

Chapter 76: city

“How,” Lu Sicheng held his chin with one hand and smiled.

“Is it very nervous to watch a movie with me?”

It is very nervous.

Lonely man and woman, pure teammate relationship, watching movies, blame and imagination.

“If you are hit by someone -”

“You have already played a third of the league regular season.

Haven’t gotten used to being a public figure that must be exposed to the public’s vision?” Lu Sicheng said faintly, “The first time you will hide Behind me, it’s because you just entered the team; but the second time is not so good...”

“What?”

“You have to learn to adapt to this. This is the most basic.

Adapt yourself to a public figure and then learn not to be influenced by the opinions of others.”

“Isn’t your education policy to be ‘less doing things, being a good person’?” The nursery rhyme lifted his fork. “It used to educate me.”

“But even if you do, they will still discuss you,” Lu Sicheng looked at the virginity and pressed her fork. “For example, in the live broadcast, everyone discussed that you are fat.”

The nursery rhyme slammed his face and looked terrified:

“Really?”

“Look, this is the opinion of the public. I really don’t know what to say. When you learn to say “I am not fat, you are okay”, even if you graduate.”

“...oh, but you said so much, what is the relationship with watching movies?”

“Training you, no charge.” Lu Sicheng said in a serious way,

“I haven’t eaten enough. I bought the most recent game and didn’t want to miss the opening.”

The nursery rhyme wants to practice the patch-to-line training game. The development version of the hero routine is already tired enough. It’s hard to get out of the door and receive psychological training. Then, if you don’t agree, you will be deducted. This is the most savage. How are the occupations so tired?

“It’s very tired to play professionally.”

“If you want to bring a crown, you must bear the weight.”

“Don’t bow down, the crown will fall, don’t cry, the bad guys will laugh?”

“what?”

“..... pick it up.”

“Look at those nutritious chicken soups, have time to watch a few classic events - this spring, I played in the first few games of which team I played in a few minutes to complete the five kills?”

“...ck!”

“It was the death of the 500-year-old team.”

“...”

“You will guess, the team that will be playing this week will not dare to watch the spring video, you are too inflated.”

“...”

The nursery rhyme is thus educated all the way.

From the noodle shop, I went out to the Escalator to the Studio City. Lu Sicheng went to collect the tickets. The nursery rhymes looked at the time and the people who were waiting for the opening of the same movie in the hall. The heart was still a little panicked, so I found an excuse to go to the toilet and open directly. Slip, ready to step on the movie, the people who started the game all went in and then entered again... When I walked to the door of the toilet, I accidentally met an acquaintance.

Xu Tailun and his female companion who didn’t know what the identity was. They also stood in the rest area in front of the toilet. The two whispered that they didn’t know what to say. Xu Tailun had a movie ticket in his hand: Estimated and nursery rhymes, they are a movie. .

Is the road narrow?

Tong Tong picked up her eyebrows and thought of Lu Sicheng’s guess about the girl’s identity. She frowned and her feet slowed down. For a time she didn’t think about whether to say hello to Xu Tailun – after all, this week’s first game It’s just like the team that “has forgotten the five hundred years of the Qing Dynasty”.

Just as he hesitated, Xu Tailun looked up and saw her in time. The man had taken off his mask and stopped the nursery rhyme. When the nursery rhyme went back, he saw the girl sulking and wearing a mask...

There was a canvas bag that I didn't have before, and there was something moving inside.

The nursery rhyme turned to Xu Tailun and prepared to politely say hello to him. As a result, he had not had time to speak before the person. He suddenly heard the little girl standing next to the man suddenly said: "Mimi does not move."

Then there is the scream of the milk cat.

The nursery rhyme immediately turned to look at her and was surprised: "You brought the cat in?"

"Ah," the girl looked up and carefully glanced at the nursery rhyme and then looked at Xu Tailun. He saw that he didn't speak and whispered. "As long as you don't speak, you won't be discovered."

"Now is the early summer, where is the big air-conditioned milk cat can't stand it?" said the nursery rhyme, thinking that he seemed to be a nosy, not his own cat, so he paused and the voice became softer. "Be careful with the cold, it is very troublesome for the kitten to get sick and take care of it."

The girl wearing a mask nodded.

Xu Tailun stood on the side with a meaningful smile on his face and looked at the nursery rhymes. He didn't talk. The nursery rhymes didn't bother to say anything to them. After saying goodbye, he turned and went into the bathroom. When the movie started, he hurried out and turned black. Lu Sicheng was around, when the man was standing next to the movie propaganda, surrounded by a few fans, both men and women...

Nursery rhymes: "....."

The terrible thing still happened.

At this time, Lu Sicheng Yu Guangxuan met the nursery rhymes and walked over, far from seeing himself, stopping at a distance and retreating. He gave the fans a signed hand, and then opened the book that the next person took over and quickly signed and refused. His photo request -

"My companion is here," the man said in a patient patience.

"Is there a chance to take a photo again next time?"

Everyone heard the words, they turned their heads -

Then they widened their eyes, as if they had discovered what the New World had to offer: Turning around in a circle to see if there was anyone who wanted to find something to hide the shelter. Isn't it the Chinese telecom team's new single silg! ! !

