

Chapter 19: city

Sitting on the bed, the nursery rhymes in the nightdress are talking with the girlfriends of the girlfriends. The hand speed is quickly sent out. She did not find that the screen was green and oily. She had already screened the screen and issued the last complaint against Lu Sicheng. Crime, she frowned slightly at the ceiling and began to meditate whether she had forgotten some other important slots: she felt that it should be more than that (...).

waited for so long.

Until the phone vibrated, there was finally a reaction in Jinyang. The nursery rhymes quickly looked down and saw her long, vomiting. The reply of Jinyang was quite concise, with only four words plus a punctuation mark -

Nursery rhymes: “.....”

Nursery rhymes: “??????”

The nursery rhyme shook hands and threw the phone straight out -

The cell phone slammed into the ground and slammed. The slumbering cake that had been squatting on the bed jumped up. The half-closed room door was pushed away from the outside. It was still in the chat record. The man mentioned opened the door and his voice was indifferent: “What happened?”

The nursery rhyme picked up the big cake and was scared: “Why don’t you knock on the door!”

Lu Sicheng: “Why don’t you close the door?”

Nursery rhymes: “I forgot!”

Lu Sicheng: “I am too lazy to knock.”

Nursery rhymes: “...”

The man looked up and saw that the cell phone on the ground seemed to guess what happened to the loud noise. He muttered, “I thought you were rolling down from the bed.” He opened the door and walked in, bending down to throw the nursery rhyme on the ground. The cell phone smashed up, and the screen of the nursery rhyme was lit up. The fluorescent light reflected on the man’s faceless, somewhat lazy face. He accidentally glimpsed the phone screen and said a little: “You care about him. Ah silly boy, ‘Stupid child, I agree, who do you care?’”

“...”

The nursery rhyme threw the cat in her arms and almost jumped from the bed and jumped to the ground. A horse step forward and took the phone back from the man and quickly jumped back to the bed and opened the quilt to regain the original sitting posture.

The entire action took about three seconds.

Lu Sicheng was still fixed in the way of holding the mobile phone three seconds ago. He snorted and looked down at the empty hand. The face of the face finally showed a hint of helplessness: "What crazy?"

"What to peek at my WeChat!"

"It jumped out of itself."

"Do you have eyes on your chin! How can you see it without looking down?!"

"" Looking at the person who swelled in the back of the bed and sneaked a pair of eyes, I don't know how the squirrel's creature Lu Sicheng taunted and hooked his lips. "No thanks." Finished and turned to go.

The nursery rhyme stared at his back. After a long time, he responded to people helping her to pick up the mobile phone. From the teeth, she squeezed out a long-awaited "thank you". Lu Sicheng didn't seem to buy it like a back. Wave.

At this time, from the side of the stairs, the voices of chubby and old cats were heard, and the footsteps of the children shouted: "How do you sleep so early today?"

The man who just walked to the door paused: "Tomorrow and yqcb training is about noon, so I let them all go to bed early."

The nursery rhyme: You let them go to bed early, they will go to bed early? They really listen to your words, team tyrants.

When they were getting closer and closer, Lu Sicheng stretched his hand and naturally closed the door for the nursery rhyme. The sound of the slamming sound came out. The voice of people walking around and talking was like Xiaopeng asking Lu Sicheng how to get out of the nursery rhyme room. What did Lu Sicheng answer?

- Oh, she rolled down from the bed, her head hit the bedside table, it rang, scared me.

Nursery rhymes: "..."

Grab the phone and find it from the WeChat group, open his private chat window and type quickly - "Black me, I heard, don't bring you to win tomorrow" - click to send.

After about ten seconds, reply to the message on multiple sides: remember to take medicine before going to bed, madness and early treatment :)

Nursery rhymes: "..."

That is, someone can use the "smile" of Yan text as "hehe".

