

Chapter 39: city

Although it was very tense at first, when the five heroes appeared in the spring water base of the Summoner's Canyon map, the nursery rhymes calmed down at once.

What audience, opponents, backstage staff, big brothers, and so on, all of a sudden, she was thrown into the back of her head, the lower abdomen is like the pain of jumping disco inside the elephant is also slightly reduced, the nursery rhyme lifted the hand to help the headset Now she has only her only opponent in her eyes -

The ck team has a small flower.

The hero of Xiaohua is the time assassin Ike. This hero is a migratory assassin hero. He has control and damage and displacement. Basically, a hero should have something. He has strong online skills and has group control. It's not too much to be able to restrain his heroes. It's not good to play cards in the early days of the nursery rhymes.

But for nursery rhymes, it doesn't matter. Anyway, taking a card means that basically everyone is half-compressed. As long as the other party dares to attack her, she will naturally find a chance to fight against it. It is precisely because she is looking forward to it. There is a chance to fight back, and the summoner skills of the nursery rhymes are "flashing" and "igniting" -

"Flash" is a small distance forward, usually used to cut into a group battle or escape run; and "ignition" will cause continuous real damage to the enemy, the specific damage is determined according to the current level of the hero.

These two skills are basically the key to virginity.

...just, it's not enough to deal with small flowers.

Tong Yu Qing Qing Qingzi: "The teammates, really do not contradict each other, the opposite of the wild is my ex-boyfriend, we are not a peaceful breakup, so he may stay in the middle of the road... old k, so I will not come in It's up to you."

Old k smiled and said: "This is the most wonderful application I have ever heard to fight for the ground."

Xiaopang: "I know that your e-sports white snakes pass hahahahahahahahaha the post that the brain is so open that the old man can't stop it—"

Lu Sicheng: "She is telling the truth."

The chubby laughter came to an abrupt end.

At this point, fans sitting in the front row of the stadium will probably be surprised to find that playing the game, do not know what Lu Sicheng said, zgdx team in the single, wild, assisted three people do not know what to hear suddenly The face turned his head in horror to their middle list - Their middles remain expressionless.

At this point, the game officially began. The bases of the two sides began to send small soldiers to the three roads. The nursery rhymes carefully removed the q-second two-stage injury skills of the other side, while using their own q skills to fill the soldiers. When the two sides reached the third level, they suddenly remembered Not long ago, the fear of being dominated by the single-attacked by the tat team, the virginity began to subconsciously return to the pressure line and retraced at the same time. As a result, he just returned to his own field of vision and saw the figure of Jianyang from the eyelids. Subsequent flashes over...

The nursery rhyme has the feeling of the rest of his life.

"Go to the opposite side!" nursery rhyme reminds the old cat. The old cat responded, and after hearing the report of the nursery rhyme, Lu Sicheng also had an action on the way down -

Originally, Jinxes was better than the mouse in the early stage, so Lu Sicheng naturally pressed the butterfly about ten patches. At this time, he first went to the third level. All the three skills were opened in the first stage. He clicked the floor and signaled. The sentence "Chubby goes forward to take two steps to eat his two skills", and wait for the chubby to go up and sell half of the blood, Lu Sicheng let him go to his side, if not, the enemy wants to chase after victory -

At this moment, Xiaopang turned back to a weak (* summoner skills, attack and speed halved), Lu Sicheng jumped out of the grass, a set of skills to play a few common attacks, hand speed is very fast and let the butterfly The blood volume bottoms out!

When the butterfly saw it, he wanted to go back. Lu Sicheng did not give him this opportunity. He took advantage of Jinx's hand to take advantage of the last bloodstain of the butterfly and stabilized the first blood of 400 rewards. In the bag - d!

The system prompts to sound, and the teammates cheered in the microphone -

Lu Sicheng did not speak, which was just the beginning for him.

The opposite assistant Wang Wang saw his own ad dead, Lu Sicheng's blood state is OK, a little judgment will not hesitate to go back, Lu Sicheng's e-skill cooling time turned better, turned and threw in front of his feet Three □ □, and at this time the chubby hammer stone skills also turned better, turned back to a counter-hook to drag the pharaoh to his side, the old king walked awkwardly, stepping on Lu Sicheng thrown □ □ One of them, causing 15 seconds of dizziness -

15 seconds, enough Lu Sicheng to face him a face of madness a will be a hard-earning auxiliary harvest in the early stage!
Double kill!

At the scene where the players could not hear, all the audiences were boiling, and everyone applauded for the perfect cooperation between Xiaopeng and Lu Sicheng! After five minutes of opening, the road has already produced a human head. Lu Sicheng's two heads were fat in the hand, and they happily removed the wave of soldiers under the eyelids and returned to the equipment directly.

Two heads, plus one blood reward, is a bounty of seven hundred pieces, which means that when he returns to the line, he will lead a small piece of equipment on the opposite side of the ad, in the early period of the mouse is so suppressed, the next day Absolutely miserable!

