

Chapter 3:

On the weekend of the contract with the zgdx team, the nursery rhyme took the plane to Shanghai, and she only did two things in the waiting room before boarding the plane - The first thing was to send a WeChat to her friend Jinyang, telling her that she is going to Shanghai to play the professional league. Her nursery rhymes are going to be e-sports Mulan.

The second thing is to send a Weibo, telling the fans who often watch her live broadcast, she is going to Shanghai to see this year's spring finals, and said clearly: the zgdx team cheers! The whistle of the nursery rhyme, the official microblog of zgdx was forwarded, with the word, this sudden little interaction made the fans of the nursery rhythm excited, and they all reported -

Nursery rhymes usually go to school when there is no class or vacation, when they are bored, they will play live games, play games or squat, and earn some pocket money - although unlike other female anchors, she never opens the camera, but because of herself It's a woman's, and it's a high-tech ranking of the national service hanbok kings. So these years, some fans have also been left behind – there are not many fans, and there are only three or five thousand people. Usually, there are dozens of microblogs. The response is terrific. At present, it is probably because the official microblog of the zgdx team has also been forwarded. The nursery rhyme has to go to the spring finals. Weibo has just sent out for ten minutes and broke the message without breaking the message...

Nursery rhymes: "..."

Of course, because of the lack of a camera, since the beginning of the year, another female anchor who is also the sister of the sister paper has been smashed out of the scandal. She said that she has never stopped to talk about the topic of others. For example, now There are people under the microblogging malicious ridicule...

I am very happy to jump.

Tong Tongzui, staring at this Weibo for a while, this time the ear broadcast began to remind her that the flight has started boarding, the nursery rhyme smiled, and returned to him with a smile face, and then calmly exited Weibo.

The phone vibrates and the phone rings -
It seems that the electric reminder is Jinyang.
The nursery rhymes can almost think of what would be said on the opposite side, so I wanted to pretend that I was ready to board the plane and didn't see it. As a result, the phone rang twice, and she hadn't waited for her to relax, the text message over there had already flown over –

Nursery rhymes: "..."

I feared that when I got off the plane, I became a friend without a friend. The nursery rhyme took the call and humbly listened to how her friend roared on the phone.

"Go to your sister's e-sports Mulan!!"

"My boyfriend is playing in the game. My girlfriend is going to play the game. After I watched the game, when I was watching the game, people asked me to see it. I said that my husband and girlfriends don't treat me as a neuropathy!!"

"Where are you? Is it really already on the plane! You give me down! I am going to hijack!!"

It took a long time for the nursery rhyme to appease her feelings of a friend who was deeply abhorred by the words "esports players" until the flight attendant gently reminded her that the plane was about to take off, she was ready to hang up, but she was always excited before hanging up. The opposite side suddenly silenced -

Nursery rhymes know that it seems to be bad.

Sure enough, the next second she heard a friend saying: "You don't want to agree to play a career for Jianyang?"

"...no," said the nursery rhyme. "I am coming for an annual salary of 800,000."

"Children!"

"Oh, really, no! I haven't talked to him for a long time..."

Recently I've been telling that Yangshen has a new girlfriend, a beautiful female anchor-"

"Hey? Are you not a female anchor?"

"Beautiful, female anchor."

"Don't, although I look down on the * of Jianyang, I didn't listen to what we said about Aijia's new girlfriend. They all said that the ck team will not let love only let the base..."

"In short, I am not looking for him."

"That's all right," the phone snorted, seemingly not assured.

“Good horses don’t eat back, remember that you said it two days ago, and give you a chance, you will definitely not fall in love with professional players.”

“I know, I know.”

“If you have to talk about it, you can only go to your wedding if you are honest.”

“..... I will not use it for my wedding,” the brain filled the face of the “sincer brother” in the mouth of the friend, and the nursery rhyme replied, “Cheng brother clearly has a face that does not love human beings.” ””

The yang on the other side of the phone is laughing.

At this time, the flight attendant killed her for the second time to remind her to shut down.

The nursery rhymes had to rush to say goodbye to the good friend, and the mobile phone turned to look out the window. At this time, the plane gradually accelerated to take off, and the blue sky and white clouds reflected the window. The nursery rhyme saw a stupid face filled with the League of Legends professional league...