I will copy and paste the words that Lu Sicheng sent to myself to the person who is really gibberish and really needs to take medicine. This is accompanied by a small vomit that is "vomiting", and the nursery rhyme closes the mobile phone and drills into it. In the bed, he yawned and prepared to sleep. Tomorrow is the training game.

The child squatted on the ceiling for a while, then rolled over, thinking about the sudden start of kicking and picking up the quilt and licking his mouth -

God, I am really an eSports professional!

The result of being too excited is that I didn't sleep well in one night. When I got up the next morning, the nursery rhyme saw the dark circles in the mirror and couldn't bear to open my head. I took a shower and woke up. When I went downstairs, I found Lu Sicheng. Already awake, he sat on the sofa downstairs to read a book, with a cup of hot coffee on hand. At that moment, the nursery rhyme thought that he had crossed into the parallel space.

- Longevity, Internet addiction old man actually read books.

The nursery rhyme sat down to Lu Sicheng and sat down. He looked at the book in his hand and called "The Fun Funeral in Dreams and Twelve Foreign Land Stories". The name of the book was so deep that people could not understand it. She took her eyes away. Pretending to talk inadvertently: "From that early?"

The opposite person picked up his eyes and glanced at the person sitting across from the top of the book: "There are ck teams in the middle of the season, so look up."

The nursery rhyme thought about it, "Oh" said: "Have you won?"

"Beat the Taiwan team and the North American team," Lu Sicheng said faintly. "As always, he was beaten by the South Korean team.”

“Oh.”

Nursery rhyme: “Ah, shut up!”

Lu Sicheng: “?”

Nursery rhymes: “...nothing.”

The nursery rhyme raised her hand to her face, and her eyes turned round. Finally, she finally couldn't stand the magic sound of the brain in the brain, and turned to the kitchen to pour herself a cup of ice milk and wandered back and found other The teammates also woke up and went downstairs... Lu Sicheng also returned to his computer. The book he put down was put on the coffee table, and the pie stood on the side of the book and stepped on his paws. The nursery rhyme walked over and picked up. The cake, took a look at the book, and resisted the urge to pick it up and take a look.

- Although she knows that she has no interest in this book, the reason she wants to pick it up is just...

Nursery rhymes feel that they are enchanted.

Obviously, yesterday was still good. After being stunned by this Yang, people are not good. I have upgraded to something that some people have touched.

This is a terminal illness.

The nursery rhymes held the cat and swayed back to the computer. Lu Sicheng didn't lift his head and said, “Prepare for the training game, the cat threw it.” The nursery rhyme stepped and threw the cat in the arms and sat down on his seat. They are all fat, and chubby is still licking the bread, but both hands are knocking on the keyboard and ready to log in to the game server.

After a long time, when the job was transferred, the * of the data analyst also came down, as well as the team coach A monkey.

Lu Sicheng gave a command, everyone looked very busy - this made the nursery rhyme realize for the first time that their team really had the “captain” thing.

After contacting a group of people than the team, Xiaorui told them the game room and password of the custom training mode. Everyone skillfully found the room. At this time, they found that a group of people were waiting in the room for five people. The five rooms in the opposite room are in accordance with the competition position, the first floor is on the first floor, the second floor is on the field, the third floor is in the middle, the fourth floor is the adc, and the fifth floor is auxiliary.

The id on the fourth floor is: yqcb.

Pope.

... that pope.

In the heart of the nursery rhyme, I decided to set my mind and put my attention on the opponent that I will face directly in a while - the third floor id, yqcb, aica, that is, a group of dishes than the team in the single Ai Jia - she My friend Chen Jinyang's boyfriend, Dadie's good friend, Ama's father, is the silly boy who wants to miss his girlfriend's live broadcast platform.

However, Ai Jia is not stupid in the game. The nursery rhyme was pulled by this Yang to watch him play the game. Ai Jia played the game style as stable as Taishan. When a group of dishes had not fallen to the relegation match, he also looked like a certain A very powerful South Korean player has won the reputation of "The Third Defense Tower of the Middle Road". This person is good at defensive counterattacks. Basically, he can be said to be a relatively easy-to-excite player who is more restrained.

