

Chapter 2:

As the saying goes: E-sports is not in love.

I am deeply aware of this and I have to start from the time when the nursery rhyme just touched the game.

Nursery rhymes also vaguely remember that when they contacted the League of Legends game, the reason was very simple - even the same reason as most of the girls who played the game - nothing more than because another person indulged in the game, and she liked him.

That summer vacation, although it was only a distance close to a walkway next door, but after half a summer vacation, I found out that I haven't had time to say a few words to that person since the summer vacation... So one day, she knocked I opened the door next door and found that the guy she liked sat in front of the computer and madly played a game. The nursery rhyme talked with him and he ignored it, so she went around his computer and watched him playing the game. The skill bar, squatting at him, pays attention, and when he stretches out, he puts a "\d" button -

The teenager "Ah, ah, ah, ah" a few times.

In the screen, the character that the teenager is operating is "squatting" out of the distance for a short distance, rushing into a bunch of red names, and then the colored screen turns black and white.

Tong Yu smiled and looked at his eyes glaring at himself.

When he turned and walked over a bench and sat down next to the boy, he saw that he was typing fast in the game.

The eyes of the nursery rhyme smiled into a seam. She reached out and poked the boy who was full of dissatisfaction but dared to speak. He said slowly: "Jian Yang, I am so happy, teach me, I Play with you."

"Well?" The boy named Jianyang turned his head and said, "Is it you?"

"Yes, just me." The nursery straightened up and smiled.

So far, Tong Tong still remembers that Jian Yang reluctantly withdrew from the game and then used the nursery rhyme's landing game to create a new number. He reluctantly removed his **** and let the nursery rhyme sit in his position and hold the mouse, standing. She explained her with a little gentleness and patience behind her -

“This is a push tower game. The map is divided into three roads. You only need to remember to push the towers on these three roads and push them to the base of the other party. If you push the last big crystal, you will win.”

The game enters the selected character screen -

“Which one do I choose? Which one is good to choose?”

“Don’t leave it alone, oh, you choose an assistant, you can help - see the big man wearing blue armor, he is.”

“So ugly.”

“You look good when you look good.”

“...you can really talk to this child, what is auxiliary?”

“This game is not divided into three roads. Five players take different roads. One person in the wild area brushed the wild monsters to upgrade and ran around, called ‘打野’; a player who walked the road above was called ‘on Single’; the player in the middle of the road is called ‘Zhongdan’, the road below -”

“Order!”

“Usually the two players are together, because adc is the main output position of the whole team, so the early development is very important. At this time, people have to escort, oh, it is auxiliary.”

“It sounds like I didn’t have anything to do. Is it possible to cut out Weibo by selecting an auxiliary location?”

“Swipe your head, did you see the map of the wild area is dark? Auxiliary is responsible for the eyes of teammates, using the game’s vision equipment to plant a mushroom-like illuminating map -”

“It’s so troublesome, is there a way to run without it, explode, and have a strong sense of presence, and don’t have to squeeze a road partner to avoid the shackles of the dish?”

“Yes!” Jane had no choice but to point to the middle of the screen. “Single.”

Therefore, the nursery rhyme became a single player.

Jiayang is a wild player. When they play together, Jiayang is like playing in the middle of the road. No matter how the other two roads are crazy to ask for help, he is tirelessly swaying in the middle, harassing the opposite, giving Nursery rhymes establish online advantages -

This is called “Nakedo Linkage”.

Later, the nursery rhymes learned a little bit. I understand that this is not called “the middle field linkage”. This is called “the basic rule of taking the sister.”

At the beginning, the nursery rhymes always wanted Jane to help her. Jane went away a little, and she immediately died under the enemy’s claws, yelling and yelling, “I am dead” and “I am dead again” “How can I die when I step on the horse?” “Jianyang, you will not have a girlfriend if you don’t come to the middle of the road,” and then in the lying body again and again, the nursery rhyme finally got started -

The game is full of 30, and at the beginning of the 30th level, you can play qualifying.

The ranking system is the most basic system for determining the level of a person. The position is divided into bronze, silver, gold, platinum, and diamond from low to high. Each segment has five segments. The rule is very simple. Win a row. In the game, the system will increase the winning point from ten to thirty. If you lose, you will also win the winning point in this range. When the winning point is added to one hundred points, the 10,000-volume five-set three-win promotion will be promoted. Success can be raised to the next segment.

It’s just that after a diamond promotion, it’s no longer a subdivision, but the “extraordinary master” with no upper limit and the top 200 points. “.

——Jianyang is the most powerful king of Ionia in the telecommunications area with the most game masters. There are broadcast announcements on the Internet cafes. “Telecom Zone Ionian Super King xxxx is on the 17th machine of this Internet cafe. The kind of rare animal.

Therefore, he can take the stupid newcomer with a nursery rhyme in the middle of the road to abuse the air.

Days pass by.

On the day of the full level, the nursery rhyme excitedly didn’t sleep well. The next morning, I climbed up the first thing to knock on the door of Jianyang’s house and let him take the position of himself. Looking at Jianyang, he opened the door and looked at it. The face, the nursery rhyme herself was also instantly forced, and she finally found herself in a horrified way to become an internet addiction girl... So that summer vacation, Tong Yu and Jian Yang spent the entire summer vacation by relying on the Summoner Canyon (game map name) date. the second half.

