

Chapter 45:

“I am not... I don't... He can't - ah ah ah ah ah ah ah!”

Nursery rhymes “啪啪” patted the table, “Call the question mark off the live broadcast! What can I have with Lu Sicheng? Right, that id is called ‘Lu Sicheng’s little wife-in-law’, I promise that he is still your little Xianggong, I didn’t tarnish him, but he is pure and not pure, I don’t know if there is a kind of yourself asking me anyway, I am not tarnished. He... How is it tarnished? My legs are still not long, how can he overpower the bow?... Riding up? I will give you a ton of decontamination powder, soak it for 10,000 years and talk about it!”

The nursery rhyme directly discussed with the barrage the possibility of switching to her overlord’s hard bow.

Next to Lu Sicheng listened for a while, said “I opened the live broadcast”, open the live broadcast software.

Then the number of children in the nursery rhymes lived at half the speed of the naked eye. She gave a sigh of relief and kicked Lu Sicheng under the table... The man with one hand held his chin and turned his head lazily. I glanced at her, then turned to look at her own screen, watching the question mark on the full screen and the tears of the wife’s tears, the man paused and said -

“I caught a cold yesterday. During her physical period, she didn’t participate in the event after she finished the game. During the period, she was going to die in bed. I can’t leave it. I can’t die. I didn’t have a single ticket. I played the game on Sunday. Lu Yue didn’t have her. use.”

Lu Yue: “Hey?”

Lu Sicheng: “I said she was shaking in my bed?”

Then.

The world is quiet.

Lu Sicheng glanced at it: “This id is a small scorpion man, your friend?”

The nursery rhyme looked at the room management of his live room: “How do you know?”

Lu Sicheng: “The whole world doesn’t tell you that I don’t like humans? The lines are too familiar.”

Nursery rhymes: “...”

Lu Sicheng: “Dwarf, you are less rumored. In the future, I really can’t find a wife. Who is responsible?”

In the crazy screen of the barrage, “I am responsible”, “Jump up and raise my hand and ask for responsibility”, “I, I, I, I, I, I, I, I, I”, the new game of the nursery rhyme opened, and the equipment was opened. The panel bought the initial salary and blood bottle, and she did not squint: “Don’t make a noise.”
A look of a qualified Internet addiction girl.

On the base of the ck base, Jane sat on the chair with his knees, holding the mouse but not playing the game, but his head was placed on his lap, and he was casually confused in the face—from his computer, the female voice was spoken. The voice, from time to time, saying something like “Overlord * the bow”, he listened for a while, it seems a little annoyed, frowning the “x” in the upper right corner of the page, the live room is turned off.

The base was quiet.

Good luck came to him and glanced at the old man with his hand: “What happened to this guy?”

Lao Wang: “Look at the ex-girlfriend live broadcast.”

Good luck: “Hey!”

Old Wang Hao shook his head: “The team is indulging in the opponents. The team can’t extricate themselves. So I like to break up. I don’t understand. Now people go to the carrier team. It is not a sheep next to Lu Sicheng. Into the tiger’s mouth, if I am a woman, I also like Lu Sicheng!”

The butterfly turned his head and swept his eyes to help: “If you are a woman, who do you like?”

Pharaoh: “You? I will dislike you.”

The butterfly sneered.

Good luck comes: “There are two people who are not in the road, playing the wild and indulging in the team, the team’s pills.”

Lao Wang: “You can’t say that. The last time you played the business team was violent. It wasn’t the pot of Yangshen. He played well that day. At least I think it’s going to play with the carrier team.”

A few people talked about it, Jane turned off the computer and stood up, threw the next sentence “going out to smoke”, turned and walked out of the base, leaving a base teammate silent, and the back face.

They didn't know that after Jane went out, it wasn't really just to smoke outside. On the contrary, he went out of the yard and irritatedly stuffed a whole box of freshly opened cigarettes into the trash can, jumped into the taxi, and went straight to The China Telecom team base went.

Only when he arrived at the place, he did not dare to knock on the door directly, and smashed it in the nearby bar for a while until the sun fell and the night fell. He then got up from the bar and walked to the nearby neighborhood. He was stopped by the security guard at the door and said that he was looking for someone.

The security guard saw that he was not too young and looked like a young man. He was afraid that he would come to him. He asked him who he was looking for and asked him to call the person. Jianyang touched his pocket and wanted to take out his mobile phone and suddenly remembered that he was blacked out. fact. I laughed and said that I didn't bring it. Finally, I used the phone of the security guard to make a phone call. The phone rang twice and was picked up. The opposite voice sounded familiar to him.