At this moment, when the road opened, the pressure of the nursery rhyme felt on his shoulders was a lot less, but the opposite flower did not know why it was anxious - probably after Lu Sicheng got off the road for a minute. Jianyang also ran a wave of gank in the middle of the road. The nursery rhyme ran to his own defensive tower and used q skills to pump his face. At this time, her w selection skill cooling also turned better, called the old k, so in the small flower Under the eyes of Jianyang, a leopard female scorpion jumped out of the grass. At the same time, the nursery rhyme cut the yellow card, stabilized and stabilized Jianyang, draws cards, hits the face, attacks, ignites, and sets a skill to play. The blood volume immediately bottomed out, and when I wanted to withdraw, I was too late, and the nursery rhyme steadily accepted the third person in the team!

Playing wild gank is not being rumored. At this time, a large wave of small soldiers entered their own defensive tower and was quickly attacked by the defensive tower. The florets that just managed to escape the returning time could not eat the experience and could not afford the money. In addition, the nursery rhymes got the killing of the head, and the two people had barely flattened the florets and even dominated the line balance and tilted to the nursery rhyme!

Next, although the old cat's Rambo was arrested twice by Jianyang because there was no displacement, the middle and lower roads of zgdx have become a difficult problem to solve. Lu Sicheng, who holds two human heads in hand, did not give it at all. Any chance for the butterfly to breathe, from the beginning to the end, the butterfly will be completely killed under the tower -

Lu Sicheng is so fierce, the butterfly is not a fool, naturally it will be called Jianyang to come, but no matter how many times Jianyang came, I found zgdx playing wild old k!

This old k is like living in the middle and lower roads, and the two advantages are the same, although the ck team has exhausted all its efforts to counterattack, pulling until the two levels to the sixth level, there is no new head.

At this point, the head of the field is 3 to 2, and zgdx leads by about a thousand dollars.

In the case of a small gap between the heads, this economic difference is basically derived from the gap between the middle and lower roads!

In the case that the nursery rhyme took the lead to the sixth level, there was a big move. The ck side was also a mess. The little flower tried hard to signal "she went to six and you asked for more happiness." The words just fell, the butterfly didn't even have time to go. In response, I saw a yellow transmission circle on the ground a few steps behind me. He immediately wanted to retreat. However, at this time, the nursery rhyme had already appeared behind him with the displacement of the card!

The landing hand speed is extremely fast, and the red card is given to the butterfly and the old king to slow down. The chubby screams the hook, triggers the second section of the hook, and puts on the face near the butterfly, and opens the general butterfly and the old king in the jail of the hammer stone. —The blood volume of the two people seems to be slamming down like a gate. If you want to run, you will be delayed by the chubby e skill and the backhand, and for a while, the zgdx ad and the middle order are like Rushing like a tiger -

Nursery rhymes: “Give a personal head, give a personal head, I will work hard to fly down. You dare not give me a personal head. I will never come back in this life!”

Lu Sicheng: “... give it to you, what to do, beware of pulling on your pants.”

Nursery rhymes: “...you can’t forget this!”

Lu Sicheng: “How to forget?”

Nursery rhymes: “At least don’t remind me!”

Lu Sicheng: “...”

... The final ending is that Tong Yu and Lu Sicheng took a person’s head, continued to snowballs and generally pushed off the opposite tower, and Jianyang jumped off the dragon pit and reassured the first element of the fire dragon.

At this time, Jianyang took the good luck with the order to receive the Pioneer of the Boss Canyon.

Old cat: “You are the best in the middle and the bottom. Are you forgetting that this game has a place called the road? I am lucky enough to take a canyon pioneer buff, so that I can’t let Laozi play?! Old k? Usually, I am entangled with me, and I will release me when I play the game. Is it human, dog, thing!”

Nursery rhymes: “The next wave is flying.”

Lu Sicheng: “The old k also went and pushed the tower on the opposite side.”

In this way, in the complaints of the old cat, four minutes later, on the ck team’s road, a wave of zgdx in the upper three people reported the group, and the ck team immediately responded, the small flowers handed over the transfer skills to fly , Jianyang also arrived in time -

However, because the time they chose, the time they chose was a fragile period in which Lair had just recovered from the transformation. Therefore, even if they were against the defensive tower, they still could not have played this group battle. The nursery rhymes gave the three heads separately. The old cat who can't take care of himself is still busy. He has been busy for ten minutes without the old man who has entered the account. He turned back to the line to eat small soldiers to make up the development...

The game was carried out for twenty minutes. Under the influence of the middle and lower two roads, the ck team that had already had a small advantage on the road gradually lost its advantage.

The game went to twenty-five minutes, vying for the third element dragon in the race, the ck team ad in the early stage of development was not able to make room for force. Basically entered the battlefield, it was a series of skills by nursery rhymes and chubby. The face was directly dropped, and the absence of an ad was a broken leg. The ck team, which was not well developed at other locations, quickly lost this important team battle.

The game went on for twenty-eight minutes and zgdx pushed the high and low.

At this time, the economic gap between the two sides has reached 15,000, and the ratio of head to head is 13 to 5.

