

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1061

Yun Chujiu did not think so. Back in the Elixir Valley, those demonic beasts had no choice but to listen to her commands. Otherwise, how could she possibly command them?!

It would be different if she had learned the beast taming technique! When the time came, she only needed to lure a group of demonic beasts with the Strange Grass. She could assume direct control of them to fight her enemies. Thinking of such a scene touched her! It was a simple and crude method, the type she liked the most!

Yun Chujiu's eyes sparkled, and Feng Ming and the other two inexplicably shivered. Every time Junior Sister Little Jiu had that expression, she would stare at something or someone. It seems she had picked her next victim!

Instructor Qian continued, "Although the power of the beast taming technique is astonishing, it is not easy to master. Not only do you need to work hard, but you also need to have a certain amount of talent and affinity with demonic beasts. Therefore, if you don't have full confidence in your other abilities, you can use the beast taming technique as a supplementary subject, and then choose another cultivator's five techniques as an elective course."

Yun Chujiu ridiculed him in her heart. Instructor Qian was really honest. After hearing what you said, most of the students here would probably give up.

Sure enough, after they heard what Instructor Qian said, more than half of the students showed hesitation on their faces, Yin Sulian said proudly, "The students of our Tian Class are naturally quite talented. Some of the students from the Huang Class should give up now to avoid wasting everyone's time and resources."

Yun Chujiu frowned and did not say anything. It's just a clown who spoke after all. Sooner or later, she will teach Yin Sulian a lesson.

Seeing that Yun Chujiu had stayed silent, Yin Sulian felt that she felt guilty and did not dare to say anything. The expression on her face became even more smug.

“Because your spiritual power is low now, these Demon Beasts are too difficult for you. So in the future Beast Taming class, you should try to control Demon Beast eggs first.” Instructor Qian glanced at Yin Sulian and snorted in his heart, no matter how talented they were, it was useless when one had an attitude like that. Such students were the definition of stupidity.

“Demon Beast Eggs? Instructor Qian, do these Demon Beast eggs have spiritual intelligence?” A student asked in confusion.

“Demon Beast eggs naturally don’t have spiritual intelligence yet when they are just laid. However, Demon Beast eggs that are about to hatch will have developed some spiritual intelligence. Moreover, they are stronger than newborn baby beasts. They won’t be harmed if you accidentally end up torturing them while you learn. Moreover, it will also strengthen their spiritual sense.” Instructor Qian explained.

Everyone finally understood why Instructor Qian had chosen demonic beast eggs as their training subject. Yun Chujiu scoffed in her heart, ‘Damn, humans really are amazing. These demonic beasts were going to be tortured before it was even born.’

Everyone followed Instructor Qian outside to a courtyard. An instructor who was responsible for guarding the courtyard unlocked it and Instructor Qian led everyone in.

There were several small sheds in the courtyard. Almost every small shed was set up with an array formation. It was basically a spirit gathering array. Occasionally, some sheds were also set up with a formation to control the cold or heat, to simulate the living environment of these Demon Beasts.

Yun Chujiu looked at the eggs of all sizes, and instantly, images of food appeared in her mind. Scrambled eggs, steamed eggs, and preserved eggs...!

She wiped the saliva that had not even flowed at the edge of her mouth and complained in her heart. Why were these Demon Beasts born from eggs instead of embryos? The eggs of those large Demon Beasts were enough for a person to eat for several months!

Instructor Qian brought everyone to the front of a shed, then, he said, "These are the eggs of the Vermillion-beaked Long-feather Crane. Today, I will first teach you how to establish a connection with the spiritual sense of the Demon Beasts. Don't be impatient. Generally speaking, it takes about three months of practice to succeed."
