

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1039

Ma Sheng hugged Ma Minghua's thigh and cried out bitterly, "Uncle, I don't want to be expelled. Help me plead for mercy! Help me plead with Deputy Dean Yin. He will definitely let me stay!"

Ma Minghua was so angry that his face turned red. If it was not for this idiot, things would never have gotten to that point. However, the Ma family only had one son, and they could not just stand by and watch him get expelled. Therefore, Ma Minghua looked at Deputy Dean Yin with pleading eyes.

Deputy Dean Yin completely ignored Ma Minghua. His old face turned green and purple. He had never expected that Dean Huangfu would actually assert his authority in front of so many people. It felt like he was slapped in the face for incompetence. Dean Huangfu did not show any mercy at all.

Not only did he overturn his decision, but he was also transferred from the disciplinary department. There was no comparison between the miscellaneous affairs department and the disciplinary department. After an investigation, Ma Minghua and Instructor Qi would definitely be fired. He could not help them at all, he was already fortunate that he was not implicated as a co-conspirator.

Seeing that Ma Minghua had not finished speaking, Ma Sheng knelt in front of Deputy Dean Yin and said, "Deputy Dean Yin, please help me! I don't want to be expelled..."

Deputy Dean Yin had nowhere to vent his anger, so he kicked Ma Sheng and said, "Get lost!"

Deputy Dean Yin gave Ma Minghua and Instructor Qi a look of warning, then left angrily.

The students of the Huang Class immediately cheered. Cleaning the classroom for a month was nothing compared to receiving a demerit! After that incident, Yun Chujiu's prestige in the Huang Class grew even higher. Instructor Ji Sha was also able to stand up for them at the critical moment, so these students had a better impression of this sloppy instructor.

While they cheered, in the Dean's study, an old man was talking to Dean Huangfu.

“Dean, you’ve slapped Yin Haoyu in the face this time. Will he be angry from embarrassment?”

“Yin Haoyu’s actions over the years have been getting more and more out of line. Originally, on account of his meritorious service to the Tianyuan Academy, I had turned a blind eye to it. However, he has become more and more impudent. He let the disciplinary department get involved in such a mess. Since the matter has become so big, we can use this opportunity to transfer him away from the disciplinary department.” A crafty look flashed in Dean Huangfu’s eyes, he was like an old fox.

“Dean, if you handle it this way, I’m afraid that Yin Haoyu will hate that little girl, and even Ji Sha might be implicated,” the old man said with some worry.

“That little girl looks like she can take care of herself. It’s not bad to let contend with Yin Haoyu. Watch over her secretly. I see that Old Xiao and Old Jiang seem to be paying more attention to that little girl. Don’t worry, nothing will happen to her.”

The old man nodded. “I heard that that little girl obtained first place in both rounds of the entrance test. In the third round of the test, she even found the core of the array. In the fourth round of the test, she was even more outrageous. She actually managed to obtain more than a hundred jade tokens and even started a business. What a little weirdo.”

“Her Heavenly Thunder Root Spirit was not wiped out by the Tian Dao. Naturally, she has her unique points. Ever since His Excellency and Young Master Wuji graduated from the Tianyuan Academy, there have been no outstanding figures appearing. This Yun Chujiu might be the next heaven’s chosen.”

“Dean, although that little girl is a little strange, she’s only at the first level of the Spirit sect now. Can she reach the level of His Excellency and Young Master Wuji?”

Dean Huangfu smiled. “I can’t say in other aspects, but that little girl is shrewder than those two. Did you notice those knots?”

“What’s wrong with those knots? Aren’t they used for hanging?” The old man shook his head. The scene was so chaotic that he had not paid attention to those knots.

“Those knots are all live knots!”
