

Chapter 20: city

Lu Sicheng: "In the live broadcast, pay attention to civilization, children don't swear."

Nursery rhyme: "... Xiaopeng said every day."

Lu Sicheng: "He has not been saved."

Xiaopang: "Hey!"

Nursery rhymes: "Then don't read the barrage, so I am distracted."

Lu Sicheng: "No."

Nursery rhymes: "..."

So.

Lu Sicheng is entertaining, but the nursery rhyme wants to die. —Imagine that when you play the game seriously, someone has been squatting beside you, and he is not only arrogant, but also forced thousands of other people to swear. Tell you, and also take his comments...

- That is the Yasuo you have never seen before.
- The heart has a tiger to sniff the rose, have you heard it?
- The vpn dropped the line to save their dignity that was almost rubbed on the floor.
- So many "ah", do you want to go to the toilet to eat something calm?
- Stand up and look shorter.

—I.

- Busy, there are so many barrage, can't you see? And live broadcast for two consecutive days? will die.

Nursery rhymes: "..."

Lu Sicheng turned his head and looked at the black and white screen of the computer (the hero screen changed to black and white after the death of the hero character). He said with no expression: "Would we have no money to buy a color monitor for you?"

The nursery rhyme looked at the black and white screen, as well as his own sullen figure lying on the floor, especially wanting to stand up and take the keyboard next to this handsome face -

At this time, the nursery rhyme has fallen to the master more than 200 points, she felt that she had been a strange curse, since the zgdx team, she has been crazy because of all kinds of wonderful reasons like this...

“Is it interesting to talk to the barrage like this?”

“Interesting.”

“When are you ready to stop?”

“When I am tired.”

So, two hours later.

Lu Sicheng is not tired, and Tong Yu is tired first - if the heart is tired, it can be counted.

I wiped my face, looked at my own base and was ruthlessly blasted by the big crystal and my own horrible data. The man's face expressionless voice was utterly and steadily read the sound of “losing a night, really bad, two three three three three” In the game, Tonglu looked at the time. At 10:30 in Beijing time, her live show showed that there were more than 1.5 million online viewers, including her fans, Lu Sicheng's fans, and watching the lively. It's not too big to eat melons... The barrage is still a lot.

In addition to discussing the game she just played, the most difficult thing to look at is to ask her what is the relationship with Lu Sicheng, and there is also a brain hole to open the way, swearing that she is Miss Jiao playing a game and Lu Sicheng to her How big the face of the barrage is - ... how big is the face?

If it weren't for this nosy, I wouldn't let you swear, and I would like to kindly greet the hole in your mind.

“I asked him to tell me the barrage? Who bought a pack of dumb medicine to feed him, I donated a dollar, saw the red record of my country's mountains and rivers? Is it a narrative...” The nursery rhyme organized a civilized language. Retorted, waving at the same time at the camera, “Go here today, the beautiful girl is going to sleep -”

Next to Lu Sicheng, he took his head off his knee: “Are you off the live broadcast?”

The nursery rhyme stood up and stretched out: “Well, ten o'clock...”

“Don't shut down the computer, which beauty camera address you bought -”

Lu Sicheng's words haven't finished yet. I saw that the person who stretched out and stretched half of the action, and then rolled back to the computer and clicked to turn off the live broadcast software—squinting and turning his head, watching the man look at himself inexplicably. Then slowly said the words: “Send to chubby.”

At this time, the live broadcast room has been everywhere “beauty camera 233333333” “6666666666” “ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha beauty camera” “I know she can not be so good looking real” “Miss sister idol bag is a bit heavy” -

The virginity of hatred is faint.

After Lu Sicheng, Xiaopeng looked “not my business”: “The fans said that I am fat, I see that your effect is very good, the color is ruddy and natural, let Chengge ask you, he is close to you. ... who knows Cheng Ge directly asks!”

The nursery rhyme returned to Lu Sicheng, who was still innocent: “What?”

“You watch the live room yourself!” The nursery rhyme pointed at the computer screen very “I was questioning my beauty!”

Lu Sicheng glanced his head and then chuckled: “What beauty do you have to be questioned?”

“ ... ”

The nursery rhyme shook his head, for fear that he would stay in the kitchen for another second and then he would put the kitchen knife out and put it on Lu Sicheng’s head. He turned and was going upstairs to prepare to take a bath and sleep. At this moment, a hand suddenly appeared from behind her. , caught her t-shirt -

The nursery rhyme fell backwards.

“What?”

“Will you sleep?” asked the man who had nothing to do in the chair for the whole night.

“Sleep, in the dream, I returned to the king’s six percent, isn’t it good.”

