

Chapter 31: city

The nursery rhyme looked at it, and there were more than 20,000 comments underneath, saying everything.

An angry anger goes directly to Lu Yue -

There is a little less anger, calm down and then question the landlord -

.....

And the focus is completely on the body of the gods -

After seeing the nursery rhymes, there are also emotions and embarrassment. The comments are similar. The comments that follow the main truth of the building are almost covered by these comments...

The most commentary on the whole floor is that there is a person with a big brain to say that this video is smiling. Don't look at this woman's silly white sweetness on the weekdays, and there are many ghosts in the back. Maybe it's afraid that Lu Yue grabbed her summer. At the starting position of the game, I just came up and sent this video...

Such a serious thing, someone must come to be funny.

The nursery rhymes used his own post vest to return to his "big brother said well, the most poisonous woman's heart", and then temporarily quit the post, to see her almost explode WeChat - ran to WeChat private chat to ask the nursery rhyme There are not a few people, and the nursery rhyme back to "I know a fart" is bothering to go back. Just copy and paste this sentence one by one.

In addition to the people who rushed to gossip from time to time, the nursery rhymes looked down on the bed for half an hour before reading the post... At this time, the room door was knocked open by people outside, their dear captain adults Standing behind the open door slit: "Get out of bed, meeting." The sound is three feet frozen.

The nursery rhyme put down the mobile phone and climbed out of the bed and wanted to follow him down the stairs. As a result, the hand was just placed on the door handle and wanted to open the door and go out. A large handcuff sticking out from behind the door pushed her to the room. : "Cleaning your face, coat."

When the virginity squatted, I remembered that I was shivering by the earth-shattering news from the time I got up. I didn't wash my face or comb my face. I was wearing a nightdress on my body... The old face was red, and I opened my head. The big hand on the back shrank back and whispered: "Know it."

Speaking and closing the door.

When the nursery rhyme turned to the bathroom, she heard the sound of Lu Sicheng knocking on the door next door. When she opened the faucet and squeezed the toothpaste with the cup, the sound of someone walking and kicking was heard next door; the nursery rhyme found that the room was not soundproof. So she closed the faucet, so she heard Lu Sicheng's low voice, he was asking someone – "What the * are you doing at the time?"

The next door was silent. When the girl squinted with her toothbrush and licked her buttocks on the other side of her leg, she almost put her whole person on the bathroom tile. She then faintly heard another personal answer.

"Ayue does not let me say, I want to say that he has lost his temper with me... You have to ask yourself to ask him, anyway, only you can manage him."

The people who squatted on the tiles stunned. I didn't expect the person who said this to be a god. There was no anger in the past that was not mentioned in the imagination. There was no dissatisfaction, and there was no such thing as the truth of the world. The sound sounded particularly calm, even with a little helplessness.

Nursery rhymes: "..."

The nursery rhyme removed the head from the bathroom wall, staring at a monster like staring at a crack in the tile for a long time - she suddenly felt that it was not as simple as they thought, the so-called that year the truth.....

Probably even the landlord who sent the video did not know. After a while, she replied to God, pulled out the toothbrush on her teeth, brushed her teeth, and then grabbed the shirt and hurriedly went downstairs.

At this time, basically everyone is at the base level.

- The concept of all people is "everyone can think of everyone." In addition to the team's official team members, team managers and other people who are often seen, including some staff members of other departments that the nursery rhymes have not seen, including a sister, she raised her head and smiled at the nursery rhymes, then self Introduced that he is the official Bo Niang, that is, the sister who specializes in the official Weibo posting information reply information... “The official Weibo is almost being smashed,” she glanced at Lu Sicheng carefully, then whispered, “I am asking for a statement. What should I do now? This is definitely not a deadly reply.” ...”

Guan Bo Niang’s words just fell, shrinking in the corner of the sofa, originally in the “咔咔” 啃 wangwang snow cake Lu Yue stopped moving, raised his eyes and looked at the gods, the gods squinted and did not speak... Lu Yue’s “嘖” thought I have to pick up my mobile phone to see what those people have said. As a result, when I just raised my hand, I was raised by my sister who was talking and grabbed my mobile phone: “Lu Yue, you still don’t watch, there are not a few good words.”

