

Chapter 100:

After taking the movie ticket, the nursery rhyme took Lu Sicheng and ran into the cinema like a thief, until the two sat down in the seat. Lu Sicheng did not resist on the way - it was estimated that it was a little embarrassed by the nursery rhyme... you can also It is said that happiness is too sudden, even if he is Lu Sicheng, he did not immediately respond. Until the surroundings are dark, no one can see who is in the black light.

Through the light of the front screen, the nursery rhyme Yu Guang saw the person sitting next to her picking off the mask and thinking about it. The head turned to her behind the deflection and asked blankly: "What did that mean?"

"I saw the fans of our team again."

"Ok?"

"So I risked being discovered and did that."

"Why?"

"I'm not abandoning you with action, you are very good, still very handsome." The child in the dark licked his fingers and found that her face was also very thick because she could not see her face. "Then, I am not It's tempting, and occasionally there is a great romantic adventure."

"..." For her answer, Lu Sicheng did not say that he was dissatisfied, but after a moment of silence, he said in a simple and concise manner, "very good."

The nursery rhyme thought "very good" on the line, don't ask, let me go - it is suddenly found that you are wearing a mask, really stepping on the horse, very handsome, fascinated, doing something like that, but why? !

At this time, the movie began. Lu Sicheng looked at it seriously for a while, and looked at it as he sat more and more, and finally his head was put on the shoulders of his son. - Tong Tong's thoughts are wrong. Isn't this the action that should be done by me? As soon as the person's eyes were closed, he turned his shoulders and saw him sluggish and opened his eyes. He asked, "What time did you sleep last night?"

Lu Sicheng thought about it and replied: "Four points."

Nursery rhymes: "You later climbed up and went downstairs to play rank?"

Lu Sicheng said that he yawned: “Chubby cried and asked me to take him away from the second hell.”

“So you took your assistant for a night’s minute, and then I went to sleep with me when I was dating today. I was amazed by my captain.” The nursery rhyme turned his shoulder again. “Get up, don’t give it to you.”

“You have kissed me, and I still don’t let me lean on my shoulders.”

“..... What happened to you?”

“...nothing,” when the light of the movie lightened slightly, the head on the shoulder of the nursery rhyme moved, and the person leaning against her raised her head slightly, staring at her from the slightly darker direction with the dark brown eyes. “I was too fast, I didn’t respond, come again?”

His eyes became very bright even in dark cinemas.

The nursery rhyme’s answer was to pick up his sweater coat and put a hat on his face.

As for the movie, what the nursery rhyme seems to be unable to remember, can only remember that the man in the dark stared at her for a long time, and finally gave up, his head was firmly placed on her shoulder, and she slept lightly...

He woke up until the movie was about to scatter.

When I woke up, I didn’t talk. I just opened my eyes and looked at the nursery rhymes through the edge of the hat that was half covered on the head. At this time, the heroine on the big screen embraced the big fish floating in the sky, and the light was slightly brighter. Tong Tong looked down and looked at Lu Sicheng.

Lu Sicheng: “...”

Nursery rhymes: “...”

Look at three seconds.

The girl suddenly picked up the man’s hat leaning against her shoulder and leaned over to kiss his thin lips. When the background music in the movie rang, she felt the man move and sit up slightly, her tongue on her lips. I swept over, scorned, and wanted to go deep, and the nursery rhymes straightened up.

Lu Sicheng: “...hey.”

Nursery rhymes: “..... What?”

Lu Sicheng: “Expressing disappointment.”

The nursery rhyme pulled the lips and reached out and pushed the head that was pressing her shoulders away.
