

Chapter 49:

The nursery rhymes carry the peripheral bag and walk into the player's lounge. All the people, including the staff, have packed up and ready to go. I heard that the next game to be used in the lounge was forgotten for 500 years. "The team is already on the way, Xiaopeng asked how the nursery rhymes are so slow.

"The keyboard line and the computer line are mixed up. I used it for a while," the nursery rhyme swept the lunch box they had at noon into the garbage bag. "Is this taken away?"

"Oh, oh, I almost forgot."

A staff member quickly reached out and took the garbage bag from the nursery rhyme. Before the end of the game from the opening to the end of the day, the lounge was cleaned by no cleaning staff. The lounge environment relied on the current use of the rest room 5 rooms. The team staff consciously maintained.

Lu Yue: "The Queen of E-sports Quality."

Old k: "I feel that I am a qualified team - strong and qualified."

Xiaopang: "Perfect."

Old cat: "Hello? I just asked if you want to clean up the lunch box. No one cares for me?! I have to go to the e-sports circle committee to tell you about sexism!"

Everyone laughed and dragged an unhappy old cat to go outside. The nursery rhyme fell to the end of the team.

Looking back, Lu Sicheng had not finished the interview and followed up - not worried that the team would throw their captain away from their own way. The nursery rhyme regained his gaze and pulled out the mobile phone to brush his head...

Many unread messages on the mobile phone, nursery rhymes received praise from the younger brother, mother's affirmation, girlfriend's congratulations and praise from all sides, the nursery rhyme back all these messy information, and then click on it...

Originally I wanted to see if anyone would praise her.

I didn't expect the style of the post it was another one that didn't put her in the eye at all -

Nursery rhymes: "..."

The fingers slide down, all of them are similar titles, and a group of people are busy jumping up and down to give the five teams of the King team a pot -

It is said that the adc ten-second group fights nine seconds to play in the snake;

It is said that the auxiliary audience is even weak (* summoner skills, so that the local movement speed and attack are halved) are reluctant to let go;

It is said that the whole game is full of knives and is dominated by the virginity of the nursery rhymes. It is only equipped with shivering under the defensive towers of the defensive towers.

It is said that the order has taken the head and the meat is not meat, and the meat does not rise, and can't help but cut the back row and can't cut it.

Of course, the most won is the King team playing wild A light. From the opening of the first game, the wave of people who want to invade the zgdx wild area to steal the stone, was started by the nursery rhymes and the old k, and then the whole game was like being exposed to the eyes of the zgdx team. —It's the gods who want to fight the wild. Through unexpected attacks, they create online advantages for their teammates in the early stage. In the early stage, they only know that they are burying their heads and brushing the wilderness. The wild goods that are disappearing in the wild area are absolutely hanged and hung on the wall. It is until it is dried up!

Unfortunately, the second one, Aguang is doing this.

- The previous period disappeared in the wild area, and when he appeared, the game was almost lost.

Tong Yumao, the first team of the king team should have found the problem after being so overdone - but now you want them to immediately make a way to deal with this situation very well, it is certainly difficult, so the second one, in Knowing that he is completely gank less than a person, Ah Guang can only bury his head and brush the wild development and other groups, and there is no other way to do this...

But the people who eat it will not care so much.

What they can see is -

The first one, Aguang failed in the wild, angry to send a blood, gank is less than human.

The second one, Agung buried his head in the wild, there was no action in the audience, the sense of existence was zero, and the King team was like four dozen.

These are the most intuitive things on the surface, so they are the most energetic, and what is hard to say is said.

Nursery rhymes: "..."

I found a very bad post, and the nursery rhymes are going to return a sentence. The result is just sent out. The chubby in front is going around and urging: "When you walk, you are gone, hurry, gather for a while?" Xiaorui invites guests to eat Korean food!"

"Hey, come." The nursery rhymes installed the phone and stopped when they passed the bathroom. "You take a step first, I want to go to a bathroom."

After that, I heard that Xiaopeng responded, "When you hurry up," she turned and went to the bathroom. After washing her hands in the toilet and rubbing her hands, she suddenly heard a strange sound coming from the men's bathroom next door - like there was Who is walking on the ground and walking.

