

Chapter 61:

“... Does this cat bite your sleeve or hold your leg and not let you go?” Xiaorui looked awkward. Music novels|

“Everything.” Lu Sicheng replied in a concise and concise manner. He thought about it and said, “When she fell down, she wanted to come to the base. It was good to say that the base was clear, so that I would drive out, just wash the car, and trouble.”

“Well, e-sports, no love.” Xiaorui nodded. “Our goal is the s6 champion.”

Lu Sicheng glanced at him and muttered “What is the relationship with this” and then stood up from the sofa, when Xiaorui yelled, “Hey, what do you mean? Captain, who are you going to talk to? When the relationship came, the man returned to his computer. At this time, the virginity caught on the face of the virgin was finally impatient, struggling to climb up and claws and slammed his feet on the face of the nursery rhyme. Xiaorui ran over: Recently, Xiaorui opened the canned cakes every day, and it has become a new birthplace for this little beast.

At this moment, Xiaorui bent over and picked it up to open the can.

“You don’t give it a can of old food, eat the canned food that you have to go home on holiday, I have to apply for a public expense reimbursement with the club - you are committing a crime.”

The nursery rhyme sat up from the sofa and wiped her face. At this time, her voice was unstable. When she spoke, she was still secretly stalking Lu Sicheng. The man lowered his head and didn’t know what game to play on the computer or to return to someone’s q. information.....

The nursery rhyme regained his gaze.

“Speaking of crime, I saw your cake in the middle of the night,” Xiaorui approached the nursery rhyme. “The captain went to the toilet in the middle of the night. When you saw the captain, he jumped off his desk and went fishing for goldfish. I also made a fish tank full of cat hair. When the captain came back, I thought he was going to kill the cat. They all raised the phone and prepared to call the police. Who knows that he just picked up the big cake and put it on the ground. He silently changed the fish tank water to make the health... .. actually said nothing.”

Nursery rhymes: “...”

The nursery rhyme was frightened, and he grabbed the paw of the pie and slapped two slaps.

The pie is grievously called “嗷嗷”.

The nursery rhyme looked terrified: “Aggrieved! I almost died!”

“Little fat used to feed the goldfish feed to Cheng Ge, and he died more than two fish. He didn’t get even a cure from Cheng Ge for the one-week training game. (*Generally, the skill of the summoner carried by adc, recovery hp He can save his life from the fire.) He looks at his assistant to die, then turns around and does not return. The heartache is heard and the listener shed tears.” Xiaorui said that this suddenly stopped, “So How do you say that Cheng Ge suddenly became so loving?”

The nursery rhyme threw the paw of the pie and looked up: “What?”

Xiaorui: “Big pie, Cheng Ge’s patience with the pie is especially good.”

The nursery rhyme paused: “Yes? Maybe our pie is beautiful.”

Xiaorui: “Isn’t it a bit of a furry little beast before the beauty... oh, cake, do you suddenly become so big?”

The pie was sneezing.

Nursery rhymes: “...”

When Xiaorui lifted the big cake and licked its cat’s face, the nursery rhyme stood up from the sofa, licked the hot roots, returned to the front of his computer, opened the game and prepared to play two ranks to calm down - Lu Sicheng saw her in Sit down next to me and stand up and turn to the bathroom...

At this time, Xiaorui said in the living room: “Children, you gave me the official statistics of the ranks of this month’s rank data, and it was an exciting time to deduct wages in January.”

The nursery rhyme “squeaked” and leaned over to grab Lu Sicheng’s mouse. He finally looked up at the mouse and found that the computer screen was the chat window of Lu Sicheng and the ck team.

Nursery rhymes: “...”

The chat history is here.

At this time, the boy voiced a quiet male voice: "Is it enough?"

The whole child stunned the whole person and threw away Lu Sicheng's mouse to sit up in his position. The back of the arm of the e-sports chair was incoherently said: "Xiaorui makes the bidding brother, deducts the salary, says you On the computer, he asked me to send it..."

Nursery rhymes watched Lu Sicheng bend down and hold the mouse, minimize the chat window, and then find the file that Xiaorui said on the desktop... During the period, the nursery rhyme was silent and asked: "Have you deliberately lost this morning?"

