

Chapter 24: city

In the afternoon and the huawei team training game, the nursery rhymes really vented in the other side as the director Lu Sicheng directed, and took the fire boy's nursery rhymes to start a three-minute hard change for a wave of blood, and finally the silk blood advantage single kill in the middle of the single first drop of blood!

Single screen typing in the opposite side:

Self-assisted public screen typing:

Ming Shen took a picture of his chubby head: "Is there still a space to type? You are free, do you want to cut out a microblog?"

Thirty eight minutes.

After zgdx established a relatively large advantage, this group of unstoppable Sao people began to wonder what to do. Ad, auxiliary, and wild people wanted to steal the big dragon. As a result, they were found on the opposite side, and five people will They had a siege - Lu Sicheng's first sacrifice, took away the other's ad before leaving, chubby followed the lyrics...

The old k retreated while he squatted: "All said not to steal the chubby to steal , you are turned over and you have a big pot!"

Facing the resurrection of black and white screens, chubby pats the belly: "Lee point of view."

At this time, the remaining four of the huawei team had no blood left in Dalongkeng and took over one-third of the blood of the dragon. They quickly harvested the **** dragon and thought it ushered in the hope of a comeback. The result is At this time, I saw a red name flashing in front of me, the flame light column strung from the ground, the flame light flashed fireball from the sky, just got the big dragon buff huawei team four people screen black!

At the top right of the computer, the flamboyant avatar of the nursery rhyme is displayed. The spectator continuously jumps out of the hero avatar, and the new system slogan is constantly lit in the center of the screen.

Doublekill (double kill)!

Triplekill (three kills)!

Quadrakill (four kills)!

Along with the huawei team's five avatars all turned black and white, their last chance to turn over the disk was basically shattered...

“Wonderful! Wonderful!”

“This fire man can!”

“This is all dare to go down the dragon pit, it is really a newborn calf not afraid of the tiger...”

In the base, Xiaopeng sighed and applauded. The old k also didn't look back at the gods. Ming Shen stood behind the nursery rhyme chair. After sighing, he sighed and the virgin hero pool was really quite deep. He played like a decent...

At this time, the nursery rhyme stole the blue buff opposite, and heard Lu Sicheng say in her ear: “Impression.”

“I feel that I can kill,” said Tong Yu. “The opposite is to make a difference in order to kill your skills. Take the big dragon is lax, this time is the most like the meat on the chopping board...”

“The operation is too risky.”

“Because I am still young.” Tong Yu took a look at Lu Sicheng.

Xiaorui also interjected in the back: “Sincere brothers don't want to be like this. Self-confidence is a good thing. It's a headache for people to be afraid of their feet. I think virginity is so good. It doesn't matter if you don't agree!”

Lu Sicheng changed his sitting position and threw the next sentence, “You are used to her.” Then he stopped talking. The remaining few people were encouraged by the morale of the nursery rhyme. After the resurrection, they pushed the high ground of the huawei team. Killing the opposite side and throwing away the helmet, quickly lost the game -

Won again!

When the nursery rhymes let go of the mouse and move their wrists, the mood that was affected by the gossip news in the morning was barely changed from cloudy to sunny... The huawei team was a lpl middle-level team. This spring game is about to enter the second round of the playoffs. It is not an easy task to win them.

In the short-term, winning two training wins in succession is considered to be a bright operation. This can also block the mouths of people who say she is airborne. The nursery rhymes know that they are running around to get a job. Many people have a slight whisper about this, and even many people say that zgdX made this hand just for hype...

Today, she and Lu Sicheng's rhythm are out, and some people have strengthened this view.

And so on.

A lot of ugly comments.

It's very irritating, and the people who quarrel with them and the people who try to reason and refute them are not in the minority... But the nursery rhymes know that it is difficult to change the minds of these people. The only way is to take their faces with real results. .

"..."

Because of the excessive concentration of the nursery rhymes and some painful fingers, he turned his head and looked around. Lu Sicheng was analyzing the data and the data of the Mingshen after the game. Feeling her gaze, the man stopped talking to the gods without rushing, turned his head and looked at her...

Pause for a moment.

"Played well."

"Hey, hey."

The girl's dull face showed a smile, her eyes bent into two crescents.

At night.

Sure enough, as the nursery rhyme guessed - although I don't know who is leaking, in short, the training situation of the huawei team during the day and the huawei team was sent online. The situation was exaggerated and said that "smiling is a manpower to turn the tide. The team's decision-making mistakes were almost stabilized in the case of a turnaround"...

During the day, there was a wave of rhythm and a wave of rhythm at night, so when the nursery rhymes opened live at night, the number of people in the live broadcast reached a new peak.

Half of the people were asking Tong Tong and Jian Yang and Lu Sicheng what happened; the remaining half were asking if she was really carrying the team to victory during the day training.