Lu Yue put his face down on his mobile phone.

Lu Sicheng lifted his ankle and kicked him: “I regret it? I told you that the professional player was also a half public figure. His words and deeds are different from those at school, so that you can converge on others and harm yourself.” —”

Lu Yue licked his snack and raised his hands in his face with his expressionless expression.

Lu Sicheng licked him again.

The team manager Xiaorui was silent from the beginning to the end: “First of all, this is definitely for Lu Yue. He just banned the game and ended up returning to the club. Someone put the video out. It is obvious that the media public opinion does not want him to come back... ..”

Xiaorui paused and continued: “This video is only available to people inside us. I honestly said why the news was closed so well? Because people who have seen this video and contacted this video plus ktv themselves The staff and the police are definitely no more than twenty. The security guards of the ktv and the police are middle-aged people in their 30s and 40s. They are not related to the e-sports when they look at it. It is a group of young people. Fighting, and the rest is the people in our club, the people of the jk team - the people of the jk team must not dare to announce these videos, because in the suppression of public opinion, the announcement of these videos has no benefit to them. At that time, it was the result of discussion, and they even expressed more desire than we did.”

Nursery rhymes: “Why? Isn’t Lu Yue first hit someone?”

Lu Sicheng: “But they are still handed.”

Nursery rhyme: “Don’t defend?”

Lu Sicheng: “The legitimate defense is not so useful. Did the video see it? These people just started to want to subdue Lu Yue, stumbled him and snatched the weapon in his hand. This is called legitimate defense; later he backed him up. This is called gathering people -”

Lu Sicheng glanced at Lu Yue: “In my opinion, it is also called live.”

Lu Yue did not care about pulling the lips and licking the beginning.

Xiaorui made a gesture to let Lu Sicheng not talk first, but faintly said: “So this is what our own people do, who I don’t know, I hope that you stand up, and then we say our own words to the family. Let’s solve this problem well—now it’s windy outside, everyone is standing on the cusp of the wind, if we don’t have enough internal unity, then we must make a big deal.”

Xiaorui’s words just fell.

Xiaopang touched his stomach, and the back was expressionless: “The video I sent.”

Everyone is silent.

Tong Tong silently helped his chin, did not expect Xiaopeng to admit so refreshing, did not expect this video is really his hair

“Why do you fight? Why are you dragging the gods? Why are you dragging the team?” Xiaopang frowned, for the first time he showed the contemptuous look. “A bottle of wine is very handsome. Oh, I want you to be fat.” I was so handsome when I played ten times at the entrance of the middle school, but then I didn’t do this. Why? Because I know that I am a professional player, I have my teammates behind me, my boss, my club, and The entire e-sports circle...”

Xiaopeng sighed with a sigh of relief: “Because you are younger, because you are here, Mingshen's career can be seen at the end, and it's in vain for the whole team's efforts to go to the global finals. Now, what do the society think of the e-sports industry? Internet addiction teenagers, do not work, only know what is going on in the game - this kind of words I listen to every year, I still can't lift my head when I am annoyed, you explain to one hundred people, we are not In this way, then, in a turn, there are pig teammates who use the action to prove to 10,000 and 100,000 people: You are right, we are a group of wastes that you said."

Xiaopeng stood up: "I know that this is very boring, but I think so - I am annoyed, what I am doing is not something that is unspeakable, but I can't always lift my head. Why is this? ?"

The chubby language fell, and no one spoke for a while.

Lu Yue looked at chubby, but he didn't get angry. He couldn't see any emotion on his face... Lu Sicheng scorned the phrase "too impulsive" in an understatement, and Xiaorui sighed: "You kids?"

Ming Shen frowned and called Lu Yue.

Lu Yue looked up at him and looked at him.

Ming Shen paused, and finally seemed to be determined not to look at Lu Yue, but to see chubby suddenly said: "You have made a mistake in chubby, there are actually other internal conditions, Ayue was afraid of the impact The rest of you are not allowed to say -"

Lu Yue, who was originally in the corner, stood up from the sofa: "Yu Ming."

Lu Sicheng lifted his foot and rubbed his knee. He slammed his knee and fell back to the sofa. Lu Sicheng warned that he looked at Lu Yue and then turned his head to Ming Shen: "I know it is not that simple, you Make it clear what is going on in the end."