Lu Sicheng dragged the file into the chat window with Xiaorui. When the file began to transmit, he turned his head and said: "What do you think?"

Tong Tong thought for a moment: "I don't think so."

Lu Sicheng "Hmm" said: "You are not a girl to be so embarrassed."

The nursery rhyme "oh" sounded, bowed his head and left the hair behind his ear to the ear - while the lip corner could not hold up.

Lu Sicheng: "It seems like you can understand this routine, it is not a cow."

Nursery rhymes: "..."

The upturned lip corners twitched and re-flattened.

Nursery rhymes: "I can understand, I have a girl heart."

Lu Sicheng: "You have a fart."

Nursery rhymes: "..."

The nursery rhymes opened the ranks and played two games. I imagined any hero in the opposite side as Lu Sicheng's face. She easily smashed the high-scoring passers-by. In the hanbok king's points, she pushed the keyboard up and stood up and decided to go to bed for a nap.

Going back to the room and watching the post before going to bed, the whole world is this morning, she and Lu Sicheng solo broadcast the gossip, most people think that Lu Sicheng deliberately lost, a few people stand against the opposition, and the reason for this minority standing opposition is also very confident : Why did Lu Sicheng let her?

A few people who understood Lu Sicheng's mistakes and praised her technology were unfortunately drowned in the vast sea of people.

The nursery rhyme looked at it for a while and felt that it was boring to throw a mobile phone and fell asleep.

I slept for a few hours, was woken up by the chubby text message, opened my eyes and found that the sky was dark outside, and the chubby text message said: The woman came. A nursery rhyme sat up from the bed, and because she slept for too long, she was dizzy and stunned. After three seconds, she thought that her room was under the window of the base, and she struggled to get up and become a thief. Pushed open the window and stretched his head to look down. Sure enough, the long-legged Miss Sister was already standing downstairs. At this time, Lu Sicheng stood facing her at the base and they didn't know what to say.

The nursery rhyme can only see the tobacco sparks in Lu Sicheng's hands -

He hasn't smoked for a long time in memory.

The nursery rhyme looked at the window for a while and found that the two men turned and walked away. She whispered "ah" and said, "Don't go, ah, where are you going, think about it and not, where people go to her ass, then lick the lips." Closed the window.

And this time.

In the yard.

Lu Sicheng made it very clear to the people in front of him. They were not suitable, and they suggested that he could send her back in the evening... Su Luo saw that the other party did not want to talk more. He had to say that he drove the car. Stopped outside the community, Lu Sicheng thought about it and said: "That will send you to the gate of the yard."

Su Luo heard the words, really feel very angry: this man from beginning to end, everywhere is very good, how can it not be her?

Sue knew that the road from the zgdx e-sports club base to the parking lot at the entrance of the villa community was the last chance she could grasp.

"Lu Sicheng, are you not happy? I went to the game to see you last time and then I was too high-profile?" Su Luo asked, "I really didn't mean it. How did those people ask me how to answer, I didn't think you were so famous." And those people will analyze what I said so deeply..."

"..." Lu Sicheng paused. "It doesn't matter."

"Your fans are all over the sky, I am really sorry," Sue said with an eyebrow. "They also found me on Weibo. Some people talked hard and said that I don't want to pretend to be your girlfriend-"

"Sorry."

"What kind of humility you are, not your fault, is your fans..."

Su Luo paused. "I don't know much about your game, but if I can develop, I am willing to learn -"

"It doesn't matter to this," Lu Sicheng extinguished the smoke.

In fact, he did not touch a few mouths during this time. He immediately threw it into the trash. "I don't know if Lu Yue told you something. What stupid things like the rules of this circle, you can ignore him, in fact, if I want to, she will protect her, she does not have to learn anything."

Lu Sicheng paused: "So it doesn't matter."

"Then you are afraid that your fans are sad?"

"It's not an entertainment circle. I'm playing esports, not a monk temple."

"That is -"

"Not suitable." Lu Sicheng said concisely.

At this point, the two have already come to the outside of the community. It is probably that both of them are tall and long enough, and the speed is very fast... Outside is the bustling street, and the music of the bar is faintly heard. Under the light, Sue turned to look at the man who was only half a head taller than himself. His side face was hidden in the shadow cast by the community behind him. The scum that had emerged was not scraped, but this did not hinder everyone's consciousness. This is a handsome man -

The tone he used to say "she doesn't have to learn anything" is enough to make any listener miss the beat.