“Don’t sleep, my father will take you on the spot tomorrow, so that your dreams come true.”

“Don’t, today, I have a man who said that I am a young girl. I am afraid that I will be a slap in the face.” The nursery rhyme said that he was not tempted. He turned and looked at the person behind him and asked, ” Why not sleep? You release my clothes first.”

Lu Sicheng let go of his hand, jumped out of the chair and stood still, then looked at other people around him and announced: “Hungry, don’t go to eat late at night? Hot pot, I please.”

Three seconds of silence.

In the fourth second, everyone in every corner of the base stood up like a national anecdote. The chubby girl in a vest looked nervous: “I have a coat, my coat, you wait for me. I wear a coat for three seconds!”

Xiaorui: “It’s just hungry, just hungry, just ready to open a mobile phone.”

Ming Shen: “I want to eat sashimi!”

Old cat: “Sea urchin!”

Old k: “Ivory!”

Lu Sicheng: “Oh.”

.....

The nursery rhyme is not very familiar with the aristocratic behavior of the middle of the night to eat hot pot.

She originally wanted to say no, but she couldn’t stand Xiaorui’s saying, “You don’t participate in group activities.”

As a newcomer, the most fearful thing is to get rid of the masses, and in the past 19 years, the nursery rhymes have compiled a mix. All kinds of social circles must understand the truth: a group of colleagues, friends, classmates, and other classmates. If you choose to be unsocial and refuse to attend, then the best actress in the crowd of the day will not be yours. I don’t want to be discussed by someone on the topic “Why do you say why she eats a lot?”, so the final nursery rhyme chooses to compromise, and yawns behind a large group of night owls to climb the club’s nanny car - babysitter The blue-and-white sign of the operator on the car is particularly conspicuous – if it is not the car itself, it is estimated that the passers-by have to face it: this mid-night Chinese telecom staff is swarming out of the field to repair the net?

Nursery rhymes are sitting in the car, brushing Weibo, chatting with friends, and the topics discussed by teammates along the way are also three sentences that cannot be separated from the League of Legends. The main topic is the recent mid-season game. Everyone says that a South Korean carrier team is too Strong, today is the ck team on the floor crazy friction, this year if the Chinese Division wants to have a score in the world finals, must cross the South Korean mountain...

"It's all operators. Have you ever had a training match with them?" The nursery rhymes did not ask if they were playing with their mobile phones.

Just now, Jane sent a text message asking her to turn off the live broadcast. She answered the standard four-word mantra: "Approximately, two days before the spring finals, at that time, the gods are still there," Xiaopang used a fat chin to point to the data analyst sitting next to him. "There is no way to beat. Take advantage, other roads, hey, you ask what the gods and old cats are being manipulated..."

The old cat laughed: "I can't find the North."

Ming Shen cleared his throat: "I had a nightmare that night."

The zgdx team is an absolute first-line team in China. Is it really impossible to find the North? The nursery rhyme, did not play the phone and looked up: "So terrible?"

Later, I thought about the day when she first met Lu Sicheng's real person. The staff who came to pick up her staff did seem to say something that they lost to the South Korean team...

"Not only this carrier team, but also a tat team." Lu Sicheng stretched his leg and gave a sigh of relief. "After the pope, tat was very depressed in the early spring, but in the second half, it started to work again." —The new adc is a newcomer but it is very fast. Although the spring tournament summary was lost to the Korean operator team, it actually played five games in a stalemate. If this continues, I am afraid this year. At the time of the global finals, the newcomer will be a demon-level presence..."

The tat team is the team that Lu Sicheng and the Pope have spent before.

Lu Sicheng and the pope were so strong that they left the team. They didn't even say that they had broken legs. They only quickly adjusted after a season.

Speaking of this, everyone in the car is a bit embarrassed.

"There is no way, the esports industry in South Korea is mature, so there is always fresh blood..." Xiaorui smiled. "We have only known from the beginning of last year to buy other players, and really learn from others." Not many..."

Tong Tong heard the words, a little interest, so asked Xiaorui:

“When will you have a training match with Koreans?”

Lu Sicheng glanced at her and chuckled without any negative emotions: “Today, I will hang up and swell up.”

Tong Yan big eyes: “What expansion, just want to try, I know Koreans are strong, but don’t try -”

The words have not been finished, the man’s big hand will fall on his head, and use the kind of comfort to incite the restless children to lick her short hair, Lu Sicheng faintly said: “Now not.”

The nursery rhyme opened his hand and looked disappointed: “Why?”

