

Chapter 9:

Here.

Outside the venue.

After the nurse hangs up the phone, he turns and walks to the venue, just to hear the two explanations sitting at the top of the scene discussing the situation of today's game -

Commentary a:

Commentary b:

The nursery rhyme looked down at the time and found that three hours had passed since the first game, and not to mention the mental state of other players, at least this drag on the situation of zgdx in the single * is very unfavorable - -

Because according to the nursery rhyme, the club manager Rui Ge learned that Ming Shen was so rushed to retire because the spring game was over half of the time, his wrist injury suddenly deteriorated - it was almost an unexpected event, one morning Wake up, Ming Shen can no longer accept high-intensity training, as long as the game is frequently concentrated in high intensity, it is very likely that even the water cup will be unstable...

Fortunately, the regular season is a three-set two-win system, so the impact is not obvious, the zgdx team successfully went to the quarter-finals with the group's first points. Although the playoffs are a five-set three-win system, However, because they are too strong, they also quickly defeated their opponents by 3:0 in the quarter-finals. The entire game was only used for less than an hour.

But the ck team is a hard bone.

Now three hours have passed, and I don't know if the hand injury of Ming Shen can't hold on.

The nursery rhymes are sitting back to the position with some anxiety. At this time, the fourth game is about to begin. All the players have come out of the lounge and sit back in their position. The first concern of the nursery rhyme is Mingshen, and they immediately discover The latter seemed to be a bit tired at the moment, and he also wore a wristband on his wrist. He took the cup and took it with his left hand.

The nursery rhyme stunned, and suddenly had a bad feeling...

Turning to look at the ck team, Jianyang sat down in his position and said nothing, just eyes staring at the computer screen in front of him - this kind of nursery rhyme was seen two years ago, then At that time, Jianyang just played a professional job. Although he sat in the starting position, his play was still relatively unstable. Once he lost the game, the online questioning was overwhelming. When he came back to the base and the nursery rhymes to open the video, it was also like this...

At that time, the nursery rhyme told him to go to sleep. When I woke up the next day, I found that he still kept her look like before going to bed. He was just playing the game. The nursery rhyme checked his record. One night, the record was green, he didn't lose, and he was all Carrying teammates, directly put the hanbok number from the diamond to a point of victory over ten points, and more than a hundred points.

Nursery rhymes: "....."

So right now, this person is meant to be a state explosion?

The nursery rhyme thought about it, and then showed a crashing expression, biting his fist in one bite-

It's hard to say that she just said on the phone that he played ugly and insulted the gods, so he activated his inner fighting mode.

.....it's not good?

Ah, ah, ah, Laozi just wanted to talk! Honestly say, "Thank you for the spring championship, then please, please." How good? !

In the messy gaze in the virginity, the fourth game began. As she expected, the fourth game was retrieved because of Jianyang, so the ck team and the zgdx team played very tightly. In the first thirty-five minutes, you chased me, and could not open the economic gap... until the first Thirty-eight minutes, relying on the good luck of the order and the middle of the adc butterfly, Jianyang quickly pushed away the ancient dragon with his own assistant and Zhongdan. After getting the buff, he pushed forward crazy, and the zgdx team got into a disadvantage.

At this time, the zgdx team's Zhongdan Mingshen's face has already shown a strenuous appearance, and even the operation in the game has become less sensitive - soberly aware that there are times when the gods bow their heads to see their wrists after a wave of operation. It is a subconscious movement, but it is enough to show that he may not really support it. Up...

The nursery rhymes are sitting close together, so they can be

The nursery rhyme looked at the heart below, and the Alu girl sitting next to her simply burst into tears with her aid card. She didn't talk, she was secretly crying... The nursery rhyme had to take out the second pack of paper towels in her bag. She then took out her mobile phone and sent a message to the team manager:

After a while, the phone rings -

Tong Yu is relieved - because the domestic league has rules for submitting the list of starting members and substitute members before the season, in the case of a formal single-substitute substitute, even if the nursery rhyme has signed a contract with the zgdx team, she can't Suddenly jumped to the table to represent the zgdx team... so the game is still the official backup of the zgdx team.

Although she now can't wait to jump straight up and use the * to squeeze the gods and play the rest of the game for him.

In the end, the fourth game was finally won by the ck team in the 50th minute.

This game is undoubtedly a torment to the players and the audience. The nursery rhymes clearly saw that the hair of the gods was soaked at the moment the headphones were removed, and the team's uniforms were sweaty on the backs. When he stood up, he held his right wrist with his left hand, and the team doctor behind him stepped straight onto the game table and came to him.

At this time, the following audience is stupid and knows what happened -

When Ming Shen turned and left, the audience in the audience stood up spontaneously, shouting loudly and neatly, and bidding farewell to the player in such a warm atmosphere...

The nursery rhyme saw that Ming Shen had taken a few steps. When he was about to step down, he suddenly turned around and waved his hand with the left hand and the audience. After that, he was deeply embarrassed and said goodbye.

The fifth game on the zgdx team's bench, this substitute was originally pulled from the youth training team, usually did not play the game at all, it is the decisive game of the spring finals, there is always some temptation -

This gives the opposite side a chance to play.

When the fifth game started ten minutes, Jane's * seemed to live in the middle of the road. He grabbed the middle road four times in ten minutes, three of which were successful.

Soon the data of the zgdx team replaced the singles became 0 kills. 3 death 0 assists -

In the case that the zgdx team is still in a small advantage, the middle road is called a mile, and it is directly cleared.

The game went to the first 13 minutes, the first small dragon pit, looking at the well-developed Zhongdan and the wild, this time the team battle is not a good choice for the zgdx team, but the substitute single flash in the body ——

Teammates can only help but keep up.