"How are we not suitable? Look? IQ? Family? Is it still tall?"

Su smiled. She used her chin to point to a couple at the door of the bar not far away. "They can all be together."

Lu Sicheng looked back and saw a tall boy holding a little girl whose height was only in his armpits on a heavy locomotive.

The little girl was still wearing a school uniform. He was wearing a vest and his arm muscles were strong and tattooed. At this moment, he licked the little girl's head and took a safety helmet like a toy for his big hand to wear to the little girl sitting in the back seat of the locomotive...

The little girl smiled and stretched her arm around his neck so that he lowered his head and kissed him at the corner of his lips, and obediently let him wear a safety helmet.

Su Luo: "This little girl can give him a daughter."

Lu Sicheng regained his gaze: "Is it not very good?"

The words of Su Luo's words, and strange eyes swept Lu Sicheng.

Su Luo: "What kind of person do you like?"

Lu Sicheng: "...the game is better than me."

Su Luo smiled: "Isn't that hype?"

Lu Sicheng: "No."

Su Luo: "But is there really such a person? They say that you play the game very well, no one will be better than you."

"I didn't say that it must be a League of Legends. It is better to play Tetris than I am, but if it is a League of Legends, it will be directly smashed," Lu Sicheng said with no expression.

"Goodbye."

Su Luo: "..."

Su went away. In the end, she couldn't say anything to impress Lu Sicheng. She apologized. He said that she would not apologize. She said that she would try to adapt to the rules of the e-sports circle. He said that he did not need to adapt; she said that they are very suitable from head to toe. He is not okay -

This is simply a stone that the thunder can't move.

Su Luo drove the car away. When she walked out of the neighborhood just outside, she vaguely saw Lu Sicheng still standing at the door of the community. She lowered the window and wanted to say goodbye to him. At this time, the man had already turned. Going over, looking at the community behind him silently -

Su Luo squatted and vaguely thought that he was looking at someone.

But at this time she had already opened, so she didn't see anything at all.

Lu Sicheng looked at the dim light of the community, a figure gradually approached, and finally she panted and stopped in front of him, and she was out of breath... Lu Sicheng moved his lips and watched it stand straight, only his shoulders were high. At this moment, bending over is like someone who can be trampled on by him. When she wants to talk, she gestures to shut him up.

Then, with his knees, he breathed a few breaths like a dog.

“Have you passed the high school sports pass?”

“The game has to be played well, it must be very cute, the character is still awesome. The girl has been difficult to find, and the mother is asking for physical qualifications.” Tong Yu pulled the collar and rubbed the sweat on his chin. Don’t get in.”

“Which series of conditions you said are in addition to ‘game is good,’ which one is with you?”

“...”

“What are you doing?”

“Little fat said he was hungry,” the nursery rhymes straightened. “Let me remind you to buy crayfish.”

“Can’t call?”

“The phone has no power.” The nursery rhyme looked at Lu Sicheng, “What about your blind date?”

“Go away.” Lu Sicheng took out the car keys from his pocket and patted the heads of the people around him. “Go, go buy nights.”

“Go back!”

“No one told you to chase it out.”

Lu Sicheng said that he turned and walked two steps. He saw that the person behind him didn’t keep up and stopped. When he looked back, she found that she was lying in the distance not far away - the man paused and looked down at her eyes, only Seeing the middle school student girl and the flower arm man still whispering in the same place, the flower arm man said happily, and took her toy like a car from the car...

The nursery rhyme looked at it for a while, turned to look at Lu Sicheng, and both eyes shone with light: “Meng.”

“...” Lu Sicheng sneered, “Are you a little bit stunned?”

The nursery rhyme turned and followed the man in three or two steps: “Isn’t it good?”

“What good?”

“You don’t know anything.”

“Oh.”

In the small area, the lights on the side of the road pulled the reflection of the two people very long... When the nursery rhyme walked behind Lu Sicheng, the shadow cast by the man was enough to cover her completely.

She looked up at the wide shoulder in front of her eyes, and there were unfinished words in her eyes.
