You're Out Daddy

Chapter 191

Chapter 191 The Most Worrying Scene
Natasha strengthened her grip right after Erin spoke, causing the latter to howl in pain.

“Save me, Desmond! Save me!” Erin was in so much pain that she cried out loud. Her elegant image had completely disappeared.

When Desmond saw that, he glared at Natasha furiously and yelled, “Let go right now! Are you going to create a ruckus right in front of Mr. Hamilton?”

As if she could not hear him, Natasha stared at Erin. There was a look of hostility in her eyes.

“Apologize!” she snarled at Erin, emphasizing every single syllable.

When Desmond saw that Natasha had no intention of letting Erin go, he looked at Kenneth. “Mr. Hamilton, this...”

“Calm down, Mr. Lynch. Let’s wait till we figure out what happened,” replied Kenneth calmly.

“What’s the point of figuring that out?” Desmond was panicking. With so many people watching them, he would be too embarrassed to show himself in public anymore.

At that moment, Kenneth looked at Erin. “Ma’am, why don’t you explain what happened?”

Seeing how he was going to stand up for her, Erin immediately wailed, “This woman seduced my son! I merely chided her for a while, but she attacked me!” Her voice trembled.

After she spoke, everyone started murmuring among themselves.

“So that’s what happened.”

“She’s being too much!”

“It’s such a pity that a beautiful woman like her acts like that.”

Kenneth narrowed his eyes when he heard what everyone was saying.

“Is your son Zachary Lynch?” he asked.

Erin nodded. “Yes! Since he’s almost getting married, I advised her to stay away from my son. After all, the Lynch family will not accept a woman with children. To our surprise, not only did she refuse to listen to us, but she also started being violent with me,” complained Erin.

“Children?”

“She already has children?”

“I can’t tell at all!”

“She looks like she’s only in her twenties, yet she already has children. What a pity! She could’ve been anything else but a mistress.”

Whispers sounded from the crowd.

When Erin and Desmond heard that, they thought that the situation was in their favor. The latter exclaimed loudly, “I see!” Then, he glanced at Natasha and continued, “You wish to marry into the Lynch family? Dream on! Let me warn you this. Don’t even think about it! The Lynch family will never accept an uncivilized woman like you!”

Natasha continued treating his words as nonsense. She stared at Erin firmly, her grip still tight.

Desmond’s expression turned anxious. “Mr. Hamilton, are you going to allow this woman to make a scene here?”

Pursing his lips, Kenneth remained silent.

“You crazy b*tch! Let me tell you. Even if my son remains single for the rest of his life, he still wouldn’t want you! Just give up!” screamed Erin at Natasha.

She insisted that Natasha was clinging to Zachary.

In response, Natasha smirked coldly as if she did not care about their words. All she wanted was to see if Erin would give in.

Crack!

Erin’s bones crackled. The next moment, she widened her eyes and screamed her lungs out in agony.

Everyone was stunned.

She's being too harsh!

When Desmond saw that, he could not hold himself back anymore. He dashed toward Natasha and yelled, "You crazy b*tch!"

At that moment, Kenneth grabbed his hand.

"Mr. Hamilton!" Desmond looked at him.

With an icy look in his eyes, Kenneth demanded coldly, "Did you just call my woman a crazy b*tch?"

Desmond was dumbfounded when he heard that.

Blinking consecutively, he asked in an uncertain tone, "What... What did you say?"

Kenneth stared at him with an unfathomable look that could make one's hair stand on its ends.

Just then, a stern voice cut across the crowd.

"What happened?"

Everyone moved aside upon hearing the voice. Liam walked in, and there were three kids following him.

"Old Mr. Hamilton!"

"Old Mr. Hamilton!"

When people saw Liam, they lowered their heads humbly and greeted him.

He merely nodded in response.

Everyone was intrigued when they saw the three kids.

One of them looked just like Kenneth. It was as if he was an exact replica of the latter.

Could they be the Hamilton family's children? Since when did they come into existence? I've never heard about it!

Denise was wearing a tulle gown. When she saw what was going on in the crowd, she frowned and rushed forward. "What happened, Nat?"