Xiaorui also followed the nod to echo: “Yeah, why, I see that since the filming of Mailin students is so active, the tat team is still idle and idle, it is better to let us -”

Lu Sicheng glanced at the nursery rhyme: “She needs confidence, not blows. You know what kind of person is in Tait.”

Xiaorui: “...”

Xiaorui looked at Lu Sicheng and looked at the nursery rhyme, revealing a expression of words and expressions.

Lu Sicheng emphasized again: “So I can’t say no, it’s not the time.”

Lu Sicheng’s attitude is very determined, so it seems that no one dares to mention this again... The car is probably at the destination and stops.

Tong Tong stretched his head and looked out. Except for a very old villa, the whole street was quite empty. I didn’t see the so-called hot pot restaurant... The nursery rhyme shrank back: “I told my mom long ago. Rui Ge is a trafficker. She still doesn’t believe it. Now you have to pull me to sell and drink.”

“You can only change a bottle of Tsingtao beer like this. It is estimated that people still have to find zeros.” Lu Sicheng opened the door and “get off.”

“Where is the hot pot restaurant?”

“At this.”

Nursery rhymes watched her teammates knock on the door of the villa in front of them, the door opened, and it was really a beautifully decorated restaurant. The hot pot restaurant that opened the door in the middle of the night was already amazing. The most terrible thing is that people still open. In a villa in the city of this inch of gold... The nursery rhymes walked behind everyone, the first impression was: Can the rent of the store can be recovered?

...and then waited until the well-dressed waiter handed the menu to the nursery rhyme, she casually opened her eyes and gave her the answer, that is: Yes.

1188 a plate of beef, are you afraid of not afraid?

Is 568 pounds of shells taken from the sea of stars? !

7. What is the gourd of a plate of 80 and 80? ! ! !

..... The price unit is the yen?

The nursery rhyme “snap” and put together the menu, and the face “I have seen the world, I am not afraid” is forced to calm down: “I am not hungry.”

However, at this time, no one cares about her. Lu Sicheng seems to have become accustomed to it. He has a lot of dishes, meat and seafood, and various vegetables. The nursery rhymes listen to their orders and estimate them with the price just seen. A frightening number -

Her annual salary is 800,000, 800,000! It is enough to eat twenty or thirty times, and that year will probably be dry.

When the dishes came up, she still had some sleepwalking.

She glanced at the dishes in front of them. No matter what the meat or seafood looks very fresh, it is indeed the top food...

But in the eyes of the nursery rhymes, they are a plate of RMB. Was thrown into the pot of soup -

They are very happy to eat chubby, and seeing it looks like it is definitely not the first time.

The nursery rhymes quietly bowed their own vegetables, equivalent to RMB 10 yuan for a green vegetable, put the market, this dish can buy the stalls of the vegetable farmers directly... When the nursery rhymes eat vegetables, sitting opposite her The man suddenly stood up and pushed the hot meat in front of him to the nursery rhyme: “Dwarf, eat meat.” The child looked up at the roots of the vegetables and looked up.

Lu Sicheng’s sudden love move made Xiaopeng, who was just chatting happily, not talking. He also looked up and looked at the nursery rhymes and looked at Lu Sicheng. Everyone didn’t understand the two guys. When the dog jumps, he will cultivate the revolutionary friendship he fed her.

And the nursery rhyme stares at the four-digit beef that is pushed in front of him, as if it was sprinkled with it.

The air seems to solidify.

“Cough, what, in the car, I want to say,” Xiaorui cleared the scorpion and broke the deadlock. “Cheng brother, you really have a niece? Where can I take care? I’m afraid to roll down from the bed; I’m afraid that the glass of the training game will be broken. I’m afraid that it’s not too light to eat and eat.” Xiaorui’s broken thoughts, the nursery rhyme sneaked into the mouth of the green vegetables, thanking the private hot pot for the elegant environment, when the lights were dim, we couldn’t see her ears red like the shrimps cooked in the pot...

A moment of silence.

“She entertained me for one night tonight,” Lu Sicheng said with a blank expression. “Let’s eat more pressure, what’s wrong?”

Everyone: “...”

Nursery rhymes: “.....”

The child looked at Lu Sicheng with a sigh of relief.

Then I felt like a thunder in my brain.

Right?

Is it? !

I was tortured for a whole night... I still have to eat some good pressure shocks? !

The nursery rhyme suddenly put down the chopsticks with green vegetables and looked straight around, just wanting to find the little waiter who was standing next to her.

She wants a menu! She wants lobsters! She wants bird’s nest!

If you have shark’s fin, you can also have two copies, one mouthful and one drink! expensive? Cheng Ge has money and honest brother! !
