

Chapter 58: city

Lu Sicheng opened the live broadcast, and other teammates continued to open the live broadcast in the underground building. The nursery rhymes called the box of fruit to eat in the seat, while watching the TV series while eating... Lu Sicheng used the game occasionally to take some time to chat with her, such as - -

Lu Sicheng: "Are you finished the live broadcast time?"

Nursery rhymes: "Abandon treatment, talk about it next month."

Lu Sicheng: "11:30."

Nursery rhymes: "What's wrong?"

Lu Sicheng: "The beautiful girl has been sleeping for an hour, and you are still eating watermelon here..."

The nursery rhyme touched his stomach, and thought that the meat that could not be seen would not exist. So he safely finished eating the fruit, then opened the computer, opened a live broadcast platform, entered the live broadcast room of Lu Sicheng, and saw the full screen. Asking who the woman is today, the rest are laughing at Lu Sicheng...

"A netizen said that this week's lameness of your leek is all over the world, is it?" The nursery rhyme pointed at the computer screen. "I didn't pay attention."

"I am an old ad, I wouldn't have played this new hero. I was yelling that I got it," Lu Sicheng was working on a new game, ban~pick, while talking to the people next to it. Locked a cockroach, "that practice."

The nursery rhyme "squeaked" and shrank back to the neck.

Lu Sicheng asked again: "What did the barrage say?"

The nurse gave him a look: "...you won't see it yourself?"

Lu Sicheng cut out and looked at his eyes. When he cut it out, the speed of the barrage refreshed significantly faster. Lu Sicheng looked at the barrage and silenced it, and then answered the curious baby with that slow, lazy tone. : "Which woman? Which woman do you know, Holmes?? She is not who, the family arranged the blind date for me... What is the reason why I want to kiss each other, I am also a legally married adult man. Why can't I kiss each other, but I refused it - yes, I don't want this now, I want to marry the s6 trophy, and lift the big sedan."

Nursery rhymes: "...”

“It’s not unsightly, it’s not suitable, and it’s not that people in this circle don’t dare to ask, or why will they waste time when they break up sooner or later... How can they break up?”

Lu Sicheng, while answering the netizen, reached out and turned his camera to the nursery rhyme. So everyone saw the single face in the zgdx team on the chair and turned to the head... On the top of the camera, Lu Sicheng’s calm voice came –

“Speak your story.”

In the camera, the zgdx team turned a huge white eye: “Say a fart.”

Lu Sicheng screwed the camera back and put it back on the table. “Have it heard? This is the end. I want to know the detailed story. Don’t ask me, ask Yangshen. That said that the silg was too short. Now I feel silg. Also good to do with me, room management? Work, seal for a month, the reason is to insult my teammates short.”

The nursery rhyme saw a lot of “hhhhhhhh”, “hahahahahahahahaha” “66666666” and “what is angry, what you just don’t want to be arrogant”, the nursery rhyme moved the stool to the side of Lu Sicheng: ” I am definitely not looking for a professional player, right, not in love, I give my youth and girl heart to e-sports.”

Lu Sicheng looked at her and the nursery rhyme looked up: “What do you see?”

Lu Sicheng: “I don’t want to start a live broadcast? Come to me, what is it?”

The nursery rhyme will hand over the cantaloupe’s fork as a microphone and hand it to Lu Sicheng’s mouth: “On behalf of the majority of netizens, please ask the captain’s favorite type preference, so that your wife group can move toward that beautiful goal.”

Lu Sicheng’s head swallowed the fruit directly.

Chewing two swallowed and thought about it: “I didn’t say it before? Playing the game is better than me.”

In addition to “hhhhhhhh” and “6666” on the barrage, there are now a lot more “??????”, the nursery rhyme throws the fork into the fruit box and clap his hands: “Have you heard, he does not Like a woman, the husband group gets a point.”

“You said in your interview today that women who want to do it are not necessarily worse than men.”

“Want to do it - based on not eating, not eating delicious, not making up, not wearing makeup, not buying new clothes, not on Taobao,” said Tong Yu, “women will die if they leave, and men’s lives do not exist.” These things, this is your only natural racial advantage.”