The story has to start from the end of last summer's summer game.

The zgdx team won the summer championship and sent the s5 global finals. It was a happy event. It was natural to finish the game. After the celebration, a group of people couldn't help but sing to ktv to sing.

Because the next day of the holiday, so everyone drank some wine, Lu Yue in the middle drink high, everyone let a drop of wine did not touch Yu Ming dragged him to the toilet to wash his face awake...

On the way back, I actually met the people of the JK team. This team used to be the second team under the name of the ck team. Later, they played the professional league from the secondary professional league. Because a club can not have two in the professional league. The official regulations of the team, so the jk team's quota is sold, the rich second generation a bought a big price, in order to play on their own.

a self-made captain of the jk team, although he played well, but really not professional level, so even if there are four other teammates, or in the professional league death bombing ...

Finally they are the final group The results, and another group of the same bottom team to play the relegation game, the losing team directly fell back to the secondary league, and then the jk team did not lose it -

And because of the downgrade, they hated not the team that finally played the relegation match with them and defeated them. Instead, they had already ensured that the team's first advantage entered the playoffs, but they refused to carry them to win them. Put, avoid the team's countdown to the bottom of the zgdx team.

"Mom! If it weren't for China Telecom's Wang Ba, we wouldn't be downgraded if we lose! The group's penultimate struggle, the loss of the good and the second place in the second league compete for the right to relegation!"

"I don't think we can beat the professional league team. It's more than enough to play the garbage in the secondary league."

"I just saw those people in China Telecom, it seems to be celebrating the champion celebration feast, but also come to this ktv."

"Hah, now China Telecom's group of people to send s5, all day high-spirited, Laozi looked like they want to vomit - what are the benefits of us downgrading them? How about raising one hand? A brother spent so much money to buy The number of places has only fallen for a season, and the money is in the water..."

The voice inside the box was very loud, almost covering the sound of singing in the next door box... Lu Yuewen, who was originally swayed by the gods, laughed and suddenly stood at the door and did not leave -

The people inside did not know, and continued, the person who had not spoken before, that is, the a brother in the mouth of the jk team, is estimated to drink too high. He heard this “嘿 嘿” and laughed twice, yin and yang said strangely. Sentence: “Want to go to s5? Think of beauty, let us taste the taste and let them taste it...”

As I said, the box was quiet, and the singing people also turned off the music.

The jk team members looked at each other and saw that the a brother took out his mobile phone, sang a phone call, fed the voice and said in a very happy tone.

“After a while, you are looking for someone to come to Caesar KTV and give me a few people outside. Well, those people come out and tell you... don't do anything, just give them their hands. Haha, right? It's a professional. ——Let them continue to play professionally, get their feet to play... Oh, yes, there are two children who look like they are in the middle. Don't touch the people in Lujia. Don't worry about other people. How is it, how to lose money in jail, Laozi give money, you come over soon, I am afraid they ran.”

The sound in the ktv box was clearly passed through the door to the corridor.

The Mingshen who stood outside the door listened, and the heart was not good. He wanted to hurry back to the box and call the uninformed teammates to withdraw before those people came.

As a result, when I looked down, the person who was still soft and hanged on him suddenly had a wrong look. He stood up and turned to push the box next door to KTV, and picked up a bottle of wine under the eyes of a stranger's inexplicable eyes. Opened the door of the people of the jk team!

No one reacted to what happened. Lu Yue's bottle had already reached the head of the a brother. From the beginning to the end, Lu Yue entered the box and said: “You are not very arrogant? Come get me, go to jail to lose money? Laozi also has money.”

Then there was the section recorded by the video, fighting, pushing people until the gods were injured, the people stopped, and the police called the ambulance. After the police came, the injured people were taken away. Lu Yue, Yu Ming and the head were A scoop of a brother ambulance first pulled to the hospital -

Then there is the judicial injury.