In the end, although the big mouth of the Lu Shoucheng operation, one second, five sprays, crazy output, forced to die three opposite, but the zgdx team finally ushered in a wave of destruction...

The ck team successfully won the first fire dragon. This attribute dragon is to increase the team's attack power gain buff. For the advantage party, it is like God help, so this time don't say Lu Sicheng, even if the gods can't save zgdx... finally.

In the absence of a fixed main force, the zgdx team lost the last defeat and lost the game in thirty-three minutes, thus losing the 2016 Spring Finals trophy!

When the music at the end of the game sounded, the nursery rhyme fell backwards and softened in the seat. He only felt that watching the game was more tired than letting her go up and playing. The players watching the ck team jumped up and cheered, and she blinked and looked. To the zgdx team, the eyes are unconsciously falling on the man sitting on the far side -

Lu Sicheng performed very calmly.

He didn't seem to lose an important game at all. He just sat in the position and clicked the mouse to look at the last data distribution, then stood up and ck team members who came over and shook hands with them. Shake hands one by one and nod your head.

Next, the loser cleans up the mouse and keyboard to leave; The winner came to the middle of the game table with the audience and won the trophy...

Jane took the fourth and fifth mvp by his own grasping and rhythm. When his teammates threw up his head and hugged him and praised him for playing well, he smiled. Accepting the praise, then suddenly seems to think of what it looks like to go down the audience -

Unfortunately, at this time, in the front row of the zgdx team's fan seat area, the familiar figure that he wanted to find could no longer be found...

On the way to the gymnasium, the nursery rhyme was in a certain embarrassing mode. For her own inexplicable behavior that inspired the enemy to open the killing mode, she felt that she had no face to face Jiangdong's father and lived like a small traitor.

When I walked downstairs to the hotel, I received a text message from team manager Rui Ge. Rui Ge told her to let her stay in the hotel for two days and then go to the base next Monday, because now just after the spring game, the team is just free to have time for her. Pack up a single room with an ensuite bathroom -

Tong Tong had no objection to this. After responding to an "ok", he turned to the supermarket to buy the daily necessities that he needed to use when he stayed at the hotel for two days. It's been an hour since I bought something and swayed back to the hotel.

The nursery rhymes are holding a bunch of things that are almost buried in the elevator, and they are desperately trying to reach out and close the door.

At this time, from the elevator outside, hurriedly approached a slender figure, the man was wearing a black jacket, the zipper was half pulled, and the open inside was red and black. The nursery rhyme saw the operator logo of China Telecom from the gap of the supermarket shopping bag... ..

Ok?

Who?

The nursery rhymes hold the shopping bag and struggle a little sideways. When they look up, they see the perfect squat of the other side, and from her point of view, it is as thick and astonishing as the fine eyelashes... The nose is tall, single eyelid, wear Headphones, very handsome but because of the thin lips, it looks a bit mean -

It is Lu Sicheng.

... Lu Sicheng? !

The nursery rhymes hold the shopping bag and the hand is tight. The mind suddenly bursts and smashes the colorful curtains and flies over: Lu Sicheng Lu Sicheng, I am Lu Sicheng, ah, ah, ah, live Lu Sicheng, ah, ah, Lu Sicheng, with me, an elevator and my breathing The air in an elevator!

At this moment, in the quiet elevator, I didn't notice how rich the expression on the face behind the shopping bag. The man stood behind the nursery rhyme with a cold face, and then she reached down and handed it down before she could not kneel down. The closing button, the elevator door slowly closed, he then slammed the number of "21" floors -

This button position is at the neck of the nursery rhyme.

After he finished pressing, he stepped back and leaned down on the wall of the elevator to look at the phone.

Nursery rhymes: "..."

Nursery rhymes live on the 46th floor.

After the person behind her licked the number of floors, she realized that it wasn't mad at the moment, she should also choose her own floor - but when she wanted to do this, the real problem came: "46" This number is at the height of her eyebrows. When she tries to reach out the index finger and wants to go to the floor button, the shopping bag in her arms becomes a serious obstacle.

The nursery rhymes changed a few postures, and finally the index finger licked his fingertips and her fingers were always spinning around the number "36" -

Nursery rhymes: "..."

Looking at the solitary number "21", the nursery rhyme can only feel a burst of honey in the elevator.

The person behind him is still playing with his mobile phone. When the nursery rhyme wants to compromise the shopping bag and then go to the floor button, the man standing behind her suddenly asks: “Do you live in a few floors?”

This voice is more majestic than the instructor of the high school military training, so the nursery rhyme reflexively stands down and stretches his neck and replies: “... forty-six.” The man heard the words and put the phone straight up, stretched out his long arm, slender and neat fingers and easily slammed the “46” button... When his hand moved away from the nursery rhyme, she smelled a touch of hand soap and tobacco. the taste of.

Nursery rhymes: “...thank you.”

The person behind her did not answer.

In the elevator is another honey sauce.

The elevator slowly rises.

At the same time, Tong Tong always felt that the person standing behind her seemed to have misunderstood something. The more she thought about it, the more she didn't feel right. Finally, when the elevator rose to the 19th floor, she suddenly said something from her mouth: “I can get it. ”

Lu Sicheng was stunned by the hand of the mobile phone.

Nursery rhymes: “This button only comes to my eyebrows, you see, I really can get it.”

She tried to stretch the index finger that could only be rotated around “36” -

Lu Sicheng: “...”

Lu Sicheng: “Oh.”

Nursery rhymes: “.....”

The elevator slammed into the ground, the door opened, and the man standing behind the virgin went out.

The elevator door is closed.