Tong Tong held her head and looked at Lu Sicheng for a while, then yawned and went to sleep. The next morning, when the base was still empty, she opened the computer like a thief and started to broadcast live - in fact, she did not have her own When the live broadcast time gives up treatment, she usually starts the live broadcast at noon in the morning, and at this time, her teammates are still sleeping.

Her fans are so emotional, this guy always gets up earlier than the dog, not a qualified e-sportsman.

The nursery rhymes lived for about an hour, and occasionally chatted with the barrage. The time passed very fast. Nearly ten o’clock, the door of Lu Sicheng’s room opened, and the man kicked and stepped on the slippers to sleep on the underground floor. He was wearing a shirt and Altman’s flower trousers (suspected chubby), and his hair was like a chicken coop.

This is the e-sports **** in the hearts of the people.

The nursery rhyme cut out and looked at the barrage -

The nursery rhymes read the barrage one by one, and the man standing in the kitchen drinking water slammed his hand and silently reached out and licked his pants: “What kind of live broadcast did you open early in the morning?”

After I squeezed the coffee cup and went around the nursery rhyme, I saw the tsar holding the nursery rhyme. At this time, the game went to the ninth minute and thirty seconds, and the number of nursery rhymes was 99. After thirty seconds, there will be new ones. Article 17: The line of soldiers emerged from the springs of both sides -

According to Lu Sicheng’s digital concept of the military line, this means that in the past nine and a half minutes, she has not leaked a soldier.

At this time, her personal record is 1 impatience, 0 deaths, 0 assists, she not only did not miss the troops, but also took the time to cooperate with the wilderness to win a head...

Lu Sicheng raised his eyebrows and was trying to say, "This tsar's replenishment is practiced." At this time, the opposite side of the line was on the line. He accidentally saw the id on the top of the single head in the opposite side was "tat, tei", Lu Sicheng Shaking the cup and looking down at the person sitting in the position: "Is it taking stimulants?"

The nursery rhyme looked up at him and said, "You should shave."

Lu Sicheng raised his hand and touched his chin: "The opposite is Atai."

Nursery rhymes: "What's wrong?"

Lu Sicheng: "You met with him a week ago and you are still shaking. How did you become like this today?"

The nursery rhyme paused: "A light teaches me."

"Who?"

"The kg team is playing wild," the nursery said slowly. "He told me that all the opponents are not as frightening as they seem. He looks very strong, just because he pays more... Most people are mediocre people, and they can catch up with their efforts, and they don't need to fight with them."

Lu Sicheng looked down at the coffee in his hand, and the coffee that came up was chicken-flavored, so the man thought about it and asked: "When in the men's room?"

"You two small animals can understand so many people in the toilet?"

The nursery rhyme silently cut out to see the barrage -

"I went to the men's toilet because I was wrong. Did I go wrong? Just meet Ah Guang and chat. Why do you want to chat in the toilet? Because there is no toilet, it is especially suitable for chatting! Say my chest is flat, the house is sealed. Sealed, sealed for a lifetime, the day when the prison is not released! What I am doing is to earn enough money to finish the surgery, I am, this also sealed me, the house management - forget me!"

When the nursery rhyme was busy and the barrage was quarreling, Lu Sicheng suddenly silenced. There was no other reason. She just saw her vivid appearance and suddenly remembered the next day after playing the training match with his old club. In the morning - almost the same place at the same time, the person in front of me was sitting here using the same hero. At that time, she was pale and had dark circles under her eyes. For the first time, she was crying because of the blows on the professional field...

And now.

The morning sun poured from the side into the base, illuminating the side of her face, and hanging down slightly to see the fine fluff on her healthy pale pink cheeks, she focused on the front of the game (curtain), in the eyes It seems to have light.

This is the end.

Lu Lusi stopped for a long time and continued to laugh at her casually smashing chicken soup. The man's sleepy and numb eye corner suddenly softened. He raised his hand and patted her head.

"It will come to solo for a while (two players play alone, online singled out)."

"Why?" The virginity discourse that was arguing with the barrage was a slap in the face.

"Because I am happy, I bet on staying up late tonight, and I lost the treat."

Throwing such a sentence, Lu Sicheng turned and walked away.

The virgins sent him away, looked inexplicably and looked out at the barrage outside, and then saw a new world -