Although his brother broke his blood, his wound was given a minor injury, and he did not constitute criminal responsibility. Lu Yue was detained for a few days of education, and then lost money... just this thing went out to be fisted China (* fist company In China, the branch office knows that the participants are all banned to varying degrees except for the gods. Lu Yue banned for one season and the longest time. Ming Shen entered the hospital, although the wrist was injured, but the doctor did not give him his death sentence, that is to say observation treatment -

At this time, Ming Shen does not necessarily catch up with s5. After Lu Yue came out of the police station, he rushed to the hospital Yu Ming's bed and squatted for a night. He stayed up all night, except for apologizing with Yu Ming, and at the same time told Yu Ming that the cause of this incident should not be said outside because I am afraid that this kind of breaking will affect the team's battle s5. Everyone worked hard for a year. It can't be affected by this kind of thing. The beginning of Yu Ming did not agree, but Lu Yue still convinced him.

Lu Yue said: I have been banned, you are also injured, what is it? It is still not worthwhile for me to be told by other people in the team that I have to be troubled by such a thing.

Lu Yue convinced the * of the word.

It was only after Ming's hand was not good before the s5 submission list, so in the case of a single-ban ban and a single-injury, the zgdx team had to announce that they would give up attending the coveted global finals.

After that, Yu Ming always wanted to tell everyone that this was not Lu Yue's initiative to find fault, but Lu Yue did not let him say, then Lu Yue temporarily retired, disappeared for half a year, no one contact, no Chinese New Year Come back home

Until today.

Yu Ming did not rush to bring the ins and outs of the year together. When it came to the end, everyone was so silent that even the sound of breathing could not be heard... Although Lu Yue could still pick out an “impulse” problem, but think carefully I thought, at that time, he was also seventeen or eight years old. The child’s * side just made something impulsive, and there was no way.

Just like you let a high school student pass by the next class and hear someone looking for someone to squat at the school gate. The first thing he thinks is not to call the police or tell the teacher, but to think about finding more people to fight. Dry your mother’s.

This is the truth, and from the beginning Lu Yue was also a single-handed horse. He took a beer bottle into the box and there was another movement to push the gods out. He didn’t think about pulling the gods from the beginning.

Ming Shen’s injury is really an accident that no one wants to see.

So now, when Ming Shen finished the story, Xiaopeng’s face was somewhat complicated. He took out his mobile phone and deleted the post he sent in front of everyone, then turned to the floor and closed the door.

The head of the external propaganda department and the public relations department and Xiaorui gathered together for a group of meetings. Everyone discussed how to publish the truth of the matter, not to completely reverse the wind, at least let people know that they were not China Telecom. The team’s people are guilty.

Lu Sicheng sat on the sofa and looked at his brother: “Hey hero.”

Lu Yue bowed his head, smashed the smashing Wangwang snow cake, frowned and glanced at the gods and muttered “Let you not talk nonsense”, Ming Shen smiled and touched his head: “You have been wronged for so long, can no longer Let you continue to be wronged.”

Lu Yue pushed his hand impatiently.

At the same time, the nursery rhyme felt that the low pressure over the base had just disappeared when she went downstairs. In the afternoon, when everyone was busy discussing how to and sprouted”, and some of the obsessive Chinese focus is not very right, the screen is asking - -

For these questions, no one knows that Lu Sicheng saw it. People only know that after about thirty seconds, everyone’s screen is black and the screen shows “The anchor is not at home” –

The man did not agree to the live broadcast.

The people in the live room were dumbfounded. After five minutes, they refreshed Weibo and saw that Weibo, which had not sent a Weibo for a thousand years, suddenly updated, and the three words: the net was blown up.

As for whether it is true -

“In the afternoon, the base network has been blown up?”

At the dinner table, the person who watched the American TV show in front of the computer grabbed the phone and looked at it.

“I do not know how?”

“The video has a cache.”

“...hey.” Nursery rhymes nodded and put down the phone.

“Cheng Ge, why don’t you follow me on Weibo?”

“Followed.”

“No!” The nursery rhymes raised the phone to Lu Sicheng to see the single arrow in the lower left corner. “You see, no, it won’t be the system?”

“You microblogging the screen, all the brush is you.”

The nursery rhyme put down his mobile phone and took two meals. He thought about throwing chopsticks and said:

“Women just like the fart and make a big news! What do you know!”

Lu Sicheng: “I don’t understand, so I have to check, is there a problem?”

Nursery rhymes: “...”