Natasha's expression relaxed when she saw Denise coming over.

She shot a glance at Erin before releasing her grip, sending the latter slumping to the ground.

Natasha turned around, her gaze turning gentle when she looked at Denise.
"Everything's fine. I'm just teaching someone a lesson."

"Did she bully you?" asked Denise with a frown.

The crowd was bewildered to hear her question. The kid is getting it wrong. That woman doesn't look like she's being bullied at all!

However, Denise kept frowning, looking furious and worried.

Anthony and Benjamin walked over as well.

"What happened, Mommy?" asked Anthony calmly. He glanced at the couple as a hostile glint flashed across his eyes.

Mommy?

Gasps erupted from the crowd. They exchanged glances with each other.

Looks like she really has children! But more surprisingly, the kid who called her Mommy looks identical to Kenneth! What's going on?

Others might still be clueless, but Erin's face fell.

She had seen those three kids at Infinitium. In fact, Liam personally claimed that they were from the Hamilton family. But why are they calling Natasha their mommy?

Suddenly, her eyes widened, and her face turned deathly pale.

Could it be... She couldn't even dare to imagine it.

No way! How can things be so coincidental? This is definitely impossible!

Desmond had no idea what was going on. For a moment, he was extremely confused and was unable to piece things together.

At that moment, Liam glanced at them. "What happened?"

Desmond quickly explained, "Old Mr. Hamilton, this crazy woman is seeking trouble! She hit my wife."

“Oh? Really? Why?”

“She seduced my son! My wife merely told her off, but she started attacking my wife.”

When Liam heard that, he glanced at Erin, who wished for nothing more than to disappear from the world completely.

The scene that she was most worried about ultimately happened.

Liam narrowed his eyes as his gaze fell upon Erin. “It’s you?”

Even though Erin’s hand hurt badly, she was more overwhelmed with fear. She lowered her head, not daring to meet Liam’s eyes.

Chapter 192 Incredible Son
When Desmond noticed that, he quickly asked, “Do you know my wife, Old Mr. Hamilton?”

Liam scoffed coldly. “Of course! Not only do I know her, but I’ve also seen her personality a long time ago.”

Desmond frowned in confusion.

“Mommy, when Great-grandpa brought us to eat at Infinitium, she was the one who bumped into me and scolded Ben and me!” Denise said as she held Natasha’s hand.

With just one sentence, she managed to explain how Liam got to know Erin.

“Yeah, I know. I’ve already taught her a lesson for you,” said Natasha.

Only then did Denise nod firmly.

Listening to their conversation, Desmond was completely lost.

At that moment, Liam looked at the others in the crowd. “Oh, right. I wanted to introduce the new members of the Hamilton family during the company’s annual banquet today. I didn’t expect you guys to meet them under such circumstances.”

As he spoke, he glanced at the three kids affectionately. Turning his gaze to the rest, he announced loudly, "No matter the setting, I still want to share this joy with everyone! Let me formally introduce these three kids. They are the children of the Hamilton family. Please look upon them kindly!"

Everyone was shocked when they heard what Liam said. Although some of them had already guessed it, they were still surprised at the truth.

"Congratulations, Old Mr. Hamilton!"

"This is great news, Old Mr. Hamilton!"

"How enviable is it for the Hamilton family to have three more kids!"

Congratulations sounded all over.

Meanwhile, Desmond was stunned.

What is going on? Did the kids call this crazy b*tch their mother? But they're from the Hamilton family. This means that Kenneth and this woman...

Upon that thought, Desmond turned pale as he realized he had just gotten himself into grave trouble.

The crowd finally understood what was going on. The relationships between each individual had become apparent.

When the couple accused Natasha of seducing their son, they were just spouting nonsense.

The Lynch family could not even be compared to the Hamilton family. Considering Kenneth's looks and power, even a blind person would know who to choose between the two.

Desmond and his wife had become a complete joke.

After receiving everyone's congratulations, Liam glanced at Desmond and Erin. "These three kids are the Hamilton family's precious gems. While I can let go of the conflict at Infinitium, what on earth happened today?"

