

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1092

“Yun Chujiu, I heard that you have cleaned the beast house before. It just so happens that I need to clean this place as well. You stay and help me clean. Don't worry, your efforts won't be for nothing. I will reward you with 100 contribution points.”

‘100 contribution points?’

Yun Chujiu's eyes immediately lit up. ‘The Tianyuan Academy's library required one to amass a certain amount of contribution points to be able to enter, and the channels for first-year students to obtain contribution points were limited. If I could obtain 100 contribution points, I could enter the library as many times as I wanted. It was worth it! Since I have nothing to do anyway, let's do it!’

Yun Chujiu thought about it and nodded happily. After greeting Feng Ming and the other two, she put on the self-made gas mask, took the cleaning tools prepared by Instructor Bai, and started to clean the shed of the Demon Beast Eggs.

While Yun Chujiu was cleaned earnestly, suddenly, several Demon Beast Eggs broke through the array formation and rushed toward Yun Chujiu...

Yun Chujiu was in a dilemma. Although those Demon Beast Eggs had not hatched yet, if so many Demon Beast Eggs hit her, she would either die or be injured.

However, if she used her spiritual power to attack them, their shells would be broken. If the shells of the Demon Beast Eggs were broken, they would die without a doubt, and then she would inevitably be punished.

The entire thought process happened in a flash. Yun Chujiu quickly made a decision, and that was to run!

Yun Chujiu rushed out of the courtyard gate and ran all the way. As she ran, she cursed at the Strange Grass, "F*ck! Strange Grass! Did you do this?! Stop right now!"

The Strange Grass trembled innocently.

'What the F*ck, it wasn't it?!

'It wasn't caused by the Strange Grass?'

Yun Chujiu quickly thought of something. The original Instructor Du was replaced by Instructor Bai, and he even took the initiative to ask her to help clean up. Previously, Wu Heng had even said some harsh words. Could it be a trap?! It must be so, otherwise, how would the array formation of the Demon Beast Eggs fail so easily?!

Either she was seriously injured by the Demon Beast Eggs, or she destroyed them. Either outcome was unfavorable for her.

'F*ck, damn you Wu Heng, just you wait, I won't let you off!'

Although several thoughts flashed through Yun Chujiu's mind, she kept running and soon rushed out of the Spirit Beast Garden.

The passing students and instructors were all dumbfounded!

'F*ck!'

'What was going on?'

They saw Yun Chujiu as she ran ahead, followed closely by a large group of Demon Beast Eggs. The small ones were only the size of a fist while the big ones were even bigger than Yun Chujiu. Not only were there white ones, but there were also red, yellow, and green ones...

Yun Chujiu shouted as she ran, "Get out of the way! Get out of the way! Quickly get out of the way! These Demon Beast Eggs are crazy! Quickly help me send a message to Instructor Qian, there will definitely be a reward!"

Everyone looked at each other. Damn it, this was the first time they had seen such a spectacle. What was going on?! Why did the Demon Beast Eggs chase Yun Chujiu?

Was that not a really crazy situation?!

No, even if the eggs were crazy, they would have attacked everyone so why did they go after Yun Chujiu?

What Yun Chujiu did not know was that Instructor Bai was also dumbfounded!

He had indeed received Instructor Wu's order to deal with Yun Chujiu. He secretly sprinkled some beast-luring incense on the tools that were attractive to the Demon Beasts, and also tweaked the array formation. That way, Yun Chujiu would either be killed by the Demon Beast Eggs, or she would be in big trouble.

However, he did not expect Yun Chujiu to react so quickly. She had rushed out of the courtyard so quickly that he did not even have time to make his move.. What was even more unexpected was that those Demon Beast Eggs had flown out after her...