"Hey, hello, which one?"

For a polite and unfamiliar inquiry about a strange number, the tone is gentle.

Jianyang grabbed the phone and silenced it. He even "fed" two voices on the opposite side. He muttered "Weird and didn't talk." At this time, a cold male voice came from her not far. "If you don't talk, you will hang your line and enter the tower."

No, the nursery screams.

Jianyang smiled and said: "Hey, it is me, I am at the door of your base, can you come out?"

The phone was silent all the time. For a long time, the nursery rhymes changed the tone: "You drink? Where are you? My base door?"

"Well," Jian Yang muttered like a puppy's nasal voice. "The security guard won't let me in. I am at the door of the yard."

After a while, when Jane almost thought that he would be rejected, he heard the voice on the phone and muttered, "What is wrong with the people now?", probably stood up because I heard the sound of the chair moving, after a while she called in one direction: “Lu Yue, come over and help me finish this, I suddenly have something to go out.”

The eyes of Jianyang are bright and the heart beats faster. He hung up the phone, returned the phone to the security guard and said “thank you”, and then stuffed twenty dollars for the call. The security guard looked very happy too: “Is the girlfriend coming out to pick you up? Then you go in, the sky is dark, don’t let her go.”

Jane Road passed thanks to the base.

At this time, China Telecom base.

“Who is drinking and running our base?” Lu Sicheng asked.

Nursery rhymes on the jacket: “Jian Yang.”

At this time, the nursery rhyme off the live broadcast, Lu Sicheng is still open, a bunch of “66666666” on the screen, “I said how the Yangshen suddenly shut off the live broadcast”

“Cheng Ge I guess it is your bed shivering, your pot” ——

After that, “Little Scorpion Mao” withdrew from the live room.

Lu Sicheng glanced at the barrage, let him go out to listen to the gossip, let him go out to do the destruction, the most detrimental is to suggest that Lu Sicheng wait for a while and wait for them to talk about the excuses to buy cigarettes suddenly forcibly disturbed, It is best to say that I did not bring money to find a nursery rhyme, let her do something else, calm down, and be moved by the ck team.

Lu Yue: “...” Otherwise, after the ck team played wild and the carrier team in the game, it would be a shame to show you a wave of Nakano in the game. Hey, this barrage is very savvy.”

Lu Sicheng: “Shut up.”

At this time, the base porch came to the door to open and close the sound, Lu Sicheng looked up and looked back, then regained his gaze, his face was calm as if nothing had happened, and nothing happened with him.

Here, the nursery rhymes walked out of the base. After passing through the next team, they found a front row of gossip people on the railings of the next-door team. Today, Yang wears a black slim dress with a long hair fluttering, and the lower body looks perfectly into the night, just like Only one head hangs on the railing, and the nursery rhyme almost scared to sit on the ground -

Nursery rhymes: “My day! Why are you!”

Today Yang Xiaoxiao laughs: “I will remind you to remind you that if you say good, you don’t want to go back to the grass, and never fall in love with e-sports players.”

Nursery rhymes: “...you still said that you can reconcile with Ai Jia, how many tons have you eaten now?”

Jin Yang: “...”

Nursery rhyme: “I know what I am doing, oh, it’s not good, I have no idea about him, and what is good! He is drunk and ran, I have to get him back... otherwise the ck team will fight wild On the way to the China Telecom team base, how much does it mean to go out?”

The nursery rhyme fell, and this Yang showed a satisfactory expression. The irregularity on her face converges slightly. She paused: “Would you like me to accompany you?”

Nursery rhymes: “...Do you think that if you fight, how many people can win?”

Jin Yang: “If you want to fight, I will advise you to bring the law. The little brother is so handsome that I can’t keep my legs together.”

The nursery rhyme stepped forward and patted the head hanging on the railing: “Roll.”

Today, “Yeah” retreated. At this time, the nursery rhymes heard that someone called “谣谣”. She paused and turned her head and looked at it. She found the ck team in the summer team uniform and wore a casual dress. The man in the coat was standing under the street light. She hesitated and turned her head. She found that the person who had just hung on the railing and asked if she would accompany him had disappeared.

The phone in my pocket shook.

The author has something to say: a little while! Look at it first! It’s hard to get up in winter, ah ah ah
