

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1081

Yun Chujiu's mouth stayed wide open as she stared blankly at the grayish-white powder on the ground. Then, she looked at the Three Silly Munchkins who were also in a daze. She pointed at herself and said, "Did it explode just because I said so?"

The Three Silly Munchkins nodded their heads in a daze.

'Oh My God, isn't this too mysterious?!'

'How is this possible?!'

'Didn't they say that items created by beginner-level materialization did not have intelligence? Why did the black-hearted master say that the purple needle would explode on command? Could it be that the purple needle could understand human language?'

To verify, Yun Chujiu took out another stone. After the purple needle shot into the stone, she said, "Explode!"

However, there was nothing unusual about the stone. It did not explode like last time. Could it be a coincidence just now?

Yun Chujiu experimented a few more times and finally found the mystery. It turned out that the small purple needle did not explode because Yun Chujiu said "Explode". Instead, it exploded when Yun Chujiu said "Explode" for the first time, she subconsciously used her spiritual sense to order the small purple needle to explode. That was why the small purple needle detonated.

Yun Chujiu was addicted to her newfound ability. She kept using the small purple needle and then directed it to explode. It was already late at night so when the small purple needles exploded, it looked as beautiful as fireworks.

Little Black Bird secretly thought to itself, 'Damn, this black-hearted master of theirs is a real freak. To think that she could materialize such a perverse thing with a beginner-level materialization technique...' If he had learned a high-level materialization technique, even he might not even be able to materialize such a monstrous creation!

It was not until the second half of the night that Yun Chujiu reluctantly washed up and went to bed. Before she went to bed, the corner of her mouth revealed a wicked smile.

'Yin Sulian, tomorrow will be the most unforgettable day in your life. How dare you provoke me? Hmph! I will torture you to death!'

The next morning happened to be the next day's spiritual power class. Instructor Ji Sha did not receive the news that Yin Sulian had canceled the competition. He looked at Yun Chujiu in confusion and saw that the little girl looked calm and composed as if she was full of confidence.

'Could it be that she had already settled it and the news had yet to reach him?'

After Instructor Ji Sha finished the spiritual power class with a perturbed mood, he quickly called Yun Chujiu over. "Yun Chujiu, you have already asked Yin Sulian to give up the competition?"

Yun Chujiu shook her head. "No, our competition will be held as usual."

"Nonsense! Do you really want to use a needle to compete against her sword?! I'll go find Mo Hanxun Now!" Ji Sha's face darkened. He had thought that Yun Chujiu was smart, but he did not expect her to be so ridiculous.

"Ji Sha, don't worry. I'll defeat Yin Sulian in the competition. I promise!"

Instructor Ji Sha saw that Yun Chujiu was serious. Although he still did not quite believe it, when he thought of the few things that Yun Chujiu had done previously, he inexplicably felt that she told the truth.

Just as Instructor Ji Sha visibly hesitated, Yun Chujiu said again, "Instructor Ji Sha, I will not joke about my future. In four hours, you will see the power of Little Jiu's thunderbolt needle!"

Seeing that Yun Chujiu had said so much, Instructor Ji Sha could only let her be.

When it was still an hour away from midnight, the Tianyuan Academy's competition stage was surrounded by students, and there were even quite a number of instructors present.

Although the competition between the two first-year students was not interesting, one of them was Yun Chujiu, which immediately attracted everyone's interest. That was because Yun Chujiu was really audacious, not only did she gang up on the seniors, but she also ran to the entrance of the disciplinary department to attempt to hang herself. It was unknown if she would really kneel and admit her mistake if she lost to Yin Sulian this time, or what kind of evil scheme she would take.

Alright, in the hearts of these people, Yun Chujiu was definitely going to lose!
