

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1106

Although the spectators were all shocked, they were not too worried.

The instructors in the Spirit Beast Park were different from the instructors in charge of their classes. Their spiritual power was much lower, and they were all at the level of a spirit saint. Although Instructor Bai was only at the sixth level of the spirit saint realm, it was not a problem for him to deal with six Barbaric Bears.

Unexpectedly, several angry roars came from the cage covered with a black cloth. Six twenty-first level Blazing Hurricane Tigers rushed out from the cage.

“Oh my God! Level 21 is equivalent to the third level of the Spirit Saint Realm! Even Instructor Bai can't deal with so many Blazing Hurricane Tigers!”

“There are six Barbaric Bears as well. Ah, no, there are eight. Those two might also turn violent.”

“Instructor Qian, open the array quickly. Let's hurry down and save them!”

Instructor Qian's forehead was covered in sweat. He wanted to open the array formation separating the field from the spectators but when the Barbaric Bears rushed out, he realized that the array formation could not be opened!

“What's going on?! Quick! Someone! Quickly turn off the array formation! Saving her is more important!” Instructor Wu shouted anxiously, but he sneered in his heart. A little girl dared to fight with him?! Even if he killed her today, Instructor Bai would be the one charged with negligence. Deputy Dean Yin would not receive too severe a punishment after it was over. The worst-case scenario would be that he would be fired. When the time came, he would just continue to help the Yin family.

The stands were in complete chaos. The Beast Taming Field's array formation was to prevent Demon Beasts from hurting people, so the level of the array formation was quite high. The fastest way was to turn off the formation disk. However, would Yun Chujiu and the others be able to hold on until then?

The crowd also discovered one thing, and that was that regardless of whether it was the Barbaric Bears or the Blazing Hurricane Tiger, they all rushed towards Yun Chujiu. They completely ignored Instructor Bai and Wu Heng who stood on the other side.

Yun Chujiu sneered in her heart. 'So this was their move. Their methods were so clumsy. Were they prepared to give up on Instructor Bai as a chess piece? If that were true, it was worth it for them to sacrifice her for their revenge!'

Damn it! It was not that easy to take Yun Chujiu's life! As a last resort, she could still use the concealment talisman and sudden rupture talisman given to her by the Pretty Boy. However, she did not want to reveal her trump card yet. She would try other methods first. If that did not work, she would activate the concealment talisman again.

Yun Chujiu thought of that and ran towards Instructor Bai and the others. "Heavens, the demon beasts have gone crazy! Instructor Bai, save us!"

Instructor Bai's lips curled into a cold smile. Save us? If it was not for the fact that I was afraid of being too explicit, I would have slapped you to death. There's no way I can save you!

Instructor Bai gave Wu Heng a look, and Wu Heng let out a blood-curdling scream as he fell onto Instructor Bai's body, Instructor Bai said anxiously, "Yun Chujiu, Wu Heng has fainted. I'll bring him to a safe place first. You hold on for a while, someone will save us soon!"

Instructor Bai wanted to carry Wu Heng away after saying that, but he did not expect Yun Chujiu to run after him like a stalker, she even shouted, "Instructor Bai, I'm only at the first level of the spirit sect, how can I hold off these Demon Beasts? I'll carry senior Wu Heng, you fight off the Demon Beasts! As an instructor, don't tell me you want to sacrifice your student to save your own life?!"

Instructor Bai was so angry that his teeth were itched. This Yun Chujiu was too crafty!

Those Demon Beasts did not care about human affairs. Seeing Yun Chujiu hide behind Instructor Bai, they threw a few wind blades at Instructor Bai.

Instructor Bai was so angry that he rolled his eyes.

'You idiots, that little girl is your target. Why are you attacking me?!'
