

Chapter 4:

The second day is the League of Legends 2016 Spring Final. The nursery rhymes got up early, and after two bottles of empty mineral water bottles, they were particularly resentful of what the * had stolen her water yesterday - she was so high! That person is the fire of the Sun Wukong crystal or what! Why are you not looking for a job when your vision is so good? !

After brushing his teeth, wash his face, grab the phone and see the team manager's WeChat, saying that they are ready to start the race to the venue, ask the nursery rhyme to go with the team's car or go to themselves...

The nursery rhyme looked at herself in the glasses, and the hair was messy and pale with her own dark circles. This ghost looks scared that the future teammates made it difficult for them to play the game. So they smiled and returned to the manager. Not too far, just two steps will come, I will go by myself, and then the nursery rhyme will not dare to continue to be lazy, jump into the bathroom to take a shower and wash his hair...

An hour later, the nursery rhymes came to the stadium in front of the spring finals and joined the queue of long queues.

In front of her are the boys of the age of twenty, the dress of ordinary college students; in front of these two college students is a group of girls, who carry bags in their hands, with hundreds of folded aids in their bags. The hand is blue and white, and because the team logo of the ck team is red and black, the nursery rhyme guesses that this is probably a fan of her future family, and several of the girls still hold the cartoons of Lu Sicheng and Ming Shen. The image of the luminous hand, the aid card, at this moment they are excited to discuss the upcoming game, the moment -

"Is the women watching the game or the Ouba concert?" The college student in front of the nursery rhymes whispered to his friend, "I really bothered these female powders, and copied the Korean star." Bringing the e-sports circle, I don't know if there are any 30 levels in the game and I will run to see the game. Those players will be able to scream for a long time...

"Yeah, yeah, I watched the live broadcast at that time, and there was something 'Don't kill him'. I rely on it, and mine me

“It was a man’s game. I don’t know what the women are doing. It is estimated that the heroes can’t recognize it. The gold segment is also a big hand in their view. I watched the game and a woman asked me behind me. What is it alone, I almost fainted!”

The man said and said, as if he suddenly felt a dimly looking back, the result was a pair of sloppy eyes. He stunned and fixed his eyes and found himself standing behind him. Is also a sister -

Short hair, wearing a cap, crotch t-shirt flip-flops, this will be looking at the aliens and looking at the aliens.

The two of them were embarrassed.

“It’s all fans. Isn’t there anyone who is more noble than watching a game?” The nursery rhyme cleared his voice and raised his hands to clarify. “First, I know that you are in the middle, that is the way to the middle.”

Boy a: “...”

Boy b: “Oh, we don’t really say that all the girls are like this, just say a few individual ones... Hey, which district are you?”

Nursery rhymes: “The national service is in the area of Ionia.”

Boy b: “Electric one! I am electric five... national service or something, you still play hanbok?”

Nursery rhymes: “Yes.”

Because the national service has reached the top.

First, oh.

The boy’s eyeball turned around in the eyelid: “What position does Hanbok?”

Tong Tong smiled and said: “The king, just recently.”

Then she saw the two boys in front of me blindly, they were silent, then exchanged a look, and finally laughed at the same time, while the scorn in the eyes of boys became more obvious... Then they did not Then talk to the nursery rhymes, but choose to turn around and use the voice that the nursery rhyme can hear to “whisper” -

“Ha ha ha ha ha she said she is the king of hanbok!”

“The old man who can’t get the word can’t get it. It’s estimated that the game client didn’t download it. It’s also hanbok the king. It’s open, and it’s not a concept before the hanbok king.”

“Oh, I am taking these young ladies.”

The nursery rhyme touched her face and wondered if she didn't have a face that was “I am a master”? How can you be questioned by others?

Fortunately, at this time the team has begun to move forward, the audience began to enter, so the nursery rhymes can finally continue to endure the two little brothers in front of her questioning her, entered the venue and went to the direction of her ticket go with—

Because it was a ticket issued by the team, she got an infield ticket that was very close to the game table. When she got to the place, she found that the group of girls who had the helper and the light card were sitting in a place not far away from her. ... When she sat in, one of them was looking at the bag and looked ready to send the hand. The girl smiled at her when she passed the nursery rhyme. He whispered: “Thank you for speaking for us.”

Hey, did they hear it?

“No,” said the nursery rhyme. “I'm just listening to what this is a man's game. I'm not happy. The third leg that can be used is the keyboard or the mouse... and you're ready to do this. If you look at the game with more things, how can you know that the big masters who are picking and picking up are more than happy? Even if the players know it, they should be very happy.”

“Well, hope.” The sister rolled up her hair and smiled helplessly. “I posted a post to see someone saying that God is going to retire. I am chasing him to watch the game in the north and the north. I am also dissatisfied with the 30th grade. Paragraph, maybe today is the last one, and when the gods retired, I will retreat.”

“I am going to send a support hand.” The sister said, pulling out a bag from the bag to the nursery rhymes. “Sit in this half of the area, are you also China Telecom's powder? Give it to you.”

“Oh,” the nursery rhyme looked at the well-made hand in his hand. “How much?”

Said to go to the wallet.

Who knows the words in front of the girls, then laughed and laughed, one of them turned and grabbed the handle to the nursery rhythm of the girl and said: "These are all sent to the fans, how can you ask for money! After a while, cheering loudly Just fine!"

