

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1002

Some people also had doubts about this test. There had never been such a situation in all the tests over the years. Could there really be something fishy going on here?

They remembered what Yun Chujiu had said before. When they saw the four of them happily eating and drinking, cultivating, or playing cards like it was just a normal day. It was extremely baffling. Could it be that this little girl had a solution to their predicament in mind?

“Yun Chujiu, you didn’t finish your words that day. What did you see?” A few people approached Yun Chujiu and asked shamelessly.

Yun Chujiu glanced at them. “Some people said that I’m a waste, that I’m a country bumpkin or a Gouwei Bacao. Since I’m such a waste, I’d better not embarrass myself. You’d better ask them since they’re the smart ones!”

The few of them laughed dryly. “We didn’t say that. We believe what you said. Tell us what you think.”

Yun Chujiu saw that the few of them were quite sincere, so she no longer took offense. “Let me ask you, when will the Tianyuan Academy lessons start?”

“April 5th.”

“When will we participate in the third round of the test?”

“March 25th.”

Yun Chujiu stopped talking after asking these two questions. The few of them stared at each other for quite a while, then, she slapped her thigh. “F*ck! We’ve already spent nearly two months on the flying spirit tool. Isn't it already almost two months since school started? Why are we still participating in the bullsh*t test!?"

"That's right! We're still trying our best to pass the test. We've all been fooled! Even if we can pass the test, it's already too late!"

"But, why is Tianyuan Academy doing this? All of us are on this flying spirit tool, could it be that they are not going to recruit students this year? Or could it be that they are going to re-select those who have been eliminated?"

Their conversation immediately spread to the entire hall, and all the examinees were furious!

They had been fooled by that Teacher Ouyang! Could it be that Teacher Ouyang was not from Tianyuan Academy at all? Where did he want to take them?

Some people imagined many terrifying things, such as possession, or going to the mines to work as coolies. Some women were so scared that they started crying. If things went wrong, they might be sold to other people as concubines. What should they do?!

Yin Sulian shouted, "It's very easy to solve this problem. We'll capture that old man Ouyang and force him to tell the truth! Is there anyone who dares to go with me?"

Everyone's eyes were red with anger. When they heard Yin Sulian's words, they immediately responded and rushed toward the cabin door. However, when they rushed to the cockpit, they found that there was no one in there, Teacher Ouyang's whereabouts were unknown. Even the teacher who had been piloting the Flying Spirit Tool was nowhere to be seen.

Everyone wanted to stop the flying spirit tool, but they found that they could not operate the flying spirit tool at all. What made them even more terrified was that they could not see anything in front of them or in all directions.

“It’s over, we must have been lured into a trap! We’re dead meat!”

“The Flying Spirit Tool has already lost its navigation! If there’s a volcano or a cliff in front of us, we’ll be done for!”

“Let’s quickly ride our swords and leave this flying spirit tool! We might still survive if we try, but if we stay here, we’re just waiting to die!”

Someone immediately went to push the cabin door, but to their despair, the cabin door was sealed shut.

Everyone fell into a great panic....
