

Chapter 59: city

The zgdx team inexplicably held a solo contest with the final prize of the night tonight. Participants: Tong Yu, Lu Sicheng; co-organized the people who eat melon: chubby, Lu Yue, Ming Shen, old k, old cat and coaching staff. All staff.

Before the start of the race, people stood on the side of the nursery rhyme spontaneously and uniformly.

“When we win the crayfish, we only have the spicy pot.”

Xiaopeng’s face smirked the shoulder of the nursery rhyme.

The nursery rhyme screamed: “... even if it is a crayfish, I can do it too -”

Xiaopang: “Can’t eat a pound of crayfish once a person, what crayfish.”

Nursery rhymes refer to the price of ten pounds of crayfish, nodded: “I will try to win.”

At this time, Lu Sicheng, who was sitting on the side, had already opened the independent game room for solo, and sent the room password to the nursery rhymes. At this time, the live broadcast of the two people was also open. The barrage on the nursery rhymes was all “as if I saw Cheng Ge is intimate with the scene. “The room is his downfall.” “I want to try it, just in case.” And Lu Sicheng’s barrage on the other side is more optimistic -

Lu Sicheng swept the eyebrows and said indifferently: “Shut up, turn off the live broadcast.”

After I finished speaking, I turned my head and looked at the girl. “Do you know the rules of solo?”

Lu Sicheng twisted his head and slammed the live broadcast.

After ten seconds, the number of people watching the live broadcast of the nursery rhymes began to increase sharply.

There were many moments of eating the melons in the barrage content. People unified the caliber: Miss Sister The death of that one does not match the live broadcast of death and arrogance! We cheer for you!

The virginity is stunned because of the nervous little hands:

“Know know, three heads and one tower.”

The so-called “three heads and one tower” is the solo rule of the League of Legends -

The first is not allowed to have a rune talent;

The second is not allowed to bring healing skills such as healing, clarity, and resurrection;

The third is in the middle of the road, with the two grasses leading to the river in the middle road as the boundary, and the grass is counted as a waiver;

The fourth is the core rule to kill the opponent three times or to push the other side to a tower to win or lose.

Both sides choose hero freedom, but in most cases, when two people want to compete technically, they will use the same hero to mirror solo. Originally, Tonglu and Lu Sicheng are good at two different positions, which is difficult to get from. Find a balance, but the coincidence is that they are in the middle and adc, there are many heroes in the League of Legends can be qualified for both positions.

Such as Ijrell, Verus, De Marcia's wing Quinn, Jess, etc...

The nursery rhyme looked at the list of heroes: "Is the mirror right? Then ez (Izèrell) is alright?"

Lu Sicheng "hmm", the two sides selected the hero and entered the game -

Because there is no rune talent, the heroes used in the initial various numerical damages are different from usual. For professional players who often like to kill opponents by calculating damage, it is very likely that they will be fixed by themselves. Thinking leads to death, and even the recruitment of soldiers is difficult, and there is only one way to avoid this situation: the weekdays open more stand-alone mode to practice replenishment.

Only in this case will they be able to maximize the damage value of a hero in the case of a rune.

At the beginning of the two sides sent troops to the line, the nursery rhymes are still a little nervous - to zgdx for so long, playing the League of Legends game for a long time, she has never directly confronted Lu Sicheng face-to-face... At this time, listening to the mouse sound in the ear Looking at the red name on the opposite side of the game screen, and the rushing position, the calculation of the blood damage is just right, she seems to be able to hear her heartbeat.

She knows that this must be the basic skill of the replenishment after the single-machine contact has been many and many times.

If she just slightly overcome the fear of the expression pack team, because she knows that most people in life are as mediocre as her, then her heart is also clear: Lu Sicheng is not. When he debuted, he was one of the few players in China who was bought by a Korean club to be a trainee. He has a place in the world's top professional leagues. He mentioned Chinese and Chinese players. People will think of Lu Sicheng without hesitation.