When a nursery rhyme plays a game, he likes to say that it is a matter of disagreement or a tiger.

At this point, the game enters the original forbidden hero mode, and the opposite party directly bans (forbidden) the arrogant Leflan, which is a kind of tribute to her. Lu Sicheng turned to look at the nursery rhyme. Quietly said: "Yes, good value for a ban."

The nursery rhymes pumped the lips, but because they were a little nervous and did not return, quietly watching the two sides continue to disable the remaining five heroes and then start to choose the hero, choose to go to her, look at the card in the opposite Sardin, she bites her lower lip and hesitates. She doesn't know what she should take. At this time, the coach didn't talk at the back. It seems that the first training game didn't want to gesticulate too much on the nursery rhymes.

"Selecting people, besides LeFran's other heroes?" Lu Sicheng's low sighs sounded, half-truth and false. "Well, a ban opposite us banned us.”

The nursery rhyme reached out and took Lu Sicheng, and then locked the hero “card master”.

“Hey, you still play cards!”

“Yes, nursery rhymes.”

This choice of nursery rhymes got a sigh from the teammates.

The card master has a special hero mechanism. The cards that fly out of the hand are not the same depending on the color.

The blue card damage can also restore the mana; the red card is the range explosion and can slow down; the yellow card is the control skill can be against the enemy. Causes dizziness...

Generally speaking, the card’s first card color is randomly generated, and the next cards appear in the order of “red-yellow-blue”. Players can switch colors and launch attacks, so How to quickly cut the card of the color you want with your own offense to effectively kill the enemy is the key to this hero.

And his ultra-long-distance mobile big move when he is promoted to the sixth level can often effectively support other online teammates.

The card master used to be the representative hero of the Chinese competition area. Until recently, there have been fewer and fewer domestic Chinese players in this hero. This hero is gradually disappearing on the field.

So today the nursery rhyme pulled it out and caused everyone’s sigh.

“Will you play, don’t force it.”

“Otherwise? Take out the long-awaited Yasuo to win you?”

The success of the nursery rhyme made Lu Sicheng close his mouth. At this time, with the opposite pope locking the “revenge spear”, Lu Sicheng locked “Izèrell”, the selection mode ended, the game began!

The opposite selection of the Casa Ding is not flexible in the early stage, mainly the development of the wretched play. In contrast, the card attack of the nursery rhymes is stronger, so the game is pressed against the beginning of the game, and the days are passed. Miserable

The situation of the team is just the opposite. The opposite side got the combination of revenge spear and hammer stone assisted combination in the version, so Lu Sicheng is also suppressed more uncomfortable. It is to quietly slap your own online soldiers and concentrate on dealing with the enemies in front of them. Occasionally, Lu Sicheng will remind the nursery rhymes: "Don't press so deep, you will be blasted when they hit the wild."

At this time, the nursery rhymes have already killed the opponent's defensive tower.

The nursery rhyme "snapped" and obediently retraced. He saw that the opposite side seemed to take a breath out of his defensive tower, decisively cut the yellow card, set it, and then rushed up to his face, a colorful, colorful after the rejection of face cards is a yellow card, and then set and paste face mad beat -

The system sounds a tone: d.

The first drop of blood is collected by the nursery rhymes!

"nice!"

"Single kill!"

"Single 20 years hand speed!"

"Miss sister is very powerful, this cutting speed is simply the last card in China!"

The admiration of the teammates, the virginity of the nursery rhyme is established.

At this time, the two sides came to the fourth level, Lu Sicheng paused and let the wild old k come down the grass in the grass, etc., the nursery rhyme looked at him, the latter looked like a faint sensation: "Before the fourth level, the more The tower killed once, Li Junhe's strange interest."

The so-called Yue Tower is to enter the enemy defensive tower attack range, while bearing the attack of the defensive tower, while forcibly killing enemy enemies.

