

Chapter 48:

Nursery rhymes: "..."

Superiority...

Have it?

The girl holding the phone raised her head and looked at the ceiling silently for a while. It came to the conclusion that this was a friend's embarrassment. She sent a few white eyes and white eyes to her. The nursery rhyme put down her mobile phone and continued to watch the good king in the ipad. The team's screen in the lspl spring finals this year, from time to time to press the pause, and some notes on the opponent's small habits -

Not only is the habit and behavior of the single player on the opposite side recorded, she also records the gank route across the field... Generally speaking, the situation on the three lines is variable, but the wild resources in the wild area are fixed, so each A wilderness will have its own set of habits in the wild, and grasping their habits will help to prevent being caught and prevent the invasion of resources in the wild area.

For example, the king team's playing wild, may not be aware of himself, after brushing the first group of wild monsters, he usually has a great chance to appear in the middle of the road to catch a wave, grab the catch, and catch the harassment The middle of the single and then return -

This is the personal habit of the players.

The nursery rhyme bites the tip of the tongue, recording the other's brushing wild line on the small book, brushing the home field before the third level, upgrading the river crab by the fourth level, and then invading the stone people in the enemy field... Think about it and write " (There should be a rumor here)", throw the pen and continue to watch the game screen...

At this time her mobile phone screen lit up again -

... before the hypocrisy, then this is the truth now.

The time for the girl's private room with girlfriends is over.

The nursery rhyme threw away the mobile phone and seriously watched the game he was watching. He yawned and closed the ipad, climbed into the bed and reviewed the new contents of the notebook in the bed with the bedside lamp. Then this Just close the notebook and turn off the lights to sleep.

- When I closed my eyes, the nursery rhymes originally wanted to go through the personal habits of the team in the mind of the team and their wilderness routes. However, I thought about it and accidentally had this sun. “You really think Lu Sicheng is doing this. For the sake of team performance, the sound is in the magic sound.

Nursery rhymes: “...”

A man has tried to prevent her from working with another man to find an excuse to destroy it?

..... I don't want to be jealous, it's fake.

In fact, for a second, she had already completed her confession and proposed marriage in Lusicheng's mind. Steps were about to step into the sacred hall. I imagined her dad handing her hand to the man's long, beautiful and white gloved hands— - She is dressed in a pure white wedding dress.

He is dressed in a black dress.

The auditorium bell rings, friends and family bless...

Nursery rhymes: “.....”

Hey.

The girl picked up the quilt and covered her face -

Or how do you say that girls are always poems? Be obscenity and not break the law (white eyes).

On Saturday, I took the time and played the training match with the team next door. Although I won but won't be as easy as the first time, it seems that I have to develop the “Wild-assisted double-play” technology to the extreme. I have to play at least the pre-stage nursery rhymes. I have seen four or five times of auxiliary assistance passing by the middle road.

A group of dishes is progressing faster than the team.

This makes the nursery rhyme have to take care of any of the remaining 11 teams in lpl. The ghost knows what has changed in the short-term transfer period and what other teams have changed after the state adjustment.

On Sunday afternoon, it was the regular season with the King team. The nursery rhymes climbed up early in the morning and grabbed her notebook to look at the living room. It recorded the habits of all the king team players. Ming Shen took a breakfast and took a look from behind her. Then raise your eyebrows: “Do you make your own notes?”

“Yes,” the nursery rhyme didn’t lift his head. “Know yourself and know each other.

“Yes, this is very hardworking.” Ming Shen patted her head with appreciation. “The original thing should be done by data analysts and coaches, but because it is the beginning of the regular season and the other is a newly promoted horse, Xiaorui let us Don’t be busy...”

“You can’t look down on people because they are newly promoted.”

“Well,” Mingshen smiled. “It’s not a matter of looking down. It’s because there is a stronger team that needs to face it. A group of dishes that have been reborn is much better than the analysis.”

The nursery rhymes heard a little backwards to see the gods, but they saw something like dark circles under their eyes. At this time, the breakfast content in his hand also included a cup of black coffee... probably last night. After the training game, the players went to sleep early because of the game today, and Ming Shen sorted out the training materials and data to get it late.

Between the two conversations, Lu Sicheng and Lu Yue stepped down and down the stairs. Lu Yue sniffed his nose and came to the Ming God to directly take his coffee and drink it. In the complaint of Ming Shen’s “Drinking yourself to get it” Lu Sicheng took away the little book of the nursery rhyme from behind -

Nursery rhymes: “Hey!”

Lu Sicheng: “If you take the lead in grabbing the third level, the probability that adc will force a wave of pressure is 8537%.” Hey, where does this decimal point come from?”

“Why do you just take someone’s book, what if the girl’s diary is done?!” The nursery rhyme stood on the sofa and grabbed the notebook. “The decimal point is of course counted in dozens of games!”

