

Chapter 78: city

Xu Tailun's body has the taste of cologne.

Bad news.

The nursery rhyme had the feeling of sneezing, so she frowned. She swears that she still feels that this Tai Tailun is very good, pure and pure, and the most important thing is that it is good, giving people a feeling of kindness, even if he does not say that he grows Handsome, I think he is a cute big boy. Until I saw some of his real faces.

Everything is probably part of the "play", even the "cute" has become a face, but the child is slightly raised, indifferently looking at the darkness of the person in front of him, asking: "Is there something?"

Xu Tailun smiled and said: "Is nothing to find you?"

"No," said the nursery rhyme. "Please let go."

While talking and moving, she wanted to take her hand out but she didn't succeed, and the other person seemed to be getting more strength in discovering her intentions. Now her wrist is hurt.

Her brows have become tighter.

At the same time, she felt that the person who held her was slightly bent down. She heard Xu Tailun's voice ringing in the air: "Live live that day, why do you want to say something embarrassing? Is it not easy to directly deny it? Everyone will save A lot of things"

Struggling to half of the nursery rhyme suddenly stopped, she slightly turned to the face, the heart that suddenly jumped suddenly suddenly is a kind, unconsciously aware of the calmness of the other party's weakness, she evokes the lips:

"Love what is my business It's not good to expose you directly. You don't report me. I'm still doing it today."

"Because I am not happy."

"Your team is losing because of your game."

"I don't care, they won't object to having won them a lot. Isn't it better to be willful once and for all according to my wishes?" Xu Tailun's eyes narrowed slightly. "I can do more, even the next one." The game is also lost to you very quickly, that's fine, as long as you promise me not to talk in the future, be a girl, eh?"

what is this?

Commitment to the fake game?

Dirty trade?

The nursery rhyme heard a goose bump and came out. She subconsciously turned to look at the end of the corridor. At this time, Xu Tailun pinched her chin and put her face right: "Who are you looking for? Rescue? Lu Sicheng? Don't look at you. The teammates were stopped by my dear teammates in the lounge road and asked about the West. At this time, no one would."

Xu Tailun's words suddenly fell silently.

Then I watched the row of neat teeth on my wrist, the deepest skin, and even the bleeding. When he had not reacted to the sudden attack, the girl who was fixed between the chest and the wall was smashed. I slipped out

"I don't need any rescue," the nursery rhyme licked his **** breath with his tongue. He said, "You don't have AIDS? Mom said that he is sick from the mouth."

The girl made a big face to the man and turned to walk into the bathroom.

When I walked into the bathroom, the whole child was stuck on the wall, and my heart beat faster. I looked up and looked at the opposite side of the mirror. I looked pale and went to the sink to rinse my mouth. Next, and then deliberately wait until the game is about to start, Xu Tailun really no longer has to go back to his team's rest room, the pace is fast and floating, when the door is opened, the hand still shakes.

Xiaopang asked: "Where are you?"

The nurse gave him a glance, and the voice sounded very calm: "The bathroom."

Hearing that Xiaorui called them outside the door, his teammates no longer asked each one to go out. Tonglu looked down and thought that he had fallen to the end. When he watched Xiaopeng go out, she turned and wanted to go out, but she met it. When the doorknob was closed, the arm was caught by the person behind her. She was shocked. When she turned her head, her eyes flashed. It was only Lu Sicheng who stood behind her.

Lu Sicheng's voice is low: "What happened to you?"

Tong Yan's eyes: "What is going on?"

“You will find yourself in a mirror like a ghost.”

““The nursery rhyme pulled his arm out of the man. “I’m fine.”

In the second match, when the players were seated, Xu Tailun’s hand had a layer of bandage. The white circle was very eye-catching. The nursery rhyme clearly heard the fans of the Qing Dynasty team. It can also be said that Xu Tailun’s individual fans were commotion, and the commentary was also loud. Discuss how to stop a short break for ten minutes.

At this point, he slowly swallowed and sat down in his position, as if he felt the disharmonious gaze next door. He turned his head slightly and looked at the face of China Telecom’s unrequited face. He smiled at her.

The nursery rhyme rolled his eyes and revealed a disgusted expression to open his face.

A face that is sitting on the other side of the face.

Lu Sicheng: “Is it still okay? What are you going to do with the eyebrows of the next team?”

Nursery rhymes: ””

“First play the game, go back and explain, don’t say clearly, don’t enter the door.” Lu Sicheng said while wearing headphones.