A few days before the end of the summer vacation, Tong Tong bites a bag of yoghurt to knock on the door next door. After Jane opened the door, her first sentence was: "Today, don't play games, let's write summer homework."

Then she took a pile of homework books and squeezed Jane into the room and went to the room in Jianyang. Before she had time to put down her homework, she saw the suitcase that was opened in the bed and just packed a few clothes.

"?" The nursery rhyme turned around and asked Jane. "You go out? You are going to start school. You still have to go around. The homework is not written. Don't drag the waves until you start school, and cry and ask me to help you write - —"

"Children."

Jianyang paused for a moment, and he seemed to have made some determination: "I don't go back to school."

"What?" The virginity thought, and thought that his ears had something wrong.

"The manager of a professional team looked at me and asked me to go to Shanghai for a workout. If I had a good job, I would stay in the profession. My parents have already agreed."

Jian Yang raised his hand and scratched his head. "You know."

I don't study very well. Even if I go to a third-rate university, I don't know what to do. I like this game and think I can go further in this area-

"..."

Ok.

This is the first time that a nursery rhyme has heard about the League of Legends professional league, and this "first time" did not give her a pleasant impression -

She feels that this broken game has taken away the people she likes, simply.

About a few days later, Tong Tong started school, and Jian Yang went to Shanghai. A few days later, Jian Yang told Tong Tong that he successfully passed the trial training, first in the domestic first-line team to be a substitute -

Then one day he finally hoped for the first chance to play.

The team where Jianyang was in the game not only won, but also won very beautiful. At that time, the team's starting position was not good, so Jianyang almost stabilized the starting position.

That night, he was excited to talk to the nursery rhyme Barbara for one night. The nursery rhyme listened to him while searching online for comments about Jianyang, posting, Weibo, app client, and overwhelming people are wondering: Where is this yang? Come, really strong.

The nursery rhyme thought, my boyfriend became a star.

Later, her boyfriend really became a star -

Every day, there is either a competition or a training game.

The WeChat sent at 8:00 in the morning will return at 8:00 in the evening. The first sentence must be "Sorry, I did not see it in the training."

The two people chatted less and less, during the day, the nursery rhymes went to class, and Jianyang slept;

When Tonglu was out of school, Jianyang just got up, and the two hurriedly talked about it. Jianyang went to the training game or started the live broadcast to complete the live mission;

When the nursery rhymes are going to sleep, Jane is calling a takeaway dinner...

——When Jianyang became the "yang god" in people's mouth, Jian Yang and Tong Tong became full time difference and loved each other.

In the end, whoever can't stand before, the nursery rhymes don't remember, in short, the two of them have a big fight, and they broke up.

At that time, the nursery rhymes basically no longer pay attention to the professional league, burying their own rankings, from a silver player slowly crawling, to gold, to platinum, to diamonds -

Later, Tong Tong went to college, met some friends, and changed her id. Then one day, she topped the League of Legends, the super king of the League of Legends.

At this point, that summer vacation yelled at the teenager, "You don't have to go to the middle of the road, you don't have a girlfriend.” The melon girl seems to have been a long time ago...

Until now -

“Children!”

“Children! Oh! Go back! What do you think!”

The manager of the zgdx team took a clap and called the nursery rhyme who had run far away to God. The nursery rhyme slammed back and saw the other person smiled and reached out to her: “Welcome to join zgdx!”

The nursery rhyme stretched out his hand and shook hands with the other.

Zgdx’s current Zhongdan Mingshen is an old player. The more he has been in the past few years, he is ready to finish this spring. He is ready to finish the spring season. I heard that the retired public relations drafts are ready, and will be announced on the day of the spring finals.

So the zgdx team was rushing to find a spare tire, and they found a nursery rhyme. It is said that before the official virginity, zgdx data analysts in the game watching system Storka (* metamorphosis) For several days, the data analyst was very satisfied with her, and even thought that she could even omit the trial part directly... As for the person in charge of zgdx from Shanghai to the city of nursery rhymes, she and her parents met. At the end of the year, with an annual salary of 800,000 plus a contract to guarantee the starting position of the summer game, the whole process was completely unpublished.

Even the virginity, when she got the contract and signed her name on the top, she was a little more aggressive.

She really didn’t expect that one day she would stand on the stage that was very far away for her.

And at this moment.

After the hand was finished, the team manager sat back in his position and looked at the nursery rhymes and said with a smile: “Although I am not in a hurry to join the team, but next Wednesday is the spring final of our team and the ck team. Do you want to look at it? Look ahead to see if your teammates are good, the ticket and the first row of tickets in the finals...”

“Which team is it compared to?”

“The ck team.”

“Hey,” Tongmumu nodded slowly, “OK, I am going.”

- The ck team is the team where Jianyang is.

Once the team’s game, the nursery rhymes did not pull a lot of treasures. Today, she just wants to sit on the spot and see how her future teammates will explode them.

Think about that depressed face...

what.

Think about it all.