... This toilet is basically only used by team members. At this time, the team in the next game has just arrived. The team that is playing the game is going to go. Can anyone be here?

So out of curiosity, when the nursery rhyme passed by, he took a more look at the men's bathroom, and then from the dark tiles, she suddenly saw the person next to the door of the first toilet compartment.

The posture and the curse in the squatting wardrobe are exactly the same.

Nursery rhymes: "??????"

At first, the nursery rhyme was almost scared to erect, and thought that she had seen the ghost during the day, until she was horrified, and the shadow of the hug illuminates a white light.

Obviously someone is squatting on the toilet floor to play with the phone.

Nursery rhymes: "....."

Nursery rhyme: "Who is there?"

The nursery rhyme asked, and then saw the light of the mobile phone slamming out. The man seemed to move nervously, looked up and looked out... and this time the nursery rhymes had muttered "I came in." With a gentle footsteps, he bowed slightly into the men's bathroom -

There is no one inside.

Only in front of the first compartment, his face looked up at his own child - he carried his own peripheral bag on his back, holding his mobile phone and a half-burning tobacco in his hand, and his body curled into one. The group, when looking up, the red-red eyes and the nose of Santa's nose showed that it was a few minutes ago when it was filled with tears...

- It is the team next door to play wild Aguang.

When they are opposite to the virginity, both of them are awkward.

In the gaze of the other party, Tong Yu grabbed the peripheral bag and pointed it out: "I just passed by, I saw that I was personal, but it was not like pulling shi..."

The nursery rhyme said that half of the stop, the face was reddish and seemed to feel a little embarrassed. The A Guang looked up at her face and stared at her with a weird look for a while, then suddenly smirked at the beginning: "Let you see a joke."

He extinguished the cigarette.

The nursery shook his head and rubbed his head in his pocket. He took out a pack of paper towels and handed it to Aguang. Then he thought about kneeling shoulder to shoulder next to him: "Why are you hiding here and crying?"

"I know why."

"Don't lose the game?"

"Yeah," Ah Guang said faintly. "And I also saw how ugly it was to listen. This is the first battle of our team in the summer of lpl. It's actually very unhappy, and I've seen it like this."
_____"

He said, bowing his head and grasping the hair that was originally shaped, he couldn't help but laugh: "I have never seen the e-sports stickers before, but I have won the blacks, although I am also prepared to lose the game. - But sure enough, things can't be accepted by myself. I really want to catch everyone and tell him that there is no way at the time. I can only temporarily develop and wait for the group to gank, because the gank is not enough, the next time I prepare, it will be even more Ok, but in the end I found that so many posts, so many people are stunned... I can't come back."

A Guang said, the voice was once again low and hoarse. He sucked his nose, not so much as talking to the nursery rhyme. It is better to say that he is more talking to himself...

Nursery rhymes: "..."

Nursery rhymes turned to look at the children around, before she heard that he was only sixteen years old, just arrived at the age of the national regulations to participate in the professional league, from the city league with the team all the way to the first-line professional league ... before collecting information

A lot of people praised him for touting him, saying that he is the strong carry point of the king team, the rhythm engine -

Nursery rhymes: "You all know that those people have won and lost black..."

Why are you still so concerned?

A light smile: "Because I always said that I will win with the team, I will create opportunities for my teammates. The King team can finally grab the tickets for lpl in the finals of lspl. It is also because I finally grab the big dragon... I know Zgdx is very strong, we should not be able to beat it. The original idea is that even if you want to lose, you will not lose so ugly, at least not a chance -"

The nursery rhyme "oh" nodded and felt that she understood it a bit: it was nothing but the one who was held high, and now it hurts and the psychological gap is large.

This feeling she was slow to be familiar with - from the beginning to the team, the newborn burdock is not afraid of the tiger, won a few training games, and then encountered the Korean expression pack team, was too fast to fear the South Korean, now playing rank occasionally When I met the id, she was sweating and heartbeat, and in the event of a nightmare...

No cure has been found so far.