"This stink bug has been cured by me for a year, but I know he won't change."

Lu Sicheng said lazily, but if his words just fell, he saw the opposite assistant began to consciously open his vision in the grass, illuminating the grass to prevent the old k from coming - but his own chubby did not give him too much The opportunity to protect the vision is almost when he just puts down the field of vision, he ran to use the scanning props to unplug the field of vision.

But this can't stop the Pope from jumping into the defensive tower with his own assistant in the next second!

The first lower defensive tower hit the auxiliary body, and the assistant threw a lantern (you clicked on the lantern to quickly move to the current position of the hammer stone) and began to retreat. Just in the moment when the pope jumped into the defensive tower, Lu Sicheng controlled the hero. All kinds of skills have been smashed in his face -

At the same time, the wild old k jumped out of the grass that had pulled out the other side's vision from Xiaopeng!

When the Pope saw the lanterns retreating, Lu Sicheng and Xiaopeng immediately dirty a bunch of visual props near the lantern to block the lantern. The Pope could not point to the lantern at the first time. The defensive tower ruthlessly hit him. On the body, he was left with only a trace of blood, and Lu Sicheng sneered at him and was about to accept his head. At this time, all the people on the computer suddenly appeared in the "server connection" word!

disconnected!

"...fuck!"

Lu Sicheng first squatted and then slammed the keyboard, stood up and looked awkwardly and poured himself a cup of coffee... The man leaned against the table and frowned, and Xiaorui ran to the window. Open the window, smash the scorpion on the window: "Hey, the big brother next door, we are off the line!!!!"

But for a while, a completely connected villa next door came and responded: "The big brother next door, we are also off the line! Vpn fried it is estimated!"

Nursery rhymes: "..."

The nursery rhyme stood up and looked at Lu Sicheng: "I am very discouraged?"

"Well," the man lowered his eyes and looked a little annoyed and frowned. "I didn't give Li Junhe a door to open the door in China. What do you say?"

"It doesn't matter, the first training session in your home opened the door and gave a big gift." Tong Yu raised her hand and made a big sailor. "I am very happy. Now I think I can beat everything."

“Before you bully a Casatin to see you swearing.” The man behind the coffee cup rolled his eyes. “Wake up, okay.”

“Little fat, they all said that I am the last card in China.”

“Cheat you.”

“ ... ”

“Twenty years of singleness, I finally got a chance to talk to my sister—even if the object is a kindergarten classmate.”

“ ... ”

This is a person who is not happy and who is happy.

The nursery rhyme also turned a blind eye and turned away.

Although the first training session ended in such a wonderful way, this did not prevent her from texting this time:

Many faces quickly gave her affirmation:

The nursery rhyme smirked at the phone and looked silly and sweet.

In stark contrast to Lu Sicheng’s journey behind her black face.

Evening.

The stupidity of the nursery rhyme did not last long.

Because she soon discovered that during the day, a wave of vpn dropped the line and Lu Sicheng failed to send Li Junhe’s “face-lifting ceremony”. This caused the man to feel bad all day, and the low-pressure mode in the base was opened. Dare to pant.

—The bustling base on weekdays is very quiet today, even a lot of chubby is shrinking in the chair and wearing headphones to tremble to see his own house harem anime... nursery rhyme looks at his eyes and sits on his legs Lu Sicheng, who is watching the news in his own position, seems to have no interest in playing games. The slutty virginity sits on the cake with a big cake: “Captain, how can you entertain you?”

The cat sneaked out of her arms and squeezed into the arms of Lu Sicheng like a muddy, and Lu Sicheng did not refuse the pie. Instead, he touched his furry head in an unpredictable way - the virginity next to him saw it. The chin is falling down: Finished, this is really depressed, even the cat is willing to touch!

Between the stunned, the manager Xiaorui floated over:

“Children, you are tonight... Hey, go, Cheng Ge, what are you doing?”

Another poor man who was scared.

