

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1099

Yun Chujiu initially went to the library to find inspiration. However, after she read the various books, she grew addicted. She felt that the beast taming technique was even more interesting than she thought. It was not too late for her to get to learn more!

Time passed quickly. Yun Chujiu read and read until the next morning. It was not until Little Black Bird urged her that she regained his senses.

“These books are really interesting. I’ll ask Instructor Ji Sha for a leave of absence. I’ll continue reading today instead of attending class.” After saying that, Yun Chujiu took out her identity jade token and asked Instructor Ji Sha for permission to take a leave of absence. She then picked up another book and began to read once more.

Another day passed, and it was already the night of the next day, Little Black Bird said anxiously, “Master, the time for the competition is two o’clock tomorrow. Did you find any good ideas? If not, we have to go and beat them up soon.”

“No hurry, no hurry. I’ll keep looking. If it doesn’t work out, I’ll act like a scoundrel. Anyway, Heavenly Lightning can’t kill me. I don’t have any other talents except my thick skin,” Yun Chujiu said indifferently.

Little Black Bird was speechless. Are these books that good?! As for making you lose your face?!

It was not until the next morning that Yun Chujiu stretched lazily and yawned, “It’s almost late. I can only come again when I have time. The ancients had not deceived me. As expected, the books were a goldmine of knowledge.”

“Master, don’t think about that nonsense. Have you found any inspiration?” Little Black Bird felt that when he had been worried for his unimportant master, he had completely forgotten how unwilling he was to acknowledge her as his master back then.

“Reading the books was not for nothing. I have read so many beast taming books and come to a conclusion. In fact, the so-called beast taming technique is to force a spirit beast to acknowledge its master temporarily. Therefore, the beast taming technique can only be used to control Demon Beasts with lower spiritual power than oneself.”

“Master, although I think what you said makes sense, what does your conclusion have to do with the competition? It’s almost time, what do you plan to do?”

“Of course it has to do with me. Although I still can’t establish a spiritual connection with the Demon Beasts, I can trick them. I don’t believe that those Demon Beasts will cover their ears and not listen to me. As long as they are willing to listen, I have a way to trick them. I’ll go to the canteen for breakfast first, and then go to the Beast Taming Field in the Spirit Beast Garden.”

Little Black Bird listened to Yun Chujiu’s words and was dumbfounded. ‘Master, since you are going to trick them anyway, then why are you still learning the Beast Taming Technique?! What are you playing at?!’

Little Black Bird had misunderstood Yun Chujiu. Yun Chujiu meant to bluff the Demon Beast first and then use the beast taming technique to control it. That would increase the chances of controlling the Demon Beast.

Yun Chujiu hopped to the teleportation array. A white light flashed, and she disappeared.

At the time, a dry old man appeared out of thin air on the fourth floor of the library, looking at Yun Chujiu’s back, he muttered, “Was that little girl reading or just flipping through books? Can she remember everything just by flipping through it? The books she read seem to be all about beast taming. Could it be that she wants to become a beast taming master? A beast taming master with a Heavenly Thunder Root Spirit is worth looking forward to.”

At the Tianyuan Academy, Beast Taming Field...

At that moment, the beast taming field was filled with noise. Only during the semester assessment or the Academy's Celebration would the Beast Taming Field be opened to the public. However, to make Yun Chujiu even more embarrassed, Wu Heng allowed Instructor Wu to make an exception and open the beast taming field to the public. Students who had free time poured in to watch the commotion..
