

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1007

Everyone looked at the teacher fiercely. As expected, he was up to no good ever since he appeared!

However, no one had any objections. There had been such a precedent in the past. If the examinees who passed the first three rounds could not be selected, there would be an additional round.

Everyone left the square one after another. When Yun Chujiu was about to leave, she was stopped by the elderly teacher.

“Little girl, how did you find the core of the formation?”

Yun Chujiu originally thought that he wanted the top-grade Spirit Stones back, but when she heard him ask about something else, she felt relieved. She blinked her eyes, “I just felt that there was something strange there. I used my hand to randomly pull a few times, and then I touched the Spirit Stone. I am the most greedy person. When I saw the Spirit Stone, I thought that there was no reason for me not to take it, so I took it.”

The teacher never dreamed that it would be for that reason, but he was still a little skeptical. He sized up Yun Chujiu and saw that the little girl in front of him was calm and had no expressions of guilt.

The teacher could only wave his hand at Yun Chujiu, indicating that she could leave.

The teacher looked at Yun Chujiu skipping away and said, “Why do I always feel that this little girl is not as she seems?”

“Old Xiao, aren't you talking nonsense! If she was just a simple girl, could she have gotten first place in both tests? Moreover, we were slapped in the face by this little girl in the third round of the test!”

“I heard that this Yun Chujiu ascended from the Azure Mystic Continent. She is not even eighteen years old yet, but she cultivated her spiritual power to ascend in the Azure Mystic Continent, where the spiritual energy is poor. She is definitely not just a simple girl!”

“You guys still don’t know, right? She has the Heavenly Thunder Root Spirit! The Heavenly Thunder Root Spirit is not tolerated by Tian Dao, but she is still alive and kicking. There must be something unusual about this little girl.”

“It is also possible that because it was the Azure Mystic Continent’s, the Tian Dao did not delve too deeply into it. Now that she has arrived at the Tianyuan Continent, it might not be a good thing. Maybe when she breaks through, she will be killed by the Tian Dao!”

The teachers animatedly discussed among each other, the elderly teacher finally said, “This little girl is too sharp. If she can pass the fourth round of the test, I think it’s more appropriate to assign her to the Huang class. It’s just the right move to sharpen her spirit. This will help her resist Tian Dao’s wrath in the future.”

“Old Xiao, what you said makes sense, but why do I feel that you are using others to seek personal revenge? It can’t be that because she broke your illusion array, that’s why you suggested it! “A fat old man said with a smile.

“Old Man Jiang, do you think I’m a petty person like you? I’m cherishing talent! For a little girl at the first layer of the spirit sect to obtain such results, either her luck was heaven-defying, or her wit was extraordinary. No matter which one it was, this little girl’s future is limitless. How could I take revenge on her? Moreover, this year’s examinees’ aptitude is indeed not as good as the previous years. Dean Huangfu decided to add a Huang class this year,” the old man surnamed Xiao said unhappily.

“You old thing, I was just joking! Did you take it seriously? However, if that little girl was assigned to Huang class, she wouldn’t give up herself, right? After all, she obtained first place in two Tests, and she might feel complacent.”

“If she can’t even accept this little ordeal, then it would be hard for her to become a great person!” The old man surnamed Xiao said in a deep voice.

Yun Chujiu did not even know that she had been dragged to the worst class before she had even entered the school. At that moment, she basked in the praise and gratitude of those she had ‘helped escape’.

Yun Chujiu was surrounded by those examinees who thanked her. She had walked towards the Long Wind Inn when she was blocked by someone.