“To be reserved.” She muttered and patted her face. “Be calm.”

It takes about two and a half hours to fly from the city of virginity to Shanghai.

When I got off the plane, the sister who sent the zgdx club to pick up the plane took the nursery rhyme and took the hotel where the players who played the finals the day after tomorrow -

Tong Tong thought that this was to introduce her to the future teammates. For this reason, she was nervous for a while. The result was that she was going to the hotel to know that it was not, but the team manager was afraid that her little girl would come to Shanghai to succumb. I want to give her a good meal. As for meeting with the new teammates, I will wait until the original Zhongming Shen retired and announce it.

“It’s very good,” said the nursery rhyme. “I also feel that it is too hasty to meet today.”

The receptionist and sister saw her and smiled. “I thought you wouldn’t wait to see Chengge. They used to be the trainees who came to our base.”

“I want to see them,” the nursery rhyme looked straight. “But I didn’t wash my hair today.”

“I didn’t wash it yesterday.”

The nursery rhyme smirked, but at this time they had arrived at the destination hotel, and they saw a bunch of media squatting in the distance. The scene was so lively, no less than which big star was about to appear. The posture -

The receptionist’s sister shook her head: “These media don’t know where to hear that Ming Shen will retire after the spring game. At this point, two crazy people want to make a big news...”

Nursery rhymes: “Hey.”

The receptionist glanced at the numb virgin from the rearview mirror and raised his eyebrows and said: “This stupid human being does not know that the biggest news is sitting in the back seat of my car.”

“Don’t stop,” Tong Yu smiled and waved. “The big news didn’t wash your hair.”

Between the two words, I saw a Mercedes-Benz nanny car with a Chinese telecommunications logo on the body screaming from the side of their car. The car stopped in front of the hotel and waited for their nursery to stop. When the car door of the nanny car was opened, several staff members wearing the team uniforms first got off the bus. They rushed the media reporters who were surrounded by them and cleared a path. Then, a few young people from the car. Going up - Each of them looks very young, the biggest one is definitely no more than twenty-five years old. It is a fat man who gets off the bus first. He wears red and black color, and the short sleeves of the uniform printed with the “zgdx” team logo. The pants are Loose black sweatpants... He got off the temper and smiled at the media and waved.

A few people behind him came down one after another, only when the last person came down, the nursery rhyme noticed that the media’s shots were in unison and aligned with him. If the few who walked in front of the most counted “juvenile”, then the person who is coming down from the car must call him a “young man” - he is almost one taller than other teammates. Head, although wearing a red and black uniform like a teammate, but in the uniform he put a jacket... At this time, his hands are in his pockets, his ears are stuffed with headphones, his nose is tall, single eyelids, thin The lips, the expressionless face look a bit mean.

But he is very handsome.

When his teammates in front of him turned back and talked to him, he slightly took off his headphones and then looked down and seemed to be listening carefully to the other person... At this time, he didn't know what the other person said, and the man suddenly shook The lower lip - the face on the face like a face that did not know whether it should be called "smile".

Nursery rhymes: "..."

Tong Tong once saw that this person's team propaganda photos were forwarded by Weibo to tens of thousands. People expressed their feelings that "it is obvious that they can go to be a star to compete in e-sports." Nowadays, when you see a real person, you can only say that the photo is completely different from the photo. Not inferior -

Was this person going to Korea for training? How can the image of the Internet addiction teenager be subverted? Look at the nursery rhymes, even she knows that as an internet addiction girl does not wash her head to meet her identity - "Wow, take a look at our Sima face, who is smiling and not laughing. It is estimated that today the training game lost to the Korean team."

