

Chapter 96: one

The practice after the game is the group visit time after the game. This article is by . . . Starting

During the spring competition, the “group interview” was a team that won the competition on the sofa in the lounge; the summer competition was different, and the group visits were moved to a more formal occasion, and the players lined up in a row. Interviews are held behind a slightly taller table, and sometimes the media will conduct simultaneous visits to two teams in today’s competition - usually two teams in a game that are opposite each other. . .

Occasionally an exception occurs.

Like today.

The two teams of yqcb and zgdx started to line up behind the table. Lu Sicheng was sitting on the left side of the pope, and on the right was sitting on the nursery rhyme. He was in the middle.

Reporter:

Lu Sicheng: “Thank you for being poisoned.”

Reporter:

Yqcb assistant and captain Liang Sheng scratched his head: “In fact, I want to go, the coach does not let, we must let me see how to play in the lounge. Because it is a new attempt, everyone is not very good. skilled.”

Reporter:

Lu Sicheng paused and leaned back to lean against the pope on his left hand side. The latter turned his eyes and Lu Sicheng smiled briefly. He also said: “We said in the middle, I also want to Playing four guarantees, I also want to try it out. . . I thought it would be OK, just teach “other people’s how to play four guarantees, so I played two four guarantees.”

Everyone laughed.

The pope “snapped” and probably guessed what Lu Sicheng had said about the ghosts. He grabbed the translator behind him and asked for translation. The younger brother turned helplessly to the translation. The pope complained quickly and complained in Korean. what.

.....The interview is still going on. Some reporters have asked questions about the competition continuously. The questions asked are more fragmentary. The problem is mainly that Xiaopeng and Lu Sicheng are answering. The nursery rhymes are sitting in the chair and Yu Guang is still silent at the other end of the long table. Ai Jia of the language, the gods and the emperor to swim.

Until the reporter named Aijia -

Ai Jia's eyes are slightly refreshed.

The nursery rhyme also sat up straight.

Ai Jia slightly frowned, took the microphone from the teammates next to him and wanted to answer, but at this time, the microphone in his hand was taken away by their captain, and he stunned and heard the captain said: "The third is to let the killing players be the result of the discussion between the coaching staff and the team members. I know that some people now want to take the rhythm on the Internet and say that Aijia is not willing to play big cards. Actually it is not, please please stop... ..At that time, it was only because Ai Jia's mood was not very good. We felt that it might be more appropriate for the killing player to be suitable, so I changed people."

Reporter:

Everyone: "..."

The nursery rhyme moved some uncomfortably in the chair and moved her ass... This time, don't say it was Ai Jia, even she was very impulsive to lift the table in front of her and then buckle the table to the reporter's head. ——

Why are you feeling bad, what do you say?

You played on the stage and you didn't feel so beautiful because of losing the game. You turned your head and found that your girlfriend was in the audience because you didn't perform well, but you're not going to be a fan of the banner of love. You can be happy and sing a "good day"? !

The child looked at the microphone in the reporter's hand and found that the logo on his microphone came from a notorious e-sports media. This media is good at taking it out of context, bringing the rhythm of the player to fly, for many homes. The club and the players have been reprimanded, but each time they have apologized and then they have not changed their minds.

The famous deed is that a certain player said, "I think that the Korean aid first came to lpl for the time to bring the most things to the competition area." The hard-working students were written by them as “a player who bluntly said that Korean aid is only useful in the early days.”

At this time, Ai Jia sneered at the corner of his lips, apparently showing his disdain for answering this question.

The atmosphere in the interview room became a bit subtle.

The reporter couldn't get the answer, and he sat down with a look, but his question seemed to take the entire interview from the discussion of the game to another direction, and soon some reporters stood up and asked questions -

Reporter:

The yqcb people simply put down the microphone.

When the nursery rhyme sees it, the heart is both irritated and a little bit like laughing.

Xiaopang: “Let's go with the flow, I didn't say anything special about this. - In fact, we play games at the base every day, and there are very few people who can contact, so everyone is basically a single dog.”