"Ah, ah, brother, are you dating silg?"

"How is she still there? Or is your entire team there?"

"What is she hiding, shy?"

"God, you won't really be dating, I said on the Internet that I didn't believe it at first..."

The fans around Lu Sicheng were screaming. This scene of the nursery rhyme swears that I saw it on the day I bought the slippers. However, at this time, she could not use the same reason as "I am a staff member". Bold the scalp forward:

"..... Hello everyone, I am the single player silg in the China Telecom team."

Standard lines used in interviews with vp.

Around the fans sneered, the nursery rhyme roots slightly reddish, she looked at Lu Sicheng, Lu Sicheng then vaguely said: "Don't laugh at you, this face is thin, and finally convinced her to accompany me to watch movies."

A male powder obviously does not believe: "On both of you?"

Lu Sicheng nodded: "Well, yes."

A female powder hesitated: "So you are really, are you together? I am posting people and Weibo often see people discussing you..."

Lu Sicheng: "We -"

"We are a harmonious teammate relationship, it is purely coincidental to see a movie!"

The nursery rhyme grabbed the topic and obviously saw the female fan who had asked the question a sigh of relief. She also silently sighed in her heart. At the same time, she looked at Lu Sicheng. The latter closed her mouth and let the nursery rhyme suggest that he can continue to supplement it with his eyes. Answer, he did not speak.

Inexplicable.

At the same time, the last broadcast of the film was broadcast, and the two were saved, bid farewell to those fans, and turned around to accept the check-in.

Entering the cinema to sit still, I saw Xu Tailun and his female companion coming in for a while after the opening... The nursery rhyme pulled the sleeves of the next person: "Look at the two people walking around."

Lu Sicheng: "Who?"

Nursery rhymes: "The powder type is wild."

Lu Sicheng: "..."

The man raised his hand and patted her head: "Small things."

.....

Returning to the base in the evening, the nursery rhymes can't get up on the sofa, staring at the man who pours the goldfish into the fish tank not far away, listen to him and chubby talk about it -

"Where have you been?"

"Buy fish."

"Buy a fish to buy a day?"

"Ok."

"When I am a fool."

"I really went to see "Independence Day 2" and gave you a spoiler?"

"..."

Xiaopeng immediately covered his ears in horror, and Lu Sicheng pulled his hand and looked blank: "Come on."

Xiaopang: "I don't want me! You go!"

Lu Sicheng let go of him, clap his hands and throw a sentence, "Fighting with me", holding his chin and going away. He didn't know what to be proud of... The nursery rhyme continued to watch him go upstairs, then turned his eyes and turned over. Lying on the sofa to play with the mobile phone: Today, the king did not have a live broadcast, so the nursery rhyme would just look at the west and look at it. Finally, I saw Xu Tailun's live broadcast accidentally on a fish platform. It seems that the live broadcast time is just starting soon.

The nursery rhyme went in.

At first glance, I saw the little milk cat who was taken away in the morning and walked around the camera.

In the camera, the wild laughter is still amiable to answer the questions in the fan screen.

The nursery rhymes turned the live voice a bit.

Xiaopang: "Are you watching the live broadcast of Long Ge?"

Nursery rhymes: "Yeah, this week is not to fight with them, familiar with the wild style."

Xiaopang "squeaked" and didn't doubt anything else. He went to play his own game. The nursery rhymes continued to watch the people in the live broadcast and swear words.

Xu Tailun said,

Speaking of her turning the camera to a domestic player in their team, the latter paused and smiled and said: “Yes, he is playing the trumpet in the afternoon.”

The nursery rhyme turned his eyes again.

Watching the little cat tremble in front of the camera, the barrage is praising the cute cat and the like. At this time, the kitten stopped to sneeze and screamed. I licked my head.

The barrage is “very cute”, “sneezing and sneezing” “I also want to raise a cat” -

Only a few barbs said: Will it be a cold? Can this day also catch a cold? Is the base air conditioner too big?

The nursery rhyme raised his eyebrows and couldn't stand it.

He immediately quit the live broadcast. At this time, Lu Sicheng came down from the upstairs. He sat down on the sofa with his eyes crossed, holding a pillow full of bitterness and hatred. He didn't know what he was thinking about. In the single, walked over and pushed her head: “What?”

“That Xu Tailun is really annoying, not a good person,” said the nursery rhyme. “I hate him.”

“Oh.”

“It's really annoying to play professional boys, not a good person,” said Tong Yu. “I really hate it.”

“...the mentally retarded you? What is it about me?”

The nursery rhyme stood up on the sofa, Lu Sicheng subconsciously took a step back, and the nursery rhyme put the pillow in his arms into his arms, frowning and jumping down the sofa and going upstairs... Lu Sicheng looked up She closed the door, threw the pillow on the sofa, and asked the other people behind her back: “What is this woman?”

Xiaopang: “I don't know.”

Lu Sicheng: “I was just fine.”

Xiaopang: “Your people ask yourself.”

Lu Sicheng took his eyes back from a certain door on the second floor. He looked at the irritated back and licked his hair. “I have done it,” he muttered. “You can't get out of sight for a second.”