The ck team knows that even if it is desperately dragged, it can't be dragged to the later stage, and it is directly ordered to surrender.

At this time, the nursery rhymes, they are preparing to open the big dragon, playing and suddenly found the picture moving opposite the crystal blew, she first squatted and then smiled and narrowed her eyes, took off the headset from the position to stand up, she heard the following Cheers, someone is calling -

“nice! Carrier team upup!”

“Miss Mai Ling, my sister, ah, ah, ah, ah!”

The auditorium couldn't see who was who, and the nursery rhymes could only smile and smile gracefully in the direction of calling her name below, then turned and rushed into the toilet.

“...Mom kills me.”

It's hard to relax, squatting in the toilet, the nursery rhyme found that the impulse of the surging suddenly disappeared... The nursery rhyme had to squint on the toilet and brush the mobile phone, brush and look at the post-week comments from all over the world.

Nursery rhymes: "..."

The nursery voice silently closed the phone and stood up from the toilet to lift the pants.

Washing his hands and pushing the door out, he went back to the lounge and saw Lu Sicheng, who was already sick in the corner waiting for the corpse, and the madman who was on the court.

At this time, Xiaopeng saw the virginity walk in and smiled and said: "Is it finished?"

The nursery rhyme is serious: "Constipation."

Xiaopang: "Some people say that China Telecom has two mad dogs that can't pull."

Nursery rhymes: "...is not very good? E-sports is the movement of young people, passion. Passion is very important."

Lu Sicheng turned over and coughed twice. The nursery rhyme walked up to him and opened his clothes on his face. Then he reached out and touched his forehead. The man opened the dark brown eyes impatiently. When she looked at him without fear: "Captain, you have a fever."

Lu Sicheng: "Oh."

At this time, the rest time is coming to an end. Xiaorui is like driving a chicken to catch them up to catch up with the game.

At the beginning of the second game, Lu Sicheng was obviously inferior to the first one. The butterfly was pressed a bit fiercely in the early stage, and it was dragged to the middle of the game. It was also a battle for Xiaolong!

This time, the old k stood up, a disciplinary robber to send the opposite side to the collective ascend to heaven, grab the dragon by the way, because the nursery rhyme took Leflan first chained the butterfly set a second to disrupt the lineup, the team won the hope of winning In the group battle, the disadvantages of the early team were compensated by this wave of team battles!

The zgdx team seized the opportunity to roll the snowballs in a hurry, and the situation suddenly reversed, and they didn't give the ck team a chance to turn over the squad.

Forty-two minutes, once again in the highland team battle, zgdx won, and the wave ended the game!

Zgdx won the first battle!

Looking at the opposite crystal was exploded, the nursery rhyme took off the headphones, the background bgm at the end of the game, the cheering voice of the audience, the nursery rhyme stood up, and turned back to the blue wall with the word “win” behind him. Hey.

Won?

After three seconds, the nursery rhyme smashed the pot in the heart.

Ah, ah, ah, ah, ah, ah, ah, ah, ah, ah, ah, ah, ah, ah, ah, ah, ah!

Children are big!

Handsome boy!

Child carry!

The face of the nursery rhyme is full of expressions, and she can't wait to twist the song on the spot. At this time, she saw that the old k stood up and went to the ck team to think of it and had a handshake. The winning team players took the initiative to walk to the loser's team seat. Then shake hands with them one by one.

The nursery rhymes are behind the old k. The first time they shake hands with people, there is still a little nervousness. The ck team members are ugly but also very polite. They are even lucky when they are shaking hands with the nursery rhymes: “Miss sister is very Strong, look forward to the next match.”

This time, the nursery rhyme's face was finally unable to hold a smile and could not hold the smile.

However, this smile lasted for about three seconds.

Because after good luck came to Jianyang, the nursery rhyme hesitated and generously reached out. After two years, he once again held the hand in front of him. The latter's palm was slightly sweaty. After holding both hands, look at it. The child clasped her wrist.

The nursery rhymes looked up and smiled slyly, silently trying to pump their hands out -

However, her struggles make the other person hold tighter.

All the players shook hands for up to three seconds. By the time the nursery rhymes and Jianyang were dragged ten times longer, the smile on the nursery rhyme was a little uncomfortable. She felt that some of the audience below began to curiously look here...

"You are getting stronger." Jian Yang lowered his eyes and said lightly.

"Yeah, so I will often come over and shake hands with you in the future, and I will hold you back to retirement." Tong Yu no expression, "Now let the old lady drop."

Jian Yang: "..."

As soon as the nursery rhyme fell, his head was gently photographed from behind: "No rude."

At the same time as the man's hoarse voice sounded, the tall figure was squeezed up without a trace. Jianyang paused and reluctantly let go of the nursery rhyme. Lu Sicheng immediately grasped his hand and shook it.

Then there is the small flower in the middle, the ad butterfly and the auxiliary pharaoh -

Before the following people reacted, Lu Sicheng did not know when to join the virginity until the handshake was completed.

The group returned to the front of the stage and thanked the audience. The tall figure was always in front of her.