He became famous very early.

Then it has been at its peak.

Strong players will recognize him. Appreciate him. Because he has extraordinary talent and is working harder than ordinary people.

At the first level, I was murdered in the face.

All the way was pressed back to the defensive tower. He was the experience of missing one or two small soldiers. The nursery rhymes sneaked in the heart. Then he dared to hide behind the line and consolidate his soldiers. During the occasion, he was hanged by skills. A little blood, when you see your experience is about to reach the second level, you will quickly retreat -

Sure enough, in the case of leading a recruit, Lu Sicheng took the lead to the second level to open a second skill to play a set. His surgery is extremely fast, even if the nursery rhyme immediately retreats and wants to avoid his skills, it is still hard. The scalp ate a few of his flat cuts. In a hurry, the nursery rhymes drank the blood bottle to the floor, a small soldier, and at the same time he learned the skills at the second level, he found that the bloodline was extremely healthy. Lu Sicheng had begun to retreat -

It's impossible to catch up and fight back. The only chance for the nursery rhyme is that Lu Sicheng is chasing her and then she has the opportunity to kill him by hand...

But the man is obviously not prepared to give him this opportunity.

The next two people are the developmental time of peace.

During the period, the nursery rhyme realizes that if Lu Sicheng is allowed to develop again, she will always be suppressed because of the missing supplement, so she will always walk in the line and try to harass. Lu Sicheng -

It is a pity that people do not eat her at all.

When the two sides reached the third and a half, the nursery rhymes had a deeper pressure because of excessive harassment. The Lu Sicheng, who was the first to clear a wave of soldiers, jumped up with a displacement skill and quickly hit the set of injuries, watching the blood bottom, and the nursery rhyme used q Skills level off a side and then withdraw to their own line of escape!

When her bloodline came to less than 200, she saw him rushing into the defensive tower. When she smashed the tower, she said that her chances came, but this is the hesitation of this second. Her life—Lu Sicheng pointed to the virginity at the same time as the anti-tower, and then ignited the igniting skill. Then the e-displacement skill jumped out of the defensive tower. When the q-skill icon of the cooling time was illuminated, he twisted and released, the nursery rhyme After he used the displacement, he added the q skill of the attack speed and mixed it with a flat a, and at the same time there was a burning effect on the body.

Ignite skill burns with 5020 hero level for five seconds of continuous damage, and comes with debuff reduction, so when the nursery rhyme is removed from the defensive tower, although he no longer eats Lu Sicheng's skills, he is also directly burned by the debuff hanging on his body. !

When the screen is dark, when the game remembers the “d” sound, the nursery rhyme falls down and reveals a helpless expression.

The barrage was dedicated to Lu Sicheng's “6666”. The hero of Izerel was simple to use. His operation was not very good, but in this series of actions, Lu Sicheng at least showed his heroes. Basic damage, skill cooldown, and skill calculations are extremely accurate!

The nursery rhymes waited for the resurrection countdown time to buy the equipment. When the hero reappeared in the spring, she realized that if she continued to hold hands, she would only be beaten by Lu Sicheng all the way to the end of the solo.

So when I went back online, even if I was behind a small piece of equipment, she seemed to let go of her hands and feet.

Three minutes later, when both sides came to the fifth level, Tong Tong killed him under the tower of Lu Sicheng in exactly the same way as before!

Lu Sicheng picked up his eyebrows, and at this time, the opposing soldiers lined up the defensive tower. The small soldiers were all taken off by their own defensive towers. He could not eat the experience of these soldiers. He must also watch the virginity stand in the defensive tower under the tower. Blood volume -

When the defensive tower appeared the animation effect of the “squeaky” stone slipping and shattering, it seems that the nursery rhymes will recover the disadvantages of the previous period, and the game will enter a new balance point again!

This is a solo that lasts for twenty minutes.

