

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1053

"Ahem. Shopkeeper Qi, Miss Jiu also did something just a few days ago. She plucked out the tail feathers of more than twenty Vermillion-beaked Long-feather Cranes in the Spirit Beast Garden of Tianyuan Academy!" An Feng forced a smile and said.

"What the hell? Why did she pluck out their tail feathers for no reason?" Shopkeeper Qi felt that his worldview had been severely impacted.

An Feng recounted what had happened in the Spirit Beast Garden. Shopkeeper Qi felt that he was well-rounded and could talk his way out of a lot of situations. However, now that he saw that he could not even reach one-tenth of that little girl's level. She had managed to forcefully push the blame onto someone else and even pretended to be an innocent party!

Moreover, the most important thing was that that little girl was really vengeful. She'd strike back even over the smallest grievance. Shopkeeper Qi thought about those naked Vermillion-beaked Long-feather Cranes and made up his mind. In the future, no matter what he said, he could not offend this little girl. She had too many schemes in her mind. Moreover, she was pure evil! Most importantly, she was good at distorting black and white. She was too much of a freak!

Achoo! Achoo!

Yun Chujiu, who had walked towards Tianyuan Academy, sneezed a few times. She thought that Shopkeeper Qi and An Feng must be whispering about her. These two loose-lipped men!

Just as Yun Chujiu cursed in her heart, she realized that there were people following her from behind.

Yun Chujiu used a small mirror in her sleeve to look behind her. She saw about ten people following her from a distance. Although they were dressed in the same way as pedestrians, it was obvious that their eyes were focused on her. If Yun Chujiu was fast, they would keep up with her, if Yun Chujiu slowed down, they also would slow down.

There was a dense forest not far ahead. They would probably make a move there. Yun Chujiu rolled her eyes and activated a concealment talisman.

The people behind her were instantly dumbfounded!

Where was she?

She was clearly in front of them just now, how could she disappear in such a short while?

A concealment talisman! That wretched girl must have activated a concealment talisman! She did not expect that she would have such a good thing, it must have been given to her by the Palace Mistress.

The leader, Scarface, looked around for fluctuations in spiritual power when he was suddenly staggered, after which, purple lightning bolts struck him one after another.

Scarface did not expect that he would stumble for no reason. Caught off guard, although he managed to avoid the vital parts, he was still struck by Yun Chujiu's lightning strike on his left shoulder.

Scarface let out a miserable cry and directed several wind blades towards the spiritual power fluctuation.

Yun Chujiu had already dodged. Just as she was about to continue her attacks, several black-clothed men suddenly appeared from not far away and started to beat up the ten or so people.

The spiritual power of the men in black was much higher than the ten men that followed her. In less than fifteen minutes, the men who followed her were imprisoned on the spot and were beaten until their faces were swollen.

“Miss Jiu, your subordinate came late. Please forgive me!” After the men in black imprisoned Scarface and the others, they knelt and apologized.

Only then did Yun Chujiu remove the concealment talisman and reveal herself. From the looks of it, these men in black were the Pretty Boy’s subordinates. It had to be said that he was quite good at disciplining his subordinates.

“Bring these people into the forest ahead. I’ll interrogate them.” Yun Chujiu waved her hand to signal for them to stand up. She cursed in her heart, ‘Damn it, if only I had known that the Pretty Boy had sent secret guards to protect me, I wouldn’t have been so cowardly!’

The secret guards of the Hall of Longevity brought Scarface and the others into the forest ahead. Yun Chujiu raised her large kitchen knife and chopped one of them to death. Then, she took out a token from that person’s storage bag. In front of it was a name, on the back was the character “Yin”..
