

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1032

Yun Chujiu was very satisfied when she heard the miserable screams of the crowd. These people were quite talented. Even she almost believed their words!

The Huang class was so big that it quickly attracted the attention of many people. Everyone's hearts were ignited by the flames of gossip.

"What the hell?"

"What's going on?"

"This is a freshman, right? Huang Class? Why are all of them acting like beggars? What's going on?"

"Ah, so they were beaten up by a senior from the Tian Class? Ma Sheng? I've heard of Ma Sheng before. His aptitude isn't bad, but he's riding on the influence of his uncle, instructor Ma Minghua. He's pretty arrogant because of that. If he's the one who did this, then it makes sense!"

"I've heard that there are a few students in his class who aren't on good terms with him. They've all asked him to get someone to secretly teach them a lesson. If they can't beat him, they'll get the instructor to put pressure on them. He's extremely cunning!"

"I've heard that his uncle, instructor Ma, is very good at manipulating people. Although it's not as exaggerated as what the Huang class students say, he's the most arrogant amongst the instructors."

"This time, Ma Sheng is the villain who made the first complaint. I wonder if the disciplinary department will give his uncle face!"

"I guess they will handle this fairly. There are more than 200 people in the Huang Class! Each one of them has been beaten up so badly. Are we going to let uncle and nephew Ma Sheng distort the truth?"

Yun Chujiu overheard everyone's gossip and was delighted. It seemed that the Triangle-eyed uncle and nephew had offended many people. That way, their chances of success today would be greatly increased.

In the beginning, only about 200 people from the Huang class were crying and wailing as they walked towards the disciplinary department. However, for some unknown reason, more and more people followed tagged along. Some of the people who were usually bullied by Ma Sheng had also joined the Huang class, most of them were the onlookers who were watching the show. They continued to jeer, and half of Tianyuan Academy was alarmed by the noisy crowd.

The crowd arrived at the disciplinary department in an imposing manner. Ma Sheng was leading the second-year students from the Tian Class to wait there aggressively. When they saw Yun Chujiu and the others, they were instantly dumbfounded!

'F*ck!'

'What's going on with these people?! We didn't injure them, so why are they all in a worse state than us?!'

Before Ma Sheng and the others could react, the people who received Yun Chujiu's hint immediately cried out, "We beg the disciplinary department to decide for us!"

"Yeah! We were bullied by that Ma Sheng! We agreed to have a duel, but he said that we beat them up and beat us to the ground!"

"He also said that he has his uncle's support, and no one would care even if he beat us to death. He even said that he would get all of us expelled! He scared us to death!"

Ma Sheng was so angry that his triangular eyes were about to pop out. He pointed at Yun Chujiu and the others and shouted angrily, "You! You are slandering us! You were the one who attacked us first! My face was scratched by you, you stinky girl!"

Yun Chujiu looked like she was in shock. "Senior, you have to be responsible for your words! Didn't you cut your face with your sword? You said that it was just a superficial wound, but it was healed with some muscle regeneration pills. You used it to frame us!"

"Yes! We all saw it! You were the one who cut yourself, but now you want to frame our class monitor. You are too despicable!"

"Exactly! You said that you can get our class monitor expelled with that wound. You are too sinister!"

...

Ma Sheng and the second-year students from the Tian Class were dumbfounded!

Holy Sh*t!

Was that person from the Huang Class not a little too shameless?! He changed black to white and spouted nonsense!