Both sides chased me, no one will let anyone, the number of people in the scene once came to the second to the second, the blood line of the first defensive tower of both sides was anxious!

At this time, the people around him are talking about what the barrage is saying. The nursery rhymes have long been unnoticed. She is concentrating on only the people in front of him. He first came up and handed over a summoner skill to beat the nursery rhymes to 40 unhealthy blood lines. Seeing the advancement of the line, he hesitated, probably to stabilize and then withdraw a little later -

Here is Lu Sicheng's estimation error for the length of the middle line. In fact, he has a way to kill and even kill the nursery rhymes before the soldiers push it!

But he mistakenly chose to give up, which gave the nursery rhyme a small chance - when people are ready to give up a wave of attack and retrace, it is often the best time for the attacker to blow the counterattack horn!

q hit damage - pick w to increase attack speed - a-a-e-a-q - Hang weak, hang up!

When you see the local blood volume bottoming out, use the e-skills to quickly pull back the distance between the two sides, the virginity under the r key -

After one second of storage, the arc-shaped big move was released. After hanging a few small soldiers to weaken the effect, it still kills Lu Sicheng who only has a * skin!

Three to two!

“Win!!!!!! Ah, ah, ah, ah!!”

The nursery rhymes slammed the mouse and raised the arms, and everyone behind the chubby saw the crayfish steady, and then applauded with tears, and the curtain was also a festive one—

Tong Yu smiled and looked back at Lu Sicheng. The latter did not rush to cut out to the live broadcast room of the nursery rhyme and looked at the barrage. He muttered

“Congratulations on my fart, I wish you constipation”, closed the live room, and reached out to wear it. headset—

The nursery rhyme grabbed him: “Crayfish, crayfish, crayfish.”

Lu Sicheng looked up and saw the paw on his wrist: “Know it.”

At this time, the cell phone he was holding at his hand rang, the nursery rhyme let him go, the man grabbed the phone to see it as a strange call, and then said “hello”, then the original relaxed eyes changed -

At this time, the nursery rhymes are * off the live broadcast. He waved his hand with the camera and said “bye bye” to the fans. After the nursery rhyme slammed the live room, he turned to see Lu Sicheng and saw that he was not responding. He blinked and asked: “Who? ”

“Sue.” Lu Sicheng deducted the phone. “I want to ask me about the last time tonight, have a meal, and then I will not be entangled.”

The virginity was awkward, and the original good mood quickly returned to calm. She thought about it: “Hey! Can’t you go?”

Lu Sicheng glanced at her: “If she says no, she will come to the base.”

The nursery rhyme “oh” again.

Lu Sicheng “snapped” and watched the irritability of wearing headphones, and casually opened the music player software...

At this time, the people around him dispersed their own things, and quieted around.

“Sincere brother.”

Nursery rhyme.

Lu Sicheng was ignorant. He stared at the computer in his chair and looked very focused on the latest news of the next version of the League of Legends.

“Sincere brother.”

The nursery rhyme replied, Lu Sicheng still did not care.

She turned her head and looked at him and asked, “I can’t hear you,” and then muttered, “The earphones are so loud and not afraid of the ears.” She bent down and picked up the cat that screamed in her chair and turned to leave, but was out. After a few steps, I suddenly went back.

After standing in Lu Sicheng’s chair, she silenced and said in a calm voice: “I don’t want you to go.”

After she finished, she lowered her eyes, hugged the cat in her arms, turned around, went upstairs, and went back to the room. The man who was wearing a headset on his chair still kept watching his news.

After a minute.

The chubby room door opened, and Xiaopeng shook the fat meat and squatted downstairs. While he was screaming, he said with a big voice: “Cheng brother, today’s lobster wants to eat xx, the most expensive. That kind of...30 pounds!”

“.....Got it.”

Next to the computer on the first floor of the base, the man licked his eyes and pulled off the earphones. He looked lazy and answered.
