

Chapter 63: city

Tong Tong smiled and quit WeChat, Lu Sicheng gave her a look: “Laugh in my car and throw you out like this.”

Tong Tong gave him a look: “I can’t laugh.”

“I don’t want to carry animals on my car. I am stupid.” Lu Sicheng said, thinking and asking, “Who are you talking to?”

Tong Tong thought of the chat with Yang Yang just now, and immediately grasped the mobile phone as if Lu Sicheng could make a free hand, her face was slightly red - but fortunately, the person inside the dark light could not see, she squatted:

“How do you manage that width?”

“The captain takes care of the team members’ duties.” Lu Sicheng said, suddenly frowning. “Look at your nervousness, is Li Shuoshuo? Are you still talking nonsense with Li Shushuo? Can you talk so well if you don’t speak the language?”

“I didn’t talk to him.”

“Oh, is it black?”

“...”

“Let’s black, huh?”

“.....”

“The command of the captain.”

“The captain’s order is not so useful. I didn’t care about him, but I couldn’t do anything that was so embarrassing to pull the black family.” The nursery rhyme put the phone under his ass.

“There is the ability to delete it yourself.”

Lu Sicheng didn’t bother to drive with her, and she didn’t talk at all—so the nursery rhymes in the remaining half an hour sat sideways and looked at Lu Sicheng. Lu Sicheng drove, and nursery rhymes didn’t have a mobile phone. Play, the two in order to pass the time, from time to time to chat about the gossip in the two professional circles, who is looking for a girlfriend who is carrying a girlfriend, a lame fan, which team of female fans look the best... It was said that the nursery rhyme was sitting as a fan for the first time to watch the zgdx team’s game. When the camera came to her, she smiled and waved her hand.

“When you wave, the average score of the zgdx fan group is reduced from eight to six.”

“Yes, according to the standards of North American Tucaojun, your fans are Liu Yifei.”

“Well,” Lu Sicheng took a hand and took a shot to the head of the co-pilot. “Give you another chance, think about it and open it again - who?”

“...咱家。”

Lu Sicheng smiled with satisfaction and took back his hand. The nurse squatted on his forehead and sat back on the chair. He used his small eyes to sneak a glimpse of the person driving the car.

When you are awkward, you are standing in a faraway place, in the crowd, just wanting his eyes to stay on his body for a while and then cheering up; but when the mind is determined, the feeling of being easy to satisfy will not be seen. I’m eager to move, I want to fill his world with himself...

People are always so greedy and insatiable.

“Sincere brother.”

“What?”

“You don’t fall in love and prohibit team members from falling in love. Is zgdx a monk temple?”

“Yes, I am sorry that you left the team.”

“Where are you leaving the team? Go to ck?”

“you try.”

When the base got off, the nursery rhymes took out the hot mobile phone from under the buttocks, which reflected that she seemed to be riddled again: she was on the road with her captain and blinked all the way, boring to the explosion. I think I have a mobile phone to play with.