Nursery rhyme: "Jian Yang is my ex-boyfriend when I was studying. Later, I broke up. Why did I break up? It's not normal for young people to fall in love. It's not normal. What is good? Why is Jianyang now? In China, in China, Shanghai, at the ck team base, on my blacklist?”

The nursery rhymes who have been broadcasting for several days are now turned into old drivers. They can open the barrage assistant and talk to the barrage while playing the game... When talking about “in my blacklist”, she is still Seeing that Lu Sicheng had swept her over her head, the lips were moving and clearly said silently: childish.

Nursery rhymes: “...”

Nursery rhymes: “As for the training game in the afternoon, we had a big advantage. I went back to the city to change equipment under the single eyelids. Cheng Ge, Xiaopang and the old k were pushing the tower on the road, pushing the honest brother to make a move. : Do you want to steal a big dragon?”

Lu Sicheng: “????”

Nursery rhymes: “Then they went to do this kind of stealing chickens and dogs. It turns out that this kind of thing is still less good, the sun is fierce, everything is visible, and the huawei team looks at them desperately - five people come up in one second There is still a big dragon in the coffers, it’s hard to think about it... It’s not my carry, really not, maybe the opposite desire to kill them is too strong, too many skills, so I actually play A wave of harvest.”

At this time, all the people watching the live virginity saw a small window in her video head, and a big hand reached over and smashed her earphones -

“Who wants to steal the big dragon? You can be bold enough to say it again.”

The curtain suddenly drifted through a pile -

“6666666666” “The anger of the team tyrants” “Overbearing honest brothers fall in love with me” “Where are you going to swear?” “Why don’t you avoid suspicion” “Good live broadcast, don’t know what to feed dog food”...

Nursery rhymes grabbed their headphones back, put them on the end, and then said in a relaxed tone: “Do not avoid suspicion, avoid leisure, because there is nothing - you don’t have to think so much, there is no shopping, I and Cheng The only time that the brother appeared on the road at the same time was that I didn’t know the road when I first joined the team. He was appointed to take me to buy slippers, what hand to take, what street to go to?

Lu Sicheng: "And I am not a pedophile."

Nursery rhymes: "Yes, plus he is not a love - what do you say?"

Lu Sicheng, sitting next to her, put on the headphones with a blank expression and adjusted the computer sound to the maximum.

The nursery rhyme turned back and looked at the barrage. He paused and said: "So I haven't been together. How long will it take me? I will tell you all together. Right, right, please eat candy... What is stinky? The id called 'Big Crystal Burst', you talk well - the house management? The house management is working, this can not help but say what he is waiting for!"

Lu Sicheng: "But there will not be that day."

Nursery rhymes: "... Are you wearing headphones?"

Lu Sicheng licked the line of the earphones, and then lifted the empty, not plugged on the computer to the nursery rhyme...

Nursery rhyme: "..... Who do you play for?"

Lu Sicheng: "My ears are cold and I am stunned."

Nursery rhymes: "..."

At this time, the curtains of the words of Jianyang and Lu Sicheng gossip were finally replaced by various "hahahahahahaha" "66666 Miss sister cheering" "waiting for a summer game, definitely wonderful"...

- Lu Sicheng is right, compared to the lace news of professional players, people are still more interested in the things they are active in the professional circle itself, overnight "lpl strongest female singles" "Who says sisters play "I don't want to play the game" "I started looking forward to the summer game zgdx" "A sister finally led the team to win the six-year final trophy. This is definitely the most savvy" news headlines filled with various e-sports media Home...

At this point, the e-sports white snake passed the wind.

After a few days.

The mid-season is nearing the end, and the ck team lost to the Korean version of the carrier team in the finals. For this result, although regrettable, people can accept it: after all, before the mid-season, everyone thought that the lpl area should have been smashed into the soil at the door of the house.

After the start of the mid-season, everyone was pleasantly surprised to find that the dishes seemed to be more than a lpl area. The six major divisions are clearly different from each other... Everyone expressed their feelings: It seems that this year's global finals is still a bit of hope.

With the closing ceremony of the mid-season, May quietly passed halfway. When the weather in Shanghai gradually became hot, the Summer League of the League of Legends in China, which started in late May, also entered the preparation period.

The short and short offseason has finally come to an end. All the team members have returned to the team base. Each team has started the preparation of this season's starting list and the replacement list after a short transfer period... The movements of the game have also become more frequent.

Because zgdz is a traditional strong team, the number of teams that are sent to the door to train for training every day is numerous. Xiaorui picks one or two to play, the team is strong and weak, and the most one nursery rhymes play three training games a day -

All won.

Did not lose a hand.

This kind of thing can't be swayed even if the result of the training is usually kept secret, so in the end, whether it is inside the professional circle or the entire e-sports environment, one thing is known: the zgdz team has a new one. The state is so good that it flies up and the training game is invincible.

The fans were excited and restless and looked forward to the new Chinese telecom team in the summer...and at this time, the nursery rhymes had a small problem inside their team.

The cause is still due to the problem of the training game.

On this day, the nursery rhymes have just finished playing with a group of vegetables than the team's training game.