“You have seen dozens of lspl games.” Lu Sicheng repeated it. Tong Tong raised his squat: “Yes!”

Lu Sicheng was silent and asked: “... Are you busy?”

Nursery rhymes: “How do you so expand, beware of rolling over today!”

Lu Sicheng “oh” sounded, his ears said, “Why do you want to do so loudly?” Go away and go to the kitchen to get some food... Looking back at the barefoot standing on the sofa, he still stares at himself, he is again Wrap it back, and look at the person standing on the couch who can look at yourself: “Is the stomach hurting?”

“Ah? What?” The nursery rhyme held the book and did not respond.

“Don’t go to the toilet when you are in the game.” Lu Sicheng put the hot milk in her hand into her hand. “Drink, then come down from the sofa, what do you stand so high?”

After turning around, I left my own peripheral package.

The nursery rhymes stood on the sofa with a cup of milk and fixed for a while, then sat down “squatting”, sitting cross-legged on the sofa, drinking milk, and putting down the cup and running to Lu Sicheng: “Which people will have physical pain for four or five God, then you still have to live.”

“Oh.” Lu Sicheng did not return, “wearing shoes, the ground is cool.”

The nursery rhyme looked down at her bare feet and looked back at the home shoes that she had forgotten by the sofa. She jumped into the chair in front of her seat and pulled the mouse and keyboard down. , put it in the peripheral bag that is placed against the chair -

When Ming Shen Duan’s breakfast was given to Lu Yue, she kicked her shoes all the way.

On the back of the nursery rhyme, wearing the shoes to the porch, and heading out to look at the big cart that pulled them to the competition venue, has been waiting outside the door. This time, the mood of the nursery rhymes is a little calmer than the first opening game. She bowed off her home shoes and put on her flip-flops, then ran across the road.

In the bus, I randomly chose a position to sit down. After a while, other teammates also continued to get on the bus. Lu Sicheng came up last time. After the nursery rhyme, he paused and then leaned back slightly: “Dwarf.”

“Well?” The nursery rhyme who is playing the phone does not lift.

“You look at the girl’s diary.”

“...” Nursery Rhymes looked up in horror. “Why are you looking at my diary?”

“...king data analysis.” Lu Sicheng looks a bit speechless.
“Oh, oh oh.” Nursery rhymes took their small books out of their pockets and handed them over to Lu Sicheng. “Isn’t that because you are not a strong team, you don’t have to look specifically?”

“Do it all well, see what else.”

Lu Sicheng took the pink little book and shook it in the hands of the nursery rhyme, then went to the last row and carefully read it... The nursery rhyme stared at the man on the back of the chair for a while until he turned over. On the first page, I didn’t raise my head and said, “Take me back and look at it and roll off the car.” The head on the backrest disappeared behind the seat back.

The bus is about 10 am when it leaves the base.

The whole car is still in a state of drowsiness...

The old cat covered his face with his clothes and slumbered.

The chubby head was still half-awake and half-awake. The virgins shrank in the chair and chatted with others on the WeChat, while the old k sat next to the old cat to play mobile games.

Halfway through the row, Lu Sicheng called the next row, so the people who watched the nursery rhymes made a small book from one to two. Lu Sicheng whispered and the old k discussed the sound coming from the last row, which also contained a few sounds. Low cough, the nursery rhymes originally had their ears up and wanted to hear what they were saying...

When I heard it, I was disturbed by the atmosphere in the car. Then I fell asleep with my phone.

The old k read the words on the book: “After brushing the first group of monsters, there is a great chance that they will appear in the middle of the road to catch people. If you catch them, you will be harassed and harassed the opposite side and then return. ‘——’ There should be a rumor here... What a ghost?”

Lu Sicheng held his head with one hand and laughed at the sound of the sky: “I told you to rumor, don’t understand?”

Old k blinked: “I don’t understand, this data analyst... Why do you force yourself to play in the information?”

Lu Sicheng lazily “hmm”, and looked at the person holding the mobile phone chick and glutinous rice. When the car bumped, her whole person shook and slammed open and looked like a fox. The neck is full of face “I am who I am where what happened here”

The man lowered his eyes, and the long, thick eyelashes blocked the deeper smile in his eyes: “Because she was born and played.”

This day, the zgdx team’s game against the King team can be said to be very smooth.

When everyone thinks that this team that is good at dragging the late game may have a chance to surprise zgdx, it finds that zgdx still stands still. In the course of the whole game, the battle of the king team is like It has already been clarified that every time the deaf person must have the appearance of the old k behind him...

There is also an intrigue on the resources of the wild area.

The first game started, the old k chose to start their own red buff, from the red buff brush to brush another set of four bird monsters called f4, at this time zgdx to work in the wild area there is a stone man .

Old k changed from f4 to brush the blue buff and the three wolves in the middle of the wilderness. After brushing, he gave up the squatting of the lower half of the field and turned back to the upper half of the wilderness area.

