

"And she obviously has the constitution of a hot ship." Caoye tried his best to persuade him. "How hot was her ship with Qin Mufeng?! However, due to the incident with Lu Xiuse, her fans probably stopped talking because they were afraid of causing trouble for her. It is rare to see people talking about the Fengjinag ship on Weibo. Even if there are, there are only a few people."

"I think she must be anxious to find a new ship to stir up the popularity again," Caoye said. "She's beautiful. You won't lose out if you form a ship with her. In addition, the two of you are acting as a couple in this drama. This drama has received so much attention. She was able to snatch the role of Lin Xuyan from Su Youlan. Ever since she joined the cast, her popularity has not stopped."

Chapter 310: I Don't Mind Developing A Relationship With Her

"When this show airs, it will definitely become popular. Jiang Xun won't let go of the good opportunity to hype herself up," Caoye said. "I have carefully studied Jiang Xun's operation since her debut. She has maximized her popularity every step of the way. Every time she participates in a variety show or performs in a TV drama, she can make her popularity higher than others. During the same period of variety shows, her popularity was always higher than other guests. If you watch 'Storm in The Heavenly Capital' and 'Hell on Earth,' her popularity is even higher than the male and female leads."

“During ‘Storm in The Heavenly Capital,’ she was exposed as having a problem with her background and was trending on the top searches for five consecutive days. During ‘Hell on Earth,’ she also revealed that she and Su Youlan fought for the same role and won.” Caoye laughed. “Only the netizens believed that it was just an insider tip from a marketing account. The timing was so coincidental. Jiang Xun must have leaked it to her marketing account.”

“Although she was scolded badly, the whole Internet was talking about her. Can you ask how many people don’t know her now?” Caoye sighed. “I really want to know who her marketing team is. Every step is so clever. Not to mention being an influencer, even the serious idols and actors are not as good at marketing as her. Her series of actions created perfect marketing.”

“That’s why I wanted you to form a ship with her,” Caoye said. “I have my eyes on the team behind Jiang Xun. As long as you are tied to Jiang Xun, we will definitely be able to join her when she does her own marketing.”

Caoye had shamelessly made it clear that they wanted to take advantage of Jiang Xun’s popularity.

It was a very rare opportunity that Miyao got to film this drama.

This was a good thing that no one else could compete for.

However, Miyao was never able to become a celebrity, so he didn’t have too much popularity.

Everyone wanted to change their careers and act in award-winning dramas.

Miyao wanted to become a celebrity instead. He wanted to act as the male lead of an idol drama with high pay and receive all kinds of high-priced commercial resources.

After all, he was only able to act as a supporting actor in a drama like “Path of Life” because of the low pay.

His scenes were much less than Zhang Jian’s.

In terms of popularity, Miyao was indeed much lower than Jiang Xun.

“Brother Guan, I agree,” Miyao said.

Caoye wanted to continue to persuade him, but when he suddenly heard Miyao’s words, he did not react for a moment.

He was stunned for a second before asking, “What did you say?”

“I said that I agree to form a ship with Jiang Xun. You can go talk to Jiang Xun over there,” Miyao said.

“Okay!” Caoye was naturally happy that Miyao agreed, but he couldn’t help but ask curiously, “You were very opposed to forming a ship with Jiang Xun before, and you didn’t like her influencer background. Why did you suddenly change your mind today?”

Miyao was never opposed to the idea. He only minded who the other person was.

He wanted to find a higher-end person to be in a ship with.

He found it embarrassing to be shipped with an influencer.

But even if the other party was on the higher-end, they wouldn't look up to him.

They were in their own ship.

"I didn't know her before, so I didn't know much," Miyao said. "Seeing her today, I think she's pretty good."

Caoye laughed. They had only met once and didn't say much, but they already knew that she was pretty good. He had been with Miyao for so long. How could he not know him?

"Just say it. You saw that she was good-looking in person, right?"

Miyao did not pretend anymore and admitted, "She is indeed good-looking. When I was doing business with her, I saw her face and was in a good mood!"

"Also..." Miyao had a better idea. "I don't mind developing a relationship with her."

Although he didn't know Jiang Xun's personality, she was so beautiful. So what if her personality was a little bad?

He just wanted to sleep with her, not to get married.

If he found out that she had a bad personality, he could break up with her after he got her. It would be a simple thing.

Caoye didn't mind his thoughts.

He could dismantle her after he had sex with her. It was a routine operation.

No matter how Miyao and Jiang Xun developed, as long as their fans didn't know about it, there wouldn't be a problem.

"Okay, I'll go and discuss it with Jiang Xun."

Caoye didn't directly talk to Jiang Xun about this matter. Instead, he contacted Yicheng first.

When Yicheng heard this, he didn't even need to tell Jiang Xun and directly rejected him. "I'm sorry, our artist doesn't hype any ships."

When Caoye heard this, he sneered in his heart.

Yicheng was pretending to be aloof now?

And his artiste didn't hype any ships.

He said it as if Jiang Xun wasn't the one who had pulled Mufeng and hype that ship.

"Mr. Wang, this matter is beneficial to both our parties. Don't reject it so quickly," Caoye said with a smile. "Jiang Xun and CEO Qin's ship is over now. There's not a sound about it on the Internet. Besides, it's too risky to pull CEO Qin to hype their ship. Why don't the two of us come to an agreement and open our business for mutual benefit?"

Yicheng cursed in his heart, "Don't you know how to walk on your own?"

“No, the previous ship with CEO Qin was just a joke by the netizens. Jiang Xun has never attracted the attention of the Fengjiang ship. She has always tried her best to keep a low profile and has never used this to discuss resources. Jiang Xun’s current resources were all obtained by her own strength. She took one step at a time and walked steadily. Now, she doesn’t think about matters like shipping.” Wang Yicheng still refused. “Mr. Guan, why don’t you think about someone else? In short, our plan doesn’t include any shipping, and it doesn’t conform to the plan we gave Jiang Xun anyway.”

Through Jiang Xun, Shanpin saw a possibility for influencers to enter the entertainment industry.

A management company had just been set up, with Yicheng as the president.

They wanted to create a cultural and entertainment industry chain.

Shanpin was in charge of cultivating influencers. Qualified Influencers were recommended to Yicheng’s management company and packaged to be pushed into the entertainment industry.

This was only the first step for now. When this line matured, Shanpin wanted to directly set up a star-making factory.

Now that Yicheng was the president of the agency, he could focus all his attention on bringing Jiang Xun along.

At the same time, he had also become Shanpin Media’s shareholder. Now, he had some say in Shanpin Media.

Jiang Xun’s promotion in Shanpin Media did not fall behind because of Yicheng’s transfer.

Yicheng knew very well that it was thanks to Jiang Xun that he had achieved a meteoric rise in his career.

This included the fact that he was able to become Shanpin’s shareholder, which was thanks to Mufeng and Jiang Xun.

Caoye wanted to say more, but Yicheng ended the call on the pretext that he still had work to do.

“What’s wrong?” Miyao was surprised to see Caoye’s expression. “How could the other party disagree?”

Caoye sneered. “They want to walk on their own now, saying that their artists don’t hype any ships.”

Jiang Xun was Caoye’s best candidate.

Caoye also felt that Jiang Xun just entered the entertainment industry, and the foundation was not solid.
