

Chapter 27: city

Lu Sicheng walked back to the base with his back on his back and suddenly found that the person on his back had no sound. He stunned and turned his head and found that the chin was on his shoulder and his eyes closed and his breath was long.

Sleeping... a look of peace.

Like a dead pig.

“.....Hey.”

He tentatively called the person on the back, but the latter did not respond. Lu Sicheng paused, as if tentatively approaching his face - until his nose touched her, the man stopped. The quiet cockroach stared at the face on the shoulder for a long time, and the other party not only did not respond at all, but also dropped a drop of scorpion from the corner of the lips...

Lu Sicheng: “...”

I just wanted to take her back to the base and just throw in a trash can. However, when the man took another step, he suddenly thought about it. When he entered the bar, someone was hanging on the man like a koala. The scene of life and death does not let go - tomorrow zgdx team should get up early to choose the new style of the summer team, everyone will go to bed early tonight, who will be hung up with such a skunk without warning before washing for a while What should be the stuff?

Thinking this way, the man took back his feet and walked to a certain pavilion in the community. He bent down and laid down the person on his back and patted her face: “Wake up.”

The nursery rhyme opened his eyes in confusion.

“How does this look back to the base? The atmosphere has been broken by you. I am going to buy you a hangover, stay here, don't run around.”

A nursery rhyme who clung to the pillars immediately hugged her hands and screamed. She nodded heavily. Lu Sicheng patted her head and thought she would give her a candy. She turned and wanted to leave. Suddenly, the clothes hem was smashed from behind. live—

Lu Sicheng turned his head, and the person behind him smiled and looked up at him: “What are you doing, you have beaten me, and I almost stumbled over me. I have tried this for a long time...”

The nursery rhyme squinted and looked forward to it: “Are you going to fall?”

Lu Sicheng ruthlessly grabbed his clothes hem, too lazy to care about this wine madman, and assuredly stressed: “I will come back in five minutes.”

“The length of the leg is great. I have to go to the door of the community for ten minutes!” The nursery giggled. “What if there is a wolf?”

This community does not have a pass and the mosquitoes can’t fly in, where is the pervert? And this is the time... Lu Sicheng looked at the watch on the wrist, the hour hand is ready to point to the number “1”...

“The satyr can’t see you.” Lu Sicheng replied.

The nursery rhyme screamed, and groaned and said, “It’s also said,” and while he was talking, he held the column tighter:

“Do not worry, I don’t go away, I am now alive (*古人, with The woman is under the bridge, the woman does not come, the water does not go, the bridge column is dead and died...”

Lu Sicheng sneered at you with a sneerful thought that you are quite cultured. If you are drunk, you can also quote the classics, and throw the next sentence, “Take you good, then turn around” and walk outside the community.

The pace of his walk is very urgent.

It seems to be really ready for five minutes back and forth.

However, what Lu Sicheng didn’t know was that even if he flew up, it didn’t make much use, because the person who claimed to be “the end of his life” released his pillars when he walked on his forefoot, and confided himself. I said to myself, “I am not drunk, I am dying for alcohol.” “I was still talking to you about the ideal.” “How much more sober and sober” stood up and locked a direction that is probably the location of the base. She began to wobble. Go to the base -

The zgdx club logo is obvious.

Even in such a high-end villa community that looks like this everywhere, the nursery rhyme can easily find it... While feeling how smart he is, while opening the door of the base, he wants to sing with the people in the base. Laozi Tonghan three came back again. The result was to open the door and look at it. It was found that the base floor was quiet, the living room was dimly lit, no one spoke, and there was no familiar sound of tapping the keyboard and clicking the mouse.

Nursery rhymes: “?”

The nursery rhyme holding the door handle slammed into the door and forced the door to be fixed at the door. He looked down at the key in his hand and began to wonder if he was mentally retarded and opened the door of someone else’s house...

However, at this moment, she suddenly saw each of the computers in the row against the wall suddenly lit up -

It is Lu Sicheng’s one.

At this moment, the light of the computer screen illuminates the person who is kneeling in front of the computer - he has a black hair, a silver earring on the right ear of the earrings, and a smack of green, the man stares at it. On the computer screen, “咔嚓” and “咔嚓” licked the nails of the left thumb. When he heard the footsteps, he turned his head and looked at the girl who was silly at the door with a blank expression...

The moment I saw his face, the cold sweat on the back of the nursery rhyme fell off. She felt a dizzy look, staring at the handsome face that looked at her face with no expression, her tongue playing. Knot: “Sincere, honest brother, are you not going to buy something, how can I step by step...”

Back to the base?

No, it’s right. She stared at him in the other direction. How could she suddenly wander around the big circle and go back to the computer?

Just as the virginity of the nursery rhymes became a mess, the man who turned his head suddenly smiled. He stopped biting his thumb and nails, licking his lips and revealing a white tongue...

Snapped—

The base key in the girl’s hand fell to the ground.

The face that was originally red because of drunkenness suddenly became pale and pale. She continued her legs in two steps and then took the door!

Lu Sicheng bought the hangover medicine and came back. He saw a rabbit-like figure in the distance and flew toward him at a speed of 100 meters.

Under the streetlight, she was as white as paper.

Lu Sicheng groaned, his heart twitched, and he followed his eyebrows to raise his voice: “How come you, it will not really meet the color -”

A “wolf” word has not yet landed.

The man who had already rushed to him had jumped in place and jumped steadily on him. Lu Sicheng was slammed back and forth several times, and the hangover in his hand fell to the ground. His hands steadily jumped into the room. The * of the person in his arms, looked blank: “What are you doing?”

The person hanging on him was fiercely up and down, panting like a cow. She shuddered and tightened her arm around her man’s neck. Then she looked up and looked at his eyes and said, “Cheng Ge.”

Lu Sicheng: “?”

Nursery rhymes: “I am a ghost.”

Lu Sicheng: “...”

Nursery rhymes: “I saw a ghost at the base, which looks exactly like you.”

Nursery rhymes: “Fear.”

Lu Sicheng: “...”

Lu Sicheng: “Go down from me, drunk.”
