

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1072

To act more presentable, Yun Chujiu asked for a sick day off and did not go to class.

In the afternoon, the students from the Huang Class all brought gifts to visit Yun Chujiu.

Yun Chujiu “weakly” leaned on the recliner and pretended to decline the gifts before she accepted them anyway. When the Huang Class students left, she immediately jumped down from the reclining chair and opened the gifts one by one.

Feng Ming and the other two were already at their wit's end. Junior Sister Little Jiu's acting skills were already at the pinnacle of perfection. If we did not know that she was completely fine, we would have thought that she was really half dead.

“Tsk tsk, I didn't expect this. I didn't expect that feigning illness was also a way to make a fortune! However, only those from the Huang Class came to visit me. The number of gifts I received is really limited. I will have to think of a way to get everyone to visit me next time, especially the headmaster and instructors. The gifts they give will probably be more valuable.” Yun Chujiu muttered as she opened the gifts.

The corners of Feng Ming and the other two's eyes twitched violently. There was no one else who was that greedy!

After three days of “recuperation”, Yun Chujiu was once again alive and kicking.

Yun Chujiu was escorted to the classroom by the students of the Huang Class. On the way, she met Yin Sulian and the others.

“Yun Chujiu, you jinx! It's all because of you that my fourth grandfather was struck by lightning! You even caused the Dean's courtyard to be destroyed. You still have the gall to stay in Tianyuan Academy? If I were you, I would have quit long ago!” Yin Sulian said disdainfully.

“Get lost! If you were me? Why are you so shameless? Could it be you wish to be like me? With your pig brain, unless you become a person with unparalleled wisdom like me, you’ll be an idiot for the rest of your life. You want to compete with me in words? I’ll torture you to death! I’ll torture you to the point that you won’t be able to take care of yourself!”

Yin Sulian had never met someone who spoke so sarcastically before. She was so angry that she almost fainted. She gritted her teeth and said, “Yun Chujiu! I won’t argue with you. If you can, let’s compete in the materialization of spiritual power! Do you dare to? I bet you don’t. Trash like you and that useless instructor can’t possibly learn the materialization of spiritual power without wasting at least a year!”

“Compete in the materialization of spiritual power huh? How do you want to do this?” Yun Chujiu asked lightly.

“HMPH! It’s very simple. It’s a competition of whose spiritual power after materialization was stronger. Three days later, we would use the materialization of spiritual power to attack the training Spirit Stones. Whoever’s result is better will win! The loser has to kneel on the ground and admit their mistake in front of everyone then pay the winner two million upper-grade Spirit Stones. Do you dare compete with me?”

Yin Sulian was full of confidence. She felt that Yun Chujiu would not dare to accept the challenge. She had already learned how to materialize Spirit Energy even before she joined the academy. Now, she could already condense her spirit energy into a sword. Moreover, the Huang Class’s progress had been delayed by instructor Zhou for more than 20 days. They probably had not even learned the basics, let alone learn how to condense spirit energy into a tangible object.

The Huang Class students also said, “Class monitor, there’s no need to argue with her. Let’s go, it’s almost time for class.”

Whether it was Feng Ming and the other two or the Huang Class students, they all felt that they could not agree with Yin Sulian's challenge. If they did, they would lose without a doubt!

Although ever since Instructor Ji Sha took over, the Huang Class students felt that the spiritual power class was much easier to understand. However, it would still take at least another two to three months before they could materialize their spiritual power. Moreover, it was said that Yin Sulian herself had learned the materialization of spiritual power with her family before she joined the academy. Yun Chujun would lose without a doubt against such an opponent.
