

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1101

Yun Chujiu and the other three finally arrived at the beast taming ground at the last minute. Yun Chujiu smiled and nodded at everyone. "Everyone is here early! I ate fish for breakfast and it was a little slow so I came a little late. Sorry for making everyone wait!"

Everyone's faces stiffened.

'Are you a f*cking cat?! Why are you eating fish so early in the morning?!'

'Also, you're really big-hearted. Every time you compete, you either oversleep or eat fish because you're afraid of getting bones stuck in your throat. Is it really good for you to disrespect your opponent so much?!'

Yun Chujiu slowly walked up to the high platform and bowed to Instructor Qian. Then, she said to Wu Heng, "How do we compete? Where are the Demon Beasts?"

Wu Heng curled his lips. "We're using level 16 Barbaric Bears in this competition. They're all in the cages at the back. We'll each choose one and then make them fight. Whichever side's bear wins is the victor."

Yun Chujiu looked in the direction Wu Heng pointed. Indeed, there was a huge cage in the corner of the open space below. There were eight Barbaric Bears in it, and there was a huge cage next to it. It was covered with a black cloth, she did not know what kind of Demon Beast was in it.

Yun Chujiu inexplicably sympathized with those Barbaric Bears. Being locked in a small cage and being slaughtered by others was really against the nature of those Demon Beasts.

However, Wu Heng clearly did not manage to control the Barbaric Bears previously, so why did he suggest using them? Could it be that he had done something?

“Yun Chujiu, the beast taming ground below is very dangerous. I advise you to admit defeat right now and kneel to admit your mistake. Otherwise, if something happened to you, it would be too late to regret it.” said Wu Heng with eyes full of malice.

“Admit defeat? I never knew learned to write those words! I would like to advise you instead. You look quite similar to those violent wild bears. If the violent wild bears hurt you by accident, you will have nowhere to cry.” Yun Chujiu said with a smile.

The onlookers immediately burst into laughter. Damn it, we are willing to just listen to Yun Chujiu’s scolding. Her words were always so fresh that it was never repeated.

Wu Heng was so angry that his face turned red and his neck turned thick with veins. He gritted his teeth and said, “Humph, you sharp-tongued brat! You will suffer in a while! Instructor Qian, open the array. Let’s go in and begin our competition.”

Instructor Qian looked at Yun Chujiu with a questioning look in his eyes. Yun Chujiu said with a smile, “Instructor Qian, since the time is up, please open the array. I just happen to need some practice with the beast taming technique that I just learned.”

Instructor Qian and everyone were stunned. Could it be that Yun Chujiu had learned the beast taming technique? Did she manage to learn it in three days? To be exact, she learned the beast taming technique in two and a half days. Was that possible?

Wu Heng sneered in his heart. ‘Keep bragging! It was impossible to learn the beast taming technique in three days. I heard that three days ago, you couldn’t establish a spiritual connection with the Demon Beast Egg. How could you learn the beast taming technique now? It must be a bluff. Moreover, even if you managed to learn the beast taming technique, you would either die or be injured today.’

Instructor Qian opened the array. Yun Chujiu and Wu Heng followed the ladder down to the clearing.

The two of them walked to the cage holding the Barbaric Bears. The instructor that guarded the cage was Instructor Bai. When he saw the two of them walking over, a cold light flashed in his eyes. Last time, he did not succeed, this time, he had to get rid of Yun Chujiu no matter what.

Wu Heng looked at Yun Chujiu with disdain. "Your spiritual power is low. You can choose first!"

Yun Chujiu's eyes rolled around. She looked at the eight Barbaric Bears and pointed with her finger. "That one!"

Wu Heng and Instructor Bai looked at the one that Yun Chujiu pointed at and were stunned.. Why would she choose that one?