"Old Mr. Hamilton... Nothing happened! It's just a misunderstanding!" Desmond quickly clarified.

"Misunderstanding? Didn't you say that Nat seduced your son?" asked Liam.

“No, no, no! It’s just a misunderstanding. It’s really a misunderstanding!” explained Desmond.

“Looks like Kenneth isn’t as exceptional as your son, huh? The woman whom we have begged to join the Hamilton family seduced your son? I really want to see how incredible of a man your son is,” drawled Liam.

When Desmond heard that, he almost fell to his knees. “It’s not like that. It’s genuinely a misunderstanding! S-She misunderstood!” He pointed at Erin.

Liam scoffed coldly. “Do you think that everything will be fine if you claim that it’s a misunderstanding? Do you think we will let you off so easily after you ruin Nat’s reputation?”

Desmond was on the verge of tears. “We were wrong, Old Mr. Hamilton. We were fools for being ignorant-”

“You shouldn’t be apologizing to me!”

Upon hearing that, Desmond immediately looked at Natasha. “Mrs. Hamilton, we were wrong! We were fools for not knowing who you are! Please forgive us.”

Natasha’s gaze swept across them calmly. “I’m not Mrs. Hamilton. I haven’t agreed to marry him yet.”

That was how independent and strong she was. She was so unbothered about a Hamilton, so the accusation that she seduced Zachary made no sense. It was not like the latter was so high and mighty that everyone wanted to have him.

Desmond froze, not knowing what to do.

Liam spoke at that moment. “Forget it. I’m feeling unwell. Kenneth, I’m leaving this to you.”

“Got it, Grandpa,” replied Kenneth.

With that, Liam turned around and left, bringing the three kids with him.

He was worried that the ensuing events would be too violent for them to witness.

When Desmond saw Liam walking away, he immediately approached Kenneth. “Mr. Hamilton, we were wrong. We were truly wrong!”

Kenneth looked down at him, a cold smirk playing on his lips discreetly. “Mr. Lynch, I respected you and gave your company a chance. I’ve been polite to you, but you ended up creating a ruckus here and insulting my woman. Tell me, why should I forgive you?”

Desmond stiffened at his words.

“You can’t just say that you’re sorry. You need to prove it with your actions, right?” A nonchalant glint appeared in Kenneth’s eyes.

Desmond stared at him. The collaboration was not even in the picture now. If he offended the Hamilton family now, he would never be able to survive in Glenport City once he left the banquet.

“What would you like me to do, Mr. Hamilton?” asked Desmond.

Kenneth continued smiling without saying much. “What do you think?”

He cast his gaze on Erin, who was slumped on the floor. With a look of disdain and iciness, he said, “Your wife bullied my kids and insulted my woman. I haven’t thought of what to do yet.”

“I... I understand!” With that, Desmond immediately strode toward Erin, who was still in a daze.

When she saw Desmond walking over, she looked up at him. “Desmond-”

Slap!

Desmond gave her a violent slap across her face.

Erin was paralyzed in shock. “Desmond, what-”

“Don’t call my name! You ruined everything with your utter foolishness!” spat Desmond as he glared at her.

To cut off all ties with her, he looked at Kenneth and declared, “To be honest, Mr. Hamilton, the two of us... We might seem like a couple, but we aren’t legally married! She’s not my wife!”

“Oh, really?” asked Kenneth with an intrigued tone.

“She’s just my past mistress. My wife passed away long ago, and I did not remarry after that. That’s why I brought her with me this time. I didn’t expect her to offend you, Mr. Hamilton! Don’t worry. As long your fury can be appeased, I’ll stop contacting her in the future!” promised Desmond.

Erin stared at Desmond in surprise and disbelief. “Desmond...”

Everyone immediately understood the situation after hearing his speech.

So she's just a mistress? Isn't she acting too arrogantly? Not only did she fail to keep a low profile, but she also offended someone she shouldn't have offended!

Now, both Erin and Desmond became the butt of the joke.

"Mr. Hamilton..." Desmond shot a timid glance at Kenneth.

However, the latter looked at Natasha with a look of affection. It was obvious that he doted on her. "What do you think, Nat?"
