

Chapter 91:

The next day, the nursery rhymes got up and did something earth-shattering – she started the live broadcast. ;

“Hello everyone, here is the single player smiling of the China Telecom team. Welcome to this year’s Aijia’s girlfriend who is going into science. It’s a bit of a thing in this post. It’s a little bit burned to my legs, bringing you First-hand gossip message ahead.”

In the base, the nursery rhymes held the mobile phone with a selfie stick, and looked at his big face. The heart was lying in the heart and was scared by the dark circles that seemed to be excessively indulgent. Then he said with no expression: “This time I really got rid of it. Chen Jinyang, you owe me a Maserati.”

Nursery rhymes: “...”

Holding a selfie stick, the nursery rhymes swayed in the base, starting with the fat man who was slumbering in the corner.

“This team assisted chubby, just got up, is worrying about why the first aid in the league is falling into the hanbok.”

The nursery rhyme pointed the screen of the mobile phone to Xiaopeng, so that everyone could see his face. Xiaopeng looked up and waved his hand... The nursery rhyme took the camera and went to the other side of the seat.

Nursery rhyme: “This is the old cat of the team’s single player. This is his old man. These two people are of course in double row. For details, please pay attention to the old cat player in a live fish room.”

Old cat: “Old k, you will lose your baby if you don’t come on the road again.”

Old k: “Come here, oh, it won’t work with a f4, parasite.”

The nursery rhyme retracted the selfie stick and came to the sofa, aiming at a bunch of messy creatures on the sofa: “The team replaced the singles and dropped my number from the king to the master five times, but on the court and in the training. The performance is not so fishing, China Telecom men’s green tea 婊, Lu Yue - and two two stinky cats who don’t want to face each other in public.”

Lu Yuetou did not raise and continued to bow down to play the game console.

The big cake looked up.

Shallots licked his face and it squinted lazily.

The shallots climbed up and swayed, and the whole cat climbed onto the back of the pie, staggering and stepping on it, then bowed his head and began to bite the ears of the pie.

The barrage was blown up -

The nursery rhyme looked at the one who strongly suggested that she went to smash someone's barrage and laughed. She just looked up and saw someone who got up late last night and got up from the stairs. Just after bathing wet hair and lack of sleep, he calmly floated from the nursery rhyme and extended his hand to pat her head. The nursery rhyme whispered "I am on the live broadcast", Lu Sicheng "oh", no response, straight Go to the kitchen and pour yourself coffee.

The nursery rhymes followed his buttocks and then pointed at himself with his mobile phone screen. He solemnly said: "The next thing you will see is my team captain."

Then turn the phone screen to the person who leans on the kitchen counter to drink coffee—the latter holds the coffee cup with one hand and the other with a large hand to cover the phone screen and the camera.

The screen turned black, and the masses in the live broadcast could only hear the man's low and full of helpless voices:

"What is going on?"

Then the barrage was blown up again -

Tong Yu smiled and took Lu Sicheng's hand, took the phone back, and watched his big face reappear on the screen. The various pinks on the barrage immediately became -

The niece smiled into a crescent moon hook, let these people jump down and squatted, ignored them, turned and walked out of the China Telecom base, and then knocked the door of a group of vegetables next door to the courtyard of the team.

The door opened and the door opened was Aijia. He was also nervous when he saw the nursery rhyme. The nursery glanced at him and asked, "What about people?"

"Inside," Ai Jia looked at him with uneasiness. "The breakfast she brought today didn't dare to eat, for fear that it would give me a drug."

Nursery rhymes: "...friend, I am broadcasting live."

Ai Jia: "..."

Ai Jia jumped like a spring. At this time, the night fisherman who was in the storm last night was sitting in a chair in the yard of the team, playing with a mobile phone... Hearing the nursery rhyme coming in, she licked her eyes. I haven't had time to say anything. At this time I heard the nursery rhyme saying: "You don't move, the program group is preparing to start the first inquiry action - Ms. Chen Jinyang, please put your legs."

Iyang listened, changed to a sitting position, and the * moved to the edge of the chair, and the legs overlapped and tilted slightly.

Nursery rhymes took her mobile phone from her hand, opened the mobile phone camera, and said to her on the live mobile phone screen: "See clearly, thank you great Jobs, Apple comes with a mobile phone camera, absolutely original - now I want I started taking pictures."

