

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1005

Yun Chujiu had made a small fortune. When she saw that Yin Xuecheng and Yin Xuecheng had kneeled, her mood improved.

“Yun Chujiu, we have already forced them to apologize according to what you said. Quickly tell us, what is the situation now?” Everyone’s gaze was fixed on Yun Chujiu.

Yun Chujiu smiled slightly. “Actually, we haven’t left the Tianyuan Academy at all. We haven’t spent two months out there either. All of this is just an illusion. We have been tricked.”

Before the crowd could speak, Yin Sulian sneered. “Yun Chujiu, you were a fraud in the Azure Mystic Continent, right? An illusion? That’s hilarious! We’re not idiots. You think we can’t we tell the difference between reality and illusion?”

“That’s right! I just said that she was lying to you. You didn’t believe me, but now you believe me, right? She’s simply spouting nonsense! Everything felt so real, how could it be an illusion?!” added Yin Xuecheng. ‘You stupid girl, how dare you threaten me? I will not forgive you.’

Some people heard the Yin siblings’ words and felt a little suspicious. Yun Chujiu’s words were too unbelievable. An illusion?! How could this be an illusion?! Everything that happened here felt extremely real. Moreover, how could it be that so many people had fallen into the same illusion?!

Some people looked at Yun Chujiu with unkind eyes. Could it be that they had been played by Yun Chujiu? Not only did they not find a way out, but they also offended the Yin siblings. It was detestable!

Yun Chujiu glanced at those people. They were the fence-sitters. Although the onlookers were easy to fool, they changed their stances too easily. These sort of people who were only told what to think were unreliable.

“Haven’t you heard of a flower blooming with one thought and a flower falling with one thought? Everything in the world is like a flower blooming and falling. From the beginning to the end, the process is different, but the result is the same. If you nurture it, it will bloom and bear fruit. If you don’t, it will wither and wither.”

“Alright, what I said is too profound. You might not understand. In short, you have all fallen into an illusion. If you want to leave this place, there is only one way. That is to calm down and meditate. Follow the tranquility in your heart, and you will see what is really in front of you.” Yun Chujiu said mysteriously.

Everyone was stunned by her words. It seemed to make sense, but was it effective?

“F*ck! Anyway, there’s no other way now. This is our last resort!” Someone said and began to meditate.

When someone took the lead, more and more followed. No one wanted to be trapped here forever, so they began to meditate. Even Yin Sulian and Yin Xuecheng gritted their teeth and followed the crowd.

Feng Ming and the other two looked at Yun Chujiu. From their experience, Junior Sister Little Jiu was possibly just bluffing. What bullsh*t was that ‘A flower blooming with one thought’?. Junior Sister Little Jiu must have discovered something.

Yun Chujiu winked at the three of them, and they sat down to meditate.

Yun Chujiu stood up and her voice became ethereal: “Color is emptiness, emptiness is color... no eyes, ears, nose, tongue, body, mind, body, desires, color, sounds, fragrance, touch...”

Everyone who was meditating calmed down as well. Yun Chujiu pursed her lips. Illusion Formation? Tsk tsk, she was afraid of all kinds of formations, but she was not afraid of an illusion formation.

In her previous life, she had often been trained to resist hypnotism, and her spiritual sense was extremely strong. Illusion formations could not trap her at all. However, to not be too conspicuous, she pretended to accompany these people for a long time.. Although she was bored, it was still not too bad since she was to be able to obtain 200,000 high-grade Spirit Stones!