Nursery rhymes: ””

In the second game, the Chinese telecom team played the four-guarantee tactics in accordance with the arrangement of Lu Sicheng before the game. The team was no longer a dual-output, but the upper-field assistant focused on the protection hero to ensure that a core output can be in the group. The longest survival time in the war, the tactical test team with the ton of output test to match the trust, personal ability and psychological quality, after all, the success or failure of the entire team is on his body.

The four-guarantee tactics used to be the mainstream tactics in s5. At that time, most of the orders were multiplied as “blue-collar ones”, which not only took the meat to develop and protect the double position, but also changed the pre-world version to become a heavy-loaded warrior. Version, the single-output hero fire, so the four insurance one tactics in the world game was smashed into the soil into the s6, very few teams have insisted on this style of play.

When the nursery rhymes are halfway through their bn&p;p, the commentary has vaguely seen such signs.

Commentary: Sn took a nap, the old cat took the big tree, and the old took a leopard girl! Yes, it seems that this China Telecom really wants to play four guarantees.

Commentary b: But is this version really good to play four guarantees?

Commentary: The version is dead, people are alive. To be honest, I really like to watch the game of China Telecom. They not only win games often, but also dare to use anything, and dare to take anything. This kind of game is interesting!

Commentary b: Hahahahahahahahaha yeah, you are not going to target me, then I take 璐璐, the length of the hand is not delayed, the shield, there is silence, there is acceleration, the big move can return blood, how do you kill? Just ask how you kill? If you are obsessed with the middle road, then a non-output hero can take off, and Daqing is really forced to make a choice this time!

At the beginning of the game, Xu Tailun really tried to come to the middle, but between this time, the nursery rhyme was awkward, and the position was very flexible. Most of the skills were also double-acting skills that could be attacked and defended. So Xu Tailun did not catch the success twice. Can only helplessly hide the wild area

It seems that there is no idea about the way down China Telecom.

Because the first two waves of catching the nursery rhymes have not been used to waste most of his development time, the old will not give him the opportunity to make up for it. When he goes to work in white, he will invade his wilderness and make a vision. After the resources were finished, in seven minutes, the old level pressed Xu Tailun to a whole level! This is not the worst.

The worst thing for Xu Tailun is that after brushing his wilderness in the lower half and the stone man in the upper half, he faces the dilemma that no wilderness can brush, which will open his rank and the old man.

And the teammates on the next route are also suffering because they haven't helped the wild!

After fifteen minutes of the game, the two sides launched the first wave of group battles. At this time, because China Telecom took the four-guarantee lineup, the two lines did not press the other side too much, and the development of both sides was still flat. The difference is not the same, the opposite of Lu Sicheng crazy pressure more than forty knives, equipment behind half a large piece of a small piece, playing the group battle output is not at a level!

The front row of meat can't move.

The back row is not cut.

After the competition for the first element dragon, facing the three-way development of China Telecom, the Qing team has realized that this rhythm is worse than the previous one, and it is psychologically defeated first.

Once the game was unintentional, it was quickly snowballed by China Telecom, pushing the middle road and one tower to take the road and the tower, and the assistant was liberated, invaded the wild area, and went on the road.

Soon, the balance of the middle and upper lines that barely opened five or five is also leaning toward the Chinese telecom team.

The game ended early in 30 minutes.

At the end of the first 50 seconds of the game, when the Chinese telecom team pushed the opponent's base, the nursery rhymes saw the system prompting and quit the game.

When the nursery rhyme took off the headphones and stood up, they could still hear the audience below. They were discussing whether Xu Tailun really retired the game early or simply dropped the line.

The second game of the game gave the nursery rhyme.

When the p was given on the big screen, the scene was sensational. Many people laughed. Everyone knows that the second person who performed superbly is actually Lu Sicheng. It is only because of all the people who have a stomach problem. I want to gossip.

Tong Tong handed her peripheral package to Xiaopeng and came to the interview area. Tong Tong saw not only fans, but also some media reporters. The host handed the microphone to the nursery rhyme.

The host started the game as usual, and the nursery rhymes often greeted him.

Then quickly enter the topic

Moderator: Is today's game so angry with this brainless?

Nursery rhymes: "Begin a little bit, then you won't be angry.

The game won. If you win, you can do it. Whoever rr is the same. A strong team should be cycling and holding thighs.

Each game has different positions to stand out and rr. This is good."