“Touch the cat.” Lu Sicheng said with a blank expression, “Do you want to touch?”

Xiaorui: “... Yes.”

Lu Sicheng: “No.”

Xiaorui: “Children, you have a live broadcast tonight, there is a camera.”

The virgin lying in the middle of the gun: “? He tortured you, why do you torture me?”

Xiaorui: “This is the food chain. Nature is so cruel.”

Nursery rhymes: “...”

The manager’s order is the boss’s order. It is not good to get rid of his idol baggage with the salary of the nursery rhyme. So he excuses to wash his face and comb his hair, quickly make up a light makeup, and take the beauty camera that was sent to the afternoon last night. , the nursery rhymes began to slap the drums live...

When she installed and debugged the beauty camera, the official Weibo has already publicized her news to be broadcasted. The nursery rhyme registered herself in the newly established live broadcast of Xiong Wei live and found that there were about 20,000 to 30,000 people inside, because The number of live broadcast platforms is generally high, so the system shows more than 300,000 online viewers -

I suddenly put her on the front page!

The barrage is awkward.

“Ah, ah, so many people...”

When the nursery rhymes opened the game and the live control software, the heart began to feel uneasy. At this time, the friend Jin Yang sent a message saying that she was also in her live room, let her send a house management, and who would say that she was ugly? -

I smoothly returned to the “Wang Ba Gu Roll Friends”, the nursery rhyme screened the breathing point and opened the camera software, a small camera appeared in the lower right corner of the screen, so, 10,000 people look forward to, a short hair, a little bit of baby fat on the face The girl with round eyes appeared in the eyes of everyone... Her background is the base of the League of Legends of China Telecom’s e-sports club, and the Chinese telecom team with the ice pope assists chubby as a background.

The nursery rhyme is so nervous that she is going to die, and she screams: “Oh, everyone good evening.”

The barrage paused a little.

Then completely exploded!

The nursery rhyme hurriedly looked at the barrage, praised the type of barrage that was advertised, and looked at it for a while. She didn't dare to look like an ostrich, ignoring the barrage that desperately teased her. She quickly opened the game: “Playing games, playing games, this month will start live every month, everyone can support me by clicking on the subscription...”

As soon as the words fell, I saw that the subscription went up.

The heart of the nursery rhyme jumped up, her face was slightly red, the palm of her hand sweated slightly, smiled at the camera and waved and said “thank you”, then landed the game - watching the game's familiar interface bouncing out, she finally calmed down Down, familiar into the game, opened a qualifying...

The mind of playing the game will not be placed on the barrage.

Anyway, if you don't open the barrage assistant, you can't see it in the game. If you can't see it, there's no wow, hahahahaha!

The nursery rhyme thought so much, she was feeling very ingenious, and suddenly she saw that the man who had been holding his leg and had no love was moving. Clicking on the mouse to enter a web page, the white light reflected in the handsome face. On the other hand, the man suddenly lazily opened his mouth: “—Wow, they actually found a primary school student to play the game!”

“.....?”

The nursery rhyme slammed his head to his right hand in a way that twisted his neck. However, the person sitting on her right side seemed to be completely unaffected by her scorn.

“—” Take a Loveland, want to see your Loveland...”

“—“China Telecom team is a child laborer, I am going to report.”

“- ‘smiling, your hand is beautiful!’”

“—” Nursery rhymes, you look up to no more than one meter five.”

“—Oh my God, I fell in love with you, how do you feel like a primary school student playing a job like this? 2”

“This man said that his wife is not a new dress, it is smiling.”

Lu Sicheng lifted his head from his knee and looked at the nursery rhymes and said, “In my opinion, your fan is in desperate need.” Go and hang up the ophthalmology... If the brain is not so crowded, you can go together.”

Nursery rhymes: “...”

Nursery rhyme: “What is your mother’s cognac?!”

“You are not looking for a way to entertain me?”

Lu Sicheng pointed to the computer screen -

“found it.”
