

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1108

Six Hurricane Tigers roared a few times as they showed their impatience at Yun Chujiu.

“My Lords, since I’m going to die anyway, I’ll speak frankly! It’ll be difficult for you to achieve Great Dao if you don’t let me finish! But once I’m done talking, you can eat me!” Yun Chujiu’s small body straightened. She had her eyes closed and seemed ready to accept her fate. In fact, in her left hand, she held a concealment amulet while her right hand held a burst amulet. If the Tigers took another step, she would attack first.

The six Hurricane Flaming Tigers stopped in their tracks. They were most concerned about cultivating the Great Dao. When they heard what Yun Chujiu said, how could they let it go? They roared angrily and wanted Yun Chujiu to continue. The Hurricane Flaming Tiger and Yun Chujiu looked at each other then they asked, “What is the Great Dao?”.

“What is the Great Dao? The Great Dao has its own principles and follows its own nature. What is the nature of tigers? It is to live a noble and unrestrained life, but what about you now? You have become a tool used by others to gang up on a weakling like me. Where is your nobility? Where is your unrestrained nature? You have already lost the most basic principles of the Great Dao. How are you going to cultivate the Great Dao in your current state?”

Yun Chujiu spewed nonsense through her nose and eyes. However, she spoke about the heart of these Blazing Hurricane Tigers. Any Demon Beast would not be willing to be kept in captivity, let alone a twenty-first level Blazing Hurricane Tiger. They are violent, undisciplined, and have never been tamed, which is why they were trapped in cages and covered with black cloth.

Yun Chujiu decided to strike while the iron was hot, she said in a low voice, “The person who controlled you is a bastard. Now you have a chance to take revenge on him. You guys take the initiative to establish a connection with me. I’ll help you cut off his spiritual sense. If so many spiritual senses are cut off at once, his spiritual sense will definitely be damaged. He won’t be able to recover without a year or so of rest. When the time comes, I’ll think of a way to help you regain your freedom. How about it? Do you dare to do it?”

Yun Chujiu also intentionally worded her question provocatively. She did not ask “Do you agree” but “Do you dare to do it?” Those Blazing Hurricane Tiger could not bear to be provoked, so they immediately nodded their huge heads. “Roar!”

Yun Chujiu thought to herself, after all, Demon Beasts were Demon Beasts. Did they not think that her spiritual sense might not be as strong as the person who controlled them? However, that was also what was charming about Demon Beasts. They were really easy to fool!

However, Yun Chujiu had not lied to them. She intended to cut off the spiritual sense of the person behind the scenes. She had confidence in her spiritual sense. She was not even afraid of the weapon spirits of thousands of spirit tools. How could she be afraid of this?

The six Blazing Hurricane Tigers took the initiative to establish a spiritual sense connection with Yun Chujiu. Yun Chujiu did not hesitate and immediately cut off all the spiritual sense imprints in their spiritual senses like she was cutting melons and vegetables. She also did the same thing and wiped out all six of the Barbaric Bears’ psychic imprints.

Instructor Bai fainted on the ground, but Yun Chujiu frowned. That’s not right. Why did he not react when she cut off the Blazing Hurricane Tigers’ spiritual imprints just now? Could it be that only six Barbaric Bears were under his control? Who controlled the Blazing Hurricane Tigers then?

“Kittens, who was controlling you?” Yun Chujiu changed her face faster than flipping a book. When she had not established a spiritual connection with the Blazing Hurricane Tigers earlier, she called them Sir Tiger. Now, they had become kittens.

Although the six Blazing Hurricane Tigers wanted to kill her, they were now under her control. They could only respond obediently, “We have never seen the person who controlled us so don’t know who did it.”

Yun Chujiu frowned. There was a range limit when one controlled Demon Beasts. The person who controlled the Hurricane Flaming Tigers was at least an intermediate Beast Tamer. Moreover, that person must be in the stands.. Who could it be?