A sigh came from the nursery rhyme, only stopped the car, the sister who just came up with the girl shook his head and sighed... The nursery rhyme didn't talk because her eyes were completely stuck at the slightest back and lazy pace with her teammates. Behind him, the man who is gradually moving away is on his back -

This person is the adc player "chessman" of the zgdx team that the nursery rhyme will join, that is, the "Cheng Ge" who is also crazyly remembered by the friend of the nursery rhyme. "chessman" is the real name of Lu Sicheng. The translation of "chessman" into Chinese means "pawn", but Lu Sicheng's weight in the team is definitely not as low-key as his id, at least since he started playing professionally, the annual season is wonderful. More than half of the film in the first ten sets has this id in the madness of the brush, how many times he turned the tide in the inferior position, leading the teammates to victory -

This person has been attending the World All-Star Game on behalf of the Chinese Division adc position for two consecutive years. Fans have been tens of millions. I heard that the annual salary is at least a few zeros than the “800,000” of the nursery rhymes. The face is tall, the face is handsome enough, and there are few words. Do not jump, command and decision-making power is first-class, even for teammates, it is a strong concentration of the general presence...

Playing professional for so many years, when other players are always found in various positions, the black spots are flying in the black, but the chessman is a clear stream, everyone loves him, no one does not love.

Although I heard that he is tempered, the “sentimental” of a handsome man should be called “having personality” -

Lu Sicheng is definitely a soul figure in the zgdx team.

Well, to be precise, the scope of “zgdx in this team” can actually be enlarged into “China’s e-sports circle.”

Before coming, Tong Tong once thought about what it would be like to see this man for the first time in 10,000 times. But now, she can only say that she hopes to perform well in her future career. Don’t let this handsome face wrinkle against her, even if she can’t imagine the face that looks a bit mean on weekdays. If I really want to be mean, then how bad the mother can be.

Nursery rhyme: “Is it my illusion? Cheng Ge looks a bit fierce.”

Entertainer sister: “...correct it, not ‘watch’.”

Nursery rhymes: “...”

so afraid.

At this time, when the nursery rhymes were gone, her future teammates had already dragged into the hotel.

“Let’s go in too.”

The hospitality sister smirked the shoulder of the nursery rhyme and took her to the hotel. She went to the front desk to register and took the room key she had prepared. The nursery rhyme returned to the room and put the luggage and ran to say hello to the team manager. Then the next is her free time.

The nursery rhymes circled in the room and studied that the free mineral water sent by the hotel didn't seem to be enough. She simply took the wallet and went downstairs to buy it again. She noticed that there was a supermarket near the hotel before entering the hotel. Lou Tongyu easily found the supermarket. Fortunately, there was a bucket of water and the last bucket. The nursery rhymes picked up the bucket of water. It felt a bit heavy when they were upside down. Look at the carts that were not found around...

At this time she wants to eat ice cream and fruit.

After all, the annual salary is 800,000 yuan, and I am not prepared to grieve my other things. She decided to take some other things she wants to eat first. Finally, she wandered back and took this bucket of water... After making up her mind, she looked at the crowds coming and going, for fear. Which passed by took her last source of life, and after considering it again, she made a very creative move -

She squatted and smashed the bucket of water into the innermost part of the top shelf.

This way no one will see it.

Clap his hands in satisfaction, standing back and looking at the well-contained bottled water, the nursery rhyme smugly turned his hair and left.

However, what she never expected was -

Not long after she left, a tall figure came out from behind the shelf, and the man came in one hand with his hand in his pocket. The zipper on his body was faintly revealing the red "zgdx" team logo. He went there. The shelf with the bottled water stopped nearby, the hand in the pocket did not move, and the hidden bottled water was easily taken from the shelf with the other hand.

Turn around, check out, leave.

When Lu Sicheng used the room card to open the door, the teammate who was dyed with a red-haired mobile game in the room suddenly looked up and saw the water in his hand screaming and cheering up.

"Go to yourself next time." Lu Sicheng put down the water.

"I know I know, the captain is tens of thousands of years old!"

The man twisted the water like a monkey and sipped it at the mouth of the bottle -

Then I feel that the people around me are watching themselves silently.

He was seen a little hairy, and the water contained in his mouth was swallowed in his stomach. He turned his head and looked at the man around him and asked indecently: "Oh?"

"This water is the last barrel in the supermarket."

"what?"

"I saw a dwarf with his feet and hid it in the top shelf - the dwarf that would probably be all over the world would think it was particularly good, but I could see it with my chin."

The man paused and then secluded: "I am stupid for me."