Thinking of this, the nursery rhyme raised his hand and patted Aguang's shoulder like a big sister who comforted the child: "The league has just begun. As a newly promoted spl, it has contacted more professional team tactics and styles. After that, you still have a lot of room for improvement, at least it will definitely become stronger."

"..." Aguang's head was buried in his knees. "What's the use?"

The result is not easy to be blown up by you.”

“... Post it, it’s easy to say that you really think it’s a light friend.” The nursery voice chuckled. “I’ve been posted with a rhythm. I want to know if it’s too easy. It’s better to ask me the most. Have a say - in order to study your wild line and style, I watched the King team in the regular season after the lspl and the finals five, all the information is after watching dozens of games The conclusion reached...”

Nursery rhymes refer to their own eyelids: “Before you slept last night, you are still repeating your spring finals, you see, dark circles?”

A light turned his head and looked at the nursery rhyme. If she saw the white face, there was a pale blue color at the bottom of her eyes...

Ah Guang: “...”

The child was silent, and it seemed a little surprised. He showed a expression of expression.

The smile on the face of the nursery rhyme became clearer.

“So don’t cry, cry, have a clear direction of knowing where you can progress, and then improve yourself in that direction. This is a very good thing. Isn’t that the meaning of the regular season?”

“...” Aguang snorted in a depressed voice. “I really envy you, a professional is in such a strong team, and then I am very strong, no one will be embarrassed.”

“The non-stick pan that won’t be smashed is only our captain.”

The nursery turned his eyes. “If one day China Telecom loses the game, it will definitely be hoisted by those people. Do you think they will let us go?”

“Now we are being hoisted by people, and some people say that a team like us is going to waste a quota by entering lpl-”

“Isn’t it your lpl ticket?”

“Yes.”

“Then you talk about what they say.”

When the nursery rhymes said and pulled out the mobile phone, they originally wanted to look at the time and they were afraid of chubby. They looked for her. As a result, they saw the post-post message for her before entering the toilet. There were actually more than 20 responses.

Nursery rhymes: "..."

He was there, and he looked at the taunts with a calm look. Tong Tong smiled and put away his mobile phone. He said a little, "They know a fart." They stood up and patted Agung's head: "No team wins." The other team is easy to win, so don't be so arrogant - you can sit on it with your own lpl.

When she finished, she saw Agung raise her head and stared at her deeply.

Ah Guang: "You are a little bad guy."

Nursery rhymes: "Just don't like being blown without brains."

Ah Guang: "Let other teams be afraid that you are not good?"

Nursery rhymes: "Where is it? I can see my eyes blinking in the evening game. Is it for the invisible force?"

Ah Guang: "..."

The nursery rhymes "squeaked" two times, and they couldn't stand the hand and walked back. I didn't know why, and after relaxing the Agung, I became more relaxed. She felt as if A Tai seemed to be less terrible.

Yeah, who knows how much homework he did privately before he seemed to be able to defeat her easily? Everyone is human, how can one be strong enough to be like an alien?

Thinking of this, the nursery rhymes whipped up the lips and whistled happily -

When he went out, he suddenly saw a tall figure standing in front of the bathroom. At this moment, his hands were in his pockets and he was watching her silently.

The nursery rhyme solidified at the mouth, the foot was down, raised his head, and looked at a pair of silent dark brown cockroaches - at this moment, he was dressed in blue and white uniforms, holding a mobile phone in his hand, showing Someone calls, and the nursery rhyme bows his head and touches his mobile phone with a silent mode.

Lu Sicheng smashed the phone being dialed, and the nursery rhyme screen lit up: missed call (4).

Nursery rhymes: "....."

The nursery rhyme looked up at the male toilet sign on the top of his head.

Nursery rhymes: "I....."

The nursery rhyme looked up and looked at Lu Sicheng in a panic.

Nursery rhyme: “.....No, he-”

The nursery rhyme finally looked back and looked back.

Nursery rhymes: “Hey!”

Nursery rhymes decided to give up treatment.

“If you want to play hide-and-seek, it’s really unexpected to hide here,” Lu Sicheng said faintly. “Smart.”

Nursery rhymes: “.....”

The author has something to say: Come here.