Everyone is surrounded by the shortcomings of the training game and new tactics to discuss the meeting. The small book that records the data in the hands of God is turned over. On the other page of the page, at this time, the team manager Xiaorui drifted behind them and fluttered a sentence: “Cheng Ge, your old club came to the training competition, I promised.”

The man who turned his head and looked at the small blackboard with the summoner’s canyon map behind him heard the words, and he turned his head and asked, “What are you talking about?”

It is no exaggeration to say that the nursery rhyme felt that the atmosphere changed immediately.

The chubby and the old k who were whispering about a group of dishes in the training match than the team’s wild-assisted double-game tactics were not talking at once; they are summing up the old cats that are currently available and holding a single hero. The movement of Ming Shen’s reading of his own small book also stopped.

The nursery rhymes sit between them and are responsible for their faces.

“After playing the domestic training game for so many days, is it time to practice with a strong team in South Korea?” Xiaorui touched the tip of his nose. “So I’ve got an expression pack.”

Lu Sicheng: “...”

According to the usual practice, the team manager has no contract training, and the training team members are not qualified to have objections, but zgdx is not the same here. The active team members and captains of their team, that is, Mr. Lu Sicheng, he also holds the club. One of the bosses of the stock...so sometimes he can make some decisions that go over the team manager, or he can directly call the team management -

For example, now.

I saw the man slouching in the usual day. He frowned and looked as if he was really angry: “I remember I said that it is not the time to train with the tat team.”

Xiaorui tried to correct him: “You said a month ago.”

Lu Sicheng: “I have said that this situation can be stopped in the past two days? Or do you have to emphasize this nonsense every day?”

“The training game has been playing for a month,” Xiaorui frowned. “The nursery rhyme should also adapt—”

“Why do you want to ask the team on the Korean side not to contact their carrier team? Do you want to go to what tat...”

“They came to the door by themselves!”

“Why are they coming to the door? Not because they heard the wind, but now the whole world is blowing our new single-game training invincible... brains? You won’t discuss this kind of thing with me?”

“At the time, you were still playing a training match with a group of dishes, and about a training game. If you lose, you lose.” I think that before the start of the new season, the two teams will touch each other. What is it? Ah?” Xiaorui’s tone has also become tougher. “I will see it with tat sooner or later...”

“I said, it is not the time.” Lu Sicheng put on a cold voice,

“Can’t understand people?”

“When is ‘Is it time’?”

“do not know.”

“I said it is now.”

“...just you,” Lu Sicheng sneered, and his two long legs stretched out. “When something happens, don’t come to me and wipe your ass.”

Xiaorui was smashed, and he didn’t say anything and turned away. The atmosphere was a bit awkward and a little low-pressure. No one around dared to speak. The nursery rhymes were even confused. I didn’t know what happened. I saw them inexplicably. Not happy.

She vaguely felt that Lu Sicheng refused to work with tat about the reason for the training because of her, and felt that she should say something - but looked up and saw the captain’s frozen three-foot face, and suddenly swallowed back all the words to be said. In the stomach, I picked up the big cake that was squatting in the middle of the bench and touched it.

I didn’t dare to put one in the fart with my tail.

- This sudden episode led to the quietness of the entire base until the evening.

The loudest voice in seven hours is the little brother who sent the takeaway.

Everyone sat in front of their own computer and shivered and trained themselves. When the nursery licked milk, they passed by the old cat and the old k. They found that they were still in double row. The most savvy is that they both sit. People who can touch each other's hands at a big point next door can't talk, and the whole exchange is based on typing in the game. On the sofa, Mingshen is watching the recent video of the recent tat team, and the small books in his hand are a lot of pages.

The nursery rhyme sat back in the position, opened □ □, saw the chubby avatar flashing, and opened it to see that the assistant comrade who was separated from her by two or three positions carefully asked:

Nursery rhyme back:

Xiaopang:

Nursery rhymes:

Xiaopang:

Xiaopang:

Nursery rhymes:

As soon as the nursery rhyme heard it, I was really afraid that the team manager would be so inexplicably killed. He quickly picked up the big cake that snorted and snorted in Lu Sicheng's seat and gave himself a courageous rush to the living room window and listened to the corner...

The big face just attached to the window, people have not had time to stand still, she heard Xiao Rui some eager voice from the yard faintly -

"...you are too protective of her, everything is in the first place, this is all right, now even the training game is not willing to play really inexplicable, you know that before the season, the improvement with the Korean team to get a training game is definitely better than It's much more than the domestic team that is under our level. What can you lose? Don't you collapse your confidence? Anyway, I don't understand, Lu Sicheng, you don't really like her. I didn't know how you used to **** and pedophile?"

The nursery shivered.

I almost threw the cat in my arms - what's the situation?

So Lu Sicheng refused to play training with the Korean expression team because of her?

... don't say Xiaorui, even the nursery rhymes themselves don't understand: What is this mother-in-law? !