The nursery rhyme suddenly felt that he was very special, and put his wallet back in a sly look. When he turned around, he found that the girl had turned and ran to the back to send the support hand and other small teams around the team -

The long hair, slender back looks like a heavy bag with a step and a step up. The nursery rhyme looks at the idiot. She is full of thoughts: these girls are so cute! It's so happy to be able to play professionally by these girls! The brains of those rough men who dislike them are in the middle of what happened!

It was not until half an hour later that the finalists of the two teams entered the game, and the attention of the nursery rhymes returned to the theme.

I saw that the lights on the scene were dark, so the light was gathered on the stage in the center of the stadium. At first, the host summarized the results of the two teams this season, and then the players of the two teams were in his summary. The sound came in from both sides of the stage - the middle of the stage was the trophy of the spring finals, and the ten players of the ck team and the zgdx team stood in front of the trophy, then screamed with the fans under the stage, waving their hands...

The atmosphere at the scene was immediately warm!

"Ah, ah, ah, honest brother!"

"Cheng Ge married me!"

"Ming God will win another championship!"

"Yangshen is invincible! I am a fish in the wild area!"

The fans sitting next to the nursery rhymes are desperately screaming and screaming the names of their favorite players, both men and women, everyone is excited to jump up and down, and they are red and thick.

The nursery rhyme narrowed her eyes. She first saw Jianyang standing a little farther away. She scalded her hair, grew taller and thinner. The red and black uniforms of the ck team are very suitable for him. It looks pretty handsome. There is a child who doesn't know where to take the confidence, and laughs that it is a sunny...

Tong Tong felt that she was hurt by the “glorious eyes”, so she turned to look at her future teammates -

The single-player cat, red-haired, young, laughs like a silly scorpion, and kisses the fans under the stage;

Playing wild players, old k, not old, tall, white, medium-sized, looks very good like a girl, young and looks at the most high school, this time he is excited and the people around him speak;

Talking to the old k is zgdx, the current single player, and the oldest member of the zgdx team. At this moment, he is slightly frowning and looks absent-minded;

Next to Ming Shen is the adc player Lu Sicheng, chessman, zgdx team captain, people who need to marry many people in the mouth and need to marry many people, “Cheng Ge”, when the light hit him, he is posing with a faceless dead man Face - the most arrogant is that even the scene is still dumped - even fans sitting in the half of the ck team are roaring his name.

Next to Cheng Ge is his family assistant, chubby, a fat man who looks at an optimistic face. Xiaopeng once said in an interview that sometimes when he plays the game, he is a single-talker, so much so that he Sometimes he doesn't know if Cheng Ge has blocked his voice...

The music on the scene became very exciting. When the nursery rhymes were a little excited, the players standing next to the trophy turned and walked to the ten computers behind the stage.

The background board behind the computer lights up.

On the left is the sign of the red and black “ck” team, so the audience on the left side began to cripple, scream and cheer.

On the right is the blue and white “zgdx” team logo. When the operator logo lights up, I feel a little happy no matter how many times I look at it... but this does not prevent the people around the nursery rhyme from picking up, as if to the left.

The game seems to start roaring, shouting -

After the players were seated in the computer, after the audience, the two live commentaries of the day began to talk about each other. At this time, the players did not bring the soundproof headphones, but it seemed that they were more relaxed than before. Start drinking water and talking...

At this moment, the guide shot the camera to the auditorium, so on the large screen that was about to play the game live in the center of the venue, first of all, the audience in the back row looked like monkeys, and then the camera slowly moved forward -

During the two commentary chats, the camera illuminated the vicinity of the nursery rhymes. Some of the girls saw their faces appear on the big screen, and they shyly covered their faces with the aids in their hands.

The camera turned to a couple, and after the two men stunned, they remembered that the audience of the e-sports professional league had always had the inexplicable custom of “the couple who must be kissed”, so the girl smiled and pulled the boyfriend to a enthusiasm. Kiss, the scene cheers and applauds, and the commentary follows up -

The last shot actually took the nursery rhyme.

Looking at his big face appeared on the screen, the heart of the nursery rhyme was first “slotted”, and then the first reaction was: Fortunately, I washed my head before going out this morning.

Then, on the premise that all the girls had their faces, the nursery rhymes did not lick their faces, but instead raised a big smile and waved their hands in the direction of the guide. So her silly face with a big smile on her head occupied the big screen for about fifteen seconds.

The commentary is also followed by ridicule:

Another commentary nodded and wanted to answer. Suddenly, at this time, he suddenly paused, and then this:

On the spot, I was silent for three seconds, then I laughed collectively.

Fans of the ck team stood up and watched what happened. The nursery rhymes heard a female fan boasting that “the gods splashed the water and sprouted.” She rolled her eyes and looked at her boyfriend. I saw the latter. Just lowering his head, rubbing it on the computer desk with a paper towel...

There was also a commotion in the ck team, and they blew in the sounds that only the stage could hear.

“I fuck, Yang God, are you seeing ghosts? The coffee is on the screen of Laozi.”

The ck team's order was so good that it looked like a mistake - just now he clearly saw that Jane had a good cup of coffee, during which he accidentally turned to look at the big screen behind him, and then the coffee in the mouth flew out.

"My mother is really a ghost." Jane sullenly sullenly, throwing the paper towel in his hand into the waste tray that the staff handed over. "Isn't foreign school started? How did she run Shanghai?"

"Who?"

"My ancestors."