At this time, the king team played wild four.

Old k has only three levels.

Explain a: “Do you want to fight?” What is the reason? □ Do you want to leave it to Cheng Ge?”

Interpretation b: “But his level is already behind! Chengge online is pressing the combination of the K team, and let the resources do not make sense!”

When all the people thought that the speed of the old k was backward, it was a decision-making mistake. At this time, he found that after he came back, he directly grabbed the king team who wanted to come to invade the wild area near the stone man in the upper half of the field. wild!

When the other party saw the old k, this time point appeared here to keep the resources of his own wild area. It was obviously awkwardly smashed, and it was tentatively slashed and then directly withdrawn.

At this time, behind him, the nursery rhyme had touched it up without a hit, directly blocking his back road, with the old k killing the king team rushing into the enemy field to play wild! A blood!

In the audience cheering, the king team hit the wild donkey and fell down the mouse: “They are not seen in the singles, why don’t you say?!”

“How do I know, I watched her push the line and then thought she would return to the city,” the King team was shocked to hear. “Who knows she is going to catch you, how do she know that you finished playing?” The river crab will go to invade the wild area in the future. Is it normal that the old k should not be finished? Then come back to hit the stone man? Is this group forced to open?”

The king team is flying between dogs and dogs, and the rhythm is completely chaotic.

The initiative is completely in the hands of the zgdx team.

Next, because the route to play wild seems to have been completely mastered by the zgdx team, the king team played wild and two games in a row, nothing to do, watching the zgdx team directly on the line to force their own team, and then rely on three lines The advantage, steady, won the game in the first half of the game -

I didn’t even have time to delay them.

Not to mention anything that goes against the wind.

At the end of the game, the team members shook hands and shouted, and the team leader of the king team was their wilderness. “I didn’t expect your team to study the data of the lspl team. It is really strong and very exciting.”

Lu Sicheng heard the words, smiled, raised his chin and walked in front of him. He said that the short figure that shook hands with each other and shook hands was faint: “It is our single, she is very strong.”

At this time, the nursery rhymes who walked in front and shook hands with everyone stopped, and looked back, looking at Lu Sicheng.

Going to the front and completing the crowd, everyone went back to clean up the peripherals. She chased Lu Sicheng and asked, “Who are you talking about with me?”

Lu Sicheng: “Are you guilty of paranoia?”

The nursery rhythm pumped out and tried to say something. At this time, a staff member called Lu Sicheng, and he was interviewed by mvp in this game. Lu Sicheng directed Xiaopeng to pack up the peripheral package for himself and went to the interview area. -

When he was close to the interview area, the row of auditors in front of the interview area had already stood up waiting for the fans. He watched Lu Sicheng walk into the camera of everyone holding up his hands... The nursery rhymes saw this posture, also Slowed down the movements on my hands, and some curiously looked over the interview area -

Moderator: “Congratulations to zgdx, congratulations to chessman for successfully winning the first game of the lpl summer team cycle! At this moment, is there anything I want to say to fans?”

Lu Sicheng: “Thank you all for your support, the summer game will go all out.”

The words just fell, and a scream rang.

The nursery rhymes who pulled the mouse behind the computer popped a half head, and the black man asked the face.

Moderator: “Cheng Ge is also very knowledgeable fans, then I would like to ask, for this game against the newly promoted lspl league, the zgdx as a traditional strong team is obviously ready, this is a big surprise, zgdx is out What does this do? Is this the secret to success?”

Lu Sicheng: “No.”

Moderator: “...”

Lu Sicheng: “We are in the middle of the list. See who is afraid. If you are a little slow, which team will say that we are inflated - before leaving this morning, we will stand on the sofa and announce loudly that we will roll over today.”

Lu Sicheng said that it was too visual, and the audience fans laughed... The nursery rhymes behind the computer unplugged their keyboard lines and turned a big eye at the interview area.

Moderator: “It seems that our honest brother and our zgdx team get along well with the new Zhongdan.”

“Well,” Lu Sicheng responded. “That’s right, it’s not very familiar.”

Between the words of the man, Yu Guang saw the chief of the selection. A short figure emerged from behind a row of computers. She smashed the peripherals onto her back and looked as if she was angry at the place. Lame, a strand of hair turned and left.

Wait for that figure to disappear in the player channel.

Lu Sicheng lowered his eyes and covered his eyes with a smile. “But she is very strong and her attitude is very serious.

As a captain, I am very happy to have such a teammate.

Because of her joining, zgdx will become stronger this year. ”

The author has something to say: Come here, update today is relatively late, waited for a long time, but it is thick and long, redemption and atonement.

Going to send a red envelope?

This game has a reference to this time we have a brushed wilderness route, hehe, after all, I am really unfamiliar with the wilderness.
