

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1042

When fatty heard the laughter of the crowd, he got even angrier. "You brat, you need to be taught a lesson! Just you wait, I won't forgive you!"

"Wu Heng, Don't make any noise during class! Yun Chujiu, wait over there first, don't interrupt our class." A middle-aged instructor saw that the matter was getting out of hand, so he spoke out to stop it.

Seeing that the instructor had stepped in, Yun Chujiu nodded and went to the beast house to wait.

That Fatty, although he gnashed his teeth in anger, he did not dare to disobey the instructor's commands, so he could only go back to paying attention to the class.

After a while, Wu Heng and the others finished their beast taming class. Before Wu Heng left, he fiercely glared at Yun Chujiu a few times, snorted coldly, and left.

Yun Chujiu pursed her lips and took out the token of the Spirit Beast Garden and placed it in the groove outside the bear house. The eight Barbaric Bears inside were then driven to the isolation area nearby.

Yun Chujiu took out a self-made gas mask and put it on. Then, she brought out her tools and began to clean the bear house.

"Ai! I didn't expect that I, Yun Chujiu, would also become a poop-shoveling officer! Damn it, these stinky bears are too unhygienic. This place is so dirty!"

After Yun Chujiu cleaned up the bear house, she took out the dye and divided a few areas on the ground. She then placed her hands on her hips and said to the Barbaric Bears, "Fortunately, you guys are demon beasts with intelligence. Why are you so unhygienic? Haven't you guys always wanted to cultivate the Great Dao and obtain human forms? You guys have to start training now. Have you ever seen a human being as sloppy as you guys? How can you sweep the world if you don't clean up after yourselves? If you can't even do a good job of animal hygiene, how can you talk about the road to immortality?

Hmph! I've already divided up the areas for you. There are drawings on them, and it's clear at a glance. I'll come over the day after tomorrow to check. If you're still not doing what you're supposed to do, I'll go to the other beast houses and publicize your actions, let's see if you'll lose face?"

The eight Barbaric Bears looked at each other. Their eyes were filled with confusion. Where did this little freak come from? What the hell was she talking about?! The bear tribe had always been like this. What the hell was hygiene?!

Yun Chujiu left the bear house. After removing the jade token, the eight Barbaric Bears returned to the bear house.

The bear house was cleaned very thoroughly and the ground was divided into four areas. One of them had a poop pattern drawn on it. That was obviously the defecation area.

The other one had a chicken leg pattern on it indicating it was the dining area

The last one had a moon on it so it should be the place to rest and sleep. The eight Barbaric Bears looked at it and suddenly felt that it was not so bad like that. After all, they were only a few steps away from each other. It was not too troublesome and it was better than being mocked by other demon beasts.

Yun Chujiu was assigned to clean two beast houses in total. Other than the Barbaric Bear's beast house, there was also the Vermillion-beaked Long-feather Crane's beast house.

The Vermillion-beaked Long-feather Crane's beast house was not far from Barbaric Bear's beast house. When Yun Chujiu arrived at the beast house, she saw more than twenty Vermillion-beaked Long-feather Cranes inside. They all had long red beaks, snow-white feathers, and arrogant postures. The Vermillion-beaked Long-feather Crane was known to be a proud creature. However, its habit of excreting anywhere on the ground was not that good. The beast house was very dirty and in a messy state.

Yun Chujiu could not help but wonder if the instructor who arranged the work for her intentionally gave her these tasks. Why were all the beast house she had to clean so dirty?!

Yun Chujiu placed the jade token on the groove outside the beast house. The Vermillion-beaked Long-feather Crane were driven to the isolation area. Yun Chujiu still put on the gas mask and began to clean the beast house.