As the nursery rhyme said, she took a selfie stick to Ai Jia's hand and let Ai Jia prepare her direction to shoot her. Then she went to Yangyang not far away, and squatted down, the phone was aimed at the person sitting in the chair, the mobile phone. The buttocks are slightly tilted and tilted.

The nursery rhymes took the mobile phone and yelled at the live room. "Have you seen it? Some people have pulled and pulled the long legs that are too exaggerated. People are so long, thank you, mad at you? Good It's everyone's responsibility to use photography – we're a scientific research group, to further strengthen persuasiveness..."

In the pile of "666666" of the barrage, the nursery rhyme put a mobile phone in the hands of Jinyang, and sat on the chair in his own running, and then the same camera posture in the same position, so that this sun came exactly the same. Zhang. The nursery rhymes grabbed the phone and returned to the live room: "Is it, the same camera technique, even people like me _"

"..... You have to talk!" The nursery rhyme looked at his photo. "The baby is a long leg of one meter and five years, and does not accept rebuttal!"

Tong Tong raised his mobile phone and turned to Jinyang. He said with no expression: "The next topic, what about your car?"

This Yang refers to a group of vegetables than the team's parking garage, the nursery rhymes followed her, the two stopped next to Lu Sicheng's Saobao Red Maserati, the car is a foreign license, Chen Jinyang put the car key on the front of the car One shot!

Tong Tong held a selfie stick to make it clear to everyone, then ran back to his own team base, went to a Sasaki blue Maserati, and then took the car key from his pocket and took a shot on the car cover!

Nursery rhymes: "Do you see it clearly? A hairy!"

The nursery rhymes took the car keys and returned to the base. At this time, everyone was sitting in their own position and playing games. Only two cats were lying on the sofa, and one person was occupying the sun.

The nursery rhyme went to Lu Sicheng, and then the car key was re-attached to the lucky cat's ear. Then the camera was turned to Lu Sicheng: "The captain, on behalf of the masses of the people, sent a question: How much is the car outside?"

"The scooter, a hundred thousand." Lu Sicheng lowered his head and seriously replenished his troops. "What are you doing?"

"What about the average annual salary of lpl?"

"How much is your problem?"

"..."

"Hundreds of thousands, more than seventy or eighty, less twenty or thirty."

"Okay, then the question is coming. In the case of this salary, how much does a man like a girl, will spend a million to buy a luxury car for her?"

"..."

Lu Sicheng's action of filling the knife paused for a while. He looked up, crossed the phone, looked at the face hidden behind the phone, and thought about it with no expression:

"What do you say?"

Tong Tong thought that this ghost can answer, can you cooperate with the point, let me say what?

It was a slap in the face, but at this time I accidentally remembered a conversation between her and her captain about twelve hours ago. The conversation was slightly refined and the main content was probably longer.

Nursery rhymes: “.....”

Nursery rhymes: “Cough.”

Fortunately, the front camera of the mobile phone has a low pixel, and there are many people in the live broadcast room, so the onlookers in front of the live broadcast room can't see the cheeks that she was slightly dyed in a light pink.

Looking down at the eyes of the Chinese telecom team captain who continued to play games with a look of indifference, and looked at the various live broadcasts, “Do you always have a faceless expression on your team captain?” “More words can die” “The captain who just woke up in the morning was exceptionally handsome.” “My roommate wants to listen to Cheng Ge before he dies.” “Your camera is posing again. This angle is more handsome than the usual honest brother. The nose is so high.” “Like the barrage, the nursery rhymes paused, then raised his hand and left the ear to the ear.”

Hanging down and watching all the live rooms are all brushed by Lu Sicheng.

- But this is mine, not for you.

Nursery rhyme.

So.

“This is the end of the recent scientific live broadcast program. Thank you for watching. I will meet again in the next issue.”

Squatting.

Due to the psychological fluctuations of the homeowner's heart, the live broadcast room was closed.

The author has something to say: This is a short break today, I didn't expect.....

Ah, if there are only a few hundred thousand words in the remaining days of the month, do not doubt that it must be my January holiday, and then send a hundred red packets.