The old cat grabbed the chubby microphone and added: “But this does not mean that we are in the monk temple - can not find, not want to find, can not find - understand this is very important.”

Reporter:

Lu Sicheng thought for a moment, picking up the microphone in front of himself in his left hand - feeling the “everyone pays attention to what I want to do” from the man's body, and the nursery glances at him with a uneasiness, under the table.

Pulled his hand to the right.

However, Lu Sicheng was unmoved.

And show a wave of their own amazing memory and thin face.

Lu Sicheng: “I will repeat what you just said. You look reasonable and unreasonable: but many parents still hope that the children can study hard and strive for the college entrance examination performance to get better at Peking University Tsinghua. Don't think too much about this. ——It's as if they always want you to take back English words during school breaks. Don't play other strange games during breaks. Posts like Posts often have posts... Parents also hope that you can concentrate on learning and achieve good results.”

Reporter:

Xiaopeng has shaken his chin and started laughing and applauding.

Ai Jia also followed the expressionless applause.

Lu Sicheng: "In general, many fan friends who make such suggestions are such a big teenager - or even a person who works as an adult. - When I ask a professional player who is also a normal human being, I will not forget it. They ridiculed the players, they didn't train well, they only talked about love, and they played games. When they were in class, they took the phone and touched the fish during work. In the end, I hope everyone can change their minds: everyone is very young, I believe everyone has Take a break in class, sleep, and peek at the class flowers - hehe."

Lu Sicheng paused.

Lu Sicheng: "Although I have not seen it."

The foot that stepped on his right foot was removed.

Lu Sicheng: "—A similar experience."

Lu Sicheng: "So it is not to say that there is any difference in playing a profession. Especially the sacred and noble must be perfect like a saint... Take the player to fight the knife today, and fight for snakes tomorrow. It is very boring to talk about love the day after tomorrow. We spend most of our time playing League of Legends, maybe more time in the League of Legends than some people learn - how many people have to face the gap between the other day and the girlfriend because they have to face up in the future, but more Many professional players are beaten when they play professionally, why?"

Ai Jia picked up the microphone: "Why?"

Xiaopang: "I suggest you go to interview the ck team to play wild players Yang, he will tell you why."

Nursery rhymes: "Cough."

The reporter sat down in a convincing manner.

Another reporter stood up with dismay:

Xiaorui, who has been silent on the side, stood up and said with a face: What do you say is doing something, I want to call the security guard.

However, Lu Sicheng waved his hand and said that it didn't matter, and naturally took the words: "Because I am a professional in the professional circle, I have a long working time and I see a lot of things."

Reporter:

Lu Sicheng: “If you can’t stop, there is nothing wrong with it. The legends of both men and women who have been admitted to Tsinghua University are not unheard of.”

Reporter:

Lu Sicheng took a microphone and was next to him. The nursery rhyme raised his hand and left his ear to the ear.

Lu Sicheng said faintly: “I have someone I like now.”

When the words came out, the audience was sensational.

The reporter bowed his head and tried to read the book, and his teammates turned their heads and looked at their captain.

After the nursery rhyme hangs down, the hand plunges under the tablecloth, licking his own uniform and trousers. The palms are all sweaty - the face is pretending to be as surprised as everyone, and by the way, he is desperately trying to numb himself: he said nothing. ! You haven’t heard anything! Don’t blush! Can’t blush! Breathing can’t be aggravated! Calm! Be calm!

Reporter:

The reporter’s words just fell.

The nursery rhyme suddenly felt that a big hand suddenly plunged under the tablecloth, silently covering her hand, and forcibly pinching her fingertips into her fingers.

I think the man leans back on the seat back very relaxed compared to her stiff back.

“I am very grateful to the fans for their support and love. The game will be played well and will try to win. If you can, please come to the site to support. There is...”

The calm, low voice of the man wants to ring in the ear of the ear -

“If you really like a player, you are closer to his game and farther away from his life.”

The author has something to say: 呃呃 Originally said that today’s leave is for fear that some people can’t get a leave of absence, or drag on the old, weak and sick body to make it more...