Moderator: Do you have anything to say about today's game?

Nursery rhymes: ""

Have.

Many swear words like "you" and "grass mud horse" don't know when to talk about it.

The nursery rhyme looked at the host. The sincere face was obviously not able to accept a swearing word as an answer, so she had to smile and smiled: "The ice of Cheng Ge is very powerful. You will remember bn later."

Everyone laughed. At this time, Lu Sicheng, who was wearing a peripheral package with the word "sn" on his side and stooped to pick up the peripherals in a single position, looked up and looked at the interview station.

Lu Sicheng apparently did not expect that she would answer this, but everyone did not feel that it was not known to everyone that the team's middle single was a famous "ssn blow".

Moderator: sn, do you think your opponent is useful for the extreme tactics you make? At least used to be useful?

Tong Tong smiled and said in a confident voice: "I think it is useless for me if the remaining two strengths are not quite equal or even more advantageous. My teammates are not grazing. China Telecom is a three-core team. Any line will have the confidence to take over the game later."

Moderator: Do you agree with this attitude?

Nursery rhyme: "Your question today is really scary."

Moderator: "Ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha!"

Nursery rhymes: "Know what he thinks. I think it is the most basic thing to play against the teammates and the team if it is the core of the team."

Moderator: There are rumors that it was an incident about the appointment of Xu Tailun and fans, because your speech in the live broadcast led some people to think that this is the fact that you think it has something to do with it?

Nursery rhyme: "I don't know what I said. If there is no problem in itself, no one can bring this rhythm. I believe that Xu Tailun also understands this truth."

The nurse glanced at the reporter sitting below.

Looking at them, they are a little hesitant.

She bit her lip and frowned slightly. I don't know if I would say it would be too obvious or cause trouble. What would she say? However, Lu Sicheng stood up at this time. He took two peripheral packages from the competition table. Step to the interview seat

Some fans started to commotion.

The nursery rhyme is awesome.

"What are you doing?" She whispered to the man behind the door.

"The microphone is for me."

Lu Sicheng said that he took the microphone away from the nursery rhyme and glanced at the reporter below. It was just a glance, but many people stopped the pen and looked up at him.

"Today, sn is only answering questions from your questions. I sincerely hope that all of you here will report truthfully. Don't wait for her to get out of this door. I will turn around and find that my meaning is completely distorted. I know that the media sometimes needs to use the eyeball to play some means of taking it out of context. But because this matter is related to the reputation of a player, how to write, write to it, look cautious."

Lu Sicheng's voice is quiet.

His dark brown eyes settled, and the expression on his face clearly showed that he was not joking.

On the way to the parking lot, the nursery rhymes are silent all the way.

Climb the car and find a corner to shrink up, until the seat outside is filled with a tall guy, she rubs her head and looks up at a pair of dark brown cockroaches

Lu Sicheng: "Is there something I want to tell me?"

The nursery rhyme shook his head.

Lu Sicheng did not go away.

The nursery rhyme nodded again.

"I want to know if I am doing something wrong again." Tong

Yu said, “If you are ambiguous, let the reporter brain fill, with a wave of Xu Tailun’s rhythm, I can silence, say nothing.”

“Lu Sicheng paused. “Why would you think so?””

“I remember telling you that in this circle, sometimes you will be involuntarily, you have to learn to give in, but no one will let you smooth your own edges and corners.”

“?”

“You are a proud IQ, should you say straightforward?”

“Yes.”

“It’s not you who are licking powder. Are you confessing a fart wrong here?” Lu Sicheng looked awkwardly at the corner of his lips. “Isn’t it a good thing? If you haven’t done anything wrong, no one can bring rhythm.”

“Oh.”

“I don’t know what you are worried about.”

“This is not just being madly retaliated!”

“What’s the use? Isn’t it being beaten to lose the game? As for you, occasionally lying and winning once when the holiday is not good?”

“You won’t say that when you get off the road.”

“Not necessarily.”

“what?”

“I might as well expect you to rr me the day when the middle-aged player won the game?”

”””

The nursery rhyme took five seconds to react to what Lu Sicheng was saying. In the sixth second, she threw out a “you say swearing” face flushed, and then when the man stood up and turned back to sit in the back row, she opened the phone and sent it. Weibo

Salted fish girl sn big: Beware of rhetoric, the initiative to celebrate the year are all weasels.

After one second, it was replied in seconds.

Tens of years in my heart: Lu Sicheng is someone to marry you.
